CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Provided this policy is not assigned, the insured may at any time and from time to time during its continuance, change the beneficiary, to take effect when such change and the written consent of the company thereto are endorsed on this policy, at the home office of the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured.

LOAN.—After the payment of three full annual premiums hereon, the company will, upon written request, loan upon the sole security of this policy up to the amount stated in the cash or loan column of the table endorsed hereon for the end of the year for which complete annual premiums have been paid, with interest in advance.

to the end of the current policy year at the rate of five (5) per cent per annum; Provided: (1) That this policy be duly assigned to the company as collateral security for such loan; (2) That the amount of loan available shall include any previous loan or other unpaid indebtedness; (3) That the premiums must be fully paid to the end of the current policy year; (4) Failure to repay such loan or interest thereon shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such default nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignees, if any.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—If any premium due hereon be not paid before the expiration of the grace for payment of same, it shall be charged against the policy as a loan, with interest in advance at five per cent per annum, provided the loan value, as stated herein, at the due date of the premium, less any existing loan or other indebtedness with accrued interest, shall be at least equal to the amount of said premium and interest. If the loan value of balance hereof shall not be sufficient to pay the entire premium due and interest, then it shall be used, if sufficient, to pay the premium for a shorter period, but not less than an entire quarterly premium, and if not sufficient to pay a quarterly premium, this policy shall cease to be in force, and any excess of the cash value hereon over the indebtedness shall be paid in cash on surrender of this policy. This provision is automatic and will be carried out by the company without any action on the part of the insured. Any indebtedness thus created shall constitute a first charge against the policy in priority to the claim of any beneficiary or assignee; and at any time while the policy is thus maintained in force the insured may, without medical examination, resume payment of premiums and continue the policy in force.

GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION.—This contract is issued on the guaranteed premium reduction plan, and if kept in force by payment of premiums in cash, the company guarantees that the reduction of the premiums shall be the amounts as shown by the coupons hereto attached.

GUARANTEED ADDITIONAL PAID-UP VALUES.—Provided the insured shall pay all premiums in cash, without reduction, and shall deliver to the company, without further consideration, all the coupons hereto attached, the company guarantees that in fifteen years this contract shall become fully paid up for an amount not less than its face value. And it is further provided that if the insured pays all premiums in cash, without reduction, retaining all due coupons to accumulate, and should die while said coupons are so retained, the company will pay, in addition to the face value, the amount of any coupons past due and unpaid shall be payable with the face of this policy.

GUARANTEED ADDITIONAL ACCUMULATIONS.—Provided the insured shall retain the coupons which are attached to this contract, said coupons shall be payable at any time after maturity, upon presentation at the home office of the company, and shall be increased with interest at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum, compounded annually, for each full year such coupons are retained by the insured after their respective maturities.

If this policy be continued in force beyond the twentieth year, a table of cash surrender and loan values, as above, after the twentieth year, will be furnished on application to the home office.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

(1) Premiums are due and payable annually in advance, but after the first year may be paid semi-annually or quarterly, at the home office of the company, or may be paid by an agent of the company upon delivery of receipts signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agent. If any premium, cash loan or interest thereon be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and all premiums forfeited to the company except as herein provided. (2) Proof of death and of the interest of the claimant must be furnished to the company at its home office not later than three years after the death of the insured, on the company's blanks furnished for that purpose, which proofs shall comprise satisfactory statements establishing the claim. (3) In case of death from service in war without permission from the company, the full reserve for this policy at the time of such death only will be paid. (4) Any indebtedness to the company, including any balance of premium for the insurance year remaining unpaid, will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or any benefit thereunder. (5) This policy may be assigned upon written approval of the president or secretary, but the company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment. (6) Only the president, vice-president or secretary is empowered on behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, to extend the time of paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any agent or person other than the above. (7) All statements made by the insured in the application hereof shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. (8) If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be that which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured. (9) This policy and its application therefor, copy of which is hereto attached, constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. (10) Suicide, sane or insane, within one year from the date this policy is a risk not assumed by this contract, but in such case the company will return the premiums actually paid hereon.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1,000 of said net sum. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments, payable at the beginning of each year, for a fixed period of twenty years, and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each $1,000 of said net sum. Instalments payable under options (1) or (2) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the payee shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee. If the insured shall not have directed otherwise, the beneficiary may, after the death of the insured, by like written notice, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, select either of the above options. Unless otherwise specified by the insured, the payee may at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option (1) in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under option (2) except after death of the payee occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION.—This contract is issued on the guaranteed premium reduction plan, and if kept in force by payment of premiums in cash, the company guarantees that the reduction of the premiums shall be the amounts as shown by the coupons hereto attached.

GUARANTEED ADDITIONAL PAID-UP VALUES.—Provided the insured shall pay all premiums in cash, without reduction, and shall deliver to the company, without further consideration, all the coupons hereto attached, the company guarantees that in fifteen years this contract shall become fully paid up for an amount not less than its face value. And it is further provided that if the insured pays all premiums in cash, without reduction, retaining all due coupons to accumulate, and should die while said coupons are so retained, the company will pay, in addition to the face value, the amount of any coupons past due and unpaid shall be payable with the face of this policy.

GUARANTEED ADDITIONAL ACCUMULATIONS.—Provided the insured shall retain the coupons which are attached to this contract, said coupons shall be payable at any time after maturity, upon presentation at the home office of the company, and shall be increased with interest at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum, compounded annually, for each full year such coupons are retained by the insured after their respective maturities.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $297.60. AGE, 35.

The Life Insurance Company of Virginia in consideration of the application for this policy, which is hereby made a part of this contract, a copy of which application is endorsed hereon, agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, (subject to the right of the insured, if reserved in said application, to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided on the second page hereof) immediately upon acceptance at its home office of satisfactory proofs of the death of John Doe, of Richmond, in the county of Henrico and State of Virginia, herein designated the insured, during the continuance of this policy, subject, however, to the following conditions and the provisions, guarantees and benefits, stated on the following pages hereof, which latter are hereby referred to and made a part of this contract. The annual premium of two hundred ninety-seven dollars and sixty cents, shall be paid in advance on the delivery of this policy, and a like amount shall be paid to the company at its home office, in the city of Richmond, Va., on the tenth day of August, 1910, and annually thereafter during the continuance of this contract, until premiums for twenty full years shall have been duly paid to said company.

In witness whereof, the said Life Insurance Company of Virginia has by its president or one of the vice-presidents, and by its secretary or assistant secretary, or actuary, executed this contract at Richmond, Va., this tenth day of August, 1909.

PROVISIONS, GUARANTEES AND BENEFITS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium is paid, nor unless on the date of said payment the insured is alive and in sound health, and when this contract is completed by its delivery and by the payment of the first premium, it shall be construed as having been in force from the date of its execution as stated on the first page hereof. Each premium is due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, in the city of Richmond; but, at the pleasure of the company, will be accepted elsewhere when duly paid in exchange for the company's receipt signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the local agent designated therein. That part of the policy-year's premium, if any, which is not yet due and is unpaid at the maturity of this contract, and any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. If any premium be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and shall become lapsed as of the date to which premiums have been paid, and all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company except as herein provided.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of one month (not less than thirty days) without interest, during which time the policy will remain in full force, will be allowed in the payment of any premium, except the first.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse for the non-payment of premium and shall not be surrendered for its cash surrender value, it may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all overdue premiums with interest, at the rate of five per cent per annum, together with the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness to the company upon this policy with accumulated interest.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premiums.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, the insured may at any time, while this policy is in force, by written notice to the company at its home office change the beneficiary or beneficiaries under this policy, subject to any previous assignment; such change to take effect only upon endorsement of the same on this policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease.

SPECIAL BENEFIT.—If, during the premium-paying period of this policy, the death of the insured shall result from violent external injuries not caused by the insured, whether sane or insane, and not from disease, internal trouble or weakness, the inhalation of a gas, or the taking or absorbing of a poison, or from war or riot, payment of premiums having been continued until said death, the company will pay, in addition to the amount insured hereunder, a sum equal to fifty per cent of the total premiums received by the company under this policy, provided said death shall take place within five days after the occurrence of the cause of the death, and proof of such death, satisfactory to the company, shall be presented at the home office of the company within one month after said death. Should such proof not be presented within said period, the company shall be absolved from any liability under this special benefit provision.

INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGE.—The amount insured under this policy is payable in one sum, if the amount payable be not less than $1000, it may, at the option of the beneficiary, be otherwise directed by the insured in writing, filed with the company at its home office, be made payable in instalments under one of the following options:
First.—In equal annual instalments in any number from two to twenty-five, in accordance with the following table:

INSTALLMENTS—FROM TWO TO TWENTY-FIVE.

Number of instalments..	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13

Second.—In equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, and one year for the payment of the last instalment the further payment of a single sum equal in amount to the sum of the instalments, in accordance with the following table, for each 1000 of the sum insured under this policy: Ten instalments of $63.69 and the further sum of $536.90. Fifteen instalments of $47.28 and the further sum of $709.20. Twenty instalments of $39.37 and the further sum of $787.40.

Third.—To the beneficiary, if such beneficiary be one natural person, in equal annual instalments to continue for twenty years and so long thereafter as the beneficiary shall live, in accordance with the following table:

The amount of such instalments shall be based upon the amount insured under this policy, and the first instalment shall be payable at the same time that the original amount would have been payable under this policy and subsequent instalments shall be payable on the succeeding anniversaries thereafter. Unless otherwise directed by the insured in writing, the commuted value of any unpaid instalments, will be calculated by the company at any time at the rate of three and one-half per cent compound interest and will be paid to the owner or owners of the policy upon surrender and proper release of same. The beneficiary shall die before twenty instalments be paid, the remaining instalments, if any, will be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

NOTE.—At the request of the beneficiary, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the insured, the company will make the instalments in semi-annual, quarterly or monthly payments instead of annual, as above provided. Figures for such payments will be furnished upon request.

ENTIRE CONTRACT CONTAINED IN THIS POLICY.—This policy (together with the copy of the application endorsed hereon), contains the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy or be held as a defence to a claim thereunder, unless it be contained in the application for the policy.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate on forms furnished by the company and both sent to its home office. One copy will be returned to the company's acknowledgment endorsed thereon which shall be the only admissible evidence of compliance therewith. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment, and any claim thereunder shall be subject to proof of interest.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—Agents are authorized to receive and forward applications for insurance, but only the president, a vice-president, secretary, asst. secretary, or actuary, has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter made, unless made in writing by one of the said officers.

LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid, and while this policy is in force, the company will advance to the insured as a loan on this policy upon proper assignment and on the sole security hereof, an amount not exceeding the loan value of this policy at the end of the then current policy year, as shown in the table of loans and surrender values below. From such loan value will be deducted interest to the end of said policy year, together with any unpaid portion of the premium for said year and any existing indebtedness on account of this policy. Interest on the loan will be at the rate of five per cent per annum. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy, unless the total indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall equal or exceed the cash surrender value at the time of said failure, nor until one month (not less than thirty days) after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and to the assignee of record at the home office of the company, if any.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

If this policy shall lapse for the non-payment of any premium, after premiums and all notes given for the same have been paid for at least three full years of insurance and there is no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the company will grant one of the following options:

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—The company, without any action on the part of the insured, will carry the face amount of this policy as non-participating extended insurance from the date to which premiums have been paid for the term shown in the extended insurance column in the table of surrender values, opposite the number of full years for which premiums have been paid; or,

PAID-UP LIFE POLICY.—The company, on written request by the insured, with surrender of this policy within three months from the date of lapse, will issue in lieu hereof a non-participating paid-up life policy for the amount shown in the paid-up policy column in said table, opposite the number of full years for which premiums have been paid, such paid-up life policy to be paid in the same manner as the amount under this policy would have become payable, had it been continued in force; or,

CASH SURRENDER VALUES.—If this policy is legally surrendered to the company within three months from the date of lapse, the company will, on written request by the insured and upon surrender of this policy, give in lieu of extended insurance or a paid-up life policy a cash value as fixed in said table. In case there is any indebtedness on account of this policy, the insurance payable under the extended insurance option shall be the face amount of this policy, less the amount of such indebtedness, and the term for which such insurance shall be extended shall be for such time as the cash surrender value of this policy herein specified, after deducting such indebtedness, will carry the modified amount according to the table of net single premiums for term insurance, computed by the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest; the insurance payable under the paid-up life policy shall be reduced in the same proportion as such indebtedness bears to the cash surrender value. If a cash surrender value is chosen, the said indebtedness, if any, shall be deducted from the cash value that might otherwise be claimable, and the balance paid in cash.

* Adopted July, 1912.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Lincoln National Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DISABILITY BENEFITS—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS. (MATURING AS ENDOWMENT AT AGE 85.)

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $363.10. AGE, 35.

The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company of Fort Wayne Ind., agrees to pay at its home office ten thousand dollars, and in addition thereto any existing dividend accumulations upon receipt at the said office of due proofs of the interest of the claimant and of the death of Abraham Lincoln, hereinafter called the insured, to Nancy Hanks Lincoln, his mother, beneficiary, if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, deducting therefrom any indebtedness on or secured by this policy and any unpaid premium for the then current policy year. Or the company will pay the said sum to the insured, if living, at the end of the policy year nearest to age eighty-five.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment of three hundred sixty-three and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and the annual payment of a like sum to the said company on or before the first day of every July thereafter until premiums for twenty full years from the date hereof shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

ANNUAL PARTICIPATION IN PROFITS.—During the continuance of this policy by the payment of premium or as a fully paid-up policy, it shall be credited with its full share of surplus as apportioned by the board of directors at the end of two years from the date hereof and annually thereafter.

The benefits of the guaranteed loan and non-forfeiture provisions and the automatic premium loan privilege, together with the other benefits, privileges and provisions set forth in the following pages of this policy, are made a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, the Lincoln National Life Insurance Company has caused this contract to be signed this first day of July, 1915.

GUARANTEED AUTOMATIC LOAN AND NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.

ONE MONTH OF GRACE.—One month of grace (not less than thirty days) without interest charge shall be allowed in the payment of any premium after the first, during which time this policy shall remain in force.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS.—This policy shall not lapse or become forfeited by reason of the non-payment of the premium within the month of grace allowed herein, provided the cash surrender value of the policy and of any dividend addition thereon less any indebtedness on or secured by this policy is equal to or greater than the premium then due and unpaid. In such event the company will treat the premium then due as paid, and the amount of such premium (with interest as hereinafter provided) shall become a first lien upon the policy in the company's favor in priority to the claims of any assignee or of any other person. If the net available cash surrender value be less than the premium that is due, the company will continue this insurance in force until such value is exhausted (that is, for a period which bears the same ratio to the full premium period then ensuing as such net value bears to the premium then due) and if prior to the expiration of such reduced period the last due premium be not paid in full, all liability of the company on this policy shall thereupon terminate subject to notice as hereinafter provided. While this policy is thus sustained in force the payment of premiums may be resumed without medical examination and the accumulated loans may be paid off or allowed to stand as a lien against the policy. These automatic premium loans shall bear interest at six per cent per annum from the dates the respective premiums loaned become due and shall be compounded yearly on the thirty-first day of December in each year, if unpaid. The automatic premium loan privilege is granted at the request of the insured in his application for this insurance, or upon a written request made subsequently, but may be revoked at any time upon written notice to the company at its home office.

POLICY LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid upon this policy, if no premium payment is in default, the company will lend on proper assignment and delivery of this policy and on the sole security thereof a sum not exceeding the cash value stated in the table less any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year; provided interest at six per cent per annum on the whole amount of the loan is paid in advance to the end of the current policy year. Interest at the same rate will be due and payable annually in advance thereafter, and if not so paid will be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest. Failure to pay any such loan or interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness shall equal or exceed the full amount available hereunder and in no event until thirty days after notice thereof shall have been mailed to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignee, if any.

CASH VALUE.—The cash value stated in the table, which is not less than the sum otherwise available for the purchase of paid-up or extended insurance, will be paid to the insured upon due surrender of this policy to the company at any time within one month after default in payment of premium. The company shall have the right in a time of general depression and in order to conserve the interests of all its policyholders to defer payment of the cash value, or the making of the loan (unless for the purpose of paying renewal premiums on policies in this company) for a period not exceeding six months.

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If the insured has not made a request for the automatic premium loan privilege, or has made such request and revoked it in writing duly acknowledged by the company, and if there be any default in the payment of premium after three full years' premiums shall have been paid, in such event the insurance hereunder shall from the due date of such premium automatically continue as term insurance for the period stipulated in the table of guaranteed loan and surrender values.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—A paid-up endowment policy payable at the same time and upon the same conditions as this policy for the amount stated in the table of guaranteed loan and surrender values will be issued upon due surrender of this policy to the company within one month after default in payment of premium.

TABLE OF GUARANTEED LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.—Dividend accumulations, paid-up additions or the payment of any portion of a year's premium over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated will increase the values shown in this table. Any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy will be deducted from the cash value of this policy and will reduce proportionately the amount of paid-up insurance and the extended insurance shall be for the face value of the policy less the indebtedness and for such period as the net cash value of the option less the indebtedness will purchase. If the sum applicable to the purchase of extended insurance shall be more than sufficient to continue the insurance to the end of the policy year nearest to age eighty-five, the excess shall be used to purchase in the same manner a paid-up pure endowment payable to the insured, if living, at the end of the policy year nearest to age eighty-five.

The reserve under this policy shall be computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one half per cent interest, and the values shown in this table are equivalent to the full reserve on the policy less a sum not more than two and one half per cent of the amount insured. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year; and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana. Cash and loan values for years subsequent to the twentieth will be the full reserve computed upon the above basis.

DIVIDEND OPTIONS.—Dividends, at the option of the owner of this policy, may be (1) taken annually in cash or applied toward reduction of the premium for the then current policy year; or, (2) used to purchase non-forfeitable, participating, paid-up additions to the policy; or, (3) allowed to accumulate at the rate of three and one-half per cent compound interest for any number of years during the continuance of the policy. If no other selection is made within one month from the due date of premium payment this option shall automatically apply. Accumulated dividends are non-forfeitable, are withdrawable in cash at any time; are payable in addition to the face of the policy in case of death of the insured, and increase the value of the policy over the amounts stated in the above table. (4) Used to shorten the premium-paying period as follows: Whenever at the expiration of any policy year the accumulated dividends, together with the cash value of the policy, equal or exceed the net single premium for this insurance at the attained age of the insured, this policy may be exchanged for a fully paid-up policy with dividends payable annually thereafter.

THE PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS IS WAIVED IF INSURED IS TOTALLY AND PERMANENTLY DISABLED AND THE INSURED HAS THE OPTION OF HAVING THE INSURANCE IMMEDIATELY PAYABLE IN INSTALLMENTS.

At any time after one full year's premium shall have been paid and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured before attaining his sixtieth birthday, shall furnish proof satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or by disease and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, then

FIRST.—The company will, by an endorsement on this policy, agree to pay for the insured, subject to the conditions herein recited, the subsequent premiums, if any, as they shall become due, during the period of such total and permanent disability. Any premiums so paid shall not be a lien on this policy, and the guaranteed values set out in the tables herein shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums had been paid by the insured.

SECOND.—The company will also, upon written request of the insured and of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, by an endorsement on this policy, agree to pay, subject to the conditions herein recited, in lieu of all other values, benefits or privileges herein provided, and in full settlement of this policy, one-twentieth of the sum insured plus dividend additions, if any, immediately, and a like amount annually thereafter until twenty of such instalments in all shall have been paid. Any indebtedness to the company on or secured by this policy will reduce the amount of said annual instalments in the same proportion that said indebtedness bears to three-fourths of the sum insured, plus dividend additions, if any. Should the insured die before the twenty annual instalments shall have been paid, the face amount of this policy, plus dividend additions, if any, less the sum of the instalments paid and less any indebtedness on or secured by the policy outstanding at the time of the payment of the first instalment with interest at six per cent per annum from that time will be paid to the beneficiary upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured.

Provided always that notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured shall as often as required by the company furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability. If the insured fails to furnish such proof, or if he shall so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, then all premiums thereafter falling due must be paid as originally provided in the policy, and if the second option shall have been availed of, the company's obligation to pay any further instalments shall immediately cease, and the original policy shall be restored for its face amount, plus dividend additions, if any, less the sum of the instalments paid. Any indebtedness on or secured by the policy outstanding at the time of the payment of the first instalment shall be restored together with interest at six per cent per annum from that time, and the guaranteed values in the table attached hereto shall be reduced proportionately by the amount of the annual instalments paid and the original indebtedness, if any, with interest.

Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning hereof.

PLANS OF SETTLEMENT.—At the end of twenty years from the date of this policy, or within one month thereafter, the insured may elect to continue or surrender this policy under one of the following options: (Option 1) Continue this policy as a fully paid-up participating policy for its full amount, no further premium payments being required, and in addition thereto draw in cash any existing dividend accumulations. (Option 2) Draw entire cash value, consisting of guaranteed cash value as fixed in the above table, together with any existing dividend accumulations. (Option 3) Convert entire cash value into a life annuity at the company's published rates at that time. (Option 4) Convert entire cash value into a paid-up participating endowment policy, maturing at the end of the policy year nearest to age eighty-five, subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company for any excess in paid-up insurance over the amount of the original policy.

NOTE.—If the insured fails to exercise his option to select one of the settlements provided and to notify the company thereof in writing within the time specified, it is agreed that Option No. 1 shall automatically apply.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AND PRIVILEGES.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

PREMIUM PAYMENT.—Premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in the city of Fort Wayne, Ind., but may be paid to an authorized agent of the company in exchange for the company's receipt therefor signed by the president or the secretary and countersigned by the agent as evidence of such payment. The mode of premium payment may be changed, on any anniversary of this policy, from annual to semi-annual or quarterly or vice versa at the premium rates in use by the company at the date hereof, but the payment of any premium shall not continue this policy in force longer than the time for which the premium payment is made, except as otherwise provided herein.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse it may be reinstated at any time upon the insured furnishing evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and paying all premium arrears with not to exceed six per cent interest per annum.

POLICY AND APPLICATION THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached and is made a part of the policy, constitute the entire contract; and, in the absence of fraud, the statements made in the application shall be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall avail this policy unless it is contained in the written application.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—While this policy is in force, and provided it is not then assigned, the insured may, with the consent of the company, change the beneficiary by filing at its home office a written request duly acknowledged, on the form provided by it, accompanied by this policy for endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect only upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If there be more than one beneficiary the interest of any deceased beneficiary shall pass to the survivor or survivors unless otherwise directed by the insured and endorsed by the company on this policy.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding on the company until it be filed with the company at its home office. The company, by receiving or filing any assignment, does not assume any responsibility as to the validity or sufficiency thereof. Any claim made under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof.

MODIFICATIONS.—No person except the president, a vice-president, the secretary or assistant secretary has power to change, modify or waive the provisions of this contract, and then only in writing. The company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter made by or to any agent or person other than as above.

SUICIDE.—Self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from the date of issue hereof is a risk not assumed by the company under this policy.

This policy is absolutely free from restrictions as to occupation, residence or travel, and shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

TRUST FUND AND INSTALLMENT SETTLEMENT OPTIONS.—At maturity of this policy, as an endowment or a death claim, all or any part of the proceeds not less than $1000 may be exchanged for one of the company's three and one-half per cent interest-bearing trust bonds. A death claim under this policy is payable in one sum as specified on the first page, but the insured during his lifetime, with the privilege of revocation, or, if the insured shall not have otherwise expressly directed, the beneficiary after the death of the insured, shall have the right to elect, in lieu of payment in one sum, any one of the following options of settlements provided, however, that the amount payable in one sum is not less than $1000, and provided that request for such change in the mode of payment has been properly made in writing to the company and this policy returned to its home office for appropriate endorsement. The first instalment will be payable immediately on approval of the claim under this policy as hereinbefore provided. Subsequent instalments will be paid annually or monthly thereafter until all the instalments shall have been paid. Should the beneficiary die before having received the full number of instalments selected under the first or second option, the commuted value of the unpaid instalments shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. The second option cannot be selected if there is more than one beneficiary under this policy.

FIRST OPTION.—The payment of equal annual or monthly instalments for the number of years or months selected by the insured or the beneficiary.

SECOND OPTION.—The payment of equal annual or monthly instalments for a fixed period of twenty years and for as long thereafter as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the table for this option given below.

Louisiana State Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $300.50. AGE, 35.

Louisiana State Life Insurance Company, Shreveport, La., promises to pay ten thousand dollars to Mary Doe, herein called the beneficiary, at its office in Shreveport, La., immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the interest of the claimant and of the death, during the continuance of this policy of John Doe, of Shreveport, parish of Caddo, State of Louisiana, (herein called the insured), less any indebtedness of the insured or beneficiary to the company.

PREMIUMS ON THIS POLICY WILL BE PAID BY THE COMPANY IF THE INSURED BECOMES PERMANENTLY DISABLED.—After one full annual payment shall have been made, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty, shall furnish satisfactory proof that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company, by an endorsement in writing upon this policy, will agree to pay for the insured, the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In any such case, the premiums so paid shall not constitute a lien on this policy, and the cash, loan and other values of this policy as named in the schedule below, shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured. (See option stated in section 5 on the next page.)

* Loans will be granted at the beginning instead of at the end of the year, if so desired, provided the entire premium for the year has been paid.

If the premiums on this policy be paid in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of a year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

This policy is based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest, and the reserve computed upon that basis.

The benefits and provisions printed or written by the company on the following page are a part of this contract as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereof affixed.

In witness whereof, Louisiana State Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its authorized officers, at its office in the city of Shreveport, the fifteenth day of January, A.D., 1912.

BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

1. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premium.

2. SUICIDE.—If, within one year from the date hereof, the insured shall die by suicide, whether sane or insane, or in consequence of his own criminal action, the liability of the company shall not exceed the amount of the premium paid on this policy.

3. PREMIUMS.—All premiums on this policy are payable annually in advance, but may, after the first year, be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, either at the home office of the company, or to an agent of the company, upon the delivery of a receipt signed by the president, vice-president or secretary, and duly countersigned by such agent. Any unpaid part of the premium, or premiums, for the current policy year in which death occurs will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. If any premium or obligation given therefor shall not be paid when due, this policy shall thereupon cease, except as herein provided.

Manhattan Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDEND

DISABILITY CLAUSE.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $364.70. AGE, 35.

The Manhattan Life Insurance Company of New York hereby insures the life of Richard Roe, the insured, of New York, County of New York, State of New York, and agrees to pay at its home office in the city of New York (amount of insurance) ten thousand dollars to (beneficiary) Mary Roe, his wife, the beneficiary, (with right on the part of the insured to change the beneficiary) upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, provided this policy is then in full force and effect and is then surrendered and properly released.

(Premium)—This policy is issued in consideration of the payment, in advance, of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-four and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars and of the payment of a like sum upon each first day of August hereafter during the continuance of this policy until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured (waiver of premiums), but after one full annual premium has been paid, the Company, by endorsement on this policy, will waive payment of premiums under the conditions stated on the third page entitled "Waiver of Premiums."

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the privileges and conditions set forth on the subsequent pages hereof.

In witness whereof, The Manhattan Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be executed as of the first day of August, 1913,

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary, or in case of the death of any beneficiary, under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company or to any agent or agency cashier of the company on or before date due, upon delivery of a receipt signed by an executive officer (president, a vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary) of the company and countersigned by said agent or agency cashier.

The mode of premium payments may be changed, by the insured giving written notice to the company at its home office not less than forty-five days prior to any anniversary of this policy, from annual payments to semi-annual, or quarterly, or vice-versa, at the premium rates and on the conditions in force at the date hereof. Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, without interest, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the period of grace, the unpaid premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—Upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, this policy, if it has not been surrendered, may be reinstated at any time after default, upon payment of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, together with the reinstatement or payment of any indebtedness and the interest thereon.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

PARTICIPATION IN SURPLUS.—The proportion of the surplus accruing upon this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually and not otherwise. Such dividend, at the option of the insured, shall each year on the anniversary of the policy, be either—(1) Paid in cash; or (2) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or (3) applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy; or (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at three per cent per annum, and payable at the maturity of the policy, but withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy. Unless the insured shall elect otherwise within three months after the mailing by the company of a written notice requiring such election, the dividend shall be applied to purchase paid-up additions to the policy. Such paid-up additions may be surrendered for cash at any time, and the cash value thereof shall not be less than the original cash dividends.

CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time while this policy is in force, will loan to the insured (or assignee if any) on the delivery of this policy and proper assignment by the insured (or assignee if any), and on the sole security thereof, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, a sum which with accrued interest to the end of the current policy year will not exceed the cash surrender value at the end of such policy year, including the cash surrender value of the dividend additions, if any. The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy, and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. The granting of such loan may be deferred for a period not exceeding ninety days after receipt of application therefor, unless the loan is for the purpose of paying premiums due the company. Any interest if not paid when due shall be added to the principal and shall bear interest at the same rate, provided the entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within limits of the cash surrender value. Failure to repay any such loan, or to pay interest, shall not void this policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any. The loan with accrued interest may be repaid at any time.

PREMIUM LIEN NOTE.—Whenever the net loan value of this policy shall be sufficient to pay one full annual premium with five per cent interest thereon for one year, the company will, before the expiration of the period of grace, accept a premium lien note in lieu of cash for such premium, said note to be a lien against the policy and subject to the same terms and conditions as cash loans, except that the policy need not be deposited with the company as a pledge. The total indebtedness on this policy, however incurred, shall never exceed its cash surrender value.

NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, the insured (or assignee if any), within one month after default in the payment of any premium, may elect:

CASH VALUE.—(a) To surrender this policy for its cash value upon proper release signed by the insured (or assignee if any). Such cash value shall be equal to the net reserve thereon at date of default and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, select and ultimate method, and interest at three per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed one per cent of the amount insured by this policy and by the dividend additions thereto, and less any indebtedness to the company on the policy. The payment of the cash value may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding ninety days after the receipt of the application therefor. The cash value shall be at least equal to the amount available for the purchase of paid-up life insurance or paid-up term insurance; or

PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—(b) To have the policy continued in force from date of default, as paid-up life insurance, without future participation in surplus. The amount of such paid-up life insurance shall be such as the net cash value under (a) will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Mortality Table and interest at three per cent per annum; or PAID-UP TERM INSURANCE.—(c) To have the policy continued in force from date of default, as paid-up term insurance without future participation in surplus and without the right to loans. The amount of such paid-up term insurance shall be equal to the face of the policy, plus any outstanding dividend additions and less any indebtedness due the company under this policy. The term for which such paid-up term insurance will be continued shall be such as the net reserve on this policy at the time of default and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, select and ultimate method, and interest at three per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed one per cent of the amount insured by this policy and the dividend additions thereto, and less any indebtedness to the company on this policy, will purchase as a net single premium, at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three per cent per annum.

If the insured (or assignee if any) shall not, within one month from date of default in the payment of any premium, elect one of the foregoing three options as provided in (a), (b) or (c), the insurance will be continued as provided in option (c).

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.

The figures in this table are on the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy and that there are no outstanding dividend additions.

rest) during such policy years, and as set forth in the above clause entitled RESERVE.

TESTABILITY.—This policy including the application, a copy of which is attached, is the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for the non-payment of premiums.

STATEMENTS.—All statements made by the insured, shall, in the absence of fraud, misrepresentation and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defense of a claim hereunder, unless it is contained in the written statement on and a copy of the application is attached to this policy as a part thereof.

TERMINATION.—If the insured shall within one year from date of issue die by his own act, or become insane, this policy shall be null and void, but in such case the company shall pay the premiums actually received.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

VALUE OF PAID-UP LIFE OR PAID-UP TERM INSURANCE.—If this policy shall be surrendered, it shall be endorsed as paid-up life insurance or paid-up term insurance it may be used at any time for its full reserve value at time of such surrender.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be paid in any settlement hereunder. Any portion of the premium for the current year remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be considered as indebtedness.

RESIDENCE, TRAVEL, ETC.—This policy contains no conditions as to residence, travel, occupation, or military or naval service.

RESERVE.—Whenever the reserve on any outstanding dividend additions, together with any accumulations, shall be equal to the net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, and interest thereon, for an amount of insurance equal to the face amount of this policy, the company upon written request will make an endorsement on this policy showing the reserve on any outstanding dividend additions, together with any accumulations, shall equal the face amount of this policy, the company upon surrender of this policy, accompanied by a satisfactory release, will pay the face value of this policy, less any outstanding indebtedness.

WAIVER OF PREMIUMS.—The company by endorsement hereon will waive payment of premiums thereafter becoming due, during the disability described below, if the insured, before attaining the age of sixty years, and after paying at least one full annual premium, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, shall furnish satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by injury or by disease so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and reverently thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit. Any sum so waived shall not be deducted from the sum payable under this policy, and the same shall be provided for in the sections entitled "loans" and "non-forfeiture benefits".

PROOF OF DISABILITY.—The company by endorsement hereon will waive payment of premiums thereafter becoming due, during the disability described below, if the insured, before attaining the age of sixty years, and after paying at least one full annual premium, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, shall furnish satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by injury or by disease so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and reverently thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit. Any sum so waived shall not be deducted from the sum payable under this policy, and the same shall be provided for in the sections entitled "loans" and "non-forfeiture benefits". "table of loan and surrender values" shall be the same as if such premiums were paid in cash. Provided that, notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured shall at any time, on demand, furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability; and if the insured shall fail to furnish such proof, or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work for compensation or profit, all premiums thereafter due must be paid in conformity with this contract. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the loss of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of the entire foot will be considered as total and permanent disability for the meaning of this provision. This provision will be cancelled on any anniversary of the insured filing previous written request at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon, in which event the premiums hereon will be thereafter reduced thirty cents for each one thousand dollars of insured hereunder.

RIGHTS OF INSURED.—The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive the net sum, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

AGENTS.—Agents are not authorized to modify this policy, or to extend the time for the payment of a premium, or in the event of lapse to reinstate this policy.

TERMS.—The policy years and all provisions for loan and surrender value shall be computed from the date of this policy.

ASSIGNMENT.—If there is no assignment of this policy, the insured, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, shall give written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the net sum payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, paid either in cash or as follows: (1) The payment of interest at the rate of three per cent per annum on such net sum, at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by the payment of the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any accrued interest for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary or legal representatives or assigns. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, and the following with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. (3) The payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall elect in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum.

Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said note the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. When any option calling for a payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplement non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the insured or by the beneficiary in making such election, the payee or payee may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of instalment the commuted value of the payments yet to be made, computed upon the same as option (2) in the following table; provided that no such surrender and commutation will be made under option (3) except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years:

Marquette Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $386.

AGE, 35.

Marquette Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Ill., hereby promises and agrees to pay ten thousand dollars upon receipt of due proofs of the death of Christopher Columbus, the insured, to Felipa Columbus, wife, subject to the terms, conditions and provisions and for the consideration hereinafter stated:

GUARANTEED OPTIONS.—If the insured is living on the first day of January, 1924, and if all premiums have been duly paid, the insured may then surrender this policy in accordance with any one of the following options: (1) Receive the cash value of the policy, amounting to $8100. (2) Receive a cash payment amounting to $2440; and in addition receive a paid-up life policy (non-participating) for the amount of $10,000. (3) Receive a paid-up life policy (non-participating) for the amount of $14,300. (4) Receive a life annuity bond, providing annual payments of $619.50. (5) Receive a paid-up life policy (non-participating) for the amount of $7150. And in addition, receive a life annuity bond, providing annual payments of $309.70.

If the insured does not surrender this policy in accordance with one of the above options within sixty days after the date above mentioned, the company will continue the insurance as though option (2) had been selected, and pay the cash therein provided on application.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application herefor, which is hereby made a part of this contract, and of the payment in advance of three hundred eighty-six dollars, being the premium to provide the legal reserve and term insurance for one year from January 1st, 1914, to January 1st, 1915, which is the first policy year, and of the further payment in advance of the annual renewal premium of three hundred eighty-six dollars on or before the first day of January in every year until renewal premiums for nineteen years shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—Premiums must be paid at the home office of the company in the city of Springfield, Ill., or at the pleasure of the company, to a designated collector, but in any case only in exchange for a receipt separate from the policy, and signed by the president or secretary of the company and countersigned by such collector. Renewal premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually, quarterly or monthly in advance, in accordance with the company's table of rates applicable hereto, and the insured may change from one to another of such modes of payment upon written request therefor to the home office of the company. This policy shall not take effect until the first premium has actually been paid to and accepted by the company or its authorized agent and the policy delivered to and accepted by the insured while he is in good health. If any premium is not paid when due, or if any note or part thereof or interest thereon given in payment of a premium or part thereof is not paid when due, this policy shall lapse and shall be ipso facto null and void and all premiums forfeited to the company, except as herein provided.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of one month (without interest charge) will be allowed for the payment of renewal premiums, during which month this policy will remain in force. If death occur within the period of grace the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—After two full years' premiums shall have been paid on this policy, in event of default in the payment of any subsequent premium, upon the insured's written request and legal surrender of said policy within one month from the due date of the unpaid premium, the company will pay a cash value therefor. Such cash value shall be the reserve at date of default computed according to the three and one-half per cent American Experience Table of Mortality preliminary term method prescribed by the laws of Illinois in whole number of dollars for each $1000 of insurance under this policy, less any indebtedness to the company against this policy and less a surrender charge of not exceeding one per cent of the amount of insurance from the second to the fourteenth year inclusive, after which period no surrender charge will be deducted. Or, in lieu of such cash value, upon satisfactory request the company will issue a non-participating paid-up life policy for such amount, not greater than the principal sum insured, as said cash value will purchase when used as a net single premium by the above described table.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After two full years' premiums shall have been paid on this policy, if any subsequent premium is not paid before the expiration of the month of grace herein allowed, or the policy shall not have been surrendered during such month of grace, this policy without any action of the insured will be automatically extended, dating from the due date of the unpaid premium, by applying the cash value as above provided as a net single premium by the above described table to purchase non-participating paid-up term insurance for the principal sum insured but without loan or surrender values.

PURE ENDOWMENT.—The company will grant a pure endowment in addition to the paid-up life policy or extended insurance above provided, as follows: If the cash value of this policy, as above provided, shall be in excess of the net single premium by the above described table, for a paid-up life policy equal to the principal sum insured, such excess shall, in the calculation of the paid-up life policy and extended insurance above provided, be applied at net single premium rates by the same table to purchase a pure endowment payable to the insured, if living, at the end of twenty years from the issue of this policy.

POLICY LOANS.—At any time after two full years' premiums shall have been paid and while this policy is in force, the company will advance, on the execution of a proper loan agreement, and on proper assignment and delivery of this policy and on the sole security hereof, an amount which, with interest thereon to the end of the current policy year, shall be equal to, or at the option of the owner, less than the cash value at the end of said year; any existing loan hereon with accrued interest, and any unpaid portion of said current policy year's premium shall be paid out of said advance. Interest on the loan will be at the rate of five per cent per annum payable in advance, at the beginning of each policy year and this interest if not paid annually shall be added to the existing loan and shall bear interest at the same rate. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee of record, if any, at the home office of the company.

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.—The values in the following table are computed in accordance with the provisions on the second page hereof and upon the assumption that premiums have been paid in full for the number of years stated in the first column headed "end of year." If there be any indebtedness to the company on the policy the values will be decreased as hereinbefore provided. In case of default in the payment of semi-annual, or quarterly premiums falling due at intervening dates the non-forfeiture values will be computed on the same basis as the corresponding values for the end of the policy year last expired.

* Cash value end of year.

 Loan value during year.

Cash and loan values after the twentieth policy year will be the full reserve of any insurance thereafter under this policy. Figures will be furnished on request to the home office of the company.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse and shall not be surrendered to the company the company will reinstate it at any time provided the insured applies therefor on the company's form and furnishes evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and pays in cash all past due premiums with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum from date when due.

INCONTTESTABILITY.—After two years from its date, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums or for engaging in military or naval service in time of war without the consent in writing of the president or secretary and the payment of the extra premium then in use by the company for such service. In case of the death of the insured by self destruction sane or insane, within two years from the date of issue of this policy, a sum equal to one-tenth of the principal sum insured, and no more, shall be paid.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may change any designated beneficiary at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided it is not then assigned, by filing with the company a written request accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company, whereupon all interest of the former beneficiary shall cease. If no beneficiary shall survive the insured the policy shall be payable to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns.

INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGE.—The insured may change the mode of payment of this policy as a death claim from payment in one sum to payment by annual instalments as provided on the fourth page hereof.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. Only the president or secretary has power on behalf of the company (and then only in writing) to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by making any promise or by accepting any representation or information not contained in the application for this policy.

2. If the age of the insured is misstated the amount payable hereunder shall be the insurance which the premium paid would have purchased under this policy at the true age of the insured.

3. Any assignment of this policy must be made and sent to the home office in duplicate, one to be retained by the company, the other to be returned. The company assumes no responsibility for any assignment.

4. This policy is not entitled to participate in the profits or divisible surplus of the company.

5. This policy is payable at the home office of the company, Springfield, Ill. Before any amount shall be paid or any option of settlement exercised hereunder, proof of the interest of the claimant must be furnished and any indebtedness to the company including the amount necessary to complete the premium for the current policy year must be settled.

6. This policy and the application herefor (a copy of which application is attached hereto) constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in such application.

7. This policy is issued with the express understanding, that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right, and enjoy every privilege, conferred upon him by this policy.

In witness whereof, the Marquette Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, executed this policy at Springfield, Ill. this first day of January, 1914.

INSTALMENT BENEFITS.—The insured may change the mode of payment of this policy as a death claim, if the policy is not assigned, from payment in one sum as provided on the first page, to payment by annual instalments, as below stated.

The following tables are based upon a policy of $1000, and will apply pro rata to the amount payable under this policy, provided the amount is not less than $1000; if the amount is less than $1000, these instalment benefits shall not apply, but this policy will be payable in one sum only.

The insured may subsequently change his selection under these instalment benefits; he may also revoke all selections, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum.

No selection, change or revocation shall take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company. After endorsement this policy will be returned to the insured.

The payment of the first instalment shall be made immediately upon receipt of the proofs of the death of the insured and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter.

The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments unless such right is given by the insured to the beneficiary when payment by instalments is directed.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFIT.

The insured, in case of total and permanent disability, may select one of the following options:

OPTION 1.—One twentieth of the amount payable under this policy will be paid in cash to the insured immediately upon satisfactory proof of such disability, and a like amount upon each succeeding anniversary, until twenty annual payments shall have been made; or,

OPTION 2.—The company will pay all premiums thereafter becoming due on this contract; and in such event, the cash, loan and other values shall increase in the same manner, as if the premiums were paid by the insured.

The agreement as to options one and two, is subject to the following conditions: The insured must become totally and permanently disabled while this policy is in full force and effect after one full annual premium has been paid, and prior to default in the payment of any subsequent premium or instalment thereof and before the insured attains the age of sixty years, and the disability must be such that there is neither then, nor at any time thereafter, any work, occupation, or profession that the insured can ever sufficiently do, or follow, to earn, or obtain any wages, compensation, or profit, and immediately after the happening of such disability full particulars thereof must be given to the company, in writing, at its home office, and prior to any liability on the part of the company under either of said options satisfactory proofs of such disability must be given to the company at its home office, upon blanks furnished by the company, and the policy must be produced to the company, at its home office, and the agreement to pay the instalments of the face of the policy or the premiums, must be endorsed by the company thereon in writing. If, however, the insured should so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the obligation on the part of the company to pay the remainder of the instalments or the premiums shall immediately cease and the insured shall resume the payment of premiums beginning with the first premium becoming due after the date of such recovery. Proofs similar to those required in the first instance must be furnished of such continuous disability prior to the payment of each instalment or premium by the company, if demanded. The payment of twenty instalments is in lieu of the payment of the face of this policy at the death of the insured, and should the insured die before all instalments have been paid, the remaining instalments will be paid immediately, in one sum, to the beneficiary herein named, provided that the holder of the policy accepting the option of instalment payments shall not be required to pay any premium after the permanent disability arises and such option is accepted. If the insured should become disabled as hereinbefore described, after attaining the age of sixty years, said insured may have the benefit of Option 2, subject to the terms and conditions herein governing the same, with the modification that instead of being paid by the company, the premium will be allowed to accumulate without interest as an indebtedness against the policy. The company will consider the irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrist, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot as a total disability, within the meaning of this provision.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I warrant for and on behalf of myself and any person or persons who may have or claim any interest in any policy issued under this application, that I have given and verified each of the foregoing answers, and also all answers given to medical examiner and signed by me as part of "applicant's certificate," and adopted them as my own whether written by me or not, that they are true and material and are offered to the said life insurance company as a consideration of any policy that may be issued thereon. I further agree and warrant for myself and for any person having or claiming an interest in any policy issued on this application as follows: 1. That the said company shall not be liable under this application until it has issued a policy thereon which has been delivered to and accepted by me while in good health. 2. That in case of any failure on my part to comply with the agreements and warranties herein contained and all of the stipulations and conditions of any policy that may be issued thereon, such policy shall be ipso facto null and void, and all payments made thereon shall be forfeited to the said company, except as otherwise provided therein. 3. That in case of my death by self destruction, sane or insane, within two years from the date of this policy, a sum equal to one-tenth of the principal sum insured, and no more, shall be paid. 4. That in consideration of the issuance of the policy hereon and the acceptance by me of the same, this application and the policy so issued shall be construed together as one entire contract.

* Adopted October, 1911.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $15,000.

Maryland Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $364.50. AGE, 35.

The Maryland Life Insurance Company of Baltimore, in consideration of the application herefor and the statements and agreements therein, which application (a copy of which is attached hereto) is hereby made a part of this contract, and of the sum of three hundred sixty-four dollars and fifty cents, duly paid on the delivery of this policy, and on condition of the payment to it of an annual premium of three hundred sixty-four dollars and fifty cents, on or before the thirtieth day of February in every year during the continuance of this contract, or until twenty full years' payments shall have been made, the last premium to be paid on or before February 30, 1931, hereby promises on receipt at its home office in Baltimore, Md., of due proof of the death, during the continuance of this contract, of Welland Strong, herein called the insured, of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, and on surrender of this policy duly receipted and released, to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars at said office, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid premium or portion of premium for the then current policy year, to his wife, Pretty Strong, for her sole use if she be then living, and if she be not living then to the said Welland Strong, his executors, administrators or assigns, with the right to said insured of revocation of beneficiary as hereinafter provided.

This contract is subject to the provisions and benefits on the second, third and fourth pages of this policy.

In witness whereof the said Maryland Life Insurance Company of Baltimore has caused this contract to be executed and delivered at Baltimore, Md., this thirtieth day of February, 1912.

PROVISIONS AND BENEFITS.

CONTRACT.—This policy, and the application therefor, constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement of the insured shall avoid, or be used in defense to, a claim under this policy, unless contained in the application therefor. In case of violation of any of the conditions upon which this policy is issued and accepted by the insured, or if any premium, or any note, expressed to be payable to the company, given for a premium, be not paid when due, the policy shall be void, and all premiums shall be forfeited to the company except as herein provided.

MODIFICATION.—No agent has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this contract; to extend the time for payment of a premium; or to bind the company by making any promise, or by receiving any representation or information not contained in the application for this policy. This contract cannot be modified, nor any forfeiture thereof waived, except by written agreement signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary, the auditor, or the actuary.

PREMIUMS.—Premiums shall be paid in cash on or before date due at the company's home office in Baltimore, but payment to an agent of the company will be accepted elsewhere in exchange for company's receipt signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary, the auditor, or the actuary, and countersigned by said agent. This policy shall not take effect until the first premium shall have actually been paid during the continued good health of the insured. The insurance under this policy is based on annual premiums payable in advance, but payments may be made semi-annually or quarterly in advance at the premium rates therefor now in use by the company. Change from one mode of payment to another may be made at the end of any policy year upon written request signed by the insured alone, if policy has not been assigned. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium, or instalment thereof, shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium, or instalment, becomes payable.

THIRTY-ONE DAYS' GRACE.—The time when a premium becomes due is the day herein stipulated therefor, but after the first year thirty-one days of grace without interest will be allowed for the payment of premiums, the policy being meanwhile kept in force. If death occurs during the grace period, any unpaid premium, or portion of premium for the then current policy year, will be deducted in settlement of the policy.

RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—This policy is free from any restrictions as to residence and travel.

SUICIDE, OCCUPATION, WAR SERVICE.—If within one year from date hereof, this policy being in force, the insured shall die by his own hand or act, sane or insane, the policy shall be void, but the company will pay the amount of the reserve. After one year from date this policy is free from any restrictions as to occupation as set forth in the application, except that if during the continuance of this policy the insured shall engage in any military or naval service in time of war without the written consent of the company, the policy shall be void and no claim exist thereunder in the event of the insured's death, save to the extent of the reserve on the policy increased by the reserve on any additions and by any dividend accumulations.

INCONTTESTABILITY.—After one year from the date of issue this policy shall be incontestable, except for the non-payment of premiums or for engaging in military or naval service in time of war without the consent of the company in writing. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as if the premium actually paid would have purchased of the same kind of insurance at the age.

ASSIGNMENT.—The company will not notice any assignment of this policy or of the original, or a duplicate thereof, be filed in the home office in Baltimore. No assignment of interest on the part of the assignee must be submitted with the proofs of death. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of any assignment. All assignments shall be subject to any indebtedness to the company on account secured by this policy.

POLICY SETTLEMENT.—Any and every sum due under this policy shall be payable only at the company's home office, Baltimore, Md., and from any sum payable under there shall be deducted any indebtedness to the company on this policy or otherwise.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation is reserved under this policy, the insured, if of full age, may at any time, and from time to time, during the continuance, subject to any previous assignment, change the beneficiary hereunder out of the consent of said beneficiary, or substitute the insured's personal representative or assigns, by filing a written request on the company's form at the home office, accompanied by the policy, the change to be inoperative, however, until endorsed or approved by the company during the insured's lifetime. The insured may declare the death of any beneficiary irrevocable. The right to change beneficiary is reserved to the insured, and cannot be assigned. If any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation dies before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall inure to the insured unless otherwise provided in or endorsed by company on this policy.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time, before this policy, if continuously maintained, has become fully paid up, it may be revived after default in payment of any premium unless the cash value has been paid or the extended term insurance period has expired, provided evidence satisfactory to the company that the insured is safely insured, furnished, and all overdue premiums with interest at six per cent per annum be paid, and all indebtedness to company at time of default on account of or secured by this policy with interest at same rate, which indebtedness and interest and arrears of premium interest shall, at option of the owner, be paid in cash or, to the extent allowed by law, be satisfied by the value at date of reinstatement, remain as a lien against the policy.

ENDOWMENT OPTION.—While this policy becomes fully paid-up upon payment of the last premium, it may, at the option of the owner, be continued in force in accordance with its conditions, of the whole number of premiums stipulated for this policy, yet if desired the payment of premiums can be continued for one or more years after the insurance becomes paid-up, and the policy by such continuation converted into an endowment. By each additional full year's premium paid the term of the endowment will be hastened, and, upon application, a table will be furnished to the insured or owner of this policy showing the date of its maturity as an endowment, and after the payment of one full year's additional premium, and how much this premium will be accelerated by the payment of every full year's premium thereafter. If the insured dies before the endowment matures, the policy will continue to participate in dividends, and the guaranteed loan and cash values will be increased.

PARTICIPATION IN SURPLUS.—This policy shall participate in surplus, and its share of surplus as determined and apportioned by the company will be allotted on the thirtieth day of February, 1913, and annually thereafter, provided the policy is in force, and not as extended term insurance. The first and second annual allotments of surplus, or dividends, are each conditioned upon the payment of the premium next succeeding policy year then due. Each annual dividend when credited to the option of the insured stated in writing to the company's home office, be:

DIVIDEND OPTIONS.—(1) Applied in reduction of premium, or (2) drawn in cash, or (3) used to purchase additional paid-up life insurance, payable in the same manner as this policy, or (4) used to purchase additional insurance on the paid-up endowment plan, maturing at age sixty-five, and payable at maturity to insured, but otherwise payable in the same manner as this policy, or (5) left with the company to accumulate at maturity of policy but withdrawable on demand, but no allowance will be made for interest for a fractional part of a year. The insured may elect one of the options not later than thirty-one days after any dividend becomes payable, and an election so elected shall remain in effect until superseded by another, but if no election is made then said dividend will be held by the company under option (5).

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO MAKE POLICY PAID UP OR MATURE AS AN ENDOWMENT.—Whenever at the end of any policy year the total accumulations (5) increased reserve on dividend additions, if any, and increased also by the reserve on this policy shall be equal to the net single premium, American Experience Table of Mortality, three and one quarter per cent interest, on a whole life insurance at the status of the insured for an amount equal to the face of this policy, the company will execute and delivery of satisfactory form of release and presentation of policy to the insured, make an endorsement thereon showing it has become fully paid-up, to any existing indebtedness. Or whenever at the end of any policy year the total accumulations (5) increased by the reserve on dividend additions, if any, and also by the reserve on this policy, shall equal the face of said policy, then, on written request and surrender of said policy and additions, if any, at its home office, the company will pay the face of the policy as a matured endowment, less any existing indebtedness.

at the end of any policy year the existing accumulations (5) may, upon satisfactory request to company, be applied to purchase pure endowments at company's rates for the same at the attained age of the insured, and subject to the company's regulations, for the purpose either of diminishing the number of future annual premiums insured on the policy before it becomes fully paid up, or to mature the policy as an endowment some time in the future. If either of these two methods be once adopted, however, subsequent accumulations cannot be applied to the other, or vice versa. The right to any dividends paid during the lifetime of the insured shall, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, vest in the insured, but any dividends due and unpaid at the maturity of this policy shall be payable with the sum herein insured to the payee of such insurance.

PREMIUMS PAID BY DIVIDENDS.—If any premium on this policy (either annual, semi-annual or quarterly) be not paid at the expiration of the days of grace, the company will keep said policy in force by applying any dividend accumulations towards payment of premium, provided such accumulations are sufficient to pay at least one quarterly premium, and any such application of accumulations shall be a discharge to company for the sum so applied. No portion of any remaining accumulations than one quarterly premium will be applied to continue the policy in force.

LOAN PROVISIONS.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, and while this policy is in full force, and not as extended term insurance, the company, upon delivery of policy to home office satisfactorily assigned to it as security, will lend thereon such an amount when added to any existing indebtedness will make the total indebtedness with interest six per cent to the end of current policy year not greater than the cash surrender value at the end of said year. But any unpaid portion of premium for said policy year shall be paid out of said loan. The obligation for the loan and assignment of the policy shall be on company's forms, and at option of company the loan may be deferred not exceeding sixty days after application, unless said loan is to be applied solely to pay a quarterly premium hereon. Interest on loans is to be payable semi-annually at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, but if a loan be made at any other time than the end of a policy year the first instalment of interest will fall due at the end of the current policy year and semi-annually thereafter. If any interest on a loan is not paid when due, the policy being still in force, it shall be added to the principal and bear interest at the same rate. Failure to re-pay any loan or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy, and until the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash surrender value at the time of such failure, nor until thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and the person to whom the loan was made and of the assignee of record at the home office of the company, if any.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS.—Upon a satisfactory written request therefor from the insured or the owner received at the home office of the company before default in the payment of premium, and thereafter until a written revocation of such request is duly received with the company at its home office, the amount of any premium after three full years' premiums have been paid, or interest on any premium loan not paid in cash when due, less any dividend applicable thereon, will, without further action of the insured owner, be lent by the company in payment of such premium and such interest, if any, to be charged as an indebtedness, subject to interest and the other conditions governing loans described in the above loan provision, provided the net loan value as described in said provision, then available, after deducting all indebtedness including accrued interest, is sufficient to pay the premium and interest, if any, then due. And provided further that any funds arising from dividends left to accumulate at interest with the company shall first be utilized for the payment of such premium.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid on this policy, the owner, within sixty days (including the grace period) succeeding the failure to pay any subsequent premium when due, may elect in writing in accordance with the following table any one of the four settlements specified below, the policy being then released and surrendered to the company at its home office.

1. CASH.—Cash value increased by reserve on any dividend additions but less any indebtedness to the company.

2. EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE.—Paid-up term insurance, non-participating, for the full amount insured by this policy without the right to loans, or cash value, dating from the day to which premiums have been duly paid and continuing for the term indicated in table. Provided, however, if there be any indebtedness the amount of paid-up term insurance shall be the face of this policy less said indebtedness, and the term for which said paid-up insurance shall run shall be changed to that period in whole months in which the cash value less the indebtedness will carry the modified amount at single premium term rates according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and one quarter per cent interest at the age attained by the insured at the date of default. Similarly if there are any dividend additions the amount thereof will be added to the amount of paid-up term insurance, the term being changed by adding the reserve on such additions to the cash value applied at single premium term rates as above indicated.

3. PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—Paid-up life insurance, non-participating, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy, for an amount stated in the following table, unless there is any indebtedness, in which event the amount of said paid-up life insurance will be diminished in the same proportion that the amount of the indebtedness bears to the reserve (American experience, three and one-half per cent) the paid-up life insurance stated in the table. If there are any dividend additions on this policy on the life plan the paid-up insurance will be increased by the amount of such additions. If any on the endowment plan a separate paid-up endowment tract will be issued for the amount of such additions, unless the amount is less than fifty dollars, in which case the amount of the paid-up life insurance will be increased by the amount of such additions. The reserve on the said additions will purchase an age attained by the insured at the time of default, applied as a single premium according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, and three and one half per cent interest.

4. PAID-UP ENDOWMENT AT SIXTY-FIVE.—Provided the attained age of the insured at the time of default is not over sixty, paid-up endowment insurance, non-participating, maturing at age sixty-five, for an amount stated in the following table, unless there is any indebtedness, in which event the amount of said paid-up endowment insurance will be diminished in the same proportion that the amount of the indebtedness bears to the reserve (American experience, three and one half per cent) on the paid-up endowment insurance stated in the table. If there are any dividend additions to the reserve on the endowment plan, the paid-up endowment insurance will be increased by the amount of such additions. If any on the life plan the reserve on such additions will be applied as a single premium, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and one-half per cent interest, at the age attained by the insured at the time of default, to purchase additional paid-up endowment insurance maturing at sixty-five. Paid-up insurance granted under either settlement (3) or (4) will have a cash surrender value which at the time said paid-up insurance is granted will be equal to the cash value of this policy at the time of default, and said cash surrender value will increase with the additional completed year of the continuation of said paid-up insurance. If no dividend is made by owner within time specified the insurance will be extended as paid-up insurance in accordance with option (2).

The values in the above table are for the end of policy years upon the assumption the premiums required by this policy, less any current dividends, have been paid in full and that there is no indebtedness to the company. Values for years beyond the period covered by the table will be furnished on application. If at time of default semi-annual or quarterly premiums have been paid in any policy year without cashing said year, the surrender values will be the values for the last policy year for the year's premium was paid in full plus a proportionate part of the increase of the value at the end of the next succeeding year. The cash value if the policy is surrendered during a policy year, the premiums for the full year having been paid, will be the same as that at the end of the policy year unless the reserve at the time of surrender is less than the reserve at the end of the year, in which event the cash value will be reduced. For loan values when loans are obtained during a policy year and not cashed, see loan provision. The cash values given in the above table are the full values on the policy according to the company's standard, American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one quarter per cent interest less a deduction not exceeding at any time two and one-half per cent of the sum insured. The values of the paid-up life and endowment insurances given in the table are also at no time less than the cash value of the policy less a deduction not exceeding two and one-half per cent of the sum insured. The sum used to purchase paid-up term insurance is the cash value of the policy.

METHODS OF SETTLEMENT.

OPTIONAL SETTLEMENTS.—The insured (with the right of revocation of any assignment and of re-election from time to time) or the beneficiary (or each beneficiary to the extent of his interest if there be more than one) after the insured's death, in case the insured shall have made no election, may, subject to the rights of any assignee, elect by notice to the home office of the company to have settlement of the net sum payable licy at the death of the insured made in any one of the following methods, or by action of two or more of the following methods. Provided, however, that if there is more than one beneficiary and payment is not made in cash, the beneficiaries shall not participate in any one method (unless a satisfactory special agreement is made with the company to that effect), but a special supplemental contract applying to the beneficiary only shall be issued for each method selected. Provided, furthermore, that in any event must be made in cash if the net sum payable under this method is less than $500, and if any combination of methods is elected the net amount payable to each method, save that of cash payment, must never be less than $500.

CASH.—Payment in cash.

INTEREST.—Payment of interest at the rate of three and one quarter per cent per annum on said net sum payable at the end of each year during the lifetime of the insured, and upon the death of said beneficiary payment of said net sum together with accrued interest to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns.

INSTALLMENTS.—Payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being made payable immediately, and the amount of each instalment to be in accordance with the following table.

INSTALLMENTS AND ADDITIONAL SUM.—Payment of said net sum in twenty equal annual instalments, the first instalment being immediate, and the payment of an additional amount equal to forty-seven per cent of said net sum at the end of twenty years after the first instalment becomes due; or, in twenty-five equal annual instalments and an additional amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds per cent of said net sum at the end of twenty-five years after the first instalment becomes due; or in thirty equal annual instalments and an additional amount equal to ninety per cent of said net sum at the end of thirty years after the first instalment becomes due.

INSTALLMENTS AND ANNUITY.—Payment of said net sum in twenty, twenty-five or thirty equal annual instalments as in Method 4, and by the payment in addition beginning at the end of twenty, twenty-five or thirty years, as the case may be, after the first instalment becomes due, of an annuity on the life of the beneficiary, said annuity being computed at that forty-seven per cent, sixty-six and two thirds per cent or ninety per cent, as the case may be, of the said net sum will buy according to the following table at the time the beneficiary attained at the end of the period. This method to be available only if the attained age of beneficiary is fifty or over.

CONTINUOUS INSTALLMENT.—Payment of equal annual instalments for a fixed period of years (the first instalment being payable immediately), and for as many years as the beneficiary shall survive, the amount of each instalment to be in accordance with the following table.

YEARLY INSTALLMENTS UNDER METHODS 3 AND 4. (or under Method 5 so far as the instalments for the fixed period of years is concerned but not the annuity), provided each instalment is not less than $100, may at the option of the insured or at the option of the beneficiary, unless otherwise provided by special endorsement hereon, be changed to annual, quarterly or monthly payments. On the basis of an annual payment of $100, each semi-annual payment would be $50.37, each quarterly $25.23, each monthly each annual instalment after the first under Methods 3 or 4 (or under Methods 5 or 6 as the instalments for the fixed period of years therein named are concerned), the annual instalment of interest provided for in Method 2 will be increased each year by such extra interest as the company may allot thereto.

At any time while policy is in force the company will, upon written request to its home office by the insured, subject to the rights of any assignee, limit by endorsement on the policy the settlement of the net sum payable at the death of the insured to any one or more of the specified combination of the above described methods. Revocation of such endorsement and subsequent establishment of a new limitation from time to time may be made by the insured.

Unless otherwise provided by special endorsement hereon, the beneficiary, if the method has been chosen, may at any time secure the payment of the principal sum in cash with any accrued interest upon giving satisfactory release. Subject to the conditions the beneficiary may at any time commute in one payment and receive the value of any unpaid instalments under Method 3 and of any unpaid instalments under Method 4, or so far as the instalments for the fixed period of years and the value of the annuity at the end of the fixed period are concerned, Method 5, provided the annuity has not actually been entered upon. The commuted value will be determined by discounting the unpaid instalments at the rate of one and one quarter per cent per annum.

If the beneficiary die before the payments provided for in Methods 3 or 4 have been made, or before the annuity provided for in Method 5 has been entered upon, the payments provided for the fixed period of twenty years in Method 6 have all been made, the unpaid instalments, including the sum available for the purchase of the annuity under Method 5, but excluding any payments to be made subsequent to the fixed period under Method 6, shall be commuted in one sum discounting at the rate of three and one quarter per cent per annum, and the commuted value shall be paid on satisfactory release to the executors, administrators or assigns of said beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies after any annuity has been entered upon all liability of the company will terminate at the last annuity payment, if any, preceding said death.

If there be no named beneficiary at the death of the insured entitled to receive payment under this policy, or if no election is made, the net sum payable hereunder shall be paid in cash. Any portion of said net sum which may be payable to an assignee shall be paid in cash.

Whatever method of settlement may be followed the policy must first be duly surrendered and released, and if settlement is not made in cash a new supplementary contract shall be issued for the mode of settlement elected.

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS— DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $363.60. AGE, 35.

The insured: Roger Williams, age 35, of Springfield, Mass. The beneficiary: Mary Williams, his wife, sum insured: ten thousand dollars, payable at death of the insured. Premium: amount, three hundred, sixty-three and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars payable upon delivery of this policy, and annually thereafter, on the first day of each January until the premiums have been paid for twenty successive years, or until the prior death of the insured, or as provided in provision for waiver of premium" on fourth page. The insurance hereunder is based upon an annual premium payable in advance. If the annual premium is paid in installments and this policy becomes a claim by death, any installments necessary to complete the premium for the then current policy year will be deducted in settlement of the claim hereunder.

Policy year and insurance begin: January 1, 1914.

In consideration of the application for this policy, which is made part of this contract, a copy of which application is hereto annexed, and of the payment of premiums as above described, the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company promises to pay the sum insured, at its home office in Springfield, Mass., to the beneficiary herein named, upon receipt at its said home office of the proof of the death of the insured occurring during the continuance of this policy, the balance of the premium, if any, for the then current policy year, and any other indebtedness on account of or secured by this policy, being first deducted therefrom: subject, however, to the insured's right, if any, to change the beneficiary hereunder, as hereinafter specified, and provided that if no beneficiary shall survive the insured, such payment shall be made to the executors, administrators, or assigns of said insured.

The right to change the beneficiary has been reserved in the application for this policy.

This policy will be incontestable after the first policy year except for non-payment of premium.

The provisions and benefits hereinafter stated are hereby referred to and made a part of this policy.

In witness whereof, the said company has caused this contract to be signed by its president and secretary, and countersigned by a duly authorized officer, at Springfield, Mass., this first day of January, 1914.

PROVISIONS AND BENEFITS.

PREMIUMS.—Premiums are payable, in advance, at the Home Office, or to the agent or cashier holding the company's official receipt therefor signed by the President, or a Vice-President, or the Secretary, which receipt shall not be valid unless countersigned by said agent or cashier. In case of failure to pay any premium when due, or within the grace period, the company's only liability shall be such, if any, as is set forth hereunder (see Non-Forfeiture Provisions"). Subject to the grace provisions of this policy, no premium payment shall continue in force beyond the date on which the next premium will become due by the terms of this policy or amendments thereto. The payment of premiums may be changed from annual payment to semi-annual, or quarterly, or vice versa, at the request of and on the individual signature of the insured, except that the assent of the assignee will be required if the policy is assigned.

DIVIDENDS.—This policy, while in force, will participate at the end of the first policy year, and annually thereafter, in the distribution of the surplus funds of the company. At the option of the insured, dividends will (1) be paid in cash, or (2) be applied in reduction of premiums, or (3) be used to purchase participating paid-up additions to this policy, which additions shall have a cash surrender value (full reserve) available within sixty days of the application therefor, or (4), subject to withdrawal, they may be left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy; if so left, the fund arising will be credited, annually, at the end of the policy year, during the continuance of the policy, with interest at such a rate, not less than three per cent, as may be determined by the directors, and outstanding dividend accumulations will be included in any cash settlement of the policy. If no election is made prior to any anniversary, the dividend for that anniversary will be held by the company to accumulate. Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the dividend accumulations, or the reserve on the paid-up additions, or both, together with the reserve on the policy shall equal the reserve on the same basis paid-up policy of the same kind and amount, at the then attained age of the company will indorse the policy as paid-up in full; or when such aggregate shall equal the face amount of this policy, the company will mature and pay it as an endowment: provided, in either case, request is made therefor and a satisfactory release is given.

LOANS. POLICY LOAN.—After two full annual premiums have been paid by a proper assignment of this policy to the company, the company will, within the of the application therefor, loan on the sole security of this policy, with interest rate of six per cent per annum, the whole or any part of the cash value of the policy of all paid-up additions thereto, at the end of the policy year during which application for the loan is made, provided that from such loan the company will deduct any indebtedness on account of or secured by the policy, and any unpaid portion of premium for the current policy year. If this policy is not assigned the company loan on the signature of the insured alone, under the conditions described in the graph, provided the right to change the beneficiary has been reserved in the application, or amendments to, this policy, or provided the loan is made for the sole purpose of paying the premium, or interest on any indebtedness to the company under this policy or both. The whole or any part of a loan may be repaid at any time.

PREMIUM LOAN.—Upon the written request of the insured, and assignee, if any, with the company prior to default in payment of a premium hereunder, the company will loan the insured the amount of said premium, less any dividend payable on date of said premium, and charge the same as an indebtedness against the policy with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, if the tabular cash surrender value of the policy after the payment of such premium will be equal to the total indebtedness on account of or secured by this policy with interest thereon to the thirty-first day of the due date of the next premium payable hereunder, or to the next anniversary of the date of said premium, if no further premium will be payable: provided, however, that any funds from dividends left with the company to accumulate at interest shall first be applied for the payment of such premium, and that while any such premium loan is outstanding dividends apportioned to the policy shall be applied to the reduction of said loan, and any part of such loan may be repaid at any time.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—If, while the policy is in full force with no premium overdue and unpaid, a request therefor, on a form furnished by the company, is made to the home office of the company, signed by the insured, and approved by the company, the premium loan provision, by an indorsement hereon at said home office, shall be made to apply automatically (without further action by the insured or the assignee) to any future premium that may remain unpaid on the date of grace. Such request may be revoked at any time by a writing signed by the insured alone and filed with the company at its home office.

FAILURE TO REPAY LOAN.—Failure to repay a policy loan or premium loan interest thereon, shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, nor until thirty days after notice has been mailed by the company to the last-known address of the insured, or of the assignee of record at the home office of the company, if any.

ASSIGNMENT.—The company will not recognize any assignment of this policy other than the original assignment, or a duplicate, or a certified copy thereof, shall be filed in the home office of the company, nor will it assume responsibility for the validity of an assignment made after the policy has been assigned.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may designate one or more beneficiaries hereunder without the co-operation or assent of other parties in the policy, provided, that any proposed beneficiary shall have an insurable interest in the life of the insured, and that any change in beneficiary shall be subject to the rights of any assignee, and any such change shall become operative only when indorsed upon the policy by the company's home office, pursuant to such form of request for amendment as the company may require.

CHANGE OF PLAN.—This policy, while in full force, may be changed at the time this policy was issued, without medical examination, to any other plan in use by the company at the time this policy was issued, except the continuous installment and continuous income plans, provided the rate of premium will not thereby be diminished, and the amount of such an amount as may be required by the company for such change; and the insured herein shall give the insured the right under the new policy to any disability benefit not contained in this policy and in force at the time of change. The new policy shall be written at the same age, bear the same number and date, and be for the same amount as this policy, and all parties in interest must join in the request for change, and execute such papers as the company may require.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor constitute the entire contract between the parties. All statements made by the applicant shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless it is contained in the application and a copy of the application is hereto annexed.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured was misstated in the application for this policy, and there has been no adjustment on account thereof, the amount payable under shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

GRACE.—Any premium after the first may be paid when not more than ten days past due, during which period the policy will be continued in full force.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS FROM DIVIDEND ACCUMULATIONS.—If a premium remains unpaid at the expiration of the grace period, and there are dividend accumulations to the credit of this policy sufficient to pay such premium in full, so much of said may be needed therefor will be used in payment of the overdue premium, and will forthwith be notified of the amount of the accumulations so used and of the thereof.

IN CASE OF DEFAULT. AUTOMATIC PAID-UP INSURANCE. EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE. CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Upon default in the payment of any premium full annual premiums have been paid hereon, this policy will be binding upon any as participating paid-up insurance of a reduced amount, payable at the same and on the same conditions as in the original contract; but at any time within from the date of such default, the insured may elect in lieu of such paid-up by a writing filed with the company at its home office, to have the insurance in force as participating extended term insurance, from the due date of the in default, for its original amount and any outstanding paid-up additions, indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, but without the right to loans, or may the policy, and, with the written assent of the person to whom it is made receive in cash, within thirty days of the application therefor, its value at the default.

ATOMIC EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE.—Extended term insurance, as above de may be made the automatic option in case of default in the payment of any pre an indorsement placed upon the policy at the company's home office, pur a written request therefor signed by the insured and filed at said home office re is no premium due and unpaid. The values stated in the accompanying for even years and apply to this policy, except that if there are outstanding additions to the policy, the values will be increased in consequence, but if there indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, the said ll be diminished. If the default occurs after a fractional part of the current premium has been paid, the values will be proportionately adjusted. After this become paid-up by payment of all required premiums, or if it becomes paid-up ced amount by operation of law, or if extended term insurance is taken here insurance will have a cash surrender value available within thirty days of the in therefor on legal surrender of the policy.

STATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated at any time after default in the pay- ing premium, unless the cash value has been paid, or the extension period has upon the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, payment of all overdue premiums, with interest at the rate of six per cent per a such premiums and on any indebtedness to the company on account of or y this policy at the time of default, which indebtedness, if not repaid, shall be as a lien against this policy. A part or the whole of the overdue premiums etted by policy or premium loan, if the cash surrender value of this policy, statement, will be sufficient security therefor and for any reinstated indebted- e conditions in "Loans" paragraphs above.

—This policy while in force shall not be modified or altered, except upon the request of the insured, and of other parties in interest, if any, and the approval of the company of the president or vice-president, or the secretary, or an secretary. All modifications and alterations shall comply with the legal re- ts of the State within which the policy is delivered.

Meridian Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $308.90. AGE, 35

Meridian Life Insurance Company hereby insures the life of John Doe, of Indianapolis, county of Marion, State of Indiana, (hereinafter called the insured), in the sum of ten thousand dollars, which amount the company agrees to pay at its home office at Indianapolis, to Mary Doe, his wife, (or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the insured as hereinafter provided), if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators, or assigns, upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured, this policy being then in force, subject to all of the benefits, privileges and conditions stated on this and the following pages hereof, all of which are hereby made a part of this contract as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the Meridian Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, at its office in the city of Indianapolis, this twentieth day of January, 1909.

BENEFITS, PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

This policy is issued in consideration of the application therefor, which is hereby made a part hereof and a copy of which is attached hereto, and of the payment on or before the delivery hereof of three hundred eight and $\frac{90}{100}$ dollars, and the further payment of a like amount on or before the twentieth day of January in every year thereafter until twenty premiums have been paid to the company at its home office in Indianapolis, Ind.

Any unpaid note and other existing indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy reduces the values above specified in the proportion that such indebtedness bears to the net value of the extended insurance, the extended insurance being reduced in amount, not in the term of extension.

The reserve under this policy shall be computed upon the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana.

CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company will loan upon the sole security of this policy, while in force, within six months from date of written application for such loan, any sum not in excess of the amount stated in the table of options to be loaned at the end of the current policy year plus the value of the reserve on any additions hereto; provided that there shall first be deducted from such loan value any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy and any unpaid balance of the current year's premium, and that interest at the rate of five per cent per annum on the total amount of the loan be paid in advance to the end of the current policy year and that this policy be assigned to the company as security for such loan. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness to the company hereunder shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and to the assignee, if any, if such assignee has notified the company of his address.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISION.—If after the premiums for three full years have been paid there shall be a default in the payment of any premium when due, this policy being then in force, the company, without any action on the part of the insured, will continue this policy in force as paid-up non-participating term insurance for the term specified in the table of options for the end of the last year for which full annual premiums shall have been paid, provided that any unpaid note given for a premium and any existing indebtedness to the company on account of, or secured by this policy, shall reduce the amount of such extended insurance in the ratio of such indebtedness to the net value of such extended insurance; or at the written request of the insured, made within thirty days after such default in premium payment, the company will, upon surrender of this policy properly receipted, pay to the insured its cash value as specified in the table of options, which shall not be less than the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of extended insurance as aforesaid, or will issue to the insured a paid-up non-participating policy for an amount of insurance as stated in said table, the said cash and paid-up values to be subject to any existing indebtedness.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—When this policy matures as a claim by reason of the death of the insured, the amount payable hereunder, or any portion thereof, not less than one thousand dollars, may be left in trust with the company during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and the company will pay interest annually upon the amount so left on deposit at the rate of three per cent per annum, together with such annual dividend as may be apportioned by the company, so long as the amount shall remain on deposit with the company. The said trust fund may be withdrawn with accrued interest at any time upon sixty days' notice, thereupon terminating the trust; or upon the death of the beneficiary the amount of said trust fund, with accumulated interest and dividends apportioned, will be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS—INSTALLMENT SETTLEMENTS.—At any time prior to the maturing of this policy as a death claim, provided there be no assignment of the policy outstanding on the records of the company, the insured may change the manner of its payment by written notice to the company, accompanied by this policy for endorsement thereon, so that in event of his death, the equivalent of the amount insured shall be payable in any specified number of equal annual instalments according to the following table, which is based upon a policy of $1,000 and will apply pro rata to the amount payable under this policy: Five annual instalments of $213.99 each, total guaranteed $1069.95; ten annual instalments of $116.17 each, total guaranteed $1161.70; fifteen annual instalments of $83.88 each, total guaranteed $1258.20; twenty annual instalments of $67.98 each, total guaranteed $1359.60; twenty-five annual instalments of $59.02 each, total guaranteed $1465.50. The first instalment shall be payable at the same time that the original amount would have been payable under this policy, and subsequent instalments shall be payable on the succeeding anniversaries of the first payment. Unpaid instalments can neither be assigned nor commuted, and in the event of the death of the beneficiary intestate, any unpaid instalments shall be paid to the estate of the beneficiary.

SECURITY.—This policy will be secured by a deposit of its full legal reserve value with the insurance department of the State of Indiana, in accordance with the Indiana Legal Reserve Compulsory Deposit Law of 1899.

INCONTESTABILITY.—In case of death after one year from date hereof, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums, provided the covenants as to military and naval service in time of war, as provided in the application, shall have been complied with.

PREMIUMS. WHEN PAYABLE.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company. The company may, however, designate suitable persons authorized to receive said premiums at other places on or before the dates due, but only in exchange for the company's official receipt, signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by the authorized person to whom payment is made. If any premium be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and all premiums forfeited to the company except as herein provided.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of any premium under this policy, except the first, a grace of thirty-one days will be allowed, during which time the policy will remain in force, subject to an interest charge at the rate of six per cent per annum.

REARRANGEMENT OF PAYMENTS.—Upon ten days' notice, prior to the time any premium becomes due, the insured may have the privilege of changing from an annual to semi-annual or to quarterly rates, or upon any anniversary of the policy may change from semi-annual or quarterly to annual rate in payment of premiums. Such semi-annual or quarterly payments being made in accordance with the terms of the policy will continue this policy in force for the time specified.

REINSTATEMENT IN EVENT OF LAPSE.—This policy may be reinstated on written application at any time after default in the payment of any premium, subject to evidence of good health satisfactory to the company, and payment of premiums due to date of reinstatement with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, compounded annually.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, including any of the current year's premium remaining unpaid, will first be deducted in any settlement under this policy.

ASSIGNMENT.—This policy may be assigned, but the assignment must be in writing, and the company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of such assignment unless the original or a duplicate thereof is filed at the home office of the company and its receipt duly acknowledged. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, from time to time during its continuance, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, by filing with the company a written request duly acknowledged, accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same upon the policy by the company, provided this policy has not been assigned, or, if assigned, that all assignments shall have been duly cancelled or released on the books of the company.

PREMIUM NOTICE.—Notice of each and every payment due or to become due hereon at the date named is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this policy, and further notice required by any statute is hereby waived.

CONSTRUCTION OF CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor, taken together, constitute the entire contract, which cannot be changed or modified except by consent of the company duly recorded by written endorsement hereon over the signature of its president or secretary; and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation affecting this contract made at any time by any person other than the above mentioned officers of the company. All statements made by the insured in the application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. This contract is to be construed under the laws of the State of Indiana, it being agreed that the place of this contract is at the home office of the company.

PROOFS OF DEATH.—Proofs of death shall be upon and must fully comply with the company's forms in use at the time of the death of the insured, and settlement shall be made upon receipt of due proof of death and of the interest of the claimant and not later than two months after receipt of such proof. If the age of the insured is understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be the sum which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

POLICY IN FORCE.—No obligation is assumed by this company upon this policy until the first premium has been paid, and the policy duly delivered during the lifetime and good health of the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—1. That the insurance hereby applied for shall not be binding on said company until a policy has been issued and delivered to me and the premium paid to the company or its duly authorized agents during my lifetime and good health. 2. That should any policy based upon this application be issued upon the participating plan, in any distribution of surplus the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for such distribution, and the company's determination of the amount belonging to such policy shall be, and the same are ratified and accepted by me for myself and for every person who shall at any time have or claim any interest in such policy. 3. That I will not, within one year from the date of any policy issued hereunder, engage in any of the following occupations or employments: Handling electric wires or dynamite, the manufacture, handling or transportation of inflammable or explosive substances, blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, service as an employee on any railroad train or engine (passenger conductor, express messenger or mail service excepted) or in coupling or switching cars, or on a steam or sailing vessel, and that any such employment or labor or occupation, within said year, shall work a forfeiture of all rights under any policy issued hereon, unless the written consent of the company shall be first obtained. 4. That death by my own hand or occasioned by my own act, whether voluntary or involuntary, whether I be sane or insane, or whether death be intended or anticipated as the result of such act, or in consequence of actual or attempted violation of law, within one year from the date of any policy issued hereunder, shall invalidate the insurance and forfeit the premium payments to the company. 5. That active service in the army or navy in time of war shall invalidate the insurance unless a permit for such service shall have been endorsed upon the policy by the company. 6. That inasmuch as only the company at its home office in the city of Indianapolis has authority to determine the terms and conditions upon which a policy shall issue on any application, that no statements, promises or information made or given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application for a policy, or by or to any other person, shall be binding on the company or in any manner affect its rights, unless such statements, promises or information be reduced to writing and presented to the company in this application; that this application (Part I and Part II) and any policy issued on account hereof, taken together, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto which shall at all times be held to have been made at Indianapolis, Ind., and shall in all respects be determined in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana.

PART II. AGREEMENT.—In making this application for insurance on my life to the Meridian Life Insurance Company of Indianapolis, Ind., I hereby declare and agree, first, that all the statements and answers in this application (in the part marked Part I, as well as those made to the medical examiner in the part marked Part II) are hereby declared to be true, full and complete and are offered to the company as a consideration for the contract of insurance. 2. That any physician may disclose to the Meridian Life Insurance Company, its successors or assigns, any facts or information communicated to or acquired by him as my physician, and I waive any and all provisions of law which now, or may hereafter, exist exempting or prohibiting any physician from disclosing any facts acquired in any professional capacity or rendering such physician incompetent as a witness.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $297.60.

Age, 33.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, in consideration of the annual premium of two hundred, ninety-seven and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and of the payment of a like amount upon each first day of January hereafter until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured, promises to pay at the home office of the company in the city of New York upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death of John Doe, herein called the insured, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium, for the then current policy year upon surrender of this policy, properly receipted, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, beneficiary, with the right of revocation.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy, made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary, under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at said home office or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due of a receipt signed by the president, vice-president, secretary or actuary of the company and countersigned by said agent. A grace of thirty-one days shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the days of grace the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

RESTRICTIONS.—The company shall be released from all liability under this policy if the insured shall, within one year from the issue hereof, become engaged in or connected in any manner with the manufacture or sale of ale, wine, beer or liquor, unless so engaged at the date hereof and so stated in the application for this policy. If the insured within one year from the issue hereof die by his own hand or act, whether sane or insane the company shall not be liable for a greater sum than the premiums which have been received on this policy. No agent is authorized to waive forfeitures or to make, modify or discharge contracts, or to extend the time for paying a premium.

PARTICIPATION.—In accordance with the endorsement on the fourth page hereof making this a participating contract, the provisions on the second page hereof covering options on surrender or lapse and loans are deemed to be amended to include reference to dividend additions or accumulations and the values shown in the table on second page will be increased accordingly.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy (and the application therefor) constitutes the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year from the date of its issue, except for non-payment of premiums. All statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defense of a claim hereunder unless it is contained in the written application therefor and a copy of such application is securely attached to this policy when issued. If the age of the insured has been misstated the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age. The insured hereunder may engage in military or naval service in any State or country without notice to the company and without extra premium charge.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be executed upon blanks furnished by the company and filed with the company at its home office in the city of New York. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—Upon failure to pay any premium or any part thereof when due, this policy, except as otherwise provided herein, shall immediately lapse. If, however, the lapse occur after three full years' premiums shall have been paid, the owner hereof provided there be no indebtedness hereon, shall, upon written request filed with the company at its home office together with the presentation of this policy for legal surrender or for endorsement within three months from the due date of premium in default, be entitled to one of the following options: (First) A cash surrender value, or the mathematical equivalent thereof, namely, (second) to have the insurance continued for its original amount as term insurance from due date of premium in default, without participation and without the right to loan, but with a cash surrender value decreasing each year and ceasing entirely upon the expiry of the extension term, which value shall be the full reserve at the date of surrender, or (third) to have the insurance continued for a reduced amount of non-participating paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and under the same conditions as this policy, which paid-up insurance shall have an increasing cash surrender value equal to the full reserve at the date render, or a loan value up to the limit of the cash surrender value, with interest in advance to the end of the policy year at the rate of five per cent per annum, the company in its discretion may defer the payment of the cash value for a period exceeding ninety days after the application therefor is received by the company. The owner shall not, within three months from due date of premium in default, surrender this policy to the company at its home office for a cash surrender value or for term insurance or paid-up insurance as provided in the above options, unless the surrender value shall be continued for a reduced amount of paid-up insurance as provided in the third option. The values set forth in the table of guaranteed loan values and surrender options for the respective years have been calculated on the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum deducting from the entire reserve a surrender charge not exceeding in any case one-half per cent of the face of the policy, except that after the time for which surrenders are payable as stated on the first page hereof, no deduction has been made from the reserve in calculating the values. Upon request of the insured, values for years ending on the twentieth will be furnished based on the full reserve without surrender charge. A surrender or default be at any other time than at the anniversary date of the policy, the values will be adjusted on account of the fractional part of the current premium actually paid before default. Any indebtedness to the company under the policy will be deducted from the cash value; and such indebtedness will also reduce the amount of paid-up insurance or the amount continued as term insurance in such proportion as the indebtedness bears to the cash value at due date of premium in default.

The cash value or loan value at any time other than the end of the policy year (prior to the full year's premium has been paid) shall be the value at the end of the current year, discounted at the rate of six per cent per annum.

LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid and while this policy is in force, the company will loan on the sole security thereof up to the limit secured by the cash surrender value on proper and lawful assignment and delivery of this policy. The loan will bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and may be repaid at any time while the policy is in force. If interest is not paid when due, it shall be added to the principal, provided the entire outstanding indebtedness shall be within the limit secured by the cash surrender value; otherwise non-payment of interest shall render the policy void and after one month's notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee of record if any. After the expiration of the premium payment period interest in advance to the end of the policy year will be required. At the option of the company, the loan may be deferred for a period not exceeding ninety days, after application therefor is received by the company, unless such loan is to be applied solely to the payment of a current premium hereunder.

REINSTATEMENT.—Unless the cash value has been paid or the extension period has expired, this policy, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, may at any time be reinstated by payment of arrears of premiums with interest at six per cent per annum on any loan which existed at date of default, together with interest at the same rate to the date of reinstatement, to be, at the option of the owner on application for such reinstatement, either repaid in cash or continued as an indebtedness against the policy.

MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—Providing this policy is not assigned, the insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, may elect, and in case no such election has been made prior to the death of the insured, the beneficiary may elect to have the proceeds or any part of the net sum payable under this policy upon the death of the insured as follows instead of in one sum: (1) By the payment of interest at the rate of three and one-half per centum on the amount retained, payable at the end of each year for a fixed number of years or during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and at the end of the fixed period or upon the death of the beneficiary by the payment of the amount retained, together with any accrued interest for the year then current, to the person named in said notice, or, if there be no person so designated, to the beneficiary's executors, administrators or assigns. (2) By the payment of equal instalments covering a fixed number of years, in accordance with option 2 in the table below for each one hundred dollars of said net sum, the first instalment being payable upon receipt of due notice of the death of the insured. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with option 3 in the table below for each one thousand dollars of said net

Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $301.40. AGE, 35.

The Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company hereby agrees and promises to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, the amount of this policy, at its home office in the city of Detroit (any balance of the current year's premium and any indebtedness of the insured or beneficiary to this company being first deducted therefrom), when it has received due proofs of the death of John Doe, of Detroit, county of Wayne, State of Michigan, whose life is hereby insured for the term of one year from the date hereof, subject to the conditions contained herein. If at the time the application is made, the insured has therein reserved the right to change the beneficiary, this policy will be payable to the person last designated under that right. Subject to the above provision, the sum insured is payable to his wife Mary Doe if living; if not living, then to his administrators, executors or assigns.

This policy is issued in consideration of the application therefor, a copy of which is attached to and is made a part of this contract, the same being accepted by the insured on the following conditions: The annual premium of three hundred one and $\frac{49}{100}$ dollars shall be paid in advance to the company at its home office in the city of Detroit, or to its authorized agents, on delivery of this policy.

This policy shall not take effect unless the first premium is paid in cash or a note for extension of time for such payment is accepted by the company at its home office at Detroit, Mich., nor unless the insured be in good health at the time of its delivery to him. At the expiration of the year for which insurance hereunder is provided, this policy will be converted without new medical examination into a contract of insurance for life by payment to the company of the sum of three hundred one and $\frac{49}{100}$ dollars on or before twelve o'clock noon on the first day of January, 1909, and of a like sum on the same date of each succeeding year during eighteen years or until the death of the insured, should that event sooner occur; and if so converted this policy shall be valid and continue as a whole life contract beginning on the first day of January, 1909, and the sum hereby insured shall be due and payable to the legal beneficiary herein whenever due proofs of the death of the insured are received by the company. All premiums upon this policy shall be paid in advance either at the home office of the company or to an authorized agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary.

LOAN.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company will, at any time while this policy is in force, advance upon proper assignment of the policy, and upon the sole security thereof, a sum equal to (or, at the option of the insured, less than) the reserve on this policy at the end of the current year (such reserve being computed upon the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest), less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy, first deducting from said loan value any unpaid balance of the current year's premium and any other existing indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. Interest on said loan will be charged at the rate of five per cent per annum payable in advance to the end of the current policy year and semi-annually thereafter. The company, at its option, may defer completion of the loan for six months after application therefor is made. Failure to repay any such loan or interest will not void the policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon, to the company, equals or exceeds the loan value of the same, nor until one month after notice has been mailed, by the company, to the last known address of the insured and his assignee, if any.

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If the premiums are not paid as provided herein, then in every such case the company shall not be liable for the sum insured and the policy shall cease and determine, excepting only that if default be made in the payment of any premium after three full years' premiums have been paid and there be no indebtedness on account of this policy, the full amount of this policy will be carried as non-term insurance for such a period as the reserve of the policy (computed upon and one-half per cent American Experience Table of Mortality) less a sum than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured, will pay for when its premium. If there is any loan or other indebtedness against the policy at default, the value that otherwise would be used to purchase extended insurance reduced by the amount of the loan or indebtedness, with interest, and the used as a net premium to purchase non-participating term insurance for equal to the face of the policy, less such indebtedness. This non-participating insurance shall be subject to all the conditions of this policy, except as to 1 of premiums and except the right to loans and surrender values.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of the extended insurance hereinbefore provided after the payment of three full years' premiums and default in the payment of a subsequent premium, the insured may, by return of the policy with a written request to the company within one month after such default, have the policy carried as non-participating insurance for a fractional part of the sum insured, according to the values endorsed hereon. The amount of such paid-up non-participating insurance will be endorsed upon the policy, and shall be at least equal in value to the insurance above provided for. All values after the twentieth year not endorsed upon the policy, will not be less than the equivalent of the value of this policy according to the Michigan standard of valuation.

CASH VALUE.—After premiums have been paid for three full years, if default in the payment of any subsequent premium and this policy be surrendered before the insured and beneficiary within one month after such default, the company will pay for such surrender an amount at least equal to the sum that would be available for the purchase of extended insurance as hereinbefore provided. The cash value of this cash value is shown in the table printed hereon and payment of the same deferred not longer than six months after application for it is made. Cash value at the twentieth year not endorsed upon this policy will not be less than the full value of this policy according to the Michigan standard of valuation.

RESTORATION OF POLICY.—If this policy shall not have been surrendered before the company and canceled, it may be reinstated on written application within three years of the non-payment of any premium, subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of arrears of premium, with five per cent interest on the unpaid premium or renewal of any indebtedness outstanding at the time of default and interest.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—After this policy has been in force for a period of one month will be allowed for the payment of any premium due thereon, during which period this policy shall remain in force for the full amount; but in the event of the death of the insured during such term of grace the full premium for the term of the policy year, or any unpaid balance thereof, shall be deducted from the amount payable under the policy.

INCONTESTABLE PROVISION.—This policy, with a copy of the application and the entire contract between the parties thereto and shall be in force after two years from date, except for infraction of the provisions for the payment of premiums, for military or naval service in time of war, or for fraud. If the insured is misstated, the company will be liable only for such an amount as it received would have paid for at the rates charged by the company at this date of the insured's real age. No agent has power to change the terms of this contract to extend the time for the payment of any premium. It is understood and agreed that when the first premium has been paid the insurance under the terms and conditions of this contract shall commence and take effect from the day and date of this payment.

ASSIGNMENTS.—If this policy is assigned or held as security, written notice shall be given to the company, and proof of interest produced with proof of death. The company will take no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

NON-PARTICIPATING.—This policy shall not participate in any distribution of dividends.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If the right has been reserved in the application for this policy, the insured may, providing this policy has not been assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries at any time by filing with the company a written request acknowledged and accompanied by this policy; such change to take effect from the date of endorsement of the same upon the policy by the company.

ALIMENT BENEFITS.—In lieu of payment in one sum, the insured, by written while this policy is in force, may elect to have the proceeds made payable either in annual instalments or in annual instalments continuous during the life of the beneficiary. Such request will become operative upon appropriate endorsement of the policy by the company, and the amount of the instalments will be based on the sum payable under the policy and will be determined from the tables given below. The first instalment will be paid immediately upon receipt and approval of the death of the insured and subsequent instalments annually thereafter.

by agree that the policy shall not take effect unless the first premium is paid in the company or its authorized agent, or a note for extension of time for such is accepted by the company at its home office in Detroit; nor unless I am alive good health at the time of its delivery.

I further agree that if the first or any subsequent premium on the policy shall ed wholly or in part by note or other obligation, whether of the beneficiary, myself, third party, such settlement shall not be deemed a payment, but only an extension time for the payment of such premium; and if such note or other obligation, or ewal thereof, shall not be fully paid when due, then, for any loss occurring while te or other obligation remains due and unpaid, the company shall not be liable, whole amount of the premium included in such note or other obligation shall be red as earned and the company may collect the same.

o agree, for myself and for all who may be interested as claimants under any sued upon this application, that I will not engage in any military or naval service of war, and that should I commit suicide within two years next following the date of issue of any such policy issued hereon (whether same or ~~kind~~ of this such act), that in that event the amount then payable under said policy shall be amount of the legal reserve upon such policy, computed in accordance with the of the State of Michigan.

I also agree, for myself and for all who may be interested as claimants in policy issued upon this application, that if the replies to the foregoing questions written in by a representative of the insuring company, it is done with the distinct standing by me that such replies are dictated by me; that I have carefully read the same; that they are all correctly recorded herein; and I also further agree that any statements or representations made by me or any other person to such representative in connection with this application for life insurance will not be binding on said insurance company, unless the same are expressly stated herein.

All statements made by me in the application for this policy shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

I also understand and agree that no agent has power to change the terms of this contract nor to extend the time for the payment of any premium.

It is also understood that the payment of any note or obligation received in pursuance of this application shall, in no manner whatsoever, be contingent upon conditions not expressed in such note or obligation.

PART II.—I have reviewed and understand all of the above questions and answers thereto, and they are hereby made a part of my application for insurance in the Mutual Life Insurance Company, and I hereby declare said answers and each of them, to be full, complete and true, that I am the person described above in Part I. of this application, that the application was signed by me, and that the answers to each question in Parts I. and II. of my application was hereon recorded in full before I signed the same.

Midland Life Insurance Company (Mo.)

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $383.40. AGE,

Midland Life Insurance Company, Kansas City, Mo., by policy of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, at home office in Kansas City, Mo., to Mary Doe, wife of the insured or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the insured or if no designated beneficiary survive, then to the executor administrators or assigns of the insured, upon receipt at home office of due proof of the claimant's right and of the death of John Doe, the insured, during the continuance of this policy.

STATE OF MISSOURI—INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

This policy is registered and secured by a pledge of bonds or deeds of trust on estate, deposited with this department.

This policy is absolutely free from conditions or restrictions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death, from the date of its issue. Neither a permit nor extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

In case of suicide, committed while sane or insane, within one year from the date on which this insurance begins, the limit of recovery hereunder shall be the total amount of the premiums paid.

This policy is incontestable after one year if all premiums shall have been duly paid.

TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid, and before default in payment of any subsequent premium, if due proofs shall be furnished to the company that the insured has become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or diseases and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from suiting any and all gainful occupations, the company will agree, by endorsement in writing on this contract, to pay the face amount of insurance under this policy, in twenty equal annual instalments, to the insured or the executors of the insured, and will continue to make annual payments of the same amounts during the life of the insured, the said twenty instalments shall have been paid; the said instalments and payments to be in lieu of all other benefits under this policy. The first instalment shall be immediately on acceptance by the company of due proofs of the said total disability. Payment of premiums on this policy shall cease when endorsement of the said disability benefit shall have been made hereon. It is further agreed, that should the insured subsequently recover from the said disability, so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, payment of instalments shall immediately cease. This policy may be reinstated for the full amount, and all the original benefits thereunder restored, without medical re-examination, on payment to the company of the total amount of instalments paid and of all arrears of premiums, with compound interest at five per cent per annum the said payment to be made in cash, or, if not in excess of the reserve on the policy, the amount of the said payment may remain as a loan on the policy subject to other provisions herein. Any medical adviser of this company shall have the privilege at any time to examine the insured regarding any alleged disability. This benefit shall not be available if disability occurs after the insured shall have attained the age of fifty years.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which time this policy shall remain in full force, will be allowed in payment of all premiums after first, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated on written application made within three years after the non-payment of any premium, except when surrendered for its cash value, subject to satisfactory evidence of insurability and payment of the unpaid premiums with five per cent interest as well as the repayment of any indebtedness outstanding at the time of the non-payment of the unpaid premium, with interest. The year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in the event of death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured may (at any time, and from time to time), subject to any existing assignments of this policy and during its continuance, designate a new beneficiary with or without revocation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for a suitable endorsement thereon.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, the full amount of insurance hereunder will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace specified in Column 3 of the accompanying table.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of such term insurance, the company will endorse this policy the amount of paid-up life insurance, if any, specified in Column 2 of the accompanying table, upon written request therefor made by the insured within six months from said due date.

LOANS.—At any time when this policy shall be in force after the payment of three years' premiums, the company will loan to the insured (or the owner of the policy, if signed) upon proper assignment of the policy and upon the sole security thereof, a sum equal to the cash value at the end of the current policy year less the unpaid portion of the full premium for the said year. Such loan shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable in advance. Failure to repay any loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid this policy until the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed to the last known address of the insured or of the assignee of record, if any, at the home office of the company.

CASH VALUE.—Upon written request, and on surrender of this policy, the company will pay the cash value, if any, specified in Column 1 of the accompanying table, which is the net value of the extended or paid-up insurance, stated herein. If any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy exists at the time the above values become available, such indebtedness shall reduce the amount of the said loan, cash or paid-up values, or shall shorten the extended insurance period, which values or period shall then be adjusted on the basis originally used in their calculation. The term insurance specified above shall not be subject to cash loans. The paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans. The cash value and the net value of the term insurance and paid-up insurance specified herein shall not be less than the reserve on the policy at the end of the year for which premiums are paid, less a sum not greater than six tenths of one per cent of the amount insured under this policy.

In case of default in payment of a premium after a fractional part of the current year's premium has been paid the above values will be proportionately adjusted. Loan and cash values for any subsequent years not shown above will be the full reserve on this policy and will be furnished on request of the insured.

GUARANTEED COUPON OPTIONS.—The insured (or the holder of the policy, if assigned) may select any one of the following options:

OPTION I.—Use in payment of any premium any coupon then matured. Any semi-annual or quarterly premium payable hereunder may, on written request of the insured, be reduced, by a proportionate part of the amount of the coupon payable in the year during which said semi-annual or quarterly premium becomes due, provided the policy with said coupon attached is presented to the company for proper endorsement.

OPTION II.—Leave any coupon then matured with the company to accumulate at compound interest at the annual rate of three and one-half per cent. Any coupons so left with the company may be withdrawn by the insured (or the holder of the policy, if assigned) at any time. Any balance remaining to the credit of the policy under this option shall be paid in cash by the company to the insured or the beneficiary in any settlement thereunder.

OPTION III.—If all premiums due hereon shall be paid in full in cash, and all coupons shall be left to accumulate, then, upon the surrender of all the coupons now attached hereto, and interest accumulations thereon after the end of the fifteenth policy year, this policy will be endorsed by the company as fully paid up.

OPTION IV.—If all premiums due hereon shall be paid in full in cash, and all coupons shall be left to accumulate, then, upon surrender of this policy and all the coupons now attached hereto and interest accumulations thereon after the end of the thirty-first policy year, this policy shall, at the option of the insured, mature as an endowment, and the face amount thereof will then be paid in cash to the insured. Any balance of coupon accumulation above the amount necessary at net single premium rates to make the policy paid-up or to mature it as an endowment for its face value under the above options, shall be paid in cash to the insured.

OPTION V.—If the premium for the year commencing on the date of any coupon shall have been paid in full in cash without the use of said coupon, the amount shown thereon may then, on written request of the insured and surrender of the coupon, be applied by the company as a single premium at the company's rates now in force and at the age of the insured at that time to purchase additional paid-up non-participating life insurance without medical examination. Said additional insurance may be surrendered on any subsequent anniversary of the policy for its legal cash surrender value or the said cash value may be used to reduce any subsequent premium. The said additional insurance may be applied on any policy anniversary to increase the paid-up value, or its cash value applied to increase the cash or loan value under this policy. The cash or paid-up values so increased and the accumulated coupon amounts under Option II are shown in the following table:

account of this policy, the full amount of this policy will be carried as non-participating term insurance for such a period as the reserve of the policy (computed upon the law and one-half per cent American Experience Table of Mortality) less a sum, not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured, will pay for when used as a net premium. If there is any loan or other indebtedness against the policy at the time of default, the value that otherwise would be used to purchase extended insurance will be reduced by the amount of the loan or indebtedness, with interest, and the remainder used as a net premium to purchase non-participating term insurance for an amount equal to the face of the policy, less such indebtedness. This non-participating term insurance shall be subject to all the conditions of this policy, except as to the payment of premiums and except the right to loans and surrender values.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of the extended insurance hereinbefore provided for, after the payment of three full years' premiums and default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the insured may, by return of the policy with a written request to the company within one month after such default, have the policy carried as paid-up non-participating insurance for a fractional part of the sum insured, according to the table of values endorsed hereon. The amount of such paid-up non-participating insurance will be endorsed upon the policy, and shall be at least equal in value to the extended insurance above provided for. All values after the twentieth year not endorsed in the table of paid-up insurance hereon, will not be less than the equivalent of the full reserve of this policy according to the Michigan standard of valuation.

CASH VALUE.—After premiums have been paid for three full years, if default be made in the payment of any subsequent premium and this policy be surrendered fully received by the insured and beneficiary within one month after such default, the company will pay for such surrender an amount at least equal to the sum that would otherwise be available for the purchase of extended insurance as hereinbefore provided. The amount of this cash value is shown in the table printed hereon and payment of the same may be deferred not longer than six months after application for it is made. Cash values after the twentieth year not endorsed upon this policy will not be less than the full reserve of this policy according to the Michigan standard of valuation.

RESTORATION OF POLICY.—If this policy shall not have been surrendered to the company and canceled, it may be reinstated on written application within three years after the non-payment of any premium, subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of arrears of premium, with five per cent interest, and the repayment or renewal of any indebtedness outstanding at the time of default in the payment of premiums, with interest.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—After this policy has been in force one year, a grace of one month will be allowed for the payment of any premium due thereon, during which period this policy shall remain in force for the full amount; but in the event of the death of the insured during such term of grace the full premium for the then current policy year, or any unpaid balance thereof, shall be deducted from the amount payable under the policy.

INCONTTESTABLE PROVISION.—This policy, with a copy of the application attached, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto and shall be incontestable after two years from date, except for infraction of the provisions for the payment of premiums, for military or naval service in time of war, or for fraud. If the age of the insured is misstated, the company will be liable only for such an amount as the premium received would have paid for at the rates charged by the company at this date for persons of the insured's real age. No agent has power to change the terms of this contract nor to extend the time for the payment of any premium. It is understood and agreed that when the first premium has been paid the insurance under the terms and conditions of this contract shall commence and take effect from the day and date of this policy.

ASSIGNMENTS.—If this policy is assigned or held as security, written notice shall be given to the company, and proof of interest produced with proof of death. The company will take no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

NON-PARTICIPATING.—This policy shall not participate in any distribution of surplus.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If the right has been reserved in the application for this policy, the insured may, providing this policy has not been assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries at any time by filing with the company a written request, duly acknowledged and accompanied by this policy; such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same upon the policy by the company.

INSTALMENT BENEFITS.—In lieu of payment in one sum, the insured, by written request, while this policy is in force, may elect to have the proceeds made payable either in a limited number of annual instalments or in annual instalments continuous during the life of the beneficiary. Such request will become operative upon appropriate endorsement on the policy by the company, and the amount of the instalments will be based on the sum payable under the policy and will be determined from the tables given below. The first instalment will be paid immediately upon receipt and approval of proof of death of the insured and subsequent instalments annually thereafter.

Twenty instalments will be paid certain, and should the beneficiary die before the twenty instalments have been paid, the remainder of such twenty instalments may, desired, be commuted at the rate of three and one-half per cent.

In witness whereof, the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, at its office in the city of Detroit, this 1st day of January, A. D., 1908.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—I hereby declare and represent, that the above are true answers to the foregoing questions, and I hereby agree that these statements, whether written by my own hand or not, shall form the basis of the contract for the policy of insurance hereby applied for, and that any fraudulent answers, any suppression of facts in regard to my health, habits, occupation or circumstances, or neglect to pay the premium on or before the day becomes due, as specified in said policy, shall void the policy and forfeit all payments made thereon, except as provided in the policy.

I hereby agree that the policy shall not take effect unless the first premium is paid in cash to the company or its authorized agent, or a note for extension of time for such payment is accepted by the company at its home office in Detroit; nor unless I am alive and in good health at the time of its delivery.

And I further agree that if the first or any subsequent premium on the policy shall be settled wholly or in part by note or other obligation, whether of the beneficiary, myself, or any third party, such settlement shall not be deemed a payment, but only an extension of time for the payment of such premium; and if such note or other obligation, or any renewal thereof, shall not be fully paid when due, then, for any loss occurring while such note or other obligation remains due and unpaid, the company shall not be liable, and the whole amount of the premium included in such note or other obligation shall be considered as earned and the company may collect the same.

I also agree, for myself and for all who may be interested as claimants under any policy issued upon this application, that I will not engage in any military or naval service at a time of war, and that should I commit suicide within two years next following the

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $383.40. AGE, 3

Midland Life Insurance Company, Kansas City, Mo., by this policy of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, at its home office in Kansas City, Mo., to Mary Doe, wife of the insured or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the insured or if no designated beneficiary survive, then to the executor, administrators or assigns of the insured, upon receipt at its home office of due proof of the claimant's right and of the death of John Doe, the insured, during the continuance of this policy.

STATE OF MISSOURI—INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

This policy is registered and secured by a pledge of bonds or deeds of trust on real estate, deposited with this department.

This policy is absolutely free from conditions or restrictions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death, from the date of its issue. Neither a permit nor extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

In case of suicide, committed while sane or insane, within one year from the date on which this insurance begins, the limit of recovery hereunder shall be the total amount of the premiums paid.

This policy is incontestable after one year if all premiums shall have been duly paid.

TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid and before default in payment of any subsequent premium, if due proofs shall be furnished to the company that the insured has become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will agree, by endorsement in writing on this contract, to pay the face amount of insurance under this policy, in two equal annual instalments, to the insured or the executors of the insured, and will continue to make annual payments of the same amounts during the life of the insured, until the said twenty instalments shall have been paid; the said instalments and payments to be in lieu of all other benefits under this policy. The first instalment shall be paid immediately on acceptance by the company of due proofs of the said total disability. Payment of premiums on this policy shall cease when endorsement of the disability benefit shall have been made hereon. It is further agreed, that should the insured subsequently recover from the said disability, so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, payment of instalments shall immediately cease. This policy may then be reinstated for the full amount, and all the original benefits thereunder restored, without medical re-examination, on payment to the company of the total amount of instalments paid and of all arrears of premiums, with compound interest at five per cent per annum; the said payment to be made in cash, or, if not in excess of the reserve on the policy, the amount of the said payment may remain as a loan on the policy subject to other provisions herein. Any medical adviser of this company shall have the privilege at any time to examine the insured regarding any alleged disability. This benefit shall not be available if disability occurs after the insured shall have attained the age of fifty-five years.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which time this policy shall remain in full force, will be allowed in payment of all premiums after the first, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated on written application made within three years after the non-payment of any premium, except when surrendered for its cash value, subject to satisfactory evidence of insurability and payment of the unpaid premiums with five per cent interest as well as the repayment of any indebtedness outstanding at the time of the non-payment of the unpaid premium, with interest. The face of the insured's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured may (at any time, and from time to time), subject to any existing assignment, under this policy and during its continuance, designate a new beneficiary with or without revocation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for a suitable endorsement thereon.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, the full amount of insurance hereunder will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace specified in Column 3 of the accompanying table.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of such term insurance, the company will endorse on this policy the amount of paid-up life insurance, if any, specified in Column 2 of the accompanying table, upon written request therefor made by the insured within six months from said due date.

LOANS.—At any time when this policy shall be in force after the payment of three years' premiums, the company will loan to the insured (or the owner of the policy, if assigned) upon proper assignment of the policy and upon the sole security thereof, if any part of a sum equal to the cash value at the end of the current policy year less the unpaid portion of the full premium for the said year. Such loan shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable in advance. Failure to repay any to pay interest thereon shall not avoid this policy until the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, until one month after notice shall have been mailed to the last known address of insured or of the assignee of record, if any, at the home office of the company.

LOAN VALUE.—Upon written request, and on surrender of this policy, the company shall pay the cash value, if any, specified in Column 1 of the accompanying table, which shall be the net value of the extended or paid-up insurance, stated herein. If any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy exists at the time the above values become payable, such indebtedness shall reduce the amount of the said loan, cash or paid-up value, or shall shorten the extended insurance period, which values or period shall be adjusted on the basis originally used in their calculation. The term insurance specified above shall not be subject to cash loans. The paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans. The cash value and the net value of the term insurance and paid-up insurance specified herein shall not be less than the reserve on the policy at the end of the year for which premiums are paid, less a sum not greater than six tenths of one per cent of the amount insured under this policy.

case of default in payment of a premium after a fractional part of the current year's premium has been paid the above values will be proportionately adjusted. Loan and values for any subsequent years not shown above will be the full reserve on this policy and will be furnished on request of the insured.

GUARANTEED COUPON OPTIONS.—The insured (or the holder of the policy, if assigned) may select any one of the following options:

OPTION I.—Use in payment of any premium any coupon then matured. Any semi-annual or quarterly premium payable hereunder may, on written request of the insured, be reduced, by a proportionate part of the amount of the coupon payable in the year in which said semi-annual or quarterly premium becomes due, provided the policy said coupon attached is presented to the company for proper endorsement.

OPTION II.—Leave any coupon then matured with the company to accumulate at compound interest at the annual rate of three and one-half per cent. Any coupons left with the company may be withdrawn by the insured (or the holder of the policy, if assigned) at any time. Any balance remaining to the credit of the policy under this option shall be paid in cash by the company to the insured or the beneficiary in any settlement thereunder.

OPTION III.—If all premiums due hereon shall be paid in full in cash, and all coupons be left to accumulate, then, upon the surrender of all the coupons now attached to, and interest accumulations thereon after the end of the fifteenth policy year, the policy will be endorsed by the company as fully paid up.

OPTION IV.—If all premiums due hereon shall be paid in full in cash, and all coupons be left to accumulate, then, upon surrender of this policy and all the coupons now attached hereto and interest accumulations thereon after the end of the thirty-first policy year, this policy shall, at the option of the insured, mature as an endowment, and the amount thereof will then be paid in cash to the insured. Any balance of coupon accumulation above the amount necessary at net single premium rates to make the policy up to or to mature it as an endowment for its face value under the above options, shall be paid in cash to the insured.

OPTION V.—If the premium for the year commencing on the date of any coupon shall have been paid in full in cash without the use of said coupon, the amount shown thereon, then, on written request of the insured and surrender of the coupon, be applied by the company as a single premium at the company's rates now in force and at the age of the insured at that time to purchase additional paid-up non-participating life insurance without medical examination. Said additional insurance may be surrendered on subsequent anniversary of the policy for its legal cash surrender value or the said value may be used to reduce any subsequent premium. The said additional insurance may be applied on any policy anniversary to increase the paid-up value, or its cash value applied to increase the cash or loan value under this policy. The cash or paid-up value so increased and the accumulated coupon amounts under Option II are shown in the following table:

CONDITIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from its date this policy will be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums and except as to service in the army or navy in time of war, for which a written permit must be obtained, as hereinafter provided.

FIRST PREMIUM.—This policy shall not take effect unless the first premium is actually paid while the insured is in good health.

SUBSEQUENT PREMIUMS.—In case any subsequent premium is not paid when due, this policy shall be void, and all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as herein agreed.

WHERE PAYABLE.—All premiums are due and payable at the home office of the company in the city of Columbus, Ohio, but will be accepted elsewhere, if paid to a duly authorized agent, in exchange for the company's receipt, signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agent designated therein.

GRACE IN PAYMENT.—Thirty-one days' grace will be allowed in payment of any premium after the first year; the policy to remain in force for its full amount during such period; but interest on such premium shall be paid, at the rate of five per cent per annum, from the date when the premium became due.

OCCUPATION.—This policy does not restrict the insured as to occupation, residence or travel, from date of issue, except as to service in the army or navy in time of war, for which a written permit must be obtained at the company's regular rates.

SUICIDE.—Self-destruction, while sane or insane, within one year from the date hereof, is a risk not assumed by this company; but in such case it will pay the amount of the premium received on this policy.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy shall be void, unless assented to in writing by the president or secretary and endorsed hereon and a duplicate filed with the company; but it will not, by receiving or filing any assignment hereof, assume any responsibility for the validity thereof.

CHANGES AND WAIVERS.—At the option of the insured this policy may be changed at any time without medical examination for any other form calling for a higher premium rate which this company issues at that time, but no change will be made whereby the amount of insurance for which this company may become liable is larger than that contained in the original contract; at the time of making this change the insured shall pay the difference between the premiums required under the two contracts, from the date of the old policy in cash with interest at five per cent per annum. No change in, addition to, waiver of or permit, under this contract shall be valid unless signed by the president or secretary and endorsed hereon.

POLICY CLAIMS.—Proofs of death or application for any other settlement hereunder, except for paid-up insurance, cash surrender values or disability benefits, must be furnished to the company at its home office, within one year after the death of the insured or the time when the right to such settlement accrued, and shall be upon the forms supplied and then in use by the company. The premiums on this policy being due annually, the unpaid instalments of any policy year and any other indebtedness to the company will be deducted in any settlement under this policy.

ACTION.—No action shall be brought against the company, hereunder, unless commenced within five years from the time when the right of action accrues.

PRIVILEGES.

BENEFICIARY.—The beneficiary shall not, by virtue of the terms of this policy, have any vested interest hereunder; and the insured may, before the maturity of the policy, change the beneficiary named herein, if this policy is not then assigned and if there be no vested right to the proceeds of this policy arising otherwise than under the terms hereof, upon filing a written request with the company at its home office in such form as it may require; but no change shall take effect unless endorsement thereof shall have been made hereon by the president or secretary.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse it may be reinstated at any time within three years, or thereafter by special arrangement, upon evidence of continued good health being furnished by the insured satisfactory to and approved by the company at its home office in Columbus, Ohio, and the payment of premiums and all other indebtedness paid due with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum.

DIVIDENDS.—At the end of the second policy year, if the third annual premium is paid in cash and at the end of each subsequent policy year, the company will annually determine and account for the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on this policy which may thereafter be used by the insured for any one of the following purposes:—(First) Withdrawn in cash or applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or (second) applied to the purchase of paid-up endowment additions to the policy; or (third) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum and payable at the maturity of the policy, but withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy; or (fourth) used to convert this policy into a paid-up life insurance policy for $10,000 whenever the cash value of this policy, together with the cash value of any dividend additions thereto less any outstanding indebtedness, will purchase paid-up life insurance if used as a net single life premium according to the American Experience Mortality Table and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum at the attained age of the insured; or (fifth) used to mature this policy provided there is no indebtedness hereon to the company as an endowment for $10,000 whenever the cash value of this policy together with the cash value of any dividend additions thereto shall equal said sum. Unless the insured shall elect otherwise within two months after any dividend is due, the same shall be applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy.

DISABILITY BENEFITS.—After one full annual premium has been paid and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, should the insured become totally and permanently disabled through bodily injury or disease, before he reaches the age of sixty-five, or the maturity of the premium paying period, so that there is neither then nor at any time thereafter, any work, occupation or profession that the insured can ever sufficiently do or follow to earn or obtain any wages, compensation or profit; and proofs of such condition, made upon blanks furnished by the company to the entire satisfaction and approval thereof, have been received at the home office, within three months from the date of the beginning of such condition, the insured may select one of the following benefits: (First) This policy, without further premium payments, to become paid-up in full for its face amount and payable at the death of the insured. (Second) This policy, without further premium payments, to be payable to the insured in an equal annual instalments, the sum of which shall equal the face amount hereof. Should the insured die before ten instalments have been paid, the balance of the ten instalments remaining unpaid will be paid as they mature to the beneficiary named in the policy. (Third) One-half the face amount of this policy to be paid upon surrender hereof and releasing the company from all liability thereunder. Should the disability as above stated occur after the insured has reached the age of sixty-five, the first benefit only will be granted and all subsequent premiums as they become due shall be accumulated without interest and will be an indebtedness against this policy.

The annual premium for this clause is fifty cents for each $1000 of insurance, and is included in the whole premium charged for this policy. This clause may be canceled at any time by the insured, and thereafter the disability insurance shall cease and the premium on this policy shall be reduced by the amount named herein, provided the policy be returned to the company for proper endorsement.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

STATEMENTS OF INSURED NOT WARRANTIES.—All statements made by the insured in the application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. At the end of the third or any subsequent policy year, during the whole of which this policy shall have been in force, or within sixty days from the due date of any premium in default, the insured shall have the following options:

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—Without any action upon the part of the insured in case of default in payment of any premium after the third year, the company will extend the insurance hereunder as a paid-up non-participating term policy for the period stated, together with a final value, payable at the end of the term, if the insured be then living, as set forth in column 2 of the table of Guarantees, on the first page hereof; provided there is no outstanding indebtedness. If the death of the insured shall occur during the first year of such extended insurance, the premiums which would have been paid, if no default had been made, with interest, shall be deducted from the amount payable. If there should be any indebtedness to the company at the time of such default the life insurance hereunder, less such indebtedness, will be extended for such a period as the cash surrender value at the time of default, less the indebtedness will purchase according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum at the attained age of the insured.

PAID-UP ENDOWMENT INSURANCE.—Upon the written request of the insured and the surrender of this policy within sixty days from the due date of any premium in default after the third year, the company will issue a paid-up participating endowment policy, payable as herein provided, for the amount named in column 3 of the Table of Guarantees, on the first page hereof, provided that there is no outstanding indebtedness. If there should be any indebtedness to the company at the time of such default, the amount of paid-up endowment, stated in the Table of Guarantees, on the first page hereof, shall be reduced in the proportion which such indebtedness bears to the cash surrender value of the above named benefits. The extended insurance or the paid-up policy will be entitled to cash surrender values according to the reserve thereon at time of surrender, computed upon the basis hereinbefore mentioned less any indebtedness.

CASH VALUE.—To surrender the policy to the company at its home office for its cash surrender value which shall be equal to the entire net reserve on this policy on the preliminary term basis less a surrender charge not in excess of two and one-half per cent of the face of this policy in any year. If there be no indebtedness on this policy, the cash surrender value will be as shown in column 4 of the Table of Guarantees on the first page hereof.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time, while the policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of the policy and on the sole security thereof, a sum not exceeding the amount specified in column 4 of the Table of Guarantees on the first page hereof and on any additions thereto, with interest at six per cent per annum, payable in advance, deducting therefrom all indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid balance of premium for the current policy year. Such loan may be deferred for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. Failure to repay any such advance or interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of assignee, if any. The extended insurance, paid-up insurance, cash and loan values above referred to, together with the Table of Guarantees on the first page of this policy, are computed upon the American Experience Mortality Table, with interest at three and one-half per cent yearly. Such guaranteed values do not provide for the deduction of a sum in excess of two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, as a surrender charge in any year.

PREMIUM LOANS.—Upon written request of the insured and assignee, if any, made prior to default in payment of any premium, the premiums thereafter coming due, if not paid in cash, less any dividends applicable thereto, will be charged against the policy as a loan bearing compound interest at the rate of six per cent per annum in advance, until such time as the accumulated loan, together with any other indebtedness with the terest, shall equal or exceed the cash value hereof, when the policy shall become null and void, subject, however, to the notice provided for in the loan clause herein. This request may be revoked at any time in writing, provided, however, that such revocation shall not affect any loan that may have been previously made under this privilege. Premium loans may be repaid at any time, and while this policy is carried in force under the provisions of this privilege, the insured may, without furnishing evidence of good health, resume premium payments.

SPECIAL OPTIONS.

EXTENDED LIFE INSURANCE.—Upon the written request of the insured within thirty-one days from the due date of any premium in default after the third year, the company will extend the insurance hereunder as a paid-up non-participating term policy for the period stated in column 2 of the Table of Special Options on this page, and the amount of cash, stated in column 3, if any, will be paid as a pure endowment to the insured, if living, at the end of twenty years from the date on which this insurance becomes effective. If the death of the insured shall occur during the first year of such extended insurance, the premium which would have been paid, if no default had been made, with interest, shall be deducted from the amount payable. If there should be any indebtedness to the company at the time of such default, the life insurance hereunder, less such indebtedness, will be extended for such a period as the cash surrender value at the time of default, less the indebtedness, will purchase according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum at the attained age of the insured.

PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—Upon the written request of the insured and the surrender of this policy within thirty-one days from the due date of any premium in default after the third year, the company will issue a paid-up participating life policy for the amount named in column 4 of the Table of Special Options, and the amount of cash, if any, specified in column 3, shall be paid as a pure endowment to the insured, if living, at the end of twenty years from the date on which this insurance becomes effective. If the insured shall furnish to the company satisfactory evidence of insurability the company will grant in lieu of the values stated in columns 3 and 4 of the Table of Special Options, paid-up non-participating insurance for the amount stated in column 5. If there should be any indebtedness to the company at the time of default in premium payments, the amount of paid-up life insurance, stated in the Table of Special Options, shall be reduced in the proportion which such indebtedness bears to the cash surrender value of the above named benefits.

SPECIAL MATURITY OPTIONS.—If this policy is in force at the maturity of its endowment period the insured may elect either of the following options: (a) To receive \$7,500 in cash, together with any dividends then standing to its credit less any outstanding indebtedness; or, (b) To convert this policy, provided there is no indebtedness hereon to the company, into a paid-up participating life insurance policy for \$10,000 and to receive in addition \$1,340 in cash, together with any dividends then standing to its credit; or, (c) To convert this policy into a paid-up non-participating life insurance policy for \$13,240, which is the amount of insurance the endowment hereof will purchase if used as a net single life premium, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent per annum, at the attained age of the insured. If the endowment amount is increased by surplus accumulations, the above guarantee will be increased, but any indebtedness placed on the policy will operate to reduce said guarantee. Should "Option C" be selected, and the amount of paid-up life insurance so purchased exceed the amount of this policy payable in the event of death, satisfactory evidence of the good health of the insured must be furnished to the company.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.

AGREEMENT.—The insured, at any time while this policy is in force, for an amount not less than $1000 and not then assigned, upon request in writing to the home office of the company, may substitute, for payment in one sum as provided in the first payment by installments, as stated below, under any one of the following options, provided there shall be but one beneficiary hereunder:

OPTION 1.—Payment of the face of the policy, plus any dividend additions then in force, in twenty equal annual installments, (the first installment being payable immediately on satisfactory proof of the death of the insured) and a further amount equal to one-half the face of the policy twenty years after the payment of the first installment.

2.—Payment immediately on satisfactory proof of the death of the insured, of the face of the policy, plus any dividend additions then in force; and on one year thereafter payment of the remainder (if not less than $1000) in 20, 25 or 30 equal annual instalments as shown in the following table:

The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, so as payment hereunder during the life of the beneficiary, unless such right is given in writing and is endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office the life of the insured.

Should this policy mature as an endowment for not less than $1000⁰⁰ the insured upon written notice as hereinbefore provided, elect to receive the amount in instalments as provided in any one of the foregoing instalment options, subject to their terms.

Any indebtedness of the insured under this policy will be deducted from the payable thereunder, before any one of the foregoing instalment options become

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—I agree that if the amount of the premium on the insurance herein for is not paid when this application is made, no contract of insurance shall be made and no liability on the part of said company shall arise until a policy shall be made and delivered to me, nor until the first premium thereon shall be actually paid in sound health; but that if the amount of said premium is paid at the time making this application, the receipt for advance payment of premium given me shall mine the conditions upon which, and the time when the insurance applied for shall effect, and that the agent has no authority to change or add to the terms of application nor of the binding receipt hereto attached.

PART II.—I understand and agree, if a policy is issued hereon, that the entire is contained in this application and such policy, and any promises, statements or representations made by any person not contained therein shall not affect the liability of the company in any way thereunder, notwithstanding any knowledge or information then had by any representative of the company. I hereby warrant that the statements made in Parts one (1) and two (2) of this application are true, full and correct in detail, which statements and application are understood and agreed by me to be true of any policy issued hereon and shall be part of any such policy. I waive all provisions of law preventing any physician from disclosing information concerning me. It is understood and agreed that no liability shall attach to either party hereunder, or co herewith, until this application shall have been received and approved at the home office the policy issued and actually delivered to and accepted by me and the first premium paid to an authorized agent of the company during my life and good health payment has been made for first year's premium at the time of making application for which a binding receipt has been given upon the company's form by an authorized agent, in which event liability attaches to the company, provided the policy is issued at the home office, from this date. Mis-statement of age will be adjusted by the company in accordance with its published premium rate now in use for the correct age.

I die by my own act, whether sane or insane, during the period of one year next following the date of issue of the policy hereby applied for, the company's liability shall be limited to the premiums paid thereunder. Should I engage in military or naval service in time of war, without first obtaining written permission from the company, or any of the answers made in my application, including Parts one (1) and two (2) fraudulent, then any policy granted hereon shall be null and void, and all payments thereon shall be forfeited to the company. In any apportionment or division of surplus, the principles and methods which may be adopted by the company and its determination of the amount belonging to such policy shall be accepted for every person who shall have any interest under said policy, and the receipt of the person whose life is insured shall be in full surrender of all dividend additions. That the contract applied for, if issued, shall be held as made in the state of Ohio construed in accordance with the laws thereof and the company's charter.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

*Adopted in 1907.

Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.
 AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $374.80. AGE, 35.

The Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company of Minnesota in consideration of the annual premium of three hundred seventy-four and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, and of the further payment of a like sum on or before the first day of April in every year during the life of the insured, or until premiums for twenty full years shall have been duly paid, promises to pay at the home office of the company in St. Paul, Minn., immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe of St. Paul, State of Minnesota, herein called the insured, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year, to Annie Doe, his wife, beneficiary with right of revocation.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above, as follows: \$194 $\frac{90}{100}$ dollars on the first day of April and October, or 99 $\frac{90}{100}$ dollars on the first day of April, July, October and January. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at said home office, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by said agent. A grace of one month, not less than thirty days and without interest therefor, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first during which month the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the month of grace the overdue premium will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder.

SPECIAL DISABILITY FEATURE.—After one full annual payment shall have been made and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured shall not have attained the age of sixty years, and shall furnish to the company satisfactory proof that he has become totally and permanently disabled by bodily injuries or disease, so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from life from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, the company by an endorsement in writing on this policy will waive the payment of premiums thereafter becoming due. Any premiums so waived shall not be deducted from the sum payable under the policy and the loan and cash values described on the second page hereof shall be the same as if such premiums were actually paid in cash. Provided, that notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured shall at any time on demand furnish the company with satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability; and if the insured shall fail to furnish such proof or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is unable to perform any work or engage in any occupation whatsoever, for gain, compensation or profit, payment of subsequent premiums shall then be resumed by the insured as originally provided in the policy. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrevocable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, will be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

RIGHTS OF THE INSURED.—When the right to change the beneficiary is reserved, the insured subject to any existing assignment of the policy, may without the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, receive every benefit, exercise every right, and enjoy every privilege conferred by this policy.

PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company, and beginning at the end of the second policy year the company will annually determine and account for the portion of the divisible surplus accruing hereon. Dividends at the option of the owner of the policy shall, at the end of two years from the date hereof, and annually thereafter, be either (1) paid in cash, or (2) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums, or (3) applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy, or (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at not less than three and one-half per cent per annum and payable at the maturity of the policy, but withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy. Unless the owner of this policy shall elect within three months after the mailing by the company of a written notice requiring such election, the dividends shall be paid in cash. Paid-up additions are convertible into cash at any time, and if so converted their cash value will be the full reserve therefor on the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, not less however than the amounts of the original dividends.

PAID-UP OPTION.—Whenever the reserve on this policy and on any existing dividend additions, at the end of any policy year shall equal or exceed the single premium the insured's attained age according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent for an amount of insurance equal in face of this policy, the company at the written request of the insured will endow this policy (subject to any existing indebtedness) as participating paid-up insurance such an amount as the said reserve will purchase at the premium named.

CHANGE OF PLAN.—While this policy is in full force it may be changed at any time, without medical examination to any other form of life or endowment policy in use by the company at the time this policy was issued provided the rate of premium is not thereby diminished. For any such change the company will require the payment of such amount as is determined by it under its then existing rules and the new policy shall be of the same number, age at issue, date of issue and amount as this policy.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After premiums have been paid hereon for three years, this policy will have a value equal to the full reserve on the policy and on paid-up dividend additions, computed as of the date to which premiums have been paid, upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a surrender charge which shall in no case exceed two and one-half per cent of the face amount of the policy, and less also any existing indebtedness the company on this policy. Said value may be used at the option of the insured any one of the following three ways: (1) Applied to the purchase of extended insurance, commencing from the date to which premiums have been paid, without future participation, and without the right to loans or cash values, for the face amount of the policy, plus any outstanding paid-up dividend additions and less any indebtedness thereon, and for such a term of years and months as said value taken as a single premium of the insured's then attained age will provide according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum. Any outstanding dividends which have been left to accumulate at interest will be then paid cash, or, if the insured so elects before the expiration of the days of grace they may be left at interest but withdrawable on any subsequent anniversary of the policy or at the expiration of the term of extension. (2) Applied to the purchase of non-participating paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy, without the right to loans or cash values, for such an amount as said value taken as a single premium at the insured's then attained age, will provide according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum. Written request must be made for this option by the insured, accompanied by this policy for surrender or endorsement at the home office before the expiration of the days of grace. Any dividends which have been left to accumulate at interest will be then paid cash or if the insured so elects before the expiration of the days of grace they may be left at interest but withdrawable on any subsequent anniversary of the policy or payment of the paid-up insurance as a death claim. (3) Collected in cash on written request and proper surrender of this policy before the expiration of the days of grace. The amount of any outstanding dividends which have been left to accumulate at interest will also be paid in cash in that event. Payment may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding ninety days. The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the above provisions and upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy and that there are no outstanding dividends or dividend additions. Figures for years not shown will be furnished upon request and will be upon the same basis:

After premiums for three full years shall have been paid, if default occurs in payment of any subsequent premium, and if the insured shall not elect before the expiration of the days of grace to have the value of the policy applied under option (2) or option (3), the value will be applied as provided in option (1). If default occurs before premiums for three full years have been paid this policy will have no value and the insurance will cease and determine.

REINSTATEMENT.—Unless surrendered for cash, this policy may be reinstated at any time after default upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and by payment of arrears of premiums with interest at six per cent per annum; any indebtedness which existed at date of default together with interest to the date of reinstatement, to be at the option of the insured on application for reinstatement, either repaid in cash or continued as an indebtedness against the policy.

CONDITIONS AND PRIVILEGES.—The insured is privileged to travel or reside in any part of the world and may engage in any occupation. This policy does not insure against the death of the insured caused by his or her own hand or act, while sane or insane, during the first year from the date hereof, and in the event of such death the liability of the company shall be the amount of the premiums paid. This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year from the date hereof except for non-payment of premiums and except as otherwise provided in the policy. All statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy less it is contained in the written application herefor. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity or effect of any assignment, and any claim made by or on behalf of any such assignment shall be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid and while this policy is in full force by the payment of premiums, the company will loan on the sole security of the policy and on proper assignment thereof, an amount not exceeding its cash value at the end of the then current policy year. Interest on loans will be at rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, which if not paid annually shall be added to the principal and bear interest at the same rate. The company will deduct from such loan any unpaid indebtedness or previous advances on the policy and any unpaid balance of premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall exceed the cash value of the policy at the time of such failure, and until notice of such failure shall have been mailed to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. Consummation of loans may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding ninety days. No condition other than as herein provided shall be required as a prerequisite to any such advance.

VALUATION.—The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, in the case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured subject to any existing assignment of the policy may at any time, and from time to time, nominate a new beneficiary or beneficiaries by filing with the company a written request duly acknowledged, accompanied by this policy for endorsement. Such change shall not take effect, however, until it has been endorsed upon the policy by the company. When the right of revocation has not been reserved such right may be assumed by the insured at any time by filing with the company a written request, accompanied by the insured and the then irrevocable beneficiary or beneficiaries and duly acknowledged. The resumption of such right of change shall be operative when the same is acknowledged by the company. If the beneficiary or beneficiaries named hereunder die before the insured, and the insured shall not have named a new beneficiary, the proceeds of this policy shall be payable to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns.

Missouri State Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS— TOTAL DISABILITY

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $382.80. AGE, 35.

The Missouri State Life Insurance Company agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, which is the face amount hereof, immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, the insured, or Mary Doe, wife of the insured, and beneficiary, it being understood that the insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries hereinafter provided.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFIT.—The company will pay for the insured the premiums required hereon, and will pay to the insured annually one-twentieth of the face amount hereof, in event of the total and permanent disability of the insured, as provided on the third page hereof.

UNRESTRICTED AND AFTER ONE YEAR INCONTESTABLE.—This policy is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death, and shall be incontestable after one year if the premiums are duly paid.

This policy shares annually in the profits of the company, as follows: Upon the payment of the premium or premiums hereon for the second policy year, and at the end of the second and of each subsequent policy year, this policy, if in full force, will be credited with cash dividend from the surplus then apportioned by the company to policies of the same age and kind, and the insured shall have the following

DIVIDEND OPTIONS:

1. Draw the dividend in cash; or,
2. Apply the dividend in reduction of premium; or,
3. Apply the dividend to the purchase of a profit-sharing paid-up insurance addition increasing the insurance hereunder; or,
4. Leave the dividend on deposit with the company to accumulate at interest, the entire accumulation, or any part thereof, to be payable in cash to the insured at any time, on demand.

Any dividend not drawn or applied as per Option 1, 2 or 3 above, within one month from the date when credited, shall become an interest-bearing deposit as per Option 4. Dividends applied to purchase paid-up insurance additions or left on deposit may be used by the insured (a) to shorten the premium paying period of the insurance, in which event the company will grant a profit-sharing paid-up life policy for the face amount hereon when the accumulated dividend deposits and the reserve on this policy and on any paid-up insurance additions hereto, shall equal or exceed the net single premium then required for such a paid-up life policy by the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent per annum; or, (b) to mature this policy as an endowment, in which event the company will pay the face amount hereof when the accumulated dividend deposits and the reserve on this policy and on any paid-up insurance additions hereto shall equal or exceed said face amount.

POST MORTEM DIVIDEND.—A mortuary dividend will be paid in cash in addition to the face amount hereof if this policy becomes a claim by death after the first policy year and while in full force on a premium paying basis. Such a dividend will be paid on account of the surplus earnings for the period from the due date of the last dividend to the date of death.

SURPLUS INTEREST PARTICIPATION.—Dividend deposits will be accumulated at a rate of interest in no event less than three per cent per annum and at such greater rate as the company may from time to time determine and allow. Interest payments under the trust fund privilege and instalment payments under the instalment privilege of this policy shall be increased by such annual dividends from interest earnings as may be apportioned to the company, commencing with the payment due at the end of one year from the date on which any such privilege may become effective.

CONSIDERATION.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the application herefor, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof, and of the payment in advance of three hundred eighty-two dollars and eighty cents, being the premium for the first year's insurance under this policy ending on the second day of June, 1915, which is term insurance. The insurance will be continued thereafter as whole life insurance upon the payment of the annual premium of three hundred eighty-two dollars and eighty cents, on or before the second day of June in every year during the continuance of this policy until premiums for twenty policy years, including the first, have been paid.

ANNUAL, SEMI-ANNUAL OR QUARTERLY PREMIUMS.—Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly, in advance, in accordance with the company's table of rates applicable hereto, and the company will allow a change from one to another of such modes of payment upon the insured's written request therefor on the company's form.

FACILITY IN PAYING PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance, either at the home office of the company in St. Louis, Missouri, or to an authorized agent of the company, upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such agent. If any premium is not paid when due, this policy shall cease and determine, except as hereinafter provided.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS.—The company will advance any and all premiums becoming due hereon and remaining unpaid on the last day of the period of grace hereunder, and will charge such premium or premiums as a loan against this policy together with interest at six per cent per annum in advance to the end of the current policy year, if written request from the insured on the company's form has been received at the home office, while this policy is in full force; provided that the company will not so advance and charge up a premium, if the amount thereof and interest thereon, as aforesaid, together with any outstanding indebtedness hereon to the company, shall exceed the cash value of this policy at the end of the period which such premium, if advanced or paid, would cover. Interest on any such loan shall, for subsequent policy years, be payable annually in advance at six per cent per annum. Such advancing and charging up of premiums will be discontinued at any time on receipt at the home office of the insured's written request therefor. Premium loans hereon shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as any loan granted hereon by the company under the cash loan privilege above set forth. While this policy is thus carried in force, the insured may, without medical examination, resume payment of premiums.

LOAN INSURANCE.—Any indebtedness to the company on this policy may be insured. Loan insurance secured for this purpose shall be applied to the cancellation of any such indebtedness should the policy mature as a death claim. Such loan insurance shall take effect only after the insured has furnished evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, paid the premiums hereon based upon the rate at the attained age at the date of granting or renewing such insurance in accordance with the following schedule, and has received a certificate of loan insurance from the company.

SCHEDULE OF PREMIUM RATES FOR LOAN INSURANCE.

Attained age of insured	20-30	31-40	41-50	51-55	56-60
Annual premium per $100 of loan insurance.	$0.80	$0.90	$1.10	$1.60	$2.30

For a period of less than one year the premium shall be at the rate of one-tenth of the annual premium for each month and fraction of a month. Loan insurance shall expire on each anniversary date of this policy but may be renewed from year to year until the insured has attained age sixty, on furnishing evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and on paying the annual premium based on the rate at the insured's then attained age. Any excess of loan insurance over the indebtedness hereon to the company may be cancelled by the company and the unearned premium refunded.

AGE.—If the age of the insured is misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and both documents sent to the home office, one to be retained by the company and the other to be returned. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time, and from time to time, during the continuance of this policy, with the consent of the company, subject to any assignment of this policy, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder by filing at the home office a written request on the company's form therefor, duly acknowledged, accompanied by this policy, request change to take effect only upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise stipulated herein.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application herefor.

DIVIDEND DEPOSITS.—Dividend deposits may remain with the company at interest while this policy remains in force, becoming payable in cash in any event upon the discontinuance of this policy—to the beneficiary if this policy matures as a death claim, otherwise to the insured. Provided, that no premium shall be construed as paid, either wholly or in part, nor any insurance hereunder extended or continued in force, by reason of any dividend deposits remaining with the company.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—This policy is payable at the home office of the company in St. Louis, Mo., and proof of interest of claimant will be required. Any indebtedness hereon to the company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or from any cash surrender value available hereunder; the amount of paid-up life insurance and the period of continued term insurance, provided in options 2 and 3 of the non-forfeiture values, will be reduced by the equivalent value of such indebtedness according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. In the settlement of this policy as a death claim, any unpaid premiums or unpaid part of a premium for the current policy year in which death occurs shall be considered as an indebtedness hereon to the company.

Payment of the cash value or the making of a loan (except for the purpose of paying renewal premiums hereon) may be deferred for a period not exceeding ninety days after application shall have been made therefor.

In case of death by self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from date of issue, the liability of the company shall be limited to an amount equal to the premiums paid hereon.

Only the president or secretary has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereinafter made, unless made in writing by one of said officers.

This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred on the insured by this policy.

In witness whereof, the Missouri State Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, signed this policy this second day of June, 1914.

INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGES.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy, if the policy is not assigned, from payment in one sum to payment by equal annual instalments of any number from two to twenty-five, or in equal annual instalments for twenty years certain and to continue so long thereafter as the beneficiary shall live, in accordance with the tables below. The instalment payments herein provided may be made annually, semi-annually, quarterly or monthly, and if made other than annually, the total of the fractional payments each year shall equal the annual payment provided herein. The insured may subsequently change his selection under these instalment privileges; he may also revoke all selections, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. No selection, change or revocation shall take effect until endorsed in this policy by the company; after endorsement, the policy will be returned to the insured. Payment of the first instalment shall be made immediately upon receipt of the proofs of death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually, tri-annually, quarterly or monthly thereafter as may have been directed. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, unless such right is given to the insured to the beneficiary when payment in instalments is directed. The following tables are based upon a policy of $1000 and will apply pro rata to the amount payable under this policy.

INSTALLMENTS CERTAIN.—Limited to the Number Stated Below:

ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary should be thirty years of age last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment will be $44.98 for each $1000 of insurance, payable during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, but if the beneficiary should die before the twenty annual instalments certain shall have been paid, the remainder of these instalments will be commuted at the rate of three per cent per annum and paid in one sum to the beneficiary's estate, unless otherwise directed by the insured.

sured. Payment by continuous instalments cannot be selected if there is more than one beneficiary under this policy, or if the beneficiary is a corporation, a firm, or the insured's estate.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—By written agreement between the insured and the company made while this policy is in force and not assigned, the proceeds of this policy may be placed in trust with the company for the purpose of paying the beneficiary a death claim if not less than $1000, or any part of such proceeds not less than said sum, may be placed in trust with the company for the purpose of paying the beneficiary a guaranteed income thereon at the rate of not less than three per cent per annum, or the termination of the trust or until the death of the beneficiary, whereupon the trust shall be terminated and the proceeds of the trust shall be paid to the beneficiary, or to the beneficiary's executors, administrators or assigns. The first payment of the trust shall be made one year after receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, and subsequent payments shall be made annually thereafter. The insured may at any time revoke the trust, thereby making this policy again payable as provided on the face hereof. The beneficiary cannot withdraw the amount placed in trust, unless such sum is given by the insured to the beneficiary upon creation of the trust.

DIVIDENDS ON INSTALMENT BENEFITS AND TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—Each instalment, except the first, and each payment of interest under the above privilege shall be increased by such annual dividend from the interest earnings as may be applicable by the company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY, NON-PARTICIPATING, PROFIT-SHARING AFTER 20 YEARS. TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $300. AGE,

The Missouri State Life Insurance Company agrees to pay to the insured, or to the beneficiary, the sum of ten thousand dollars, which is the face amount hereof, immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, the insured, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, and beneficiary, it being understood that the insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries as hereinafter provided.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFIT.—The company will pay for the insured the premiums required hereon and will pay to the insured annually one-tenth of the face amount hereof, in event of the total and permanent disability of the insured as provided on the third page hereof.

UNRESTRICTED AND AFTER ONE YEAR INCONTESTABLE.—This policy is in full force and effect as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death, and shall be incontestable after one year if the premiums are duly paid.

NON-PROFIT-SHARING WITH PROFIT-SHARING PRIVILEGE AFTER TWENTY YEARS.—This policy is issued on the non-profit-sharing plan, but the insured shall have the option of exchanging it, without additional cost, for a profit-sharing annual dividend life policy for the face amount hereof on the anniversary date next following the date the last premium payment, if all premiums have been duly paid as provided on the face hereof.

INSTALMENT PRIVILEGE.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim from payment in one sum to payment by instalments, as provided on the fourth page hereof; such instalments will be paid by dividends, as provided on said page.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—The insured may place the proceeds of this policy in trust with the company to secure a guaranteed annual cash income with interest in addition thereto, as provided on the fourth page hereof.

CONSIDERATION.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the application herefor, a copy of which is attached hereto, and made a part hereof, and of the payment in advance of the first premium of one hundred dollars, being the premium for the first year's insurance under this policy ending on the twenty-ninth day of May, 1911, which is term insurance. The insurance will be continued in force as whole life insurance upon the payment of the second premium of three hundred dollars, on or before the twenty-ninth day of May in every year during the continuance of this policy, until premiums for twenty policy years, including the first year, have been paid.

See preceding policy for annual, semi-annual or quarterly premiums; facility of loan; grace in premium payments; cash value; paid-up policy; continued insurance; reinstatement.

OF NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.—If after the second policy year a semi-annual or more quarterly premiums are paid in addition to the premiums for complete years, the proportionate part of the current year's increase in the values will be to the values of the preceding year.

Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $362.20. AGE, 35.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, in consideration of the payment of premiums as hereinafter provided, hereby insures the life of John Jones, of Newark, in the County of Essex, State of New Jersey (herein called the insured), in the sum of ten thousand dollars, for the term of life, payable at its office in Newark, New Jersey, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured. Any error made in stating the age of the insured will be adjusted by paying such amount as the premiums paid would purchase at the correct age. Any indebtedness to the company on this policy and any unpaid instalments of the then current year's premium will be deducted from the amount insured.

PREMIUMS.—The annual premium of three hundred and twenty-two dollars and twenty cents, will be payable by the insured on delivery hereof and on the first day of January in each year at the company's office in Newark, New Jersey, or to agents in exchange for receipts signed by the president or treasurer, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the death of the insured, should that event sooner occur. In lieu of the annual premium the company will accept one hundred and eighty-four dollars and seventy cents semi-annually in advance, or ninety-four dollars and twenty cents quarter-annually in advance. This policy will not take effect unless the first premium or agreed instalment thereof shall be actually paid during the lifetime of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall affect the company until it shall have received written notice thereof.

AGENTS.—Agents are not authorized to make, alter or discharge contracts.

INCONTESTABILITY.—If within one year the insured shall commit suicide, while sane and sane, this policy will be null and void. This policy will be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premium.

The Provisions and Agreements printed on the second and third pages hereof are part of this contract.

In witness whereof, The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, signed this contract at the City of Newark, in the State of New Jersey, this first day of January, 1908.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

At the end of any policy year during the whole of which the policy shall have been in force, or within one month from default in premium payments, the owner shall have the following options:

1. To surrender the policy to the company at its office in Newark, New Jersey, for cash surrender value.
2. To surrender the policy to the company at its office in Newark, New Jersey, for non-participating paid-up policy payable at the time this policy would be payable if continued in force.
3. If the policy be not surrendered as above, the insurance will be automatically extended from date of default in premium payments, without any action by the owner of the policy and without participation in surplus, for a sum equal to the amount of the policy and existing dividend additions, if any, less any indebtedness to the company thereon.

The cash surrender value will be equal to the entire net reserve on this policy by the American Experience Mortality and interest at three per cent yearly, less any indebtedness to the company hereon and less a sum equal to one per cent of the amount of this policy and existing dividend additions, if any, up to and including the fifth policy year, after which the said percentage will be reduced each year one-tenth per cent of the amount insured. If there be no indebtedness the cash surrender value will be as shown in the following table.

The amount of the paid-up policy or the term of the extended insurance, will be such that the amount of the cash surrender value will purchase at net single premium rates, according to the attained age of the insured, by the American Experience Mortality and interest at three per cent yearly, and if there be no indebtedness, will be as shown in the following table. The paid-up policy or the extended insurance will be entitled to cash surrender values equal to the reserve thereon at time of surrender, computed on the basis hereinbefore mentioned, less any indebtedness to the company thereon.

Except as provided in this policy any default in premium payments will immer render the policy null and void.

GRACE AND REINSTATEMENT.—In event of default in premium payments, the may be paid within one month, (of not less than thirty days) or, if not so paid, insured shall die within the said month, this policy will be regarded as being then in and the arrears will be deducted in the settlement hereof; or, if requested by the prior to or within the said month, the arrears will be charged as an indebtedness this policy, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, provided entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within the limit secured by the cash render value; or this policy may be reinstated at any time after the said month, evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all arrears with thereon at not to exceed six per cent per annum; provided, in any case, the policy not been surrendered to the company.

LOANS.—At any time while this policy is in force the company will loan on the security thereof up to the limit secured by the cash surrender value, upon receipt of policy and a certificate of loan satisfactory to the company. The loan will bear in at the rate of six per cent per annum and may be paid off at any time while the policy force. If interest be not paid when due, if shall be added to the principal, provided entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within the limit secured by the cash render value; otherwise non-payment of interest shall render the policy null and after one month's notice shall have been mailed to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any.

The following table shows the minimum values guaranteed by this policy for the stated, provided there is no outstanding indebtedness to the company hereon. Divid applied upon either the addition or accelerative endowment plan effect a corresponding increase in the values of the policy.

NOTE.—While any owner of the policy (either by the terms thereof or by assignment) is a minor no loan can be made by the company, except for the purpose of paying out premiums; and before the cash surrender value can be paid the interest of such value must be released by a duly appointed legal guardian.

This policy and the application on which it is based (a copy of which is appended hereto) constitute the entire contract between the parties. All statements made by the insured will, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. No statement will avoid or be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless it is contained in the written application and a copy thereof be attached hereto when issued.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

If not assigned, this policy may be returned to the company at its office in New York, N. Y., with the insured's written request for the appropriate indorsement of the policy by the company:

1. To have the beneficiary changed. This change may be made at any time and at any time to time while the policy is in force, or within one month from default in premium payments.

2. To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy at maturity retained by the company until the death of the beneficiary, the company the meantime to pay the beneficiary interest on the amount so retained at the rate of three per cent per annum, the first interest payment to be made one year after the maturity of this policy, and the last interest payment to be a pro rata one for the proportion of the year in which the beneficiary dies. At any interest date the beneficiary may withdraw the amount retained by the company, in which case the interest payments will cease.

3. To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy its maturity paid in a specified number (not exceeding thirty) of equal annual instalments as shown by the accompanying table, the first instalment being payable immediately.

4. To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy its maturity paid in equal annual instalments continuing during the lifetime of the beneficiary, as shown by the accompanying table, the first instalment being payable immediately.

When either of the instalments payable under privilege No. 3, or of the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 4, shall fall due, the company, if requested, will pay the then present or commuted value of such instalments computed at three per cent interest compounded annually, as shown by the accompanying table. The commuted value of a part or the whole of the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 4, shall be paid at the option of the insured.

st affect the amounts payable thereunder after the term during which the instalments certain would have been payable.

The right of withdrawal under privilege No. 2, or of commutation under privileges Nos. 3 and 4, will be withheld from the beneficiary if the insured shall so direct.

If the policy be not assigned, the insured may revoke the request to have settlement made in accordance with privilege No. 2, or No. 3, or No. 4.

Unless otherwise directed by the insured, the company at the maturity of this policy will extend to the beneficiary privilege No. 2, or No. 3, or No. 4.

DIVIDENDS.—Upon payment of the second year's premium, and at the end of the second and of each subsequent policy year, this policy while in force will be credited with dividends as may be apportioned by the directors, and such annual dividends will include the portion of the divisible surplus accruing hereon. Dividends thus credited will be paid in cash, or, at the option of the insured, will be applied either in reduction of premiums, or upon the addition or accelerative endowment plan; but if dividends have been applied upon the addition plan, subsequent dividends cannot be applied upon the accelerative endowment plan, or vice versa. If settlement of this policy be made in accordance with privilege No. 2, or No. 3, or No. 4, the stipulated payments under privilege No. 2 or No. 3, or the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 4, will be increased by such annual dividends as may be apportioned by the directors, but such dividends will be payable only in cash.

Under the addition plan dividends are applied to the purchase of additional participating insurance (herein referred to as dividend additions) payable with the policy, such insurance being purchased at the company's rates therefor published and in force at the date. This policy may be converted into a fully paid-up participating policy payable at the same time as this policy, subject to any outstanding indebtedness on this policy whenever the reserve on such additional insurance, together with the reserve on the original policy, computed on the basis hereinbefore mentioned, shall equal the net single premium therefor, computed on the same basis.

Under the accelerative endowment plan dividends are applied to the conversion of the policy into an endowment payable at a specified and gradually diminishing age; or, if preferred, into a fully paid-up participating policy payable at the same time that this policy is payable according to its terms.

FIVE-YEAR NON-RENEWABLE CONVERTIBLE TERM.
 AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $130.80. AGE, 35.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, in consideration of the payment of premiums as hereinafter provided, hereby insures the life of John Jones of Newark, in the county of Essex, State of New Jersey (herein called the insured), in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable at its office in Newark, N. J., to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, should that event occur on or before the first day of January, 1913. Any error made in stating the age of the insured will be adjusted by paying such amount as the premiums paid would purchase at the correct age. Any unpaid instalments of the then current year's premium will be deducted from the sum insured.

PREMIUMS.—The annual premium of one hundred and thirty dollars and eighty cents, will be payable by the insured on delivery hereof and on the first day of January in each year during the continuance of this policy, at the company's office in Newark, N. J., or to agents in exchange for receipts signed by the president or treasurer, until five full years' premiums shall have been paid.

until the death of the insured, should that event sooner occur. In lieu of the annual premium the company will accept sixty-six cents and seventy cents semi-annually in advance, or thirty dollars quarter-annually in advance. This policy will not take effect unless the first premium or agreed instalment thereof is actually paid during the lifetime of the insured.

RENEWAL.—At any time within four years from the date hereof this policy, if in force, and not assigned, may be surrendered by the insured to the company at its office in Newark, N. J., for a new life or endowment policy for an amount no greater than the amount of this policy, without re-examination. The new policy will bear the date of surrender of this policy and the premium thereon will be according to the tables in use and the attained age of the insured. If upon surrender of this policy as above insured shall pay to the company the difference between the premiums which would have been payable on the new policy if it had been issued at the same time as this policy, the premiums paid hereunder for the same amount of insurance, with interest on the difference at not to exceed six per cent yearly, the new policy will be treated as if re-issued on the date of this policy.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.—Same as preceding contract.

DIVIDENDS.—Upon payment of the second year's premium, and at the end of the third and of each subsequent policy year, this policy while in force will be credited with dividends as may be apportioned by the directors, and such annual dividends will be paid in cash, or, at the option of the insured, will be applied in reduction of premiums. If settlement of this policy be made in accordance with privilege No. 2, or No. 3, or No. 4, the stipulated payments under privilege No. 2 or No. 3, or the instalments payable under privilege No. 4, will be increased by such annual dividends as may be apportioned by the directors, but such dividends will be payable only in cash.

REINSTATEMENT.—In event of default in premium payments, the arrears shall be paid within one month (of not less than thirty days), or, if not so paid and the insured shall die within the said month, this policy will be regarded as being then in force, the arrears will be deducted in the settlement hereof; or this policy may be reinstated at any time after the said month, but within the term of this policy, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all arrears with interest thereon not to exceed six per cent per annum. Except as herein provided any default in premium payments will immediately render this policy null and void.

This policy and the application on which it is based (a copy of which is appended hereto) constitute the entire contract between the parties. All statements made by the insured, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. No statement will avoid or be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless contained in the written application and a copy thereof be attached hereto when issued.

Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $385.80 (WITH DISABILITY BENEFIT).

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, in consideration of the annual premium of three hundred eighty-five and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and of the payment of a like amount upon each first day of February hereafter until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured, promises to pay at the office of the company in the city of New York upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death of Richard E. Roe, of New York, county of New York, State of New York, herein called the insured, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy-year, upon surrender of this policy properly receipted, to Mary E. Roe, beneficiary, with right to the insured to change the beneficiary.

INSURED TO CHANGE THE BENEFICIARY.

DEATH OF BENEFICIARY BEFORE INSURED. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If any beneficiary die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise provided herein. When the interest of a beneficiary shall have vested in the insured, or when the right to change the beneficiary has been reserved, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of this policy, may, while this policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary, with or without reserving the right to change the beneficiary, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company accompanied by this policy for suitable endorsement hereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at said home office or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due, of a receipt signed by either the president, vice-president, second vice-president, secretary or treasurer of the company and countersigned by said agent. A grace of thirty days (or one month if greater), subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per centum per annum, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the period of grace, the overdue premium and the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy-year, if any, shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. If any premium or instalment thereof be not paid before the end of the period of grace, then this policy shall immediately cease and become void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company except as hereinafter provided.

CONDITIONS.

RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—This policy is free from any restriction as to residence and travel.

OCCUPATION.—This policy is free from any restriction as to military or naval service, as well as all other occupations of the insured, after one year from its date of issue, as set forth in the provisions of the application and the "special provision" clause endorsed hereon or attached hereto.

SUICIDE.—The company shall not be liable hereunder in the event of the insured's death by his own act, whether sane or insane, during the period of one year after the date of issue of this policy, as set forth in the provisions of the application endorsed hereon or attached hereto.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premiums, provided two years shall have elapsed from its date of issue.

This policy and the application herefor, copy of which is endorsed hereon or attached hereto, constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement of the insured shall avoid or be used in defence to a claim under this policy unless contained in the written application herefor and a copy of the application is endorsed on or attached to this policy when issued.

If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

PARTICIPATION.

ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and the proportion of the surplus accruing hereon shall be ascertained and distributed annually on the anniversary of its date of issue. At the option of the insured or the owner of this policy such dividends shall be either (1) paid in cash; or, (2) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or, (3) applied to the purchase of paid-up participating additions to the policy; or, (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy.

with interest at the rate of three per centum per annum compounded annually at payable at the maturity of the policy, but withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy (hereinafter referred to as "dividend deposits"). Unless the insured or the owner of this policy shall elect otherwise within three months after the mailing by the company of a written notice requiring the election of one of the four above options, the dividend shall be applied to the purchase of paid-up additions, as per option (3). Such paid-up additions may be surrendered at any time for a cash value which shall not be less than the original cash dividends as per option (1), provided the reserve for such paid-up additions has not been applied to purchase extended insurance or paid-up insurance in accordance with the provisions of the clause entitled "Options on Surrender or Lapse."

POST MORTEM DIVIDEND.—On the death of the insured a dividend will be credited to this policy for the fraction of a year, if any, from the due date of the last annual dividend, or from the original date of the policy if death take place in the first policy-year, to the date of such death. Such dividend shall be payable in cash with the amount issued.

LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid and while the policy is in force, the company will advance, on the execution of a proper loan agreement and on proper assignment and delivery of this policy and on the sole security hereof, an amount which, with interest thereon to the end of the current policy-year, shall be equal to, or at the option of the owner less than, the cash value at the end of said year: any existing loan hereon with accrued interest, and any unpaid portion of said current policy-years' premium shall be paid out of such advance. Interest on the loan will be at the rate of six per centum per annum payable at the end of each policy-year, and this interest, if not paid when due, shall be added to the existing loan and shall bear interest at the same rate. The loan with accrued interest may be repaid to the company at any time. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee of record, if any, at the home office of the company. (If a loan is desired before three full years' premiums have been paid, the unpaid balance of the three full years' premiums may be paid by deduction from the loan when made if the amount which can be loaned is sufficient.)

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.—The values in the following table are computed in accordance with the above provisions and upon the assumption that premiums have been paid in full for the number of years the "policy has been in force." If there be any indebtedness to the company on the policy, or if there be any outstanding dividend additions, the values will be modified as herein before provided. The figures contained in this table represent the actual amounts available after deduction of the surrender charge, if any, but without allowance for dividend additions or indebtedness.

Values for later years will be computed upon the above stated basis and will be furnished upon request.

* The cash value provided for in the above table for the end of a policy-year, less interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum to the end of such policy-year, can be obtained during such policy-year provided all premiums due prior to the end of such policy-year shall have been duly paid.

 The loan value provided for in the above table for the end of a policy-year can be obtained (less interest) during such policy-year as explained in the above clause entitled "Loans."

Any dividend deposits standing to the credit of this policy at date of surrender or lapse shall then be payable in cash in addition to payment of the cash value or to the granting of the paid-up life or term insurance above provided for.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, the owner, within three months after any default in payment of premium, but not later, may elect either, (a) to surrender this policy for its cash value less any debtedness to the company hereon (this balance is hereinafter referred to as the net cash value); or, (b) to have the insurance continued in force as term insurance from the date of such default, without future participation and without the right to loans or cash value, for an amount equal to the face amount of this policy; or, (c) to purchase non-participating paid-up life insurance payable at the time same and on the same conditions as this policy. The cash value under option (a), after premiums have been paid for five full years or more, will be the reserve at the date of default for the face amount of this policy and for any dividend additions hereto, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality assuming interest at the rate of three per centum per annum, less a surrender charge which, in no case, shall be more than one and one-half per centum of the face amount insured by this policy; after premiums have been paid for ten full years or more there shall be no surrender charge. The term for which the insurance will be continued under option (b), or the amount of the paid-up life insurance obtainable under option (c), will be such as the net cash value obtainable under option (a) at purchase at the attained age of the insured at date of default when applied as a single premium according to the American Experience Table of Mortality assuming interest at the rate of three per centum per annum. If this policy shall not, within three months after default in payment of premium, have been surrendered to the company at its home office for its cash value as provided in option (a), or for paid-up insurance as provided in option (c), the insurance will be automatically continued as provided in option (b).

REINSTATEMENT.—Unless it shall have been surrendered for its cash value, this policy may be reinstated at any time within three years from date of default in payment of premium, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and upon payment of the arrears of premium with interest thereon at the rate of five per centum per annum, and, at the option of the insured, either (a) upon payment in cash to the company of any indebtedness which existed at said date of default together with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, compounded annually, or (b) upon reinstatement of such indebtedness increased by the amount of interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, compounded annually, provided such reinstated indebtedness does not exceed the loan value at the date to which reinstatement is made.

MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—If election be made as hereinafter provided, the net sum payable under this policy at death of the insured, provided such net sum be not less than $1000, will be settled in one of the following methods in lieu of being then paid in cash: (1) By the payment of interest at the rate of three per centum per annum on said net sum, payable at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum together with accrued interest for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in the notice of election, to the beneficiary's executors, administrators or assigns. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. (3) By the payment (a) of twenty equal annual instalments, and the twentieth annual instalment being payable nineteen years later, and (b) of annual instalments of a like amount thereafter throughout the remaining lifetime of said beneficiary, the first of such annual instalments being payable one year after the twentieth annual instalment certain provided said beneficiary be then alive. The payments terminating with the last annual instalment preceding the death of said beneficiary, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in the notice of election, to the beneficiary's executors, administrators or assigns. The above modes of settlement (1) and (3) are not available if the beneficiary be a corporation, a partnership or an association. The election of any of the foregoing modes of settlement may be made by the insured and the beneficiary jointly; or, if the right to change the beneficiary has been reserved, by the insured alone; or, after the death of the insured, if no election shall have been made, by the beneficiary. If the policy be assigned, the assignee must sign in any election. Such election shall be made by giving the company written notice at its home office. This policy, upon its maturity, if such election shall have been made, shall be surrendered to the company and a supplementary contract shall be issued for the mode of settlement elected. Such supplementary contract shall participate annually in the excess of interest earnings over three per centum per annum, at the same excess rate each year as is used in the dividend calculations of that year in the case of policies issued in the same year as this policy, but if settlement be made under mode of settlement (3), only that part of the supplementary contract providing for instalments for the fixed period of twenty years shall participate. Unless otherwise specified in the written notice making election of one of the foregoing modes of settlement, the supplementary contract may at any time be surrendered to the company and the company will pay for the legal surrender thereof, (a) where mode of settlement (1) has been elected, the said net sum together with interest thereon to date of surrender at the rate of three per centum per annum for the fractional part of a year, if any, for which interest shall not have already been paid, (b) where any other of the above modes of settlement has been elected, the computed or present value of the payments certain yet to be made, exclusive of participation, computed at three per centum interest, compounded annually; provided that no such surrender and commutation will be made under mode of settlement (3) except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

SPECIAL PROVISION.—If the insured under this policy engages in military or service or in work as a civilian in any capacity whatever in connection with actual fare during the first policy-year, there shall immediately become due and payable to company a single extra payment of three per centum (3%) of the face of the policy the insured shall engage in such military or naval service or in such work as a civilian within the first policy-year and shall die within one year from the date of beginning service or work, without having paid to the company said additional charge prior to beginning of such service or work, the company's liability hereunder shall be limited one-fifth of the face of the policy.

WAIVER OF PREMIUM IN THE EVENT OF PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—The minimum stated on the face of Policy No. (to which policy this agreement is attached and of which it forms a part) includes an additional premium of two and ⁴⁰/₁₀₀ of the face payable for twenty full years, or until the prior death of the insured, and in consideration of the payment of such additional premium, The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York hereby grants the following waiver of premium in the event of permanent total disability.

If the insured, after payment of premiums for at least one full year and before due in the payment of any subsequent premium, and before attaining the age of sixty years and while this policy is in full force, shall furnish proof satisfactory to the company at its home office in the city of New York, that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or disease so that he is and will be permanently, continue and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or for or from following any gainful occupation, and that such disability has existed continuously for not less than sixty days, the company will waive payment of premiums thereafter becoming due under this policy during the continuance of such disability. Premiums so waived shall not be deducted from the sum payable under the policy; the values provided for in the paragraphs entitled "Loans" and "Options on Sum or Lapse," and in the "Table of Loan and Surrender Values," shall be the same as if the premiums had continued to be paid to the company regularly when due. Provided that, notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured shall at any time on demand, furnish to the company satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability, and if the insured shall fail to furnish such proof, or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform work or to follow any occupation whatsoever for compensation, gain or profit, all premiums thereafter falling due shall be paid in conformity with the policy.

Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, will be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision, and company upon satisfactory proof of such loss or severance will waive the premiums thereafter becoming due under the policy.

After the premium stated on the face of the policy has been paid for the full number of years stated above, it will be reduced, if premiums are payable thereafter, by the amount of the above additional premium.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

All the following statements and answers, and all those that I make to the company's medical examiner, in continuation of this application, are true, and are offered to the company as an inducement to issue the proposed policy, which shall not take effect unless until the first premium shall have been paid during my continuance in good health, unless also the policy shall have been issued during my continuance in good health; and in case a binding receipt shall have been issued as hereinafter provided. During the period of one year following the date of issue of the policy of insurance for which application is hereby made, I will not engage in any of the following extra hazardous occupations or employments: Retailing intoxicating liquors, handling electric wires or explosives, blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, the manufacture of highly explosive substances, service upon any railroad train or track or in switching or in coupling cars, or on any steam or other vessel, unless written permission is expressly granted by the company. It is understood and agreed that the risk of death will not be covered by the policy provided such death occur by my own act, whether sane or insane, during the period of one year next following the date of issue.

CASH OPTION DEFERRED ANNUITY.

AMOUNT, $500 ANNUALLY TO BEGIN END OF 20 YEARS.

AGE AT ENTRY, 35.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York in consideration of the annual premium of two hundred, sixty and 50 cents, and of the payment of a like amount upon each 1st day of November hereafter until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the annuitant, promises to pay at the home office of the company in the city of New York to John Doe, of New York, county of New York, State of New York, (herein called the annuitant) a deferred annuity of five hundred dollars, payable in equal annual payments of five hundred dollars, the first payment to be made on the 1st day of November, 1931, (hereinafter referred to as the cash option date) provided John Doe, the annuitant, be then living, and subsequent payments to be made on each first day of November thereafter during the lifetime of said annuitant;

It is agreed that said company shall be furnished with evidence that the annuitant is living on each and every date on which an annuity payment falls due and that no payment will be made until such evidence shall have been received, and it is further agreed that said annuitant shall die after the "cash option date," there shall be no proportionate abatement from the date of the last periodic payment to the day of such death. Should the death of the annuitant occur prior to the "cash option date," then this contract shall immediately cease and become void, and all premiums previously paid shall be refunded to the company except as hereinafter provided. This annuity is granted upon declaration that said annuitant was born on the first day of November, 1866. If the date of birth has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as actual money paid would have purchased at the correct age; any overpayments by the company, with legal interest thereon, shall be charged against the payments to be made after adjustment.

INTEREST.—A grace of thirty days (or one month if greater), subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum, shall be granted for payment of every premium after the first.

REINSTATEMENT.—In the event of default in payment of premium, this contract may be reinstated at any time before the cash option date upon payment of arrears of premium with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum compounded annually, provided it shall not have been surrendered for its cash value.

CASH OPTION IN LIEU OF ANNUITY.—If the annuitant be living on the cash option date and if all premiums shall have been duly paid, this contract may be surrendered on said date or within thirty days thereafter, provided the first payment of the annuity has not been made, and, in lieu of paying the annuity herein provided for, the company will pay for the surrender of this contract the sum of six thousand eight hundred forty and 50/100 dollars in cash.

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—At any time prior to the cash option date, provided no premium is then in default more than three months, this contract may be surrendered to the company, and the company will pay therefor, whether the annuitant be living or dead, a sum in cash equal to as many times the annual premium of two hundred and 50/100 dollars as there have been full years' premiums and fractions thereof paid hereunder, less one such annual premium.

AUTOMATIC PAID-UP DEFERRED ANNUITY.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, upon default in payment of any subsequent premium, this contract shall automatically remain in force as a paid-up deferred annuity, payable as herein provided, for the proportion of the amount of the above deferred annuity which the number (including any fraction) of years' premiums paid bears to the total number of years' premiums hereinabove provided for, but without right to "cash option in lieu of annuity" or to cash surrender value.

NON-PARTICIPATING.—This contract does not participate in the surplus of the company. No person except an executive officer of the company (president, vice-president, and vice-president, secretary or treasurer) has power to modify or, in the event of death, to reinstate this contract or to extend the time for paying a premium. Agents not authorized to modify this contract or to extend the time for paying a premium without written consent of the company have caused this policy to be executed this first day of November, 1911.

National Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $372.70. AGE, 31

An insurance of ten thousand dollars is hereby granted on the life of John Doe, of Montpelier, Vt., immediately payable upon receipt at the home office of the company in Montpelier, Vt., of due proofs of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, to his wife, Mary Doe.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The right is reserved to the insured if no assignment of this policy has been duly filed with the company, to designate a new beneficiary, from time to time, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company. Such change shall take effect only upon its endorsement on the policy by the company in the lifetime of the insured. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise provided by this policy.

CONSIDERATION.—This policy is issued in consideration of the application therefor and a premium of three hundred seventy-two and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars, to be paid to this company upon delivery of this policy, and of the payment of a like sum on or before the first day of January in every year during the lifetime of the insured until twenty full years' premiums have been paid.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premium.

PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and the company will annually determine and set apart for the portion of the devisible surplus accruing hereon. Dividends, when declared, shall become absolutely the property of the insured and at his option may be: 1st, paid in cash; or 2d, applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or 3d, converted into additional paid-up participating insurance; or 4th, deposited with the company subject to the payment annually of three per cent. interest thereon, together with the share of surplus interest apportioned on account of this policy by the directors of the company. Such deposits may be withdrawn at any time and will be included in any cash settlement of this policy. Unless the insured shall elect otherwise prior to thirty days after any dividend is due, the same will be paid in cash.

POLICY THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and its application, which is made a part hereof and a copy of which is hereto endorsed, together with general provisions contained on the reverse of this page, which are hereby made a part of this policy as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereunto affixed, constitute the entire contract between the parties.

In witness whereof, the National Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, signed this policy this first day of January, 1914, at Montpelier, Vt.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

NON-FORFEITURE.—(a) On failure to pay any premium or any part thereof, or any premium note or interest thereon, when due, this policy, except as otherwise provided herein, shall immediately lapse; if, however, lapse occurs after three full years' premiums have been paid, the owner of the policy shall be entitled, at the end of successive policy years, to one of the settlements specified in the following table, which are: First, without action of the insured, Non-Participating Continued Term Insurance, for $10,000 for the specified term counting from the anniversary date to which full year's premiums have been paid; or second, on application and legal surrender of this policy within three months, a participating paid-up policy; or third, on application and legal surrender of this policy within three months, a cash value.

(b) The above table of values represents the full reserves according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent. less deductions (always made) in the amount applicable to purchase continued insurance of not exceeding one and one-half per cent. of the amount insured and in the cash or loan value of not exceeding one per cent. of the amount insured up to the end of the seventh policy year, said values for the eighth and any subsequent year being the full reserve; and said action at any time in paid-up insurance. The corresponding values for interest and subsequent years will be extended on request upon a like basis of calculation. The cash surrender or loan and paid-up insurance values will be added in any settlement of the full reserve or face values respectively of any dividend additions in force. If default occur in the payment of any quarterly or semi-annual premium within any year, the cash or paid-up or continued insurance values will be the values at the beginning of the year plus a proportionate part of the increase in values by the table for a year. (d) Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, unless as provided in this policy, will be deducted from the cash value and will also proportionately reduce the value applicable to purchase paid-up insurance and applicable to the amount at risk under continued insurance. (e) Paid-up and continued insurance may be surrendered at any time for a cash value, computed upon the basis of the table specified in paragraph (b) preceding.

RS.—After three full annual premiums have been paid, the company will loan upon the security of this policy at any time while continued in force, and upon receipt by the policy duly assigned, up to the limit secured by the above specified cash or loan at the end of the policy year within which application for the loan is made. The interest on such loan shall not exceed six per cent. per annum and if such interest be paid, when due, it shall be added to the principal until the limit of said cash surrender has been reached, whereupon, if then the interest be not paid, the policy shall be null and void, but not until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the person to whom the loan was made and insured and any assignee. All or any part of a loan may be paid at any time while the policy is in force. Loans will in like manner be made upon a paid-up policy (but not continued insurance) up to the limit secured by its cash value.

RS.—No loan will be made if the insured or any beneficiary is a minor, or cannot make a legal transfer.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—All premiums, both first and renewal, are payable at the home or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due, of a receipt either by the secretary or actuary of the company and countersigned by said agent. For premiums will be accepted on the sole signature of the insured, provided this be not duly assigned, so long as the free loan value of the policy is sufficient security for, and such notes will be a lien on the policy as fully as if executed by all persons having an interest therein. All or any part of a premium note may be paid at any time while the policy is in force. Premium payments, on written request of the insured to the office, may be changed so as to be made payable annually, semi-annually or quarterly in accordance with the published rates in force at date of issue.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days will be granted for payment of every premium while the first, holding the insurance in full force, but if death occurs during said period, the unearned premium will be deducted in any settlement of this policy.

INSTALLMENT SETTLEMENTS.—(a) The insured, provided this policy has not been assigned, may at any time give notice to the company and the return of this policy for such endorsement, provide for the payment of its proceeds as follows: (1) To have the company retain part of such proceeds, subject to its payment annually to the beneficiary of three per cent. interest thereon, first payment one year after maturity of this policy. If this form of settlement is used, the company will on the death of the beneficiary pay the principal sum, with pro rata interest to date, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary, or at any anniversary, upon request of the beneficiary, unless it has theretofore been ordered by the insured, it will pay the principal sum in full in determination of its entire obligation. (2) To have all or any part of such proceeds paid to the beneficiary in equal yearly instalments certain as per table on fourth page hereof, first payment immediate. (3) To have all or any part of such proceeds paid to the beneficiary in even number of instalments certain and also during the after lifetime of the beneficiary, first payment immediate, as per table on fourth page hereof.

INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS.—(b) The instalment settlements will be paid yearly, half-yearly, quarterly or monthly, as written notice to the company may direct, and the half-yearly, quarterly and monthly payments will bear such ratio to the annual payments as is shown in the table as the decimal in the table specifies; but no form of instalment settlement will be granted which calls for a periodical payment of less than ten dollars.

BENEFICIARY RIGHTS.—(c) The guarantees next immediately preceding are subject to the further mutual understandings: The company will pay the beneficiary at any time the commuted value of unpaid instalments certain, computed at three per cent. per year, unless otherwise directed by written notice from the insured. The beneficiary may make use of any of the modes of payment by instalments herein provided.

unless the company has been otherwise directed by written notice from the insured provided this policy does not stand assigned.

SURPLUS INTEREST PARTICIPATION.—Interest payments under paragraph instalment certain settlements under paragraphs (2) and (3), will include the surplus interest apportioned on account of this policy by the directors of the company to be paid annually beginning with the first annual interest payment or on the anniversary of the payment of the first instalment certain.

POST MORTEM DIVIDEND.—If this policy after one year from its date of claim by death, a mortality dividend will be paid in cash in addition to the policy.

ACCELERATIVE ENDOWMENT.—When the aggregate amount of reserves and additions left with the company equals the face amount of this policy the company shall, upon surrender, pay such amount as a matured endowment less any indebtedness the company hereon or secured hereby.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of lapse of this policy, provided it has not been assigned to the company, it may be reinstated at any time on written application the insured upon satisfactory evidence of insurability and the payment of all its premium and reinstatement or payment of any indebtedness existing at the date of the default, with interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum.

MISSTATEMENT IN AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, on proof thereof the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium have purchased at the correct age, or at the option of the insured the premium adjusted and credit given to the insured or to the company, according to the published rate at date of issue.

ASSIGNMENTS.—The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment of this policy, nor will any assignment of this policy be recognized until it is duly filed with the company at its home office.

NOTE.—The claim of any assignee shall be subject to the proof of interest of any minor (beneficiary or assignee) must be released by a legally authorized guardian, duly authorized by the appointing court before any adjustment of the claim will be made.

SETTLEMENT.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, any deferred premiums for the uncompleted policy year, will be deducted in the settlement of this policy as a claim by death.

REPRESENTATIONS.—All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of any other representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall be deemed a representation or be used in defense of a claim upon it unless contained in the written application and unless a copy of the application is endorsed on the policy when issued.

ALTERATIONS.—No one except the president, a vice-president, secretary or the company, has power, in behalf of the company, to make or modify this policy or to extend the time for paying any premium, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the insured by making any promises or by accepting any representation or information not in the application for this policy. These powers will not be delegated.

LIMITATION OF ACTION.—No action at law or in equity shall be commenced by the company for claim under this policy after six years from the time cause of action accrues, and it is agreed that, in case of claim by death, cause of action, if any, shall accrue on the date of death of the insured.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS.—The insured is hereby notified that all claims under this policy are payable at the home office in Montpelier, Vt.; that he is a member of the National Life Insurance Company during the continuance of this policy and of any continued insurance arising therefrom, and that the annual meetings of the company shall be held at its home office in Montpelier, Vt., on the 3d Tuesday of January, in each year at 10 o'clock A. M.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree that this application and the answers made to the medical examination by the policy applied for shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereby certified that I have read all the statements and answers in this application (A and B), and agree, on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have any interest in any contract issued hereunder: That no material circumstance has been withheld or omitted touching my past and present state of health, habits of life, and that said statements and answers, together with this declaration as those made to the company's medical examiner, are complete and true and shall be the basis of the policy hereby applied for; that there shall be no contract under this policy until a policy shall have been issued and delivered to me and the premium paid to the company, or its authorized agent, during my lifetime and good health; that if, within one year from the date of the policy, I shall become insane or insane, the policy hereby applied for shall be null and void and the company discharged from liability except for the premium paid.

† Certain and during after life of beneficiary.

On settlement of the instalment certain there will be added annually the share of surplus interest apportioned by the directors. On the death of the beneficiary before the agreed number of instalments certain have been paid, the commuted value of the remaining instalments certain will be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary, unless the company has been otherwise directed by written notice from the insured. Payments are to be made half-yearly, find the amount of each payment by multiplying the annual payment by the decimal .5037; if quarterly by the decimal .2528; and if monthly by the decimal .0844.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE—MONTHLY INCOME POLICY.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $410.60. AGE, 35.

National Life Insurance Company. An insurance of ten thousand dollars is hereby granted on the life of John Doe of Montpelier, Vermont, payable to his wife, Mary Doe, age 30, as follows: $950 as an immediate benefit upon receipt at the home office of the company of due proofs of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy; and instalments certain of $50 on the corresponding day of each month thereafter, until two hundred and forty such monthly instalments shall have been paid; and after the completion of said payments continuous instalments of $50 in like manner monthly during the remainder of the lifetime of the said beneficiary.

INSTALMENT PARTICIPATION.—During the continuance of the payment of the instalments certain above provided for, there will be added to such instalments certain, payable on the anniversary of the payment of the immediate benefit, the share of surplus interest annually apportioned by the directors of the company; but the extra premium for continuous instalments shall not participate in surplus.

DEATH OF BENEFICIARY.—If the beneficiary shall die after the insured and before the payment of all of said two hundred and forty monthly instalments, the commuted value of the remainder of such instalments will be paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of said beneficiary, to whom in like manner, in the event of the death of the original beneficiary after receiving the said two hundred and forty instalments certain, will be paid any remaining monthly instalments to the next anniversary of the date of payment of the first instalment certain. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary in the sum insured (the immediate benefit and the commuted value of the two hundred and forty monthly instalments certain) shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise provided by the policy, and will be paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

For policy participation and incontestability and general provisions see preceding policy except as modified herein.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The right is reserved to the insured, if no assignment of this policy has been duly filed with the company, to designate a new beneficiary, from time to time, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company. Such change shall take effect only upon its endorsement on the policy by the company in the lifetime of the insured, and the interest of any new beneficiary shall not extend beyond the immediate benefit and the subsequent 240 consecutive monthly instalments certain herein specified.

CONSIDERATION.—This policy is issued in consideration of the application therefor and a premium of four hundred and ten and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, to be paid to this company upon delivery of this policy, and of the payment of a like sum on or before the first day of January in every year during the lifetime of the insured until twenty full years' premiums have been paid. On the death of the original beneficiary, or if any change of beneficiary is made under the provisions of this policy, or if a different mode of instalment settlement is elected by the insured as hereinafter provided, the annual premiums thereafter payable will be reduced to three hundred and seventy-two dollars and $\frac{70}{100}$.

POLICY THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and its application, which is made a part hereof and a copy of which is hereon endorsed, together with general provisions contained on the reverse of this page and the instalment table on the fourth page hereof, which are hereby made a part of this policy as fully as if they were recited at length on the signatures hereunto affixed, constitute the entire contract between the parties.

In witness whereof, the National Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, signed this policy this first day of January, 1914, at Montpelier, Vermont.

National Life Insurance Co. of the U. S. of A.

TWENTY-PAYMENT ENDOWMENT AT 85—NON-PARTICIPATING.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $305.40. AGE, 24.

National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, Chicago, Ill., hereby agrees to pay ten thousand dollars to Mary Doe (wife of the insured) if living, if not living, to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, or to any other beneficiary designated by the insured as hereinafter provided, at the home office of the company in the city of Chicago, Ill., less any indebtedness to the company hereon and any unpaid portion of the current year's premium, upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, the insured hereunder, during the continuance of this contract, as hereinafter provided.

ENDOWMENT PROVISION.—If the insured be living and all premiums shall have been duly paid, this policy will mature for its face amount and become payable as an endowment to the insured or legal holder hereof, at the end of the policy year falling nearest to age eighty-five of the insured, which date is the end of the endowment period of this policy; and this contract shall thereupon cease and determine.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured shall have the right, at any time when the policy is in force and not assigned, to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, in accordance with the rules of the company, by filing with the company a written request for the change desired and presenting the policy for endorsement, such change to take effect upon endorsement of the same upon the policy by the company.

BENEFITS, PRIVILEGES AND PROVISIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premium, and except for violation of its conditions in regard to military or naval service in time of war. If, however, the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy, either within or after the contestable period, shall be such amount of insurance as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate for the correct age of the insured. Age will be admitted on satisfactory proof. The insured may serve in the militia in time of peace, or for the purpose of preserving order in case of riot; but in time of war, before engaging in hostilities, a written permit must be obtained from the company. On written request and payment of the extra premium charged therefor, a permit will be granted for military or naval service in time of war. In case of the death of the insured from service in war, without such permit the liability of the company shall be limited to the reserve hereon.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of one month (not less than thirty days), without interest, will be allowed in the payment of each premium after the first, during which month the insurance will continue in force; and if the insured shall die within the month of grace, the unpaid premium for the current policy year will be deducted from the amount payable under this policy.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy, if not previously surrendered to the company, will be reinstated at any time after date of default in payment of premium, upon written application therefor accompanied by proof of insurability satisfactory to the company, and upon the payment of premiums to date of reinstatement, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, and payment or reinstatement, with interest at contract rate, of any indebtedness existing at the date of such default.

CASH LOANS.—At any time while this policy is in force under its original premium paying condition, the company will advance on proper assignment of the policy and on the sole security thereof, any sum not exceeding the cash surrender value of the policy at the end of the current policy year, less any outstanding indebtedness on or secured by the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. Interest on any such loan will be at the rate of six per cent. per annum and will be payable in advance to the end of the current policy year and annually in advance thereafter. Failure to repay any such advance or loan or to pay interest, shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month (not less than thirty days) after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. The company shall have the right to defer the making of any loan available under this policy (unless such loan is for the purpose of paying renewal premiums on policies of this company) for a period not exceeding ninety days from receipt of written application for loan.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

VALUES UPON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After premiums shall have been paid hereon for three full years, in case of default in premium payments, the insured or the legal holder hereof shall be entitled:

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—To receive the cash surrender value of this policy, upon legal surrender thereof to the company at its home office within two months after date of default. Payment of cash value may be deferred by the company for not to exceed ninety days from receipt of written application therefor by the company; or,

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—Upon written application and legal surrender of this policy to the company at its home office, within two months after default, to have this policy renewed by endorsement as a paid-up non-participating policy payable at the same time on the same conditions as this policy, for such amount as the cash surrender value is policy, less any indebtedness thereon, will purchase, applied as a net single premium is attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent. per annum; or, EXTENDED INSURANCE.—To have the policy automatically extended in force from date of death, without the right to loans, for its face amount less any indebtedness thereon, the number of years and complete months which the cash surrender value of this policy at date of death, less any indebtedness thereon, will purchase, applied as a net single premium at the attained age of insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent. per annum. The sum applicable to purchase extended insurance be more than sufficient to extend insurance to the end of the endowment period of the policy, then the balance will be applied to the purchase of a non-participating pure endowment payable to the insured or legal holder hereof, at the end of the endowment period, on which date the insurance shall cease. The cash surrender values of this policy, as set forth in the following table, are the full reserve thereon, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent. per annum. The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the foregoing provisions and the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy. They are stated for selected insurance years only, and in case of death in payment of premium due at intermediate period, the non-forfeiture values will be computed on the same basis as the corresponding values for the end of the policy year last expired, and subject to the same conditions.

and surrender values of this policy for years after the twentieth year, are equivalent to the full reserve, and will be furnished on request.

This policy, together with the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. Statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties; and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in the written application therefor, a copy of which application is attached hereto. Agents are not authorized to alter or modify this policy of insurance, or to extend the term for the payment of any premium.

This policy is not entitled to participate in the profits or divisible surplus of the company, upon request, will furnish blanks for proof of death under this policy.

Proof of death must be furnished to the company at its home office in Chicago, Ill.

Premiums are payable at the home office, but will be accepted elsewhere if paid to the agent in exchange for a receipt, signed by the president, vice-president, secretary and countersigned by the agent designated thereon. This insurance is granted on condition that all premiums be promptly paid when due, and failure to pay any premium, or any part thereof, when due, shall forfeit and cancel this contract and terminate all obligations of the company under this policy, except as herein otherwise provided.

No act or series of acts upon the part of the company in sending premium notices and in making premium payments after maturity shall constitute or evidence a waiver of the provisions of this paragraph.

This insurance under this policy is based upon annual premiums, payable in advance, and premiums may be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, in advance, at the option of the insured, as follows: $158.80 semi-annually, carrying the insurance for six months; or $80.90 quarterly, carrying the insurance for three months; with one month grace on each premium after the first, as elsewhere provided herein.

Assignment of this policy must be acknowledged and made in duplicate, and both copies must be sent to the home office, one of which will be returned with endorsement.

The company will not assume responsibility for the validity of any assignment, and no claim arising under an assignment will be subject to satisfactory proof of insurable interest.

Forms for assignment will be furnished by the company.

The reserve values on this policy are computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent. per annum.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—This policy is issued payable in one sum on the death of the insured, but the insured may at any time, upon written consent of the assignee or the revocable beneficiary, if any, change the manner of such payment from one sum to a number of limited instalments as the insured may elect, as provided in the following table of limited instalments, by giving written notice to the company at its home office in Chicago, Ill., accompanied by this policy for endorsement. The insured may at any time during his lifetime in like manner direct that the beneficiary shall have the right when any instalment becomes due, to commute and receive in one sum the then present cash value of all unpaid instalments, computed on the basis of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The beneficiary, without such direction, shall not have such right. In like manner, the insured may, if there is but one beneficiary under the policy, direct that the proceeds of the policy shall become payable in continuous instalments during the lifetime of the beneficiary; the amount of each instalment, according to the age at last birthday of the beneficiary, at date of death of the insured, being indicated in the following table of continuous instalments. In like manner, the insured may at any time subsequently change any selection of instalment benefits; or make any selection, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. In the event of the death of the beneficiary after the maturity of this policy and before the payment of the total number of instalments payable hereunder, the executor or administrator of the beneficiary shall have the right to commute into one cash payment the then present value of the unpaid instalments, computed on the basis of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The first instalment under this contract shall be due immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter, upon each succeeding anniversary of the first payment, until all instalments due shall have been paid.

The following tables are based upon $1000 of insurance, and will apply pro rata to any amount payable under this policy, in event of the death of the insured while this policy is in force. If, however, the amount due is less than $1000, it shall be paid in one sum and not in instalments:

ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary should be thirty-five of age last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment will be $47.79 for each dollar of insurance, payable during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, but if the beneficiary should die before the twenty-five instalments shall have been paid, the remainder of the twenty-five instalments shall be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment in advance of a premium of three hundred five dollars and forty cents (which may, however, be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, as elsewhere provided herein), for one year's term, terminating on the first day of December, 1915, and in addition a minimum reserve, if any, required by law, and in further consideration of the payment of an annual renewal premium of one hundred five dollars and forty cents on or before the first day of each December thereafter during the continuance of this contract, or until renewal premiums for nineteen complete years shall have been paid.

In witness whereof, the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America has caused this agreement to be signed by its president and secretary at Chicago, this first day of December in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I, the undersigned, in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named, do hereby declare that I am present, on behalf of myself and any person who shall have or claim an interest in the policy issued under this application, that all of the above answers, as well as those I may hereafter make to the company's medical examiner, are full, complete and true. I agree to pay the first premium upon any policy issued hereon; and further that the company shall incur no liability under this application until it has been read and approved, the policy issued thereon by the company and delivered to me, the premium actually paid to and accepted by the company or its authorized agent, and my lifetime and present condition of health.

I hereby certify that I have read all statements and answers in both parts of this application, and represent and agree, on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim an interest in any contract issued hereunder, that said statements and answers, as so written, are full, complete and true, and shall be the basis of and the consideration of the contract hereby applied for and for any additional contract of insurance that may be issued on the faith hereof; and agree that if within a period of one year from the date of the policy that may be issued upon this application, I shall die from self-destruction, or insanity, the company's liability under such policy shall be limited to a sum equal to the premiums actually received by it.

New England Mutual Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $270.

AGE, 35.

In consideration of the application upon which this policy is issued, which is made a part hereof, and of the payment in advance of two hundred and seventy dollars, and of the payment of a like sum on or before the first day of January in each year thereafter during the life of John Alden, of Plymouth, Mass., the insured, the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company promises and agrees to pay, at its office in the city of Boston, upon due proof of the death of the said insured, ten thousand dollars, to his wife, Priscilla Alden, if she shall survive him, otherwise to his executors, administrators or assigns, without right of revocation, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, and less any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year. If the age of the insured has been misstated in the application herefor the amount payable shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate for the correct age.

In case of the non-payment of any premium when due or during the period of grace, this policy shall cease to be in force and shall have no value except as provided by the non-forfeiture provisions hereinafter set forth.

When the right of revocation has been reserved, the insured (with the assent of the assignee, if any), upon written request filed with the company at its home office, may from time to time designate a new beneficiary hereunder, or have the policy made payable to his estate, such change to take effect only when endorsed hereon by the company.

If the insured, whether sane or insane, shall die by his own hand or act within one year from the date hereof, this policy shall be void and shall have no value; but in such event the company will return the premium paid.

This policy and the application constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements made by the insured, in the absence of fraud, shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid, or be used in defence to a claim under, this policy unless it is contained in the application and a copy of such application is endorsed hereon.

After one year from the date of issue, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums, and no waiver of any of its conditions shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by the president, vice-president, secretary or an assistant secretary of the company.

The rights, options and non-forfeiture provisions set forth on pages two and three are hereby made a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, the said New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, by its president or vice-president, and secretary or an assistant secretary, has signed and delivered this contract at Boston, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, this first day of January, in the year 1913.

RIGHTS, OPTIONS AND NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office in the city of Boston, or, when due, to an agent of the company, upon the production and delivery of a receipt signed by the secretary or an assistant secretary.

GRACE.—After this policy has been in force one year, a grace of thirty-one days, without interest, shall be granted for the payment of premiums, during which time the insurance shall continue in force, but in the event of the death of the insured during said period, the overdue premium shall be deducted from the amount payable.

SURPLUS.—Upon payment of the second annual premium, and each year thereafter, this policy shall participate in the distribution of surplus made by the company, and he share apportioned hereto shall, on the premium date or any anniversary thereof, be at the option of the holder of the policy, be (a) payable in cash; (b) applied in reduction of premiums; (c) used to purchase non-forfeitable, participating, paid-up additions, convertible into their cash value upon release by the holder; or (d) left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at not less than three per cent per annum, payable at the maturity hereof, or withdrawable in cash on demand; but if no election is made on or before the premium date or any anniversary thereof, the share for that year will be held by the company as provided in option (d). If any premium remains unpaid at the expiration of the period of grace, the company will apply the accumulated surplus under option (d) to the payment then due, if sufficient to pay not less than a quarter of an annual premium.

LOANS.—At any time after three full annual premiums have been paid on this policy, the company will loan, upon the sole security hereof legally assigned, an amount which with interest thereon to the end of the policy year during which the application for the loan is made shall be equal to, or at the option of the holder less than, the loan value at the end of said year, after deducting any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, and any unpaid portion of the premium for said policy year. Interest on such loan shall be at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable in advance. The whole or any part of such loan may be repaid at any time. Failure to repay the loan, or to pay interest thereon when due, shall not avoid the policy, unless the total indebtedness borne as secured hereby, including interest, equals or exceeds the cash value at the time of such failure, nor until thirty-one days after notice has been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the person or persons to whom the policy is payable.

PREMIUM LOANS.—After two full annual premiums have been paid hereon, and upon legal assignment hereof to the company prior to the expiration of the period of grace, the company will charge against this policy as a premium loan the amount of any premium, less the share of surplus then due, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable in advance; provided the cash value of the policy and additions shall equal or exceed the amount of such loan, together with any other indebtedness on account of or secured hereby, and interest thereon. Any accumulated surplus held at interest shall first be applied to the payment of the premium, and future shares of surplus shall be applied to the reduction of the premium loan. Upon the filing of such request as may be required by the company, these provisions, by endorsement hereon, will be made automatic as to future premiums.

PAID-UP OR ENDOWMENT PROVISION.—When the cash value of the policy and additions, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, shall equal the reserve for a fully paid-up policy of the same form and amount at the then attained age of the insured, the company will endorse this policy as fully paid up; or when such aggregate amount, less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, shall equal the face of this policy, the company will, upon written request and release by all parties in interest, pay such amount as an endowment.

CONVERSION OPTION.—Upon written request of all parties in interest, this policy, while in full force, may be exchanged at any anniversary of issue, without medical examination, for any other form of policy then written, and not involving any other life, at the original age of issue, for an amount whereby the actual insurance liability of the company shall not be increased, upon payment of the difference between the reserve upon the respective policies.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—In case of default in the payment of any premium, after three full annual premiums have been paid hereon, the holder of this policy shall be entitled, by a writing filed with the company at its home office during the period of grace, to elect one of the following options:

FIRST. CASH VALUE.—To surrender the policy and, with the written assent of the person or persons to whom it is made payable, receive its then cash value, less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby.

SECOND. PAID-UP INSURANCE.—To take paid-up insurance for such an amount as the then cash value of the policy and additions, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, will purchase as a net single premium. Such insurance shall participate annually in the distribution of surplus, and shall have increasing loan and cash values.

THIRD. EXTENDED INSURANCE.—To have the policy continued as extended insurance from the anniversary date last past, for its face amount, including any additions, and less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, for such time as the then cash value, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, will purchase as a net single premium, but without the right to loans. Such extended insurance shall have a cash surrender value and shall participate in the annual distribution of surplus, the share apportioned thereto to be payable in cash. If requested in the application, or upon written request of all parties in interest, this option shall be made automatic. If, during the aforesaid period of grace, the holder shall not elect one of the foregoing options, this policy shall be continued as paid-up insurance under the second option, provided the third option has not been made automatic.

TABLE OF LOAN, CASH, PAID-UP AND EXTENDED INSURANCE VALUES.—The values given below are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest, and are equivalent to the full reserve. They will be increased by the value of any additions or accumulations at interest, and decreased, in the manner set forth in the non-forfeiture provisions, by the amount of any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby. If in any year not less than one quarter of an annual premium is paid thereon, a proportionate part of the increase in the values at the end of that year will be added to the values of the preceding year.

New England Mutual Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $270.

AGE, 35.

In consideration of the application upon which this policy is issued, which is made a part hereof, and of the payment in advance of two hundred and seventy dollars, and of the payment of a like sum on or before the first day of January in each year thereafter during the life of John Alden, of Plymouth, Mass., the insured, the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company promises and agrees to pay, at its office in the city of Boston, upon due proof of the death of the said insured, ten thousand dollars, to his wife, Priscilla Alden, if she shall survive him, otherwise to his executors, administrators or assigns, without right of revocation, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, and less any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year. If the age of the insured has been misstated in the application hereof the amount payable shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate for the correct age.

In case of the non-payment of any premium when due or during the period of grace, this policy shall cease to be in force and shall have no value except as provided by the non-forfeiture provisions hereinafter set forth.

When the right of revocation has been reserved, the insured (with the assent of the assignee, if any), upon written request filed with the company at its home office, may from time to time designate a new beneficiary hereunder, or have the policy made payable to his estate, such change to take effect only when endorsed hereon by the company.

If the insured, whether sane or insane, shall die by his own hand or act within one year from the date hereof, this policy shall be void and shall have no value; but in such event the company will return the premium paid.

This policy and the application constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements made by the insured, in the absence of fraud, shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid, or be used in defence to a claim under, this policy unless it is contained in the application and a copy of such application is endorsed hereon.

After one year from the date of issue, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums, and no waiver of any of its conditions shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by the president, vice-president, secretary or an assistant secretary of the company.

The rights, options and non-forfeiture provisions set forth on pages two and three are hereby made a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, the said New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, by its president or vice-president, and secretary or an assistant secretary, has signed and delivered this contract at Boston, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, this first day of January, in the year 1913.

RIGHTS, OPTIONS AND NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office in the city of Boston, or, when due, to an agent of the company, upon the production and delivery of a receipt signed by the secretary or an assistant secretary.

GRACE.—After this policy has been in force one year, a grace of thirty-one days, without interest, shall be granted for the payment of premiums, during which time the insurance shall continue in force, but in the event of the death of the insured during said period, the overdue premium shall be deducted from the amount payable.

SURPLUS.—Upon payment of the second annual premium, and each year thereafter, this policy shall participate in the distribution of surplus made by the company, and the share apportioned hereto shall, on the premium date or any anniversary thereof, at the option of the holder of the policy, be (a) payable in cash; (b) applied in reduction of premiums; (c) used to purchase non-forfeitable, participating, paid-up additions, convertible into their cash value upon release by the holder; or (d) left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at not less than three per cent per annum, payable at the maturity hereof, or withdrawable in cash on demand; but if no election is made on or before the premium date or any anniversary thereof, the share for that year will be held by the company as provided in option (d). If any premium remains unpaid at the expiration of the period of grace, the company will apply the accumulated surplus under option (d) to the payment then due, if sufficient to pay not less than a quarter of an annual premium.

LOANS.—At any time after three full annual premiums have been paid on this policy, the company will loan, upon the sole security hereof legally assigned, an amount which with interest thereon to the end of the policy year during which the application for the loan is made shall be equal to, or at the option of the holder less than, the loan value at the end of said year, after deducting any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, and any unpaid portion of the premium for said policy year. Interest on such loan shall be at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable in advance. The whole or any part of such loan may be repaid at any time. Failure to repay the loan, or to pay interest thereon when due, shall not avoid the policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon at ured hereby, including interest, equals or exceeds the cash value at the time of such are, nor until thirty-one days after notice has been mailed by the company to the known address of the insured and of the person or persons to whom the policy is able.

PREMIUM LOANS.—After two full annual premiums have been paid hereon, and upon assignment hereof to the company prior to the expiration of the period of grace, company will charge against this policy as a premium loan the amount of any premium, less the share of surplus then due, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable in advance; provided the cash value of the policy and additions shall all or exceed the amount of such loan, together with any other indebtedness on account or secured hereby, and interest thereon. Any accumulated surplus held at interest shall first be applied to the payment of the premium, and future shares of surplus shall be applied to the reduction of the premium loan. Upon the filing of such request as may be required by the company, these provisions, by endorsement hereon, will be made automatic as to future premiums.

PAID-UP OR ENDOWMENT PROVISION.—When the cash value of the policy and additions, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, shall equal the reserve on a fully paid-up policy of the same form and amount at the then attained age of the insured, the company will endorse this policy as fully paid up; or when such aggregate amount, less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, shall equal the face of this policy, the company will, upon written request and release by all parties in interest, pay such amount as an endowment.

CONVERSION OPTION.—Upon written request of all parties in interest, this policy, while in full force, may be exchanged at any anniversary of issue, without medical examination, for any other form of policy then written, and not involving any other life, the original age of issue, for an amount whereby the actual insurance liability of the company shall not be increased, upon payment of the difference between the reserve on the respective policies.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—In case of default in the payment of any premium, after three full annual premiums have been paid hereon, the holder of this policy shall be entitled, by a writing filed with the company at its home office during the period of grace, to elect one of the following options:

FIRST. CASH VALUE.—To surrender the policy and, with the written assent of the person or persons to whom it is made payable, receive its then cash value, less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby.

SECOND. PAID-UP INSURANCE.—To take paid-up insurance for such an amount as will then cash value of the policy and additions, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, will purchase as a net single premium. Such insurance shall participate annually in the distribution of surplus, and shall have increasing loan and cash values.

THIRD. EXTENDED INSURANCE.—To have the policy continued as extended insurance for the anniversary date last past, for its face amount, including any additions, and less any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby, for such time as the then cash value, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, will purchase as a net single premium, but without the right to loans. Such extended insurance shall have a cash surrender value and shall participate in the annual distribution of surplus, the share apportioned thereto to be payable in cash. If requested in the application, or upon written request of all parties in interest, this option shall be made automatic. If, during the aforesaid period of grace, the holder shall not elect one of the foregoing options, this policy shall be continued as paid-up insurance under the second option, provided the third option has not been made automatic.

TABLE OF LOAN, CASH, PAID-UP AND EXTENDED INSURANCE VALUES.—The values shown below are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest, and are equivalent to the full reserve. They will be increased by the value of any additions or accumulations at interest, and decreased, in the manner set forth in the non-forfeiture provisions, by the amount of any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby. If in any year not less than one quarter of an annual premium is paid hereon, a proportionate part of the increase in the values at the end of that year will be added to the values of the preceding year.

For remainder of face of policy see previous contract.

RIGHTS, OPTIONS AND NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

For premiums and grace, see preceding contract.

SURPLUS.—Upon payment of the second annual premium, and each year thereafter, this policy shall participate in the distribution of surplus made by the company, and the share apportioned hereto shall, on the premium date or any anniversary thereof, at the option of the holder of the policy, be (a) payable in cash; (b) applied in reduction of premiums; or (c) left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at not less than three per cent per annum, payable at the expiration hereof, or withdrawable in cash on demand; but if no election is made on or before the premium date or any anniversary thereof, the share for that year will be held by the company as provided in option (c). If any premium remains unpaid at the expiration of the period of grace, the company will apply the accumulated surplus under option (d) to the payment then due, if sufficient to pay not less than a quarter of an annual premium.

CONVERSION OPTION.—This policy, while in full force, may be exchanged, without medical examination, provided the age of the insured shall not exceed sixty-five years, for any other form of policy then written, and not involving any other life, for an amount whereby the actual insurance liability of the company shall not be increased, subject to the payment of the premium for the then attained age of the insured; or such exchange may be made as of the age and date of issue of this policy, regardless of the attained age of the insured, upon payment of the difference between the reserves upon the respective policies.

RENEWAL OPTION.—This insurance may be renewed, without medical examination, for successive periods of five years each, provided the age of the insured shall not exceed sixty-five years; and, upon written request filed with the company at its home office at least thirty days before the expiration hereof, the company will issue a new policy for the same term and for an amount not exceeding the sum hereby insured, subject to the payment of the premium for the then attained age, as set forth in the table of rates printed on page four hereof.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—In case of default in the payment of any premium after three full annual premiums have been paid hereon, the holder of this policy shall be entitled, by a writing filed with the company at its home office during the period of grace, to elect one of the following options:

FIRST. CASH VALUE.—To surrender the policy and, with the written assent of the person or persons to whom it is made payable, receive its then cash value.

SECOND. PAID-UP INSURANCE.—To take participating paid-up term insurance for such an amount as the then cash value of the policy, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, will purchase as a net single premium.

THIRD. EXTENDED INSURANCE.—To have the policy continued as extended insurance from the anniversary date last past, for its face amount, for such time as the then cash value, together with any accumulated surplus held at interest, will purchase as a net single premium, but without the right to loans. Such extended insurance shall have a cash surrender value and shall participate in the annual distribution of surplus, the share apportioned thereto to be payable in cash. If requested in the application, or upon written request of all parties in interest, this option shall be made automatic. If, during the aforesaid period of grace, the holder shall not elect one of the foregoing options, this policy shall be continued as paid-up insurance under the second option, provided the third option has not been made automatic.

TABLE OF CASH, PAID-UP AND EXTENDED INSURANCE VALUES.—The values given below are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest are equivalent to the full reserve, and will be increased by the value of any accumulations at interest.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby apply to the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company for insurance, and as a part of the contract, and as consideration therefor, make the following statements, which I declare to be true:

I hereby certify that I am now in good health and that my habits are correct; and I hereby agree that the insurance applied for shall not take effect unless and until this application is approved by the company and the first premium is actually paid while I am in the same condition of health as herein described, and that if within one year from the date of the policy of insurance issued upon this application I shall, without the written consent of the company, engage in military or naval service in time of war or travel to or reside in any part of the torrid zone, or north of the parallel of sixty degrees north latitude, or shall within said period and without such consent engage in electrica employment where the voltage used is over five hundred, or in mining, subterranean or submarine labor, aerial navigation, the manufacture of explosives, service upon any railroad train, or on any steam or sailing vessel, said policy shall be void and no claim shall exist thereunder.

DISABILITY CLAUSE.—Supplemental agreement waiving premiums in the event of permanent total disability occurring before attaining the age of sixty-five years. The premium payable by the terms of this policy includes an additional premium of dollars, payable for full years, or until the prior death of the insured, and in consideration of the payment of such additional premium the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company hereby agrees to the following waiver of premium in the event permanent total disability. If the insured, after payment of premium for one full year before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, and before attaining the age of sixty-five years, and while this policy is in full force, shall furnish due proof to the company, at its home office in the city of Boston, that he has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or disease so that he is and will be permanently and continuously prevented from performing any work for compensation or profit or from following any gainful occupation, the company will waive payment of each premium as it thereafter becomes due during the continuance of such disability. The premiums so waived shall not be deducted from the sum payable under the policy, and the values provided for under "Non-Forfeiture Provisions" and in the "Table of Loan, Cash, Paid-up and Extended Insurance Values" shall be the same as if the premiums had continued to be paid in full to the company regularly when due. Provided that, notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured agrees that no medical examiner appointed by the company shall be allowed opportunity, not often more than once a year thereafter, to satisfy himself by examination of the person of the insured to the continuance of the disability, and if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work or to engage in any occupation whatsoever for compensation or profit, no further premiums will be waived and all premiums thereafter due shall be paid by the insured in conformity with the terms of the policy. Irrespective of any other cause of disability the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or of both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this agreement, and the company upon due proof of such loss or severance will waive the premiums thereafter becoming due. After premium stated in the policy has been paid for the full number of years specified above, upon the cancellation of this agreement at the written request of the insured, any premium payable thereafter will be reduced by the amount of the said additional premium.

FIVE-YEAR TERM POLICY—CONVERTIBLE AND RENEWABLE.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $135. AGE, 35.

In consideration of the application upon which this policy is issued, which is made a part hereof, and of the payment in advance of one hundred and thirty-five dollars, and of the payment of a sum on or before the first day of January in each year thereafter until five annual premiums have been paid during the life of the insured, the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company promises and agrees to pay, at its office in the city of Boston, upon due proof of the death of the insured prior to twelve o'clock noon on the first day of January, 1885, and while this policy is in full force, ten thousand dollars, to the wife, Priscilla Alden, if she shall survive him, otherwise to his executors, administrators or assigns, with right of revocation, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, and less any unpaid portion of the premium for the current policy year. If the age of the insured has been stated in the application herefor the amount payable shall be the same as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate for correct age.

The premiums due upon this policy may be paid in semi-annual amounts of $70, or yearly amounts of $35. In case of the non-payment of any premium when due or

New World Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $

AGE, 35.

New World Life Insurance Company, Spokane, Wash., hereby promises and agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, the insured; of Chicago, county of Cook, State of Illinois, to Mary Doe, his wife, as beneficiary, subject to all of the terms and provisions of this policy.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application hereof, which is hereby made a part of this contract, and the payment in advance of the annual premium of three hundred twenty-two and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, as the premium for one year's term insurance from the date hereof.

This insurance will be renewed and continued upon the further payment of three hundred twenty-two and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, upon the first day of July in each and every year, until renewal premiums for nineteen full years shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

The privileges, benefits and provisions printed and written on the following pages by the company are made a part of this contract, as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, New World Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed as of the first day of July, 1918.

GENERAL PRIVILEGES, BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

1. PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, Spokane, Wash., or, at the pleasure of the company, to a designated collector, but in any case only in exchange for the company's receipt therefor, signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by such collector.

2. If any premium is not paid when due, this policy shall be null and void and all premiums forfeited to the company, except as herein otherwise provided.

3. HOW PAYABLE.—Premiums after the first policy year may be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly in advance, in accordance with the company's table of rates applicable hereto, and the insured may change from one to another of such modes of payment upon written request therefor to the home office of the company.

4. GRACE.—A grace of one month, (not less than thirty days) will be allowed for the payment of all premiums after the first, subject to an interest charge at the rate of six per cent per annum, during which period this policy shall remain in full force.

5. NOTICE.—Notice of each and every premium due or to become due hereunder is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this policy. Notice of premiums coming due is sent to the insured as a matter of accommodation, but the company assumes no responsibility for the failure to send or the miscarriage or non-delivery of any notice.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.

6. PREMIUM EXEMPTION FOR TOTAL DISABILITY.—The company will exempt the insured from the payment of any further premiums as the same become due and will endorse this policy to that effect if the insured has paid the first annual premium and is not in default in the payment of any subsequent premium hereon and has not then attained the age of sixty years and shall furnish proof satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or disease and that he is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby, for life, from pursuing any and all gainful occupations.

7. All premiums payable hereunder from which the insured shall be granted exemption shall be paid and credited by the company on account of the insured, without charge to him and without forming a lien against any of the surrender values hereunder, thereby augmenting the surrender values hereunder as though the insured had actually paid the premiums in cash; provided that, notwithstanding the acceptance by the company as satisfactory the proofs of disability of the insured, the company shall have the right, from time to time, to demand of the insured further satisfactory proofs of the continuance of such disability, and provided further, that if the insured shall fail to furnish such proof or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work or to follow any occupation whatsoever for compensation, gain, or profit, all premiums thereafter falling due must be paid in conformity with the terms of this policy.

8. In addition to and independently of all other cases of total and permanent disability, the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrist, or both feet above the ankle, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, within the meaning of this provision, as total and permanent disability.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $25,000.

rates according to the Mortality Table and interest rate aforesaid; or (c) if this is legally surrendered to the company within sixty days from such default, the company will pay therefor in cash the excess above referred to.

The paid-up term insurance, or the paid-up life policy, provided for above, entitled to cash surrender values based upon the entire reserve thereon at the surrender, according to the above Mortality Table and rate of interest, less any indebtedness to the company.

TABLE OF LOAN AND NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.

The values in the table below apply only if there be no indebtedness under this policy and apply only to completed policy years. If default occurs after a fraction of the current policy year's premium has been paid, the non-forfeiture values for in paragraphs 18 and 19 above, shall be adjusted proportionately.

The above options are all of equal value and are based upon the reserves on hand at the end of policy years, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, with a surrender in no case of more than two and one-half per cent of the face of this policy. Values for later years will be furnished upon request, and will be equal to the entire reserve on this policy according to the aforesaid table and interest rate.

20. The reserve on this policy shall be computed upon the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The first year's insurance hereunder shall be valued as one year's insurance.

21. This policy is free from conditions as to residence, travel, or place of death.

22. The lapse of six years from the date whereon cause of action accrues, shall be an absolute bar to any action or suit brought upon this policy.

23. No agent has power on behalf of the company to make or modify contract, to extend the time of payment of premium, to waive any forfeiture, to bind the company by making any promise or representation, or to deliver any policy contrary to the provisions thereof. These powers can be exercised only by the president or vice-president and secretary or assistant secretary of the company (and then only in writing) and will not be delegated.

24. This policy shall not take effect until approval of the application thereof by the company and until the payment of the first annual premium during the good life of the applicant. Unless otherwise herein especially stipulated, the first policy year shall begin upon the date stated on the first page hereof.

INSTALLMENT AND TRUST FUND PRIVILEGES.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—At any time when this policy shall be in force and the insured has signed or pledged, the insured may change the mode of payment thereof as claim, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page, to payment by instalments, as stated below. In such case any instalments maturing after the death of the beneficiary shall be payable to the executors, administrators, or assign beneficiary. The following tables are based upon a policy of $1000, and the amounts shown thereby are to be increased proportionately for larger policies. These instalment benefits do not apply to policies of less than $1000.

LIMITED INSTALLMENTS.—Annual instalments limited to the number selected by the insured, from two to twenty-five may be selected by the insured.

Amount of each instalment.....	$ 104	$ 113	$ 124	$ 138	$ 155	$ 179	$ 211	$ 261

ILLUSTRATION.—If payment is to be made by twenty instalments, the amount of each instalment will be $65 for each $1000 of insurance.

CONTINUOUS INSTALMENTS.—Instalments to continue during the entire life of the beneficiary; twenty-five annual instalments guaranteed. (Payment by continuous instalments cannot be selected if there be more than one beneficiary.)

ILLUSTRATION.—Under a policy for $1000, if, at the death of the insured, the beneficiary were thirty years of age at last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment would be $43, payable at least during the entire life of the beneficiary. If the beneficiary should die before twenty-five instalments had been paid, the remainder of the twenty-five instalments would be payable annually to the executors, administrators, assigns of the beneficiary.

At any time when this policy shall be in force and not assigned, the insured may revoke his selection of instalment benefits theretofore made.

No selection, change, or revocation shall be made except upon written direction of the insured, or take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office.

The first instalment shall be paid upon receipt by the company at its home office of the proofs of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter.

The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, unless such right given expressly by the insured to the beneficiary in his written direction for payment of instalments.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—The amount payable as a death claim under this policy, if $1000 or more, may be placed in trust with the company. During the continuance of such trust, interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum will be paid upon the principal sum to the beneficiary. The payment of the first instalment of interest will be due one year from the date of death of the insured. At the termination of the trust, the principal sum will be paid to the beneficiary or to his executors, administrators, assigns in event of the death of the beneficiary prior to such termination.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

Application is hereby made to New World Life Insurance Company, Spokane, Wash., for insurance on my life upon the following conditions: The following statements and answers and those I shall make to the company's medical examiner in continuation of this application, and designated as Part II hereof, all of which shall become a part of this policy of insurance as may be issued to me, are by me declared to be full, complete and true, and are offered to the company as an inducement to issue and the basis of the proposed policy, which shall not take effect unless this application shall have been approved by the company and the first annual premium shall have been paid by me, and my continuance in good health.

I further declare and agree that for the period of one year, from the date of the policy, which application is hereby made, I will not engage in any of the following extra hazardous occupations or employments: Aeronautic ascensions, blasting, explorations, mining, submarine labor, retailing intoxicating liquors, handling electric wires or dynamos, manufacture of highly inflammable or explosive substances, service upon any railroad train or track or in switching or coupling cars, or on any steamer or other vessel without written permission is expressly granted by the company. Also that the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premium paid, should I, within one year from the date of the policy, die by my own act, whether sane or insane.

New York Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $389.

AGE, 35.

New York Life Insurance Company, by this policy of insurance agrees to pay (face amount of the policy) ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company in the city and State of New York to (beneficiary) Mary Doe, wife of the insured, beneficiary, (with the right on the part of the insured to change the beneficiary as hereinafter provided), upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death, during the continuance of this contract, (insured) of John Doe, the insured.

PREMIUM. HOW AND WHEN PAYABLE.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment of the first premium of three hundred eighty-nine dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, constituting payment for the period terminating on the fifteenth day of January, in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, and the payment of a like sum on said date and on the fifteenth day of January in every year thereafter during the continuance of this policy until premiums shall have been paid for twenty full years from January 15th, 1913 or until the prior death of the insured.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy is free of conditions as to residence, travel, occupation, or military or naval service, and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue except for non-payment of premium. (Date policy takes effect.) After its delivery to and receipt by the insured this policy takes effect as of the fifteenth day of January, 1913.

The benefits and provisions printed or written by the company on the following pages are a part of this contract as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof the New York Life Insurance Company has caused this contract to be signed this fifteenth day of January, 1913.

SECTION 1—PARTICIPATION IN SURPLUS.

The proportion of divisible surplus accruing upon this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually and will not be conditioned upon the payment of the next premium. At the option of the insured such dividend shall each year, on the anniversary of the policy, be either (a) paid in cash; or, (b) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or, (c) applied to the purchase of a participating paid-up addition to the sum insured; or, (d) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy at such rate of interest as the company may declare on such funds, and payable on the maturity of the policy or withdrawable in cash on any anniversary date of the insurance. The rate of interest shall not be less than three per cent compounded and credited annually. If the insured fails to notify the company in writing, within three months after the company shall have mailed to him a written notice of the amount of said dividend and the options available as aforesaid, which option he selects, the company shall then apply said dividend to the purchase of a paid-up addition to the sum insured. Such paid-up addition may be surrendered for cash at any time, and the cash value thereof shall not be less than the original cash dividend.

SECTION 2—CASH LOANS AND BENEFITS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after two full years' premiums have been paid, and while this policy is in force, the company shall advance to the insured on the sole security of this policy as duly evidenced in writing, any sum desired, the total indebtedness to the company, including any advance then made, shall, however, not exceed that sum which with six per cent interest shall equal the cash surrender value at the end of the then current insurance year. Interest on the loan shall be at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually on the premium paying anniversary date of the policy. All or any part of the sum advanced may be repaid at any time. Failure to repay such advance or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy, but if the interest is not paid when due it shall be added to the indebtedness; and whenever the amount of the total indebtedness equals the cash surrender value, the policy shall become void one month after the company shall have mailed notice of such fact to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee of record, if any.

BENEFITS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After two full annual premiums shall have been paid, the insured may within three months after any default in payment of premium, but not later, surrender the policy, and, (a) receive its cash surrender value less any indebtedness to the company hereon. The cash surrender value shall be the reserve on this policy, at the date of default (omitting fractions of a dollar per thousand of insurance) and the reserve on any paid-up additions thereto, and any dividends standing to the credit of this policy, less a surrender charge which in no case shall be more than one and one-half per cent of the sum insured. After premiums have been paid for ten

New York Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $389.

AGE, 35.

New York Life Insurance Company, by this policy of insurance agrees to pay (face amount of the policy) ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company in the city and State of New York to (beneficiary) Mary Doe, wife of the insured, beneficiary, with the right on the part of the insured to change the beneficiary hereinafter provided), upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death, during the continuance of this contract, (insured) of John Doe, the insured.

PREMIUM. HOW AND WHEN PAYABLE.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment of the first premium of three hundred eighty-nine dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, constituting payment for the period terminating on the fifteenth day of January, in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, and the payment of a like sum on said date and on the fifteenth day of January in every year thereafter during the continuance of this policy until premiums shall have been paid for twenty full years from January 15th, 1913 or until the prior death of the insured.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy is free of conditions as to residence, travel, occupation, or military or naval service, and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue except for non-payment of premium. (Date policy takes effect.) After its delivery to and receipt by the insured this policy takes effect as of the fifteenth day of January, 1913.

The benefits and provisions printed or written by the company on the following pages are a part of this contract as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof the New York Life Insurance Company has caused this contract to be signed this fifteenth day of January, 1913.

SECTION 1—PARTICIPATION IN SURPLUS.

The proportion of divisible surplus accruing upon this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually and will not be conditioned upon the payment of the next premium. At the option of the insured such dividend shall each year, on the anniversary of the policy, be either (a) paid in cash; or, (b) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or, (c) applied to the purchase of a participating paid-up addition to the sum insured; or, (d) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy at such rate of interest as the company may declare on such funds, and payable on the maturity of the policy or withdrawable in cash on any anniversary date of the insurance. The rate of interest shall not be less than three per cent compounded and credited annually.

If the insured fails to notify the company in writing, within three months after the company shall have mailed to him a written notice of the amount of said dividend and the options available as aforesaid, which option he selects, the company shall then apply said dividend to the purchase of a paid-up addition to the sum insured. Such paid-up addition may be surrendered for cash at any time, and the cash value thereof shall not be less than the original cash dividend.

SECTION 2—CASH LOANS AND BENEFITS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after two full years' premiums have been paid, and while this policy is in force, the company shall advance to the insured on the sole security of this policy as duly evidenced in writing, any sum desired, the total indebtedness to the company, including any advance then made, shall, however, not exceed that sum which with six per cent interest shall equal the cash surrender value at the end of the then current insurance year. Interest on the loan shall be at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually on the premium paying anniversary date of the policy. All or any part of the sum advanced may be repaid at any time. Failure to repay such advance or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy, but if the interest is not paid when due it shall be added to the indebtedness; and whenever the amount of the total indebtedness equals the cash surrender value, the policy shall become void one month after the company shall have mailed notice of such fact to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee of record, if any.

years or more there will be no surrender charge. The reserve will be computed according to the American Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three per cent per annum; or, (b) receive non-participating paid-up insurance payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy except as to disability benefits. The insured may at any time obtain a loan on such paid-up insurance in accordance with the provisions contained in this section, or surrender such paid-up insurance for its cash surrender value. (c) If the policy be not surrendered for cash, or for paid-up insurance as above, the insurance shall be automatically continued for the face amount of this policy plus any dividend additions and less any indebtedness to the company hereon, from the date of default, for such term in years and months as is hereinafter provided, but without future participation and without the right to loans or cash surrender value and without disability benefits. The amount of paid-up insurance, or the term for which the insurance will be continued, shall be such as the cash surrender value less any indebtedness to the company hereon will purchase as a net single premium at the age of the insured at the date of default, according to the American Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three per cent per annum.

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.—The figures contained in this table represent the maximum amounts available, assuming that premiums have been paid in full for the number of years stated in the table, and that there is no indebtedness to the company hereon and that there are no outstanding dividends.

SECTION 3—DISABILITY BENEFITS.

A. WAIVER OF PREMIUMS.—If, after this policy shall have been in force one full year and before default in the payment of any premium, the company receives due proof that the insured before attaining the age of sixty years has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or disease so that he is and will be presumably, thereby permanently and continuously prevented from engaging in any occupation whatsoever for remuneration or profit, the company shall waive payment of each premium as it thereafter becomes due during the insured's said disability. In making any settlement under this policy the company shall not deduct any part of the premiums so waived, and the loan and cash surrender values provided for under Section 2 shall increase from year to year in the same manner as if the premiums so waived had been paid in cash. Under all the conditions aforesaid, except that the insured shall have attained the age of sixty years before becoming disabled, the company shall waive payment of each premium thereafter becoming due during such disability, but the face amount of the policy shall be reduced by the amount of each such waived premium, and the loan and cash surrender values as provided for under Section 2 shall be based upon said reduced amount of insurance in the same manner as if the premiums for such reduced amount of insurance had been duly paid.

B. INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS.—In addition to waiving payment of premiums as aforesaid, if such disability shall have occurred before the insured attained the age of sixty years, the company, one year after said proof of such disability, shall pay to the insured one-tenth of the face amount of the policy and a like amount in each insurance year thereafter during the continuance of such disability prior to the maturity of the policy; the policy must be returned to the company for the endorsement thereon of each payment. At the insured's option any such payment or payments may be left with the company to accumulate until the maturity of the policy at such rate of interest as the company may declare on funds so held by it but at a rate not less than three per cent, compounded annually. Each instalment shall reduce to that extent the amount of insurance in force, and the loan and cash surrender values provided for under Section 2 shall be calculated for the reduced amount insured on the basis provided in said Section 2. If at the time when any such instalment becomes payable there shall be an indebtedness on the policy in excess of the cash surrender value of the reduced amount of insurance, the company shall apply such part of the instalment as may be necessary to reduce the indebtedness to the amount secured by such cash surrender value. When ever the total amount of said instalments, together with the amount of any remaining indebtedness to the company, shall equal the face amount of the policy, plus any paid-up dividend additions, unpaid dividends and dividends left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, then the company's obligations under the policy shall thereby be fully satisfied and discharged without further action.

C. RECOVERY FROM DISABILITY.—Should the company accept under this policy proofs of disability, it may nevertheless at any time thereafter, and from time to time, but not oftener than once a year, demand of the insured proof of the continuance of such disability, and upon failure to furnish such proof, or, if it appears that the insured has become able to engage in any occupation whatsoever for remuneration or profit, no further premiums shall be waived and no further instalment payments will be made by the company. But if the amount of the insurance shall then have been reduced under any of the foregoing provisions such reduced amount of insurance shall thereafter be the face amount of the policy, and the premiums thereafter falling due will be reduced in proportion to the reduced amount of insurance, and all benefits under the policy will be reduced accordingly. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this section.

SECTION 4—LOAN INSURANCE.

Any indebtedness to the company against this policy may be covered by loan insurance, and, upon due proof of the death of the insured, such loan insurance shall be applied to the cancellation of any such indebtedness. Loan insurance shall be subject to the following conditions:

FIRST.—Evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company shall be required. No loan insurance shall take effect until the insured shall have received from the company a certificate thereof.

SECOND.—Premiums must be paid in accordance with the rates in the following table. The premium for loan insurance shall be computed at the attained age of the insured at the time when such loan insurance is made or renewed. For periods of less than one year, the premium shall be at the rate of one-tenth of the one year's premium for each month and fraction of a month.

THIRD.—Loan insurance shall not be granted for any period extending beyond the next premium paying anniversary date of this policy, but may be renewed from year to year subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of premium at the attained age, but no loan insurance shall be granted or renewed after age sixty-five.

FOURTH.—Whenever the loan insurance exceeds the indebtedness the company may cancel that portion of the loan insurance in excess of the indebtedness, and refund the unearned premium.

SECTION 5—OTHER BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and one copy filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary, with or without reserves right of revocation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company.

accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect when endorsed on the policy by the company and not before. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

GRACE.—A grace of one month (not less than thirty days) subject to an interest charge of five per cent per annum shall be allowed for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occurs within the period of grace the unpaid premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTIONS.—Whenever the reserve on this policy together with the reserve on existing dividend additions, if any, at the end of any policy year shall equal or exceed the net single premium for the attained age of the insured by the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at three per cent, for an amount of insurance equal to the face amount of this policy, payable at the same time and under the same conditions as this policy, the company, at the written request of the insured, will endorse the policy as participating paid-up insurance for such amount as the said reserve will purchase when thus applied, any indebtedness to the company to be a lien against said paid-up insurance upon the same terms and conditions as in Section 2; or, whenever said reserve at the end of any policy year shall equal or exceed the face amount of this policy, the company, upon surrender of the policy and all claims thereunder, shall pay in cash the face amount of the policy and any excess of said reserve, less any indebtedness to the company.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable on or before the date due, at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president, a vice-president, a second vice-president, a secretary or the treasurer of the company, and countersigned by said agent. The premium is always considered as payable annually, in advance, but by agreement in writing and not otherwise may be made payable in semi-annual or quarterly payments. Any unpaid premiums required to complete the payments for the current policy year in which death occurs shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. The payment of a premium shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next payment is due, except as herein provided.

PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE TO OTHER FORMS OF POLICIES.—At any time, and while in full force, and provided the insured is then less than sixty years of age, this policy may be changed without medical re-examination for a policy of the same amount, upon any form of insurance issued by the company at the time this policy takes effect and having a higher rate of premium but without disability benefits. Such change shall be effective upon payment of a sum equal to the difference between the premiums on the new policy and the premiums paid on this policy (exclusive of the premiums paid for disability benefits), with compound interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the due date of each payment to the date when the change is made, and upon the surrender of this policy. The new policy shall take effect as of the date of this policy, and the premium shall be based upon the same age as this policy. The cash value of any dividends standing to the credit of this policy, as well as any additional cash value of such dividends that would have been credited under the new policy, may be used in the settlement of the difference of premiums.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time after any default, upon written application by the insured and upon presentation at the home office of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, this policy may be reinstated together with any indebtedness in accordance with the loan provisions of the policy, upon payment of arrears of premiums with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum.

SELF-DESTRUCTION.—In event of self-destruction during the first insurance year, whether the insured be sane or insane, the insurance under this policy shall be a sum equal to the premiums thereon which have been paid to and received by the company, and no more.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.—The policy and the application therefor, a copy of which was attached to this policy when delivered, constitute the entire contract between the parties. All statements made by the insured shall, in absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defense to a claim hereunder unless it be contained in said written application. The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy. No agent is authorized to waive forfeitures, or to make, modify or discharge contracts, or to extend the time for paying a premium.

SECTION 6—INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.

If there is no assignment of this policy, the insured, or in case the insured shall not have done so, the beneficiary after the insured's death may, by written notice to the company at its home office, make the proceeds of this policy payable under one of the following options instead of in one sum, to wit:

OPTION 1.—The proceeds of the policy, or any part thereof, may be left with the company subject to withdrawal in whole or in part at any time on demand, in sums of not less than one hundred dollars. The company shall pay interest on the proceeds so left with it at such rate as it may each year declare on such funds, at a rate, however, never less than three per cent per annum and credited annually.

OPTION 2.—In equal instalments for an agreed number of years, payable immediately upon approval of proofs of death of the insured, and annually, semi-annually, quarterly, or monthly thereafter as may be agreed. The amount of each instalment shall be in accordance with the instalment table on the last page of this policy. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the company, upon due demand, shall pay in one sum the value of all unpaid instalments committed at three per cent compound interest.

OPTION 3.—In equal instalments for twenty years, and for as many years thereafter as the beneficiary shall survive, payable immediately upon approval of proofs of death of the insured, and annually, semi-annually, quarterly, or monthly thereafter as may be agreed. The amount of each instalment shall be determined by the attained age, on the date of the approval of proofs of death of the insured, of the beneficiary to whom it is payable and in accordance with the instalment table on the last page of this policy. If the insured shall so direct in writing, the instalments payable under this option shall not be transferable, nor subject to commutation or incumbrance, during the lifetime of the beneficiary entitled thereto.

If there be more than one beneficiary under the option selected, the proceeds so left with the company, unless otherwise agreed in writing, shall be deemed to be divided into as many equal parts as there are beneficiaries, and shall be credited and paid to each beneficiary severally.

In the event of the death of a beneficiary any unpaid sum left with the company under Option 1, or any unpaid instalments payable to him under Option 2, or any instalments for the fixed period of twenty years only under Option 3 which shall not then have been paid, shall be commuted at three per cent compound interest, and unless otherwise agreed in writing shall be paid in one sum to the executors or administrators of such beneficiary.

The sums payable under the foregoing options are based upon an assumed interest earning of three per cent, but if in any year the company shall declare for that year upon funds held by it under such options a greater interest rate than three per cent, the sum then payable under Option 2, or under Option 3 within the fixed period of twenty years, shall be increased accordingly.

After approval of proofs of the death of the insured, and upon surrender of the policy, the company shall make and deliver to each beneficiary a certificate evidencing his rights and benefits under the option selected.

Instalment options are not applicable to a policy which is payable to a corporation or co-partnership nor to policies under which the net sum payable is less than one thousand dollars.

INSTALLMENT TABLES.—Instalment payments under Options 2 and 3 specified in Section 6 on the third page of this policy, may be made annually, semi-annually, quarterly or monthly; the minimum basis of such payments will be $50 when paid annually, $25 when paid semi-annually, $15 when paid quarterly, or $10 when paid monthly, and the total of the fractional payments each year shall equal the annual payment each year as shown in the following tables, which are based upon a policy, the proceeds of which are $1000. The figures contained in the table will apply pro rata to this policy.

agreed that if the company exercises its right and cancels this policy as provided in standard provision No. 16, such cancellation shall be without prejudice to the life insurance policy with which this policy is issued.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed at Buffalo, York, this twentieth day of October, 1914.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree that I have carefully read the above questions and answers before making this application, and that every declaration hereinabove contained is true; and in the absence of fraud, said declarations shall be deemed representations and not warranties; and that any contract issued hereupon shall not take effect until actually delivered to me, together with the first premium receipt signed by an officer of the company, countersigned by the cashier or a duly authorized agent of the company.

Niagara Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL MAXIMUM PREMIUM, $383.40.

ANNUAL MINIMUM PREMIUM, $287.50. AGE, 35.

Niagara Life Insurance Company, Buffalo, N. Y., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars at its home office, to Jane Doe, the beneficiary, upon the death of John Doe, the insured, while this contract is in force, established by written proofs duly made.

This contract is issued in consideration of the application for the same, which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of payments for the first year as follows: Three hundred eighty-three and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars made on or before the tenth day of November; and of like payments in each and every year thereafter, during the continuance of this contract, unless the insured shall elect to pay the minimum rate as hereinafter provided. Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

LIMITED PAYMENT LIFE.—After premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid hereon, no further payments will be required.

DISABILITY BENEFITS AND LIFE INCOME.—After one full year's premium has been paid hereon, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured furnish satisfactory proof that he has, while this contract was in full force and before he attained the age of sixty years, become disabled by injuries or disease, so as to be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, the company by a written endorsement hereon will waive payment of premiums thereafter becoming due. Premiums so waived shall not constitute an indebtedness or lien against this contract, and loan and surrender values will continue to increase as if said premiums were paid in cash by the insured.

Upon proper written request duly made, at any time after the proof as aforesaid is furnished, the company will, in full settlement and discharge of this contract, convert all equities values hereunder into a monthly income of ten dollars per month for each one thousand dollars of original insurance hereunder, payable to the insured during his after life, subject to satisfactory proof at the time of each payment that the insured is then living.

Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrevocable loss of the sight of both eyes or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both arms above the ankles, or of one entire hand and entire foot, will be considered total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

This policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premiums and for violation of the conditions relating to military or naval service in time of war, after one year from its date of issue. If the age of the insured has been misstated the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

This contract is issued and accepted subject to all conditions, benefits and privileges contained in the subsequent pages, which are made a part hereof. But this contract shall not go into effect until the policy is delivered to the insured, together with the premium receipt, signed by an officer and countersigned by the cashier or duly authorized agent of the company.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed at Buffalo, N. Y. this tenth day of November, 1912.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty days will be allowed in the payment of premiums, after the first year, during which time the contract will remain in force, subject to an interest charge at the rate of six per cent per annum.

LOANS.—The company at any time after three full years' premiums have been paid and while this policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment or pledge of the policy on the sole security thereof, and interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable in advance to the end of the current policy year, a sum not greater than the reserve at the end of the current policy year, less a sum not to exceed two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereby, deducting therefrom all existing indebtedness and unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. Failure to repay any advance or interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the amount set forth in the table of options on surrender or lapse, and one month's notice shall have been given by the company. The making of a loan may be deferred for not exceeding ninety days after application therefor is made.

REINSTATEMENT OF CONTRACT.—In case of default unless the cash value has been paid or the extension period has expired, this policy may upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company be reinstated at any time by payment of arrears of premiums and of whatever indebtedness may have existed at the date of default with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable annually.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Provided this contract is not assigned, the insured may at any time and from time to time during its continuance change the beneficiary, to take effect only, however, when such change and the consent of the company thereon are recorded hereon at the home office of the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of the beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

CHANGE OF POLICY—After two full years' premiums have been paid on this policy, insured may at any time exchange the same for an ordinary life or a twenty-year term, without medical re-examination, at the annual rate shown in the table (being the company's established minimum rate, at the then attained age, less the value of accumulated reserve), corresponding to the number of years' payments hereon at date of change. Rates for years not shown will be upon the same basis. Following table is based upon the minimum rate having been paid in the second and tenth years. If the maximum rate has been paid, the premiums shown below will be further reduced.

Options on Surrender or Lapse.—After three full years' premiums have been paid this policy may be surrendered by the owner at any time prior to, or within three months after, any default. Thereupon, the owner may elect under the appended table (proportionately adjusted if there is any indebtedness to the company), either to continue the insurance in force for its face amount, or to purchase paid-up life insurance payable at the same time and on the same conditions as obtain in this policy.

If maximum premium be paid for 14½ years policy becomes paid up for face amount. Maximum values apply only in case maximum rates are paid.

If the owner shall not exercise either of said options within three months after such default, the insurance will be converted into paid-up life insurance as above.

The reserve basis of this policy is the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum. The maximum surrender charge deducted therefrom is ten per cent of the reserve for extended insurance, nothing for paid-up insurance and two and one-half per cent of the face amount for cash or loan.

MAXIMUM AND MINIMUM PREMIUMS.—Upon the payment of the second and each succeeding year's premiums, if the maximum rate shall be paid, the face value of the policy shall be increased by paid-up additions; and thereafter the total amount insured hereby shall be the sum named in the table of options on surrender or lapse, according to the number of full years' maximum premiums paid. The insured may at the beginning of any policy year after the first, in lieu of such paid-up additions, duly elect in writing to pay thereafter the minimum rate endorsed hereon (which is three-quarters of the maximum rate); and thereafter no further additions to the face value of the policy will be made.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No alteration or discharge of this contract, or extension of time for the payment of premiums, or waiver, alteration or variation of any conditions contained herein, shall be effective, except the same be in writing and signed by the president, vice president, or secretary, whose authority shall not be delegated.

NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—If any premium is not paid on or before the date when due, the liability of the company shall be only as herein specifically provided.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment hereof shall be binding upon the company unless made with its consent and the same be endorsed by the company upon this contract.

INDEBTEDNESS.—All benefits, options and values referred to in this contract are on the basis that there is no indebtedness against the same; and any such indebtedness shall be deducted in any settlement hereunder, and any premium, or portion of any premium, due and remaining unpaid at the death of the insured, including balance for current policy year in which death occurs, shall be considered an indebtedness.

SUICIDE, MILITARY SERVICE.—Death due to military or naval service in time of war and self-destruction within year from date hereof, whether sane or insane, are paid not assumed by the company; in such cases the amount of indemnity shall be the sum of the gross premiums paid hereon. With the company's consent, however, the insured may, without prejudice, engage in military or naval service as above.

This policy, and the application therefor, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

HEALTH AND ACCIDENT CONTRACT.

Providing indemnity for loss of time due to disability from accident or sickness as herein limited.

Niagara Life Insurance Company does hereby insure John Doe, whose place of residence and occupation are stated in copy of the application for this contract, in the sum of thirty-five and ($35) dollars per week ($5 per day) indemnity, for loss of time by reason of his continuous and complete disability resulting from any accident or sickness affecting his health, while this policy is in force, subject to the limitations herein contained, provided that such disability prevent the insured from performing any and every duty pertaining to his occupation. This indemnity shall be payable for the entire period of such disability, but for a period not exceeding thirteen weeks.

This policy is issued in consideration of the payment in advance of a premium of thirty-three and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars, and of a like premium on the twentieth day of October in each year thereafter during the continuance of this contract.

This policy shall not go into effect until same is delivered to the insured, together with the first premium receipt signed by an officer and countersigned by the cashier or duly authorized agent of the company.

STANDARD PROVISIONS.—(1) This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance. No reduction shall be made in any indemnity herein provided by reason of change in the occupation of the insured or by reason of his doing any act or thing pertaining to any other occupation. (2) No statement made by the applicant for insurance, not included herein, shall avoid the policy or be used in any legal proceeding hereunder. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions. No change in this policy shall be valid unless approved by an executive officer of the company, and such approval be endorsed hereon. (3) If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent acceptance of a premium by the company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the policy, but only to cover accidental injury thereafter sustained and such sickness as may begin more than ten days after the date of such acceptance. (4) Written notice of injury or of sickness on which claim may be based must be given to the company within twenty days after the date of the accident causing such injury, or within ten days after the commencement of disability from such sickness. (5) Such notice given by or in behalf of the insured or beneficiary, as the case may be, to the company at Buffalo, New York, or to any authorized agent of the company, with particulars sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed to be notice to the company. Failure to give notice within the time provided in this policy shall not invalidate any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to give such notice and that notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible. (6) The company upon receipt of such notice, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not so furnished within fifteen days after the receipt of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, character and extent of the loss for which claim is made. (7) Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the company at its said office within ninety days after the termination of the period of disability for which the company is liable. (8) The company shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim hereunder, and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law. (9) Upon request of the insured, and subject to due proof of loss, two weeks' accrued indemnity for loss of time on account of disability will be paid at the expiration of each two weeks during the continuance of the period for which the company is liable, and any balance remaining unpaid at the termination of such period will be paid immediately upon receipt of due proof. (10) All the indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured. (11) If the insured shall at any time change his occupation to one classified by the company as less hazardous than that stated in the policy, the company, upon written request of the insured and surrender of the policy, will cancel the same and will return to the insured the unearned premium. (12) No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after proof of loss has been filed in accordance with the requirements of this policy, nor shall such action be brought at all unless brought within two years from the expiration of the time within which proof of loss is required by the policy. (13) If any time limitation of this policy with respect to giving notice of claim or furnishing proof of loss is less than that permitted by the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued, such limitation is hereby extended to agree with the minimum period permitted by such law. (14) The company may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered to the insured or mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the company, together with cash or the company's check for the unearned portion of the premiums actually paid by the insured, and such cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior thereto. (15) Upon the payment of claim hereunder any premium then due and unpaid or covered by any note or written order may be deducted therefrom. (16) The insurance under this policy shall not cover any person under the age of seventeen years nor over the age of sixty years. Any premium paid to the company for any period not covered by this policy will be returned upon request. This policy does not cover disability self-inflicted, or while engaged in aviation or aeronautical ascensions. It is,

North American Life Insurance Company (Ill.)

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $309.40. AGE, 35.

North American Life Insurance Company of Chicago agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, at its home office, in Chicago, Ill., upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death of John Doe, the insured, to Mary, wife of the insured, beneficiary, subject to the privileges and provisions on the following pages hereof, which are hereby made part of this contract.

This contract is made in consideration of the application for this policy, a copy of which is hereto annexed and in further consideration of the payment, on or before delivery of this policy, of the first year's annual premium of three hundred nine and ⁴⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, comprising the legal reserve and the premium for term insurance for the first policy year, computed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois; and in consideration of the further payment of a like annual premium on the thirteenth day of September, in every year thereafter during its continuance, until twenty full years' premiums in all shall have been paid, this policy will be renewed and continued in force in accordance with its terms.

In witness whereof, the North American Life Insurance Company of Chicago has caused this agreement to be executed this thirteenth day of September, 1914.

PRIVILEGES AND PROVISIONS.

LOANS.—Cash loans will be granted on the sole security of this policy and proper assignment of the same, at any time while the policy is in force after premiums have been paid in cash for three full years, for a sum equal to, or at the option of the insured, less than the cash surrender value indicated in Column (1) of the accompanying table, deducting therefrom all other indebtedness hereon to the company. Said loans shall be subject to interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable in advance to the end of the current policy year, and annually in advance thereafter. At the option of the company the loan may be deferred for a period not exceeding ninety days, after the application therefor is received by the company, unless such loan is to be applied solely to the payment of a current premium hereunder. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness thereon shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, but if the interest is not paid when due it shall be added to the indebtedness; and whenever the total indebtedness shall become equal to the loan value the policy shall be forfeited or void provided such indebtedness be not reduced to less than the said loan value within one month (not less than thirty days) after notice to that effect shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the person to whom the loan was made, of the insured, and of the assignee of record at the home office of the company, if any.

SPECIAL PREMIUM LOAN PRIVILEGE.—The owner of this policy, at any time while there is no default in payment of any premium hereunder, or upon reinstatement, may file with the company a request for automatic premium loans. If after such request shall have been filed any premium on this policy be not paid in cash on or before the date when due or within the month of grace, the company will charge up such premium (and any subsequent premium or premiums not paid in cash) with interest at six per cent per annum, in advance, against the then loan value of this policy, as stated above, provided that such loan value is sufficient. Any premium or premiums so charged against the loan value of this policy shall be considered as a loan upon the policy and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as any loan made under the terms of the preceding clause "loans." The request for automatic premium loans may be revoked at any time in writing by the said owner, provided, however, that such revocation shall not affect any loan that may have been previously made under this privilege.

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—If this policy be legally surrendered to the company within one month after the end of the third year from its date or of any year thereafter, and all premiums to the end of that year have been paid in full, the company will pay therefor, in lieu of all other benefits, the sum indicated in Column (1) of the accompanying table, less any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy.

PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—Upon written request by the owner, accompanied by the policy, within one month after default in the payment of any premium after it shall have been in force for three full years, this policy will be endorsed for the amount of non-participating paid-up life insurance indicated in Column (2) of the accompanying table, payable under the conditions of this policy at the death of the insured; provided such paid-up insurance shall be without the right to loans, and provided further if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the amount of such paid-up insurance will be reduced in the proportion that the total indebtedness bears to the cash surrender value of this policy at date of default.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After premiums on this policy shall have been paid in cash for three full years, if any subsequent premium is not paid within one

Maximum amount carried on one life, $20,000

* Adopted in 1900.

North American Life Assurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—FIVE-YEAR DIVIDEND.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $369.50.

AGE, 34.

In consideration of the application (a copy of which is hereto attached) and of the statements and agreements therein contained, hereby made part of this policy, which constitutes the entire contract, and of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-nine and ⁸⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, to be paid in advance to the company, at its head office, in the city of Toronto, Can., on the delivery of this policy, and thereafter on the fifth day of January, in every year, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the death of the insured, if that should intervene, the North American Life Assurance Company insures the life of John Dow, (herein called the insured), of Chicago, in the county of Cook, and State of Illinois and, upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, and upon its surrender, promises to pay, at its head office, to his wife, Mary Dow, if living, otherwise to his executors, administrators or assigns, subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary, ten thousand dollars, (first deducting therefrom the balance of the current year's premium, if any, and all loans on account of this policy).

After this policy shall have been in force one year, the only condition which shall be binding upon its holder is, that the premiums shall be paid as provided; in all other respects, after the expiration of said year, the liability of the company under this policy shall not be disputed.

This policy is issued and accepted subject also to the provisions, privileges and agreements, on the following pages hereof, as well as those printed and written hereon, all of which are hereby incorporated herein and made part hereof.

In witness whereof the company has duly executed this policy at the city of Toronto, this fifth day of January, A.D. 1912.

PROVISIONS, PRIVILEGES AND AGREEMENTS.

1. SURPLUS OR DIVIDENDS.—The dividend apportioned by the directors of the company to this policy shall be allowed or paid upon the completion of the fifth policy year from the date hereof and each five years thereafter, if this policy be then in force. At each division, the legal holder or holders shall have the right to apply the dividend as follows:

OPTIONS.—Firstly, to withdraw the amount in cash; or secondly, to purchase a non-participating paid-up addition to the policy; or thirdly, to reduce the premiums payable during the ensuing five years; or fourthly, to reduce the remaining premiums payable under the policy. Should the death of the insured occur after a distribution of surplus to this policy and before the subsequent quinquennial division a mortuary dividend will be paid in cash with the policy.

FAILURE TO NOTIFY.—If no notice in writing shall be given to the company of the way elected in which to apply the dividend within two months after the completion of each dividend period, the dividend will be applied to the purchase of a non-participating paid-up addition to the policy.

2. After the payment of the premiums for three full years, in default in the payment of any subsequent premium or otherwise, the company will,

A. LOANS.—At any time while the policy is in force, on completion of a loan agreement properly assigning the policy, and on the sole security thereof, advance to the legal holder or holders at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum in advance a sum not exceeding the amount specified in the following table of guaranteed values after deducting therefrom all indebtedness hereon. This loan value will be increased by the amount of the loan value of any dividend additions existing to the credit of the policy at the time the application for loan was made. Failure to pay interest shall not void the policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, not until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any.

B. PAID-UP INSURANCE, CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Upon application therefor being made by the legal holder or holders of this policy at any time prior to any default within three months after any default, (1) endorse hereon the amount of non-participating paid-up insurance, as specified below, which amount shall be payable, less any indebtedness hereon under the same conditions as this policy, or (2) pay to the company, as specified below, less any indebtedness, upon surrender to the company, with the cash premium paid hereon and in addition thereto the cash value of any existing policies.

OPTIONAL EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE.—If the holder shall not exercise Option B, he may, at any time, continue the policy as a paid-up term policy, as specified below, without participation in profits or cash loans, for a sum equal to the amount of the cash value of the policy, less any indebtedness to the company. This term insurance will commence at the date of default in payment of any premium if there be any indebtedness against this policy, or any existing dividend will be paid on the term insurance granted as above shall be for such time only as the cash value will buy.

Table contains the values as at the end of the policy years stated, and is based on Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. The values given are based on the surrender charge, which, after twenty years shall equal one per cent, and does not exceed two and one-half per cent of the face value of the policy plus additions. Where the premiums are not payable annually, or through the date of the default does not coincide with the end of the policy year, the values in the above table will be equitably adjusted.

SETTLEMENT PRIVILEGES.—In lieu of the settlement in one sum of this policy when a claim is made, the company will pay for each $1000 net value thereof, the amount in instalments of $211 each, or in ten instalments of $113 each, or in fifteen instalments of $65 each, or in twenty instalments of $36 each, or in continuous instalments payable for years certain, as given below, and as much longer afterwards as the beneficiary may desire. The first of these instalments shall be payable upon the death of the insured and the remainder annually thereafter.

Instalments are subject to the election (made by written notice to the company office) of the insured, or the owner, or the beneficiary, after the insured's death shall have made no election. Any instalments thus payable which shall be paid prior to the death of the beneficiary, shall be paid unless otherwise directed by the insured, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. Such instalments as are contingent only upon their payment during a fixed period, shall be paid at three per cent, unless otherwise specified, by the owner or by the insured in making such election.

POLICY IN FORCE.—Under no circumstances shall this policy be held to be in force until the actual payment to, and acceptance of, the first premium thereon by an agent of the company, and the delivery to the applicant, when in the same health as stated in the application for this policy, of the official receipt, signed by the managing director.

PREMIUMS—HOW PAID.—Payment of premiums to agents will not be valid unless given, signed by the managing director. When receipts are sent to agents such agents shall countersign and date the same only on the day of the actual payment, and as evidence of its then payment to them. All premiums are payable at the head office in Toronto. For the convenience of the insured, Northern Assurance Company of Michigan.

Twenty-Payment Endowment at 85—Disability—
Non-Participating.

$10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $293. AGE, 35.

Northern Assurance Company of Michigan hereby assures the John Doe of Detroit, Mich., in the amount of ten thousand and promises to pay said sum to John Doe, his executor, or assigns, on the seventh day of November, 1964, due proof of the previous death of the said assured, and company promises to immediately pay said sum to him, or to his wife, or to such other beneficiary as may, according to the conditions hereof, be finally designated and recognized by the company hereon; or if no beneficiary be then living, then to the executor or administrator of the said assured; deducting from said amount any indebtedness to this company hereon, or otherwise, and the premium, if any, for the balance of the term, subject to the following conditions and provisions as recited hereafter in this contract, which are made a part hereof.

If any subsequent premiums or instalment thereof is not paid when due, or if any misrepresentation or statements in the application for this policy are fraudulent, this policy shall become void except as hereinafter agreed. If the full annual premiums have been paid hereon, in event of default in the payment of any subsequent premium or instalment thereof, the company will (subject to adjustment for any existing indebtedness), grant one of the following options: (a) the assurance will be for the face of the policy for such term as the cash value of the policy will permit.

If 1 year's premiums have been paid and this policy has been in force for years, but any action on the part of the assured continue this policy as extended years and months for the face of the policy, and endowment payable at end of period, if living.

On legal surrender of this policy a paid-up endowment assurance policy mature time as original policy for:

Amount the company will pay in cash, or loan at a rate not exceeding six (6%) per annum upon legal and satisfactory surrender or assignment of this policy. See back of policy for cash value beyond twenty years.

Contract is made in consideration of the application of the application thereon which application is hereby made a part hereof, and a copy of same contained herein, and in further consideration of the sum of two hundred ninety-three dollars, to be paid in advance of this policy, and thereafter to the company, either at my office, in the city of Detroit, Michigan, or to an agent of the company, authorized to receive the same, the payment of the sum on or before the seventh day of November in every year until premiums for twenty years, including the first year, have been paid.

This insurance is based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, and three per cent interest, and for the first year is term assurance, modified on the basis of a twenty payment life policy, and in consideration of the premium therefor, required, this assurance is continued as a limited premium endowment policy until the payment of further premiums thereafter, as herein provided.

Witness my hand, the Northern Assurance Company of Michigan, has by its president, John Doe, executed and delivered this contract at Detroit, on this seventh day of November, A. D., 1914.

PROVISIONS AND OPTIONS.

SUICIDE.—Self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from the date hereof is not a risk assumed by this company, but in such case it will pay the amount of the net reserve under this policy.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premium, but shall always be subject to adjustment for age in age.

LIMITATION FOR SUIT.—No suit shall be brought against the company on any date under this policy, unless commenced within six years from the time when the right of action accrues.

POLICY AND APPLICATION ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto.

STATEMENTS WARRANTIES.—All statements made by the assured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless contained in the application for this policy.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Any assignment of this policy shall be void, unless assented to in writing by the president or secretary.

WHO AUTHORIZED TO DISCHARGE CONTRACTS.—No person, except the president or secretary, is authorized to make, alter, or discharge contracts or waive forfeitures.

PREMIUMS WHEN CONSIDERED PAID.—No premium shall be considered as paid unless and until a receipt shall be given therefor signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by an agent authorized to receive such premium.

POLICY WHEN EFFECTIVE.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium hereon is paid during the lifetime and good health of the assured. The first year's assurance under this policy is term assurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The assured may change the beneficial interest hereon from time to time, subject, however, to the rights of any assignee, upon filing a written request with said company at its home office, in such form as it may require, but no change shall take effect unless and until endorsement thereof shall have been made hereon by the president or secretary.

DAYS OF GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days will be allowed in the payment of all premiums excepting during the first year, the policy to remain in force for its full amount during such period.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated at any time within three years, or within the term of extension, if more than three years, upon evidence of good health satisfactory to the company, and the payment of overdue premiums with interest at five per cent.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—In case of misstatement of age, no greater sum will be paid hereunder than the amount which the premium paid hereon would have purchased at the true age at the rate in use at the date of this policy.

VALUES EXPLAINED.—The cash value of this policy shall be the full reserve, less a surrender charge not to exceed one per cent of the amount assured. The cash values given on the first page are net, the surrender charge as above having been first deducted. The loan value shall in no case be less than the even dollars in the column of cash values for the same policy year. The assurance value shall always be the assurance equivalent of the cash value provided for herein. Paid-up and extended assurances effected under this policy may be surrendered by the assured for their full reserve value at any time. The values in this policy will be increased pro rata by the payment of a quarterly or semi-annual premium hereon. The cash values in the table on the first page of this policy are available at the end of the policy year indicated in the table, but may be had by the assured any time as stated herein after the payment of the premium in advance for the current policy year, less interest for the unexpired portion of the year at the rate of three and one-half per cent ($3\frac{1}{2}\%$) per annum. The loan value in the table on the first page of this policy is available on or after payment of the full year's premium for the current policy year indicated therein, provided, however, that in such case interest will be deducted in advance for the balance of the current policy year at the rate of six per cent per annum. The company may defer the payment of the cash value or the making of a loan (unless the loan be for the purpose of paying premiums to the company) for a period not exceeding ninety days from date of application therefor.

LOAN FORFEITURES, WHEN TO INVALIDATE CONTRACT.—Failure to pay any loan secured by this policy, or interest thereon, when due shall not invalidate the policy and the entire indebtedness shall equal the loan value hereof, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed to the last known address of the assured and of the assignee, if any.

SETTLEMENT IN EVENT OF PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid upon this contract and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the assured or someone in his behalf shall furnish the company with satisfactory proof that he has since such payment and before having attained the age of sixty, become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupation, the company will pay to him during such disability and in full settlement of this contract, twenty annual instalments—the first instalment to be paid six months after receipt of satisfactory proof of permanent total disability. The amount of each such annual instalment shall be six and eight tenths per cent of the amount of assurance stated on the first page hereof after deducting therefrom any indebtedness under this contract. Any instalment remaining unpaid at the death of the assured shall be payable as they become due to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of this assurance, who shall have the right to commute such remaining payments into one sum on the basis of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The assured shall not have the right to commute any instalments becoming payable under this contract prior to the date specified for its maturity as an endowment. If the assured shall furnish proof of like disability occurring after he shall have attained the age of sixty, the company will allow all premiums falling due more than six months after receipt of such proof to accumulate without interest as an indebtedness on this contract and in such case the values in the table on page one shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the assured. In addition to or independently of all other causes of permanent total disability the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or of both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot as permanent total disability within the meaning of this provision. The annual premium for the benefits provided in this clause is twenty-five cents per $1000 of assurance hereunder, which premium is included in the whole premium charged for this contract. It is agreed that the assured may at any time discontinue the benefits provided by this clause and hereafter the benefits thereunder shall cease, and the premium on this contract shall be reduced by the amount provided in this clause if the contract shall be returned to the company for proper endorsement with written request signed by the assured.

TRUST FUND AND INSTALMENT PRIVILEGES.—The assured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy, if not less than $1000, paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest thereon at three and one-half per cent per annum, payable annually, to the payee under this policy at the end of each year during the life of the payee, and by the payment upon the death of the payee of the said net sum and accrued interest at the above rate to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee, unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By the payment of equal annual or monthly instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the accompanying Table C for each $1000 of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual or monthly instalments, the first instalment being payable immediately, for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive, in accordance with the accompanying Table D, for each $1000 of said net sum. Instalments payable under options 2 or 3, which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the payee, shall be paid to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee, unless otherwise directed in said notice.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $25,000.

Northern Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—FIVE-YEAR DIVIDENDS.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $361. AGE, 35.

The Northern Life Insurance Company, Seattle, Wash., hereby insures the life of George Washington, of Seattle, Wash. (hereinafter called the insured), and upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured, and upon surrender of this policy, agrees to pay ten thousand dollars (less any unpaid portion of the insured's premium and less any note or other indebtedness to the company hereon) to Martha Washington, his wife, if she survive him, otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries as hereinafter provided.

This policy is issued in consideration of the application, a copy of which is attached hereto and hereby made a part of this contract, and of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-one dollars on the date hereof and on the first day of January in every year until twenty annual premiums have been paid.

One month of grace will be allowed in the payment of premiums hereon after one full year's premium has been paid.

This policy is non-forfeitable for failure to pay premium, after three full annual premiums have been paid in cash, in which event, if no other option has been selected by the insured, it will continue in force for the face of the policy for the time provided by the table of life insurance values endorsed hereon.

This policy is incontestable after one year, as provided under general provisions. The life insurance options, life insurance values, permanent disability clause, general provisions and instalment and annuity options elsewhere hereon are referred to and hereby made part of this contract as fully as though recited here at length. Witness my hand at Seattle, Wash., this first day of January, 1912.

LIFE INSURANCE OPTIONS.—This policy participates in the division of surplus of the company. The accumulation period of this policy shall be completed on the first day of January, 1917, and on each fifth anniversary thereafter. All premiums having been paid in full, the company will, on such date and subsequent fifth anniversaries, pay to this policy its share of surplus payable in cash; or the insured may, in lieu of such option, at the time such dividend is declared or within one month of the annual premium due date in any such year, select any other of the following options: (1) Take the surplus in cash. Or, (2) apply such surplus to the purchase of an annuity, to be paid in reduction of future premiums. Or, (3) apply such surplus to the purchase of paid additions to the face of the policy, such additions to the policy also participating in dividends. Or, (4) allow such surplus to accumulate at a rate of interest determined by the company and compounding annually; such accumulation to be payable to the insured at any time on demand, or payable in addition to the insurance at death. Or, (5) apply such surplus toward making this policy fully paid up in a constantly reducing amount, as additional surplus is so applied. Provided, that any such option calling for a loan of insurance shall be subject to evidence satisfactory to the company of continued insurability.

LIFE INSURANCE VALUES.—At the insured's option, in event of lapse in payment of premium, by written request addressed to the home office, and mailed before the expiration of the month of grace, and upon surrender of this policy for such endorsement hereon, the insured may select one of the following optional values after full annual premiums have been paid in cash for the year shown, which value shall not be in excess of the reserve value according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest. If, at the end of said month of grace, the insured has not made selection as above, the continued insurance shall be finally determined to be the value selected. If there is any unpaid premium note or other unpaid note or any other indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, such indebtedness shall first be deducted from the amount of the cash value to determine what if any value remains, and the value of the other options shall be reduced in like proportion, the continued insurance being, therefore, for the face of the policy but with the value reduced in time to correspond to any such indebtedness. If there should be any paid-up additions hereto and the insured insurance option is selected, such paid-up addition shall be canceled and an equivalent value in cash applied to increase the time for which the face of the policy is in force. The insurance in this table is non-participating when applicable use of lapse in payment of premium:

LOANS.—The company will loan the amount of the cash value of this policy, including that of any dividend additions hereto, at not to exceed six per cent interest payable in advance, upon execution of the proper evidence of such indebtedness, but such loan shall be deferred by the company for not to exceed six months. This policy will be the security required for such loan.

NOTE.—On any other anniversary after second year values will be allowed on the same basis.

PERMANENT DISABILITY.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid hereon in cash, and before default in payment of any subsequent premium (provided the insured shall not have reached the age of sixty), if the insured shall furnish the company with due proofs that he has become disabled by accident or disease and that such accident or disease was not the evident necessary consequence of his voluntary act or consent and was not due to any defect or condition existing at time of making application for this policy, and that he will be wholly, continuously and permanently disabled thereby for life, so that he will be able to engage in no occupation whatever for wages or profit, then the company, by such endorsement upon this policy, will agree to continue the life insurance in force without further payment of premium, and the cash surrender values shall continue to increase as shown in the above table. If this policy should provide for premiums beyond age sixty, this provision for cessation of premiums shall become void on the first annual premium due date, without grace, after the insured shall reach the age of sixty years, but such termination of liability hereunder shall not affect any claim duly accrued prior to such date, of which the company had received due notice. Or, this provision may be canceled on any annual premium date on written request of the insured, and if so terminated for any cause, subsequent premiums shall be reduced by the premium for this provision as shown on page three. The company may require evidence of continued disability and if the insured should recover from his disability so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, it is agreed that this policy shall be void unless all premiums are thereafter paid according to the original terms of the policy, and the premium for the then current year immediately paid, whereupon the policy will be fully reinstated without re-examination and without payment of any premiums previously waived by reason of this agreement, such reinstatement being as though no lapse in payment of premium had occurred. This provision for cessation of premium shall be held to be a part of and involve only the life insurance portion of the policy, and if accident or sickness insurance shall be included in or hereafter added to this policy, such insurance shall not be held to be in anywise modified by this provision, and such accident or sickness insurance shall terminate on non-payment of premium or whenever the benefit granted by this provision becomes applicable, but any benefits then due for any accident or sickness insurance shall be due and payable in addition to the benefits provided by this clause.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of policy, or date of any re-instatement, for any cause other than that involving the non-payment of premium, except that any error in statement of age of insured will be equitably adjusted by the company paying the amount which the premium hereon would purchase at the true age. Such right of contest shall be held vested in the company only upon written notice with reason therefor being mailed or delivered to the insured within such first year.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Assignments under this policy will not be noticed by the company unless filed with the home office on the prescribed form. The company shall not be responsible for the validity of any assignment.

ADDRESS OF INSURED.—Except in the case of notice of forfeiture for non-payment of loans, as elsewhere provided, the address of the insured for all purposes relating to this policy shall be understood and held to be the postoffice address given in the application, unless the insured shall make definite and specific written request of the company for change, in which event such new address then given shall be held to be his address and again changed by like proceeding.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—In event of lapse in payment of premium, upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, this policy may be re-instated at any time within five years after such lapse by the payment of all arrears hereon with interest at not exceeding six per cent per annum.

RESERVE BASIS.—The first annual premium on this policy pays for one year preliminary term insurance, and all surrender values given are calculated upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest, without surrender charge, in accordance with the tables printed elsewhere on the policy.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured, if not otherwise specified herein, and if no assignment has been made, reserves the right to change the beneficiary by obtaining such endorsement on the policy by the president or secretary of the company, and in like method waive such privilege, thereby irrevocably determining the bene-

—After three full years' premiums in cash have been paid, failure to repay in or indebtedness shall not void this policy until the total indebtedness hereon equal the cash value, including the cash value of any dividend additions, nor until such after notice has been mailed to the last known address of insured and of any assignee according to the policy, and any interest not paid when due shall be added to the principal and bear a like rate of interest.

—Shall not affect the validity of this policy after one year from date of issue and travel.—No restriction whatever is placed upon the residence or of the insured after one year from date.

—The first and all other payments due the company hereon are payable at the home office or else to a duly authorized agent holding the company's therefor, signed by the president, secretary or general manager of the company, a payment in advance shall be a condition precedent to the validity of any claim on this policy. In event of lapse in payment of any premium or part of premium due, all insurance hereunder shall immediately terminate, and all former payee hereon be forfeited to the company, except as modified only by the table of life values and by the provision for cessation of premiums in event of permanent disability. This policy itself shall be held sufficient notice of all premiums or other due the company hereon, and if further notice is required by law the evidence of the company hereon, and if such notice is issued shall, without further delay, be held adequate evidence of full compliance with legal requirements. The premium for cessation of premiums in event of permanent disability is five dollars.

—Any proceeds of this policy when due may be left with the common execution of a trust agreement therefor, whereby the payee may elect to leave the same in trust with the company and receive annually or quarterly thereon, while living, three and one-half per cent interest on the principal, and to withdraw the principal at any time thereafter at will, or if not so withdrawn the principal to be paid at death of such payee; or may be converted into an annuity upon the basis of the table of annuity options printed elsewhere hereon; all subject to any previous endorsement in the policy for a different method of payment by authority of the insured or the owner of the policy.

—The terms of this contract are wholly expressed in this policy and no agent has any authority, and no notice to or knowledge of and no by any agent or any other person shall be held to extend any time or effect any or waiver whatsoever of any of the conditions of this policy unless endorsed hereon by the president, secretary or general manager of the company. No warranty by the insured shall be used in defense against any claim unless contained in a written policy, and all warranties made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be considered representations and not warranties. The company shall have the right and authority to examine the insured's person or body in case of injury or sickness resulting in permanent disability, when so often as it may require. Failure to pay when due, or any instalment of such note, given by the insured in payment hereon (except where modified under loans and in table of life insurance values, when three full cash premiums have been paid) shall make it optional with the company at any time thereafter to cancel this policy from the time written notice thereof is delivered to the insured; and, in event of such failure to pay, all former payments shall be added to the company, and there shall be credited on any unpaid premium the earned portion of premium, (no rate for the unexpired portion of the period covered premium). If this policy does not conform to the laws of any State where the policy is written, it shall be held to be modified to the extent necessary to conform to and any conditions herein contrary to such laws shall be held not to be any part of this contract, and there shall be read into the policy any further provisions essential to conform to such laws. The interest allotted on any dividends left with the company shall not be less than three and one-half per cent.

—The insured may (by obtaining such endorsement by the president or secretary of the company) have this policy made payable in advance with one of the following options and the subjoined table, and such method of payment shall then be irrevocable except by like action of the insured.

1.—To have this policy payable in from two to thirty instalments covering a term of years, the full value of such instalments being payable regardless of length of life of the payee; or

2.—To have this policy payable by twenty certain annual instalments, the full value of such twenty instalments being payable regardless of length of life of the payee, payments continued thereafter so long as such designated payee may live. Under option (2) the beneficiary cannot be a firm or corporation, but must be one person, and change of beneficiary under this option cannot be made after death of insured.

—The following values do not include right to participate in any division of surplus. If an instalment will be payable at the death of the insured or at the time the cash value would have fallen due.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY, WITH ACCIDENT AND HEAL PROVISIONS—FIVE-YEAR DIVIDEND.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $415.50. AGE,

This policy except as to premiums is the same as the previous form down to the end of the permanent disability provision.

A. ACCIDENT INDEMNITIES.—If affirmative proofs be furnished the company the insured has met with bodily injury through external, violent and accidental means and that, within ninety days of the happening thereof, such injury was either, first, sole and independent cause of the death of the insured; or, second, that such a : of ninety days from the date of such accident had elapsed and the death of the insured had not occurred, but that such injury had, within such ninety days of the happening of such accident, been the sole and independent cause of the loss of one or more of the insured's hands, feet or eyes as below specified, then the company will pay one-half of the amount provided in the following table; the sum provided herein for loss of life inclusive of the amount provided by the face of the policy and is in lieu of the life annuity and of all further benefits under this policy; all subject to the general provisions on page three hereof. The accident indemnities are the full face of policy for one or two members as below, one-half for one hand or foot and two-fifths for one eye, incurred after first year, as follows: Benefits, except monthly indemnity for disability, be increased by ten per cent of the original benefits on payment of the second and also on payment of each subsequent premium, except that such increase shall cease and the annuity remain stationary when equal to a total increase of fifty per cent. Loss of life, sum insured being in lieu of the face of policy and canceling policy, loss of both hands, by actual separation at or above the wrists, loss of both feet; by actual separation at or above the ankles, loss of one hand, together with one foot, by actual separation at or above the wrists and ankle, loss of sight of both eyes, if complete and irrecoverable, loss of sight of one eye, if complete and irrecoverable, together with either the loss of one hand or one foot by actual separation at or above wrist or ankle, amounts payable during first year, $10,000; on and after sixth year, $15,000. Loss of one hand, by actual separation at or above wrist, loss of one foot, by actual separation at or above the ankle, amounts payable during first year, $5000; on and after sixth year, $7500. Loss of sight of one eye, if complete and irrecoverable, amounts payable during first year, $4000; on and after sixth year, $6000. Or, for total disability, if, in all other particulars, as provided in clause 1 of the policy, it is shown such injury not to have caused loss of members as above, but to have in the immediate, continuous and total disability of the insured, on account of which he could perform none of the duties of his occupation, then the company will pay him for the period of such disability, the monthly indemnity stated opposite hereto, immediately on receipt of proofs; and in case such disability continues, will pay such indemnity every two months on receipt of proofs, but such monthly indemnity shall terminate in event of death, and shall not extend beyond two full years, and shall be payable in addition to the life insurance provided by the policy, $200 per month.

PARTIAL DISABILITY.—If, in all other particulars as provided above for total disability, such proofs show the insured to have been completely prevented from performing one or more essential duties of his occupation, the company will pay him from one-fourth to three-fourths of the indemnity otherwise payable, according to the proportion such intercepted duties bear to the entire duties of his occupation, but indemnity for partial disability shall not be payable for more than six months, and the period for which both total and partial disability is payable shall not extend beyond two years.

B. SICKNESS INDEMNITIES.—If affirmative proofs be furnished the company that the insured has suffered from any sickness or disease, subject to the general provisions on page three hereof, which sickness or disease solely and independently of any other cause, has resulted as below specified, he shall be entitled to one of the following benefits: Total disability, whereby the insured has been continuously and necessarily confined to the house for more than seven days and treated under regular calls of a licensed physician and has been totally disabled, on account of which he could perform none of the duties of his occupation, then the company will pay him for the period of such confinement not exceeding six months and not extending beyond the time of death, the amount set opposite hereto. No sickness indemnity shall be payable until termination of disability, and in event of death any monthly indemnity due to be payable to time of death in addition to the life insurance, $200 per month; or, entire loss of sight, if such affirmative proofs show such sickness or disease not to have resulted in death, but to have caused the entire and irrecoverable loss of sight of both eyes, whereby the insured has been for one year and will continue to be permanently unable to engage in any occupation for wages or profit, then the company will pay him a sum which, inclusive of any other payments on account of the same sickness, shall equal the amount set opposite hereto, $5000; or paralysis of two hands or feet, if such affirmative proofs show such sickness or disease not to have resulted in death, but to have resulted in permanent paralysis of both hands or both feet, or of one hand together with one foot, which has resulted in total disability whereby the insured has been for one year and will continue to be permanently unable to engage in any occupation for wages or profit, then the company will pay him a sum which, inclusive of any other payments on account of the same sickness, shall equal the amount set opposite hereto, $5000.

CONVALESCENCE DISABILITY.—If the insured shall furnish proofs entitling him to indemnity for more than one week for total disability, as provided above, and such proofs show that immediately following and continuous therewith such disability continued for a certain period in all particulars as described in B and total disability, as above, except that he was not confined to the house, he shall be entitled during such additional period to indemnity at two-fifths of the amount otherwise payable, but such indemnity shall in no event be payable for a period of more than six months, and the period for which both total and convalescence disability are payable shall in no event extend beyond twelve months.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—The life insurance section of this policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of policy, or date of any re-instatement, for any cause other than that involving the non-payment of premium, except that any error in statement of age of insured will be equitably adjusted by the company paying the amount which the premium hereon would purchase at the true age. Such right of contest shall be held vested in the company only upon written notice with reason therefor being mailed or delivered to the insured within such first year.

For assignments, address of insured, reserve basis, change of beneficiary, loans, trust agreement, instalment and annuity option, see preceding form.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—In event of lapse in payment of premium, upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, this policy may be re-instated at any time within five years after such lapse by the payment of all arrears hereon with interest at not exceeding six per cent per annum. After expiration of the days of grace acceptance of a past due premium by an authorized agent in the State, town or county in which the insured shall reside shall not serve to reinstate the life insurance portion of this policy until approval by the home office of the application for re-instatement but shall re-instate the accident insurance as to bodily injuries thereafter sustained, and re-instate the sickness insurance as to disability from disease having its incipency ten days or more after acceptance of such premium.

OCCUPATION.—Shall not affect the validity of this policy after one year from date, except that injury or sickness occurring while engaged in any more hazardous occupation than present occupation stated in the application shall only entitle the insured to the proportion of the indemnities which the accident and sickness premium paid would purchase at such more hazardous occupation, and except that army or naval service in time of war shall not be covered under the accident or sickness insurance.

RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—No restriction whatever is placed upon the residence or travel of the insured under the life insurance portion of this policy after one year from date, but under the accident or sickness insurance in the event of sickness contracted or suffered north of sixty degrees north latitude or outside the limits of Europe, Canada or United States territory as held prior to 1897, or in event of accident occurring north of sixty degrees north latitude, the classification as to hazard of occupation is doubled and the benefits in that event will be one-half the accident or sickness benefits otherwise payable.

PREMIUMS.—The first and all other payments due the company hereon are payable in advance at the home office or else to a duly authorized agent holding the company's receipt therefor, signed by the president, secretary or general manager of the company, and such payment in advance shall be a condition precedent to the validity of any claim under this policy. In event of lapse in payment of any premium or part of premium when due, all insurance hereunder shall immediately terminate, and all former payments hereon be forfeited to the company, except as modified only as to life insurance portion of policy by the table of life insurance values, and by the provision for cessation of premiums in event of permanent disability. This policy itself shall be held sufficient notice of all premiums or other amounts due the company hereon, and if further notice is required by law the evidence customarily accepted at the home office that such notice was issued shall, without further proof of accuracy of address or delivery, be held adequate evidence of full compliance with such legal requirements. The accident and sickness portion of the premium for this policy shall be understood to be $54.50, and the premium for cessation of premiums in event of permanent disability, five dollars.

CANCELLATION OF ACCIDENT AND SICKNESS INSURANCE.—The insured shall have the privilege of canceling the accident and sickness portion of this policy by obtaining the company's endorsement hereon, upon giving written notice to the company during any annual premium days of grace, or the company may (without prejudice to any claim for any prior injury or illness) cancel such accident and sickness insurance at any time from the date of mailing or delivering to the insured of written notice, provided it shall deliver to the insured or mail to him by registered letter with due postage, and addressed to the insured's usual or last known address, a postoffice or express company money order, bank draft, or cash, for the pro rata unearned portion of the premium.

NOTICE TO COMPANY AND PROCEDURE UNDER ACCIDENT AND SICKNESS INSURANCE.—Written notice with full particulars and full name and address of insured must be given to the company at its home office in Seattle, Wash., within twenty days of happening of any accident or within ten days of the beginning of any disability under sickness insurance. Proofs on the company's prescribed forms must be furnished the home office within three months of the time of dismemberment or loss of sight by accident or of termination of disability from accident or sickness, or termination of any period for which indemnity is due, and within fifteen months from the beginning through sickness of either permanent paralysis or entire loss of sight; and no legal proceedings shall be brought hereunder unless brought within one year of the time of dismemberment or loss of sight by accident, or of termination of disability, or termination of any period for which disability indemnity is due under the policy, or within two years from the beginning through sickness of permanent paralysis or entire loss of sight, and legal proceedings shall in no event be begun within three months from date of filing final and completed proofs at the home office. Compliance with the provisions of this policy shall be a condition precedent to the validity of any claim hereunder, and any claim not made in conformity with such provisions shall be forfeited to the company.

LIMIT OF INDEMNITIES.—Payment for death shall terminate this policy, and if death shall result within ninety days after the loss of hands, feet or eyes, the absolute limit of liability under this policy, including liability for death, shall be the amount payable hereunder for death, and payment for any cause of the amount on the face of this policy (with such additional amount, if any, as may be called for by the provision for annually increasing accident benefits) shall cancel this policy; except that in case of payments made for loss of sight or paralysis, or due under the policy for loss of sight or for loss of member by actual removal, which removal or loss of sight had occurred more than ninety days prior to date of death, or in case of monthly indemnity due according to the policy for any accident or sickness, such payments shall not serve to cancel the life insurance nor be deducted from the life insurance provided by this policy. Payment for the loss of one or more members or loss of sight or paralysis shall terminate the accident and sickness portions of this policy, and no claim shall be valid for more than one of the accident and sickness indemnities as the result of, or the aggravation of, any one injury or illness, and claims for the results of either accident or sickness shall cancel all other accident or sickness claims or insurance covering or existent at or before the time for which such claim is made, and no claim for accident or sickness indemnities shall be valid for the direct or indirect results of any operation performed because of any defect or condition existing at time of issue of this policy. Accident and sickness insurance terminates absolutely on failure to pay any premium due, and if not otherwise terminated, ceases either on termination of the policy, or at the end of the premium paying period of the policy, or at the end of twenty years, or when the insured has attained the age of seventy years—whichever shall first occur; and subsequent premiums, if any, shall be correspondingly reduced. If accident or sickness insurance is carried by the insured in this or other companies or associations in excess of the money value of his time, unless the company has been so duly notified in writing, this company shall only be liable for the proportion of monthly indemnity herein provided which the money value of his time bears to the total insurance carried.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.—The terms of this contract are wholly expressed in this policy and application. No agent has any authority, and no notice to or knowledge of and no action by any agent or any other person shall be held to extend any time or effect any change or waiver whatsoever of any of the conditions of this policy unless endorsed hereon and signed by the president, secretary or general manager of the company. No warranty made by the insured shall be used in defense against any claim unless contained in a written application, and all warranties made by the insured shall, in respect to the life insurance portion of this policy be, in the absence of fraud, considered representations and not warranties. The company shall have the right and opportunity to examine the insured's person or body in case of injury or sickness, when and so often as it may require, including an autopsy in case of death. Failure to pay when due, any note or any installment of such note, given by the insured in payment hereon (except as elsewhere modified under loans, and in table of life insurance values, when three full years' cash premiums have a paid) shall make it optional with the company at any time thereafter to cancel this cy from the time written notice thereof is delivered or mailed to the insured; and, in t of such failure to pay, all former payments shall be forfeited to the company, and e shall be credited on any unpaid premium note any unexpired portion of premium, a rate for the unexpired portion of the period covered by the premium). All valua under this policy are payable immediately on receipt of due proofs. Claims for h are payable to the beneficiary, but all other claims are payable to the insured. If policy does not conform to the laws of any State where the insurance is written, it l be held to be modified to the extent necessary to conform thereto, and any cons herein contrary to such laws shall be held not to be any part of the policy con- t, and there shall be read into the policy any further provisions essential to conform uch laws.

The interest allotted on any dividends left with the company to accumulate shall not be less than three and one-half per cent.

the classification of accident and health risks referred to in this policy shall be according to the company's manual of risks as filed with the insurance department at or prior to the date of this policy. The United States territory referred to in this policy wherein sickness benefits are reduced (other than such as may be north of sixty degrees of north latitude) shall only be held to affect territory comprised in the Philippine Islands.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $5,000.

North State Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $381. AGE, 35.

North State Life Insurance Company, Kinston, N. C., promises to pay ten thousand dollars upon acceptance of satisfactory proof at the home office of the company in Kinston, N. C., of the death of John Doe, Kinston, Lenoir county, North Carolina, herein called the insured, to Mary Doe (wife), beneficiary, with right of revocation; less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year.

This policy is issued in consideration of three hundred and eighty-one dollars and of the written and printed application herefor, which application is a part of this contract, and of the further payment of three hundred and eighty-one dollars on the fourteenth day of January in each year until premiums shall have been paid for twenty full years, or until the prior death of the insured.

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

The benefits, conditions and privileges on the succeeding pages hereof are made a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures hereto.

In witness whereof, The North State Life Insurance Company, by its duly authorized officers, has executed this contract at the city of Kinston, in the State of North Carolina, this fourteenth day of January, 1913.

BENEFITS, CONDITIONS AND PRIVILEGES.

PREMIUMS.—Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment hereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at the home office, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president, vice-president, the secretary, assistant secretary, or general manager, and countersigned by said agent. A grace of one month shall be granted for the payment of every premium, quarterly premium, or semi-annual premium after the first, during which month the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the month of grace, the overdue premium will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder. The failure to pay any of the first two years' premiums, or any note given for the same, or part thereof, shall avoid and nullify this contract without notice to the insured or beneficiary, or any action on the part of this company.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premium and fraud after one year from date of issue. This policy is incontestable for suicide after one year from date of issue, but shall be void if the insured shall die by his own act, whether sane or insane, within one year.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, subject to any existing assignment of the policy, may designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured and the insured shall not have designated a new beneficiary, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it be filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—Misstatement of age will be adjusted by the company in accordance with the published premium rates now in use by the company for the correct age.

SPECIAL AGREEMENT.—No person except the president, a vice-president, secretary, assistant secretary, or general manager, is authorized to make, alter or discharge this contract, waive any forfeiture thereon, or make any contract binding on the company, nor shall any person extend the time of paying the premium or assume its payment. All statements made by the insured, in the absence of fraud, shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall be used in defense of a claim under this policy unless it is contained in a written application. Written permission of the company within one year from the date of issue of this policy must be obtained before traveling or residing in any part of the torrid zone, or north of the parallel of sixty degrees north latitude; or engaging in the occupation of blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, the manufacturing, handling, or transportation of highly inflammable or explosive substances or service upon any vessel, boat or railroad or other hazardous occupations.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—Upon receipt of satisfactory proof of total and permanent blindness or deafness of the insured, or of the total and permanent incapacity, caused by accident or mental disorder, or of the loss of both hands at or above the wrist, or of the loss of both feet at or above the ankle, or of the loss of one hand at or above the wrist and one foot at or above the ankle, or of the loss of one limb and one eye, while this policy is in full force by the payment of premiums, the company shall continue this policy in full force as a paid-up non-participating policy for its value; provided that if the insured shall recover payment of premiums shall be resumed. Proof of permanent or total disability of the insured will be required on forms prescribed by the company, and any medical adviser of the company shall be allowed to examine the person of the insured in respect to any alleged disability. No benefits for disability will be paid or be granted in event of total and permanent incapacity resulting from actual or attempted violation of law, or in case the insured shall have engaged in military or naval service in time of war, or in any case after this policy becomes fully paid up, or is exchanged for a paid up policy of any kind.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE.—If any premium due hereon be not paid before the expiration of the grace for payment of same, it shall be charged against the policy as loan with interest in advance at the rate of six per cent per annum, provided the loan value, as stated herein, at the due date of the premium, less any existing loan or other indebtedness with accrued interest, shall be at least equal to the amount of said premium and interest. If the loan value or balance thereof shall not be sufficient to pay the entire premium due and interest, then it shall be used, if sufficient, to pay the premium for a shorter period, but not less than an entire quarterly premium, and if not sufficient to pay a quarterly premium this policy shall cease to be in force, and any excess of the reserve carried hereon over the indebtedness shall be paid in cash on surrender of this policy. Should this policy be maintained in force for one full year under this clause and there should be any cash value remaining the company shall then have the right to terminate this policy by paying such cash value to the insured. This provision is automatic, and will be carried out by the company without any action on the part of the insured and without notice by the company. Any indebtedness thus created shall constitute a first charge against the policy in priority to the claim of any beneficiary or assignee; and at any time while the policy is thus maintained in force, the insured may, without medical examination, resume payment of premiums and continue the policy in force, subject to the right of the company to pay the remaining cash value, as above specified in this clause after one year.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of continued temporary insurance under option (b) on the next page, this policy, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, may be reinstated at any time during the term for which the insurance is continued in force by payment of arrears of premium with interest at six per centum per annum.

PREFERRED DIVIDENDS.—This policy and all policies of the same class shall be preferred to the stock of the company, in the distribution of its current earnings to the extent of an annual dividend, if any, in the form of a paid-up addition to and payable with the sum insured of ten dollars per each $1000 sum insured, which annual dividend shall be credited each year out of the earnings before and in preference to any dividend upon the stock. All dividends shall be subject to the payment of the premiums (if any) for the next policy year and shall be credited only as the same are paid.

FURTHER DIVIDENDS.—There shall also be apportioned to this policy each year its share of any further earnings, as determined by the company, as an increase of the preferred dividends.

CASH VALUE OF DIVIDENDS.—The cash value of each annual dividend when credited, as per this table endorsed hereon, may be withdrawn, upon surrender of this policy, or if no such cash values have been taken, the cash value of all accumulated dividends as per table may be withdrawn upon surrender of this policy.

The table below shows the cash value of $10 paid-up insurance at the various ages of the policy stated in table and is printed for the convenience of the policyholder. When dividend additions have been declared and credited to this policy, the company will cash them in the exact ratio that these figures bear to the total amount of paid-up addition declared.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force two full years, the owner, by written notice to the company within one month after any default, may elect: (a) To accept the value of this policy in cash, or (b) to have the insurance continued in force for its face amount from date of default, without future participation and without the right to loan, including any outstanding dividend additions less any indebtedness to the company hereon, or (c) to purchase non-participating paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy. If the owner shall not, within one month from default, surrender this policy to the company, at its home office, for a cash surrender value, or for paid-up insurance as provided in options (a) and (c) the insurance shall be continued as provided in the automatic re-clause. The figures in the table of loan and surrender values are upon the basis that there is no indebtedness on the policy, and that there are no outstanding additions. All indebtedness on account of this policy, outstanding at the time of death, will be deducted from the reserve used in the calculation of the value above and will reduce said paid-up or continued insurance value by the proportion indebtedness bears to said reserve.

—After two full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time, if the policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the security thereof, at a rate of interest not greater than six per centum per annum, an amount if not paid annually shall be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest, a sum equal to or less than the value shown in table of loan and surrender values. The company, however, will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company under this policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the policy year, and will collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the policy year. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, and until one month after notice shall have been given by the company to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignee, No condition other than herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to advance.

for later years will be computed on the same basis and be furnished upon request. —At MATURITY.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may have the net sum payable under this policy paid either in cash or as follows: (1) Payment of interest thereon at three per centum per annum payable annually, to the end of each year during the life of the payee and by the payment of the net sum of the said net sum and accrued interest to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee, unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1,000 of sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the payee may live in accordance with the following table for each $1,000 of said net sum. In-payable under options (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the insured shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee. If the insured shall not have directed otherwise the company may, after the death of the insured, by like written notice, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, select either of the above options. Unless otherwise specified the insured payee may on any interest date receive the amount yet due under option (1) at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed on the same basis as option (2) in the following table, provided that no such commuted value be made under (3), except after the death of the payee occurring within the foregoing years.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree, on behalf of myself, or any persons who shall have or claim an interest in any policy issued under this application as follows: (1) That all statements made by me shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties, and statement shall avoid any policy which may be issued hereunder, unless it is contained in this application. (2) That the statements and answers contained in part 1 and 2 of this application by whomsoever they may be written are materials to the risk, and true and complete, and if any such statements or answers be untrue, or incomplete, or any of the conditions of the policy be violated, said insurance shall be null and void, and all payments made or accepted on account thereof, shall be forfeited to the company to the extent provided in the policy. (3) That the company shall not incur any liability under this application until the policy has been issued, delivered and paid for by me in good health. (4) That I will not, within one year from the date of the policy issued under this application, travel or reside in any part of the torrid zone, or next parallel of sixty degrees north latitude; and that I will not, during said one year, engage in blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, the handling, or transportation of highly-inflammable, or explosive substances, or work on any vessel, boat, or railroad, or other hazardous occupations, except upon the written permission of the company in every such case. (5) That self destruction, whether by fire, or death resulting from actual, or attempted, violation of law, are risks not covered by the company within the said one year. (6) That the proofs of death required by the company, and shall include all information required thereby; that due proof of the age of the insured must be submitted with the proof of death of insured, and the amount due under any policy issued on this application, in no case, be more than the premium charged thereunder would have purchased at the date of entry thereof for the true age of the insured. (7) That the policy contained in the policy to be issued hereunder, and in this application, shall be subject according to the law of the State of North Carolina.

Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $368.50. AGE, 35.

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, in consideration of the payment of three hundred sixty-eight and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and of the annual payment of a like sum to the said company on or before the second day of January in every year until twenty full years premiums shall have been paid or until the prior death of John Doe, of Milwaukee, Wis., (hereinafter called the insured), promises, on receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, to pay at the home office unto his wife, Jane Doe, beneficiary, subject to the right of the insured to change such beneficiary, the sum of one thousand dollars, less any unpaid premium or premiums for the then current policy year and any other indebtedness on account of this policy; provided, however, that if there be no beneficiary or contingent beneficiary surviving the insured, such payment unless otherwise directed by the insured and endorsed by the company on this policy shall be made to the executors, administrators or assigns of the said insured.

Subject to the rights of any assignee and with or without reserving the right of revocation, the insured, (1) may designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries if none be named in this policy, or in the event of the death of any person designated; (2) may designate a contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries whose interest shall be as expressed in, or by endorsement of the company on, this policy; (3) and may change any beneficiary or contingent beneficiary not irrevocably designated. If there be more than one beneficiary the interest of any deceased beneficiary shall pass to the survivor or survivors unless otherwise directed by the insured and endorsed by the company on this policy. Any designation, direction, revocation or change shall be effective unless duly made in writing, and filed at the home office of the company (accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement) prior to or at the time this policy shall become payable. No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it be filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment, and satisfactory proof of assignee's interest must be produced on making claim.

This policy is issued and accepted by the parties in interest subject to the provisions stated on the second and third pages hereof which are a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, Wis., has by its president and secretary executed this contract, this second day of January, 1912.

PROVISIONS.

1. POLICY AND APPLICATION ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor (a copy of which is attached to this policy when issued) constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no statement of the insured shall avoid this policy or be used in defense to a claim thereunder unless the material and is contained in the said application.

2. AGENTS.—No agent of the company has any authority to waive forfeitures or to make, alter or discharge contracts.

3. RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy and any dividend additions thereto shall be in accordance with the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent.

4. SUICIDE.—If within one year from the date hereof the insured shall, whether sane or insane, die by his own hand, the liability of the company under this policy shall be limited to the amount of the reserve hereon.

5. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date except for non-payment of premium, provided, however, that if the age of the insured has been misstated, and the error shall not have been adjusted during his lifetime, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

6. PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—The insurance under this policy is based upon annual premiums payable in advance, but payments may be made semi-annually or quarterly, in advance, at the premium rates therefor now in use by the company, and change from one mode selected to either of the other of such modes may be made on any anniversary of the policy. No premium after the first shall be considered paid (except it be duly tendered as a premium loan) unless a receipt, signed by the president or secretary of the company and countersigned by an agent authorized to receive such premium, shall be given therefor. Should default be made in the payment of any premium this policy shall cease and determine except as hereinafter otherwise provided.

7. GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which time the insurance shall remain in full force, will be allowed for the payment of every premium except the first.

8. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time within five years succeeding default in premium payment, upon evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the insured and payment of all premium arrears with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness which existed at the time of such default with interest from that date.

9. DIVIDEND OPTIONS.—This policy while in force except as extended term insurance shall participate in the surplus of the company and the company will annually divide and account for the divisible surplus accruing hereon until all surplus found to have been paid from this policy shall have been returned.

The current dividend each year, at the option of the owner of the policy, may be (a) withdrawn in cash; or (b) applied to the payment of premiums; or (c) applied to the purchase of non-forfeitable participating paid-up additions to the policy; or (d) accumulate to the credit of the policy and withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy at such rate of interest not less than three per cent, credited annually, as may be determined by the company. Unless the owner of the policy shall otherwise elect in writing, dividends will be paid in cash.

10. PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTIONS.—Whenever the reserve on this policy shall equal or exceed the existing dividend additions at the end of any policy year shall equal or exceed the single premium for the attained age of the insured by the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent for an amount of insurance equal to the amount of this policy, the company, at the written request of the insured, will issue the policy (subject to any existing indebtedness) as participating paid-up insurance for such an amount as the said reserve will purchase at the premium named; or, if the insured ever said reserve at the end of any policy year shall equal or exceed the face of this policy, the company upon a full and valid surrender of the policy and all thereunder will pay, as a matured endowment, the amount of said reserve less any existing indebtedness to the company on account of this policy.

11. NON-FORFEITURE AND LOAN FEATURES.—The following provisions relating to non-forfeiture and loan features of this policy shall become operative only after payment of premiums for two full years, and no request, revocation or change in contract with such provisions shall become effective unless duly made in writing and filed in the home office of the company.

11a. BASIS OF SURRENDER VALUES.—The cash surrender value of this policy shall be the time prior to default in premium payment or within the thirty-one days of grace be the then reserve on the policy and any dividend additions then existing, less any indebtedness to the company on account thereof, and less also a surrender charge amount insured which during the fifth or any previous policy year shall be at the rate of ten dollars per $1000 of insurance and which thereafter shall diminish annually at the rate of one dollar per $1000 of insurance.

11b. PREMIUM LOANS.—Upon request of the insured, together with the cash surrender value, any, made prior to default in premium payment, the premium or premiums then falling due during the time any such request shall remain unrevoked and not paid or before due, will be charged as a premium loan with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, provided the then cash surrender value (as stated in the preceding paragraph numbered 11a) shall be sufficient to cover such loan. Any premium loan so made shall be repaid at any time.

11c. EXTENDED AND PAID-UP INSURANCE OPTIONS.—Upon default in premium payment, unless the premium be paid within the thirty-one days of grace, the face of the policy and any existing dividend additions, less any indebtedness to the company on account thereof, will be extended automatically as non-participating term insurance for such length of time from the date of such default as the then cash surrender value (as stated in the preceding paragraph numbered 11a) will provide at the net single premium rate for the attained age of the insured according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent.

11d. —Upon request of the insured, together with the beneficiary and assignee, made prior to default in premium payment or within the thirty-one days of grace, including a waiver of the automatic extended term insurance feature, participating paid-up insurance will be secured upon default in premium payment, unless the premium be paid within the thirty-one days of grace, for such an amount as the then cash surrender value (as stated in the preceding paragraph numbered 11a, but exclusive of any indebtedness which shall remain as a lien against the policy) will provide at the net single premium rate for the attained age of the insured according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent.

11e. —Change from automatic extended term insurance to paid-up insurance, or vice versa, may be made in accordance with their respective provisions, if the policy is then in premium default for more than thirty-one days.

11f. CASH SURRENDER AND LOAN OPTIONS.—Upon request accompanied by a valid surrender of this policy and all claims thereunder, the company will pay the cash surrender value thereof, which while the policy is in full force including the thirty-one days of grace shall be as stated in the preceding paragraph numbered 11a, and the amount thereunto shall be the full reserve on the form of insurance then in force less any indebtedness to the company on account thereof.

11g. —Upon request and the sole security of this policy properly assigned, the company, if the extended term insurance be in force, will advance at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, an amount which with the interest, and any unpaid premiums, for the then current policy year shall equal, or at the option of the insured, be less than the cash surrender value of the policy and of any existing dividend additions at the end of such year. Failure to pay either loan or interest shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness to the company on account thereof shall equal or exceed the cash surrender value of the policy and any existing dividend additions, at the end of the thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed to the last known address of the insured and of any assignee.

The company shall have the right to defer payment of the cash value, or the loan (unless for the purpose of paying renewal premiums on policies in any), for a period not exceeding ninety days.

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.

able is based upon a policy of $1000 free from indebtedness and without dividend. The values stated will apply pro rata to the amount of this policy and due will be made for any dividend additions continued in force and also for any of a year's premium paid over and above the premiums for the full number of indicated. Indebtedness will be adjusted as stated in the policy.

The basis upon which the table is constructed will apply if this policy be continued in force beyond the twenty-second year.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SETTLEMENT (IN LIEU OF PAYMENT IN ONE SUM) WHEN THIS POLICY BECOMES PAYABLE.

The insured shall have the right, with the privilege of revocation and change, to elect in lieu of payment in one sum, either of Options "A," "B," or "C," or that the amount payable be distributed under two or more of said options; the beneficiary or beneficiaries when this policy becomes payable shall have the same right and privilege if no such election effected by the insured shall then be in force; the beneficiary or beneficiaries if of full age when this policy becomes payable, shall also (subject to the rights of any assignee, and if there then be living no contingent beneficiary designated by the insured) have the right, with the privilege of revocation and change, to designate a contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries whose interest shall be as expressed in, or endorsed by the company on this policy; provided, however:

AMOUNT PAYABLE.—1st. The amount payable must equal or exceed $1000 for each election elected.

ENDORSEMENT.—2nd. No election, direction, designation, revocation or change shall be effective unless duly made in writing and filed at the home office of the company (accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement) prior to or at the time this policy shall become payable.

DECEASED BENEFICIARY.—3rd. If there be more than one beneficiary, the interest any deceased beneficiary shall, upon satisfactory proof of such decease, pass to the survivor or survivors unless otherwise directed by the insured and endorsed by the company on this policy; except that under Option "C" only so many of the stipulated instalments, if any, as then remain unpaid, shall so pass.

RIGHTS OF CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY.—4th. Unless otherwise directed by the designator and so endorsed by the company on this policy, the contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries, if any, shall, upon satisfactory proof of the death of the last surviving beneficiary, succeed to all the interest, rights and privileges then possessed by such beneficiary; except that under Option "C" the interest of any contingent beneficiary shall be limited to such of the stipulated instalments, if any, as then remain unpaid.

LAST SURVIVING BENEFICIARY OR CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY.—5th. At the death of the last surviving beneficiary if there be no contingent beneficiary then living, or at the death of the last surviving contingent beneficiary occurring subsequently thereto, the amount retained by the company under Option "A" will be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of such last surviving beneficiary or contingent beneficiary upon the surrender of this policy; under the same conditions, any of the instalments under Option "B," or any of the stipulated instalments under Option "C," then remaining unpaid, will be commuted upon the basis of three per cent compound interest and paid one sum in like manner.

OPTION A.

ANNUITY EXTENSION.—To have the whole or any part not less than $1000 of the proceeds of this policy at the death of the insured retained by the company until the death of the last surviving beneficiary or contingent beneficiary, the company in the meantime to pay an annuity equal to three per cent of the amount so retained, the first annuity being payable one year after the death of the insured.

COMMUTATION.—At the time any annuity payment becomes due the beneficiary, if of lawful age, provided the company has not been specifically directed to the contrary by the insured, shall have the right, upon due surrender of this policy, to withdraw the amount so retained by the company, in addition to such annuity payment, and if all amount be so withdrawn the annuity payments shall cease.

OPTION B.

LIMITED INSTALLMENTS.—To have the whole or any part not less than $1000 of the proceeds of this policy at the death of the insured paid in a specified number of annual instalments as per the first table below, which shall apply pro rata per $1000 of the amount to be so paid, the first instalment being payable immediately.

CHANGE.—The number of the instalments may be changed by the insured at any time prior to the payment of the first instalment.

COMMUTATION.—The instalments remaining unpaid will be commuted upon the basis of three per cent compound interest, and paid in one sum, at any time when an instalment is due, upon written request of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, if of lawful age, and due surrender of this policy, provided the company has not been specifically directed to the contrary by the insured.

PARTICIPATION.—For ages of beneficiaries under 10 years the instalments will be the same as for age 10. All payments under Options "A" and "B" and the stipulated amounts under Option "C," will be increased by such annual dividends as may be allocated by the company.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is understood and agreed (1) that if the amount of the premium on the insurance applied for is not paid at the time of making this application there shall be no liability on the part of the said company under this application unless nor until a policy is issued and delivered to me and the first premium thereon actually paid during lifetime; and (2) that if the amount of such premium is paid to the said company's agent at the time of making this application the insurance (subject to the provisions of the said company's regular form of policy for the plan applied for) shall be effective from the date of my medical examination therefor and such a policy shall be issued and delivered to me or my legal representatives, provided the said company in its judgment shall be satisfied as to my insurability, on the plan applied for, on the date of such medical examination; and (3) that if said company shall not be so satisfied the amount of the premium shall be returned.

TEN YEAR TERM POLICY—CONVERTIBLE.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $122.40. AGE, 35.
The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company in consideration of the payment of one hundred twenty-two and $\frac{40}{100}$ cents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and of the equal payment of a like sum to the said company, on or before the twentieth day of February in every year, for ten years from the date of this policy, or until the prior death of John Doe, Milwaukee, Wis., (hereinafter called the insured), promises, upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, if such death shall occur within said ten years, to pay at its home office unto his wife, Jane Doe, beneficiary, subject to the right of the insured to change such beneficiary the sum of ten thousand dollars, less any unpaid premium or premiums for the then current policy year; provided, however, that if there be no beneficiary or contingent beneficiary surviving the insured, such payment unless otherwise directed by the insured and endorsed by the company on this policy shall be made to the executors, administrators or assigns of the said insured.

For balance of face of policy and provisions 1 to 7, see preceding policy.

8. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time within five years succeeding default in premium payment, but not later than ten years from the date hereof, upon evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the insured and payment of all premium arrears with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum.

9. DIVIDEND OPTIONS.—This policy while in force shall participate in the surplus of the company and the company will annually determine and account for the dividend surplus accruing hereon until all surplus found to have arisen from this policy shall have been returned. The current dividend each year will be paid in cash.

10. CHANGE TO ANOTHER FORM.—Within seven years from its date, and upon written request made while the insurance is in force, this policy may be converted without medical examination to any form of life or endowment insurance issued by the company; and if this policy be for $2000 or more, any part thereof not less than $1000 may be so converted provided the amount if any remaining in force shall equal or exceed $1000; but in either case the conversion shall be subject to the following conditions:

10 a. The new insurance shall not exceed the amount of this policy and this policy must be duly surrendered or reduced.

10 b. The new policy will be issued as of the date of this policy, upon a form now in use, and the premium shall conform to the company's present published rate for the present age of the insured, and the difference in premiums for the amount of insurance converted shall be paid with interest at five per cent per annum; or

10 c. At the option of the insured, if then not more than sixty years of age, the new policy will be issued as of the date of the conversion upon a form then in use by the company and with premium conforming to its rates then in use for the attained age of the insured.

For provisions relating to settlement see preceding form.

Maximum amount written on one life, $35,000.

Northwestern National Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $353.

AGE, 35.

Northwestern National Life Insurance Company, Minneapolis, Minn., hereby insures the life of John Doe (hereinafter known as the insured), and upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the said insured, agrees to pay at its home office in the city of Minneapolis, ten thousand dollars to Jane Doe, wife (hereinafter known as the beneficiary), if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators, or assigns, or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the insured, as provided upon the second page hereof.

This agreement is made in consideration of the application therefor, which is made a part of this contract, and of the payment in advance of three hundred and fifty-three dollars, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and of a like payment thereafter on or before the twenty-ninth day of January, in each and every year until premiums for twenty complete years shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

The privileges and conditions stated on the following pages hereof are made a part of this contract.

Minneapolis, Minn., the twenty-ninth day of January, 1913.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

1. PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company in Minneapolis, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer of the company, and countersigned by such agent. Payment of a premium shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the period for which it is paid, except as herein provided.

2. GRACE.—Grace of thirty-one days, during which the insurance will continue in force, will be allowed for the payment of every premium after the first.

3. POLICY CONTAINS ENTIRE CONTRACT.—Agents are not authorized to make, alter or discharge contracts, to waive any provisions thereof, to extend this insurance, to grant permits, or to bind the company in any way. It is agreed that this policy shall constitute the entire contract between both parties, and that all statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no such statement shall void the policy, unless it is contained in the written application therefor, copy of which is attached when issued.

4. VALUATION.—The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

5. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured, subject to any existing assignment of this policy, may designate a new beneficiary, with or without reserving right of revocation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon, provided, in making application for the policy the right of revocation has been reserved. If any beneficiary, under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, shall die before the insured, and the insured shall not have designated a new beneficiary, the interest of such beneficiary shall revert to the insured, or the insured's legal representatives or assigns.

6. PLACE OF CONTRACT.—No action at law, or suit in equity shall be commenced or maintained hereon, nor recovery had, unless such action or suit is commenced within five years from the date when such right of action accrues.

7. RESTRICTIONS WAIVED.—This policy is absolutely free of conditions as to residence, occupation and travel. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service.

8. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premium.

9. AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age. The company will admit age at any time upon satisfactory proof.

10. SUICIDE.—In event of the death of the insured, within one year from the date hereof, by his or her own hand, whether sane or insane, the liability of the company shall be the amount of the premiums paid.

11. ASSIGNMENTS.—No assignments of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless filed at the home office of the company. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

12. LOAN.—At any time after three years' premiums have been paid, and while this policy is in full force, the company will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, a sum not exceeding the loan value as stated in the table on the third page hereof, increased by the reserve upon dividend additions to this policy, if any. The granting of a loan may be deferred by the company for not exceeding sixty days after the application therefor is made. Interest on such loan shall be at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, and shall be payable in advance to the end the then current policy year, and annually in advance thereafter. The company will deduct from such loan, interest on the loan to the end of the current policy year, any indebtedness on the policy, and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. Failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not void the policy unless the total indebtedness shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of its failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and if any, of the assignee of record at the home of the company.

3. SURRENDER VALUE.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, if any subsequent premium be not paid, the insured may, within one month after the unpaid premium shall have become due, select one of the following options: (a) To surrender the policy for its cash value; or (b) to have the policy endorsed for non-participating, paid-up insurance of a reduced amount, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy; or (c) to have the insurance continued in force from date of default extended term insurance for the face amount of the policy less any indebtedness, but without further participation or right to loans. The cash value, paid-up value, and amount of extended insurance available if the policy is without dividend additions or indebtedness, are shown in the table on the third page hereof. The reserve on dividend additions, if any, shall be added to the cash value or used to increase the amount of paid-up insurance or to extend the period of term insurance. If there is any indebtedness on account of the policy, such indebtedness shall be deducted from the cash surrender value, or the amount of paid-up insurance shall be such as the cash surrender value less the indebtedness will purchase according to the American Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, or the extended insurance shall be for the amount of the face of the policy less such indebtedness, and for such time as the cash value less all indebtedness will extend the same according to the American Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The company may defer the payment of a cash surrender value for not more than sixty days after the application therefor is made.

4. AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—After three years' premiums have been paid, if any subsequent premium remains unpaid, and a surrender value is not selected within one month as above provided, the policy will be automatically continued under the cash surrender value option (c), as extended term insurance.

5. INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company, and any part of the premium on the insurance year remaining unpaid at the death of the insured, will be deducted in settlement hereunder.

6. REINSTATEMENT PRIVILEGE.—If this contract is surrendered, automatically or otherwise, for either a paid-up policy or extended insurance, it may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and payment of arrears of premium with interest. Any indebtedness charged against the contract at the time of surrender shall continue in full against the reinstated policy.

7. PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company beginning at the end of the second policy year the company will annually determine the account for the portion of the divisible surplus accruing hereon.

8. DIVIDEND OPTIONS.—The current dividend each year, at the option of the insured, may be: (first) drawn in cash; or (second) left to accumulate, with interest, to the credit of the policy and payable at the maturity of the policy but withdrawable on any anniversary. The rate of interest shall be declared annually by the company, but shall not be less than three and one-half per cent; or (third) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or (fourth) applied to the purchase of pure endowment additions to the policy; or (fifth) applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy. If this option is originally selected and followed continuously, evidence of good health will not be required, but a change to the fifth option after another option has been used will be subject to satisfactory evidence of insurability. Unless the insured shall select otherwise within three months after the mailing of notice requiring election, dividends shall be paid in cash.

9. MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—The amount due hereon shall be paid immediately on receipt of due proof of the death of the insured. The insured, or after the insured's death the beneficiary, by written notice to the company at its home office, may elect to have the total sum payable under this policy, paid either in cash or as follows: (1) by payment of an annuity equal to three and one-half per cent of such total sum, at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said total sum, together with any accrued portion of the annuity for the year then current, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns; or (2) by payment of equal annual instalments at the beginning of each year for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said total sum; or (3) by payment of equal annual instalments payable at the end of each year for a fixed period of twenty years, and as many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said total sum. Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which have not been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary shall be paid to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. Unless otherwise specified by the insured or the beneficiary, the agreement for the payment of an annuity or instalments may be tendered at any time for the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed on the same basis as the following tables: Provided, that no such surrender and commutation shall be made under (3) unless the good health of the beneficiary is shown to the satisfaction of the company. Under the above explanation of the first mode of settlement and in the following tables illustrating the second and third modes of settlement, values are based on an assumed interest earning of three and one-half per cent per annum, and the rate is guaranteed as a minimum. If in any year the company should declare a greater rate of interest, the sums payable shall be increased accordingly.

In all cases where benefit shall occur after three years' premiums have been paid on any further premium shall have been paid, the insured shall be entitled to the surrender value corresponding to the fraction of the year's premium.

NOTE.—The insured is hereby notified that by virtue of his policy he is insured by the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company, and that the amount of said company are held at its home office in the second Monday of February at 10 o'clock a. m.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—I hereby apply to the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company, of Minneapolis, Minn., for $10,000 insurance and as a consideration therefor I hereby agree that all the statements and answers as written or printed herein, and in Part 2 of application, to be full, complete and true, whether written by my own hand or not, agree that every such statement and answer is material to the risk. It is understood and agreed (1) that if the amount of the premium on the insurance herein applied for is not paid at the time of making this application there shall be no liability on the part of the said company under this application until a policy shall be issued and delivered to me and the first premium thereon actually paid during my lifetime; and (2) that if the amount of such premium is paid to the said company's agent at the time of making application the insurance (subject to the provisions of the said company's regular plan of policy for the plan applied for) shall be effective from the date of my medical examination therefor and such a policy shall be issued and delivered to me or my legal representatives, provided the said company in its judgment shall be satisfied as to my health, on the plan applied for, on the date of such medical examination; and (3) that if said company shall not be so satisfied the amount of the premium paid shall be returned.

PART II.—I agree, that the written answers to the foregoing questions, and those in Part I of this application, are my answers, and are each full, complete and true; that I am the person who signed Part I of this application; that I am not afflicted with any disease, ailment, infirmity or disorder either in body or mind; that I have not had any disease, ailment, infirmity, disorder, local disease or personal injury either of body or mind, not herein set forth.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Occidental Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—DEFERRED DIVIDENDS—DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $273.80. AGE, 35.

Occidental Life Insurance Company, Los Angeles, Cal., agrees to pay ten thousand dollars herein called the face amount, at the same office of the company, in the city of Los Angeles, Cal., Mary Doe, wife of the insured, or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the insured in the manner hereinafter provided, immediately upon receipt at said home office of due proofs of the death during the continuance of the policy, of John Doe, the insured.

This policy is on the ordinary life deferred dividend plan and participates in the profits of the company. If this policy is in full force at the end of twenty years from the date on which the contract takes effect, which is the end of the deferred dividend period the company will apportion to the policy its share of the profits, and the insured shall then have the option of one of the following modes of settlement. (1) Draw profits in cash, and continue the policy. (2) Convert profits into an annual income for life, and continue the policy. (3) Convert profits into paid-up additional insurance, and continue the policy. (4) Surrender policy for its entire cash value and profits. (5) Convert entire cash value and profits into an annual income for life. (6) Convert entire cash value and profits into non-participating paid-up insurance. (Options 3 and 4 are subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.) If the policy is continued in force beyond the deferred dividend period, profits will be apportioned at the end of every five years thereafter. If the company does not receive from the insured a written selection of one of the above options before the date when the apportionment is made, or within three months thereafter, the profits will be converted into an annual income for life as provided in the second option.

This policy is free of conditions as to residence, travel or occupation.

After one year from date of issue, this policy shall be absolutely incontestable for any cause except non-payment of premiums.

PREMIUM.—This policy is issued in consideration of the written and printed application therefor, which is made a part of this contract and of the sum of two hundred seventy-three and ⁸⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, constituting payment for the term expiring on the first day of January, 1914, and will be renewed as an ordinary life contract, upon the further payment of a like sum on said day and thereafter on the first day of January in every year during the continuance of this policy.

GRACE IN THE PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of any premium, except the first, a grace of thirty days will be allowed subject to an interest charge at the rate of six per cent. per annum. If death occurs within the period of grace, the unpaid premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse by reason of non-payment of any premium, it may be re-instated at any time within five years, upon the insured furnishing evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and upon payment of all overdue premiums, and any indebtedness under the policy at the time of lapse, with interest thereon at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—At the end of any policy year, if this policy be then in full force, or within three months from default in the payment of premiums, provided that not less than two years' premiums have been paid in full, and that there is no indebtedness to the company, the following options are available: (1) To surrender the policy to the company for the guaranteed cash value, if any, specified in Column 1 of the table below. (2) To have the policy endorsed for the amount of non-participating paid-up insurance specified in Column 2 of the table below. (3) To continue the policy for its face amount as non-participating term insurance, for the period specified in Column 3 of the table below. Option 1 is conditional upon the policy being legally surrendered to the company by the insured and beneficiary. Option 2 will be granted upon the written request of the insured. If any premium remains unpaid, and Option 1 or 2 is not availed of within three months from the date of default in premium payments the face amount of insurance of this policy will be automatically extended as term insurance from such date of default, without the action of the insured.

NON-LAPSING BENEFIT.—On any renewal date, or within thirty days thereafter, provided the policy has sufficient cash value available for the purpose, the company may on the written request of the insured arrange to charge the premium as a loan against the policy. The conditions upon which policy loans are granted are stated below. The policy may thus be kept in full force subject only to the indebtedness and interest thereon, so long as there is cash value available to advance an annual, semi-annual or quarterly premium.

If there is an indebtedness to the company on this policy, and if any premium or interest is not paid on the date when due, provided that not less than three years' premiums have been paid in full, insurance for the face amount of this policy, less the amount of any indebtedness to the company, will be automatically continued as non-participating term insurance for such period as any excess of the net value, outlined under "reserve basis," over the indebtedness will purchase at the attained age of the insured at the net single premium based upon the reserve basis of the policy. In lieu of such term insurance, provided the insured makes written request within three months from said due date, the company will, as the insured may elect, either endorse on this contract the amount of non-participating paid-up life insurance which said excess will purchase at the age of the insured at said due date, at the net single premium based upon the reserve basis of the policy, or upon surrender of the policy pay said excess in cash.

RESERVE BASIS.—The reserve basis used in computing the premiums and values under this policy is the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent yearly, and any value which may be given under the policy, including those tabulated herein, shall be at least the equivalent of the entire net reserve of the policy, according to the preliminary term plan of valuation on the reserve basis method, less a surrender charge of not more than two and one-half per cent. of the face amount of the policy, as required by law.

LOANS.—Cash loans may be obtained on the sole security of this policy, at any time after premiums have been paid in cash for three full years, if there is no default in payment of premiums. This policy shall be pledged as collateral security for such loans, in accordance with the terms contained in the company's form of policy loan agreement then in use.

The amount which the company will loan at any time is the value stated in Column 1 of the table above. Such value includes loans then unpaid. Interest will be at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable in advance to the next anniversary of the policy, and in advance on that date and annually thereafter.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time, and from time to time, provided this policy is not then assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by sending to the company at the home office, a written notice accompanied by this policy. Such change will take effect only when endorsed on this policy by the company. The insured may, however, declare the designation of any beneficiary to be irrevocable. In which case, the insured shall not have the right to change the beneficiary during the lifetime of such irrevocably designated beneficiary. If any beneficiary or irrevocably designated beneficiary dies before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be in writing, and a duplicate thereof filed at the home office of the company, and its receipt duly acknowledged. The company will not assume responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim, at any time, if not then assigned, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page, to payment by annual installments, as stated below, provided the amount of such proceeds is one thousand dollars, or more. If the amount is less than one thousand dollars, the proceeds will be paid in one sum only. The following tables are based upon a policy, the proceeds of which are one thousand dollars and will apply pro rata to this policy.

*ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary should be thirty years of age last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment will be $43 for each $1000 proceeds, the payment of instalments to continue during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary; if, however, the beneficiary should die before twenty-five instalments shall have been paid, the remainder of said twenty-five instalments will be commuted and paid in one sum, as stated below.

The insured, having changed the mode of payment to annual instalments, may at any time subsequently change the number of instalments, as may be desired, and as above stated, or entirely revoke any change, thereby making the proceeds of this policy payable in one sum. The payment of the first instalment shall be made immediately on receipt and approval of proofs of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter. If the beneficiary should die before all instalments have been duly paid, the remainder of the instalments shall be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. Each change of mode of payment, or revocation of any change, must be requested by the insured in writing, and shall not take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at the home office. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, unless a right is given to the beneficiary by the insured in writing, and is endorsed on this policy by the company at the home office, during the lifetime of the insured. If, however, the proceeds of this policy or any part thereof, are payable to executors, administrators or assigns, such proceeds shall be paid in one sum.

NOTE.—If within one year from the date of issue, the insured, whether sane or insane, should die by his own act, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid on this policy.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

(1) No agent can make, modify or alter this contract or extend the time for payment of premiums, nor can this contract be varied or altered, or its applications or conditions varied or extended in any respect, except by written agreement of the company, signed by two of the following officers, viz.: The president, a vice-president, secretary and treasurer. (2) If the age of the insured is incorrectly stated, the amount payable under this policy shall be the insurance which the actual premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured. (3) Premiums must be paid at the Home Office of the company, unless otherwise provided, and in any case only in exchange for an official receipt signed by the secretary and countersigned by the person to whom payment is made. (4) In any apportionment or distribution of profits, the principles and methods which may be adopted by the company for said apportionment or distribution and its termination of the amount equitably belonging to this policy shall be conclusive upon the insured and upon all parties having or claiming any interest under this policy. (5) Indebtedness to the company, including any unpaid premiums required to complete payments for the current policy year in which death occurs, will be deducted in any settlement of this contract or of any benefit hereunder. (6) The insured may change the mode of premium payment on any anniversary date from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice versa, at the premium rates in use by the company at the date hereof. The payment of any premium shall not have the effect to continue this policy in full effect beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. (7) This policy shall lapse if any premium is not paid as herein provided, and no right thereon on account of previous premium payment shall exist as herein expressly provided. The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy. In witness whereof, the Occidental Life Insurance Company has by its proper officers executed this policy at its office in the city of Los Angeles, Cal., to take effect as of the 1st of January, 1913.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.

If the policy, of which this endorsement is a part, is continued in full force and effect without default in the payment of premiums, and the insured, before attaining the age of seventy years, becomes totally and permanently disabled as hereinafter defined, he shall have in lieu of all other benefits one of the following options:

- 1) Paid-up policy. Continue the policy in force as a paid-up, non-participating policy for its full face value, and without further payment of premiums; or,
- 2) LIFE ANNUITY. Surrender the policy for an annuity contract providing for the insured to be insured of an annuity of one-twentieth of the face amount of the policy, first of such payments to be made upon receipt and approval of proofs of total disability, and subsequent payments of like amount to be made annually thereafter for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the insured shall survive. If the insured should die before twenty payments have been made, the remainder of such twenty payments shall be continued to the beneficiary, or discounted at the rate of three and one-half per cent. interest compounded annually, and paid in one sum to the beneficiary.

The disability above referred to must be total and permanent, and of such a nature that at the time proofs are presented to the company, the insured shall be unable to perform any work or pursue any occupation or profession for wages, compensation or profit, and will thereafter and during his lifetime be thus permanently disabled. Accidental injuries which, independently of all other causes, and within ninety days from the happening of such accident, result in the irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes or the amputation of both entire hands at or above the wrists, or both entire feet at or above the ankles, or in the amputation of one entire hand at or above the wrist and one entire foot at or above the ankle shall also constitute such disability.

If after option (1) has been availed of, the Insured shall recover from such disability and be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the policy shall cease to be paid up and the insured shall resume payment of premium in accordance with the policy on the first premium due date following such recovery. If such recovery occurs and option (2) has been availed of, the company's obligation to make annuity payments shall cease, and upon surrender of the annuity contract the company will restore the original policy for its face amount less the amount of the annuity payments made, and the insured shall resume payment of premium on such reduced amount of insurance in accordance with the policy on the first premium due date following such recovery.

PROOFS OF DISABILITY.—Immediately after the happening of the disability, full particulars thereof must be given in writing to the company, at its home office in Los Angeles, California, and within four months after the happening of the disability, satisfactory proofs, on the forms prescribed by the company, must be given the company at its home office, and similar proofs of the continuance of such disability must be made annually thereafter, if required by the company. Any medical examiner of the company shall be allowed to examine the person of the insured in respect to any alleged disability and so often as he requires. Legal proceedings for recovery hereunder shall not be brought until after three months from the date of filing final proofs at the company's office, nor brought at all unless begun within two years from the date of the beginning of the disability.

LIMITS.—The company's maximum aggregate liability under this and all other policies upon the same life shall not, in any event, exceed, under total and permanent disability options, the liability on a policy of ten thousand dollars. If the total insurance is in excess of ten thousand dollars, the above options shall apply as to ten thousand dollars of insurance and any insurance in excess of ten thousand dollars shall be continued on its original plan. Premiums payable after approval of satisfactory proofs of total and permanent disability, and during continuance thereof, shall be for the insurance in excess of ten thousand dollars. This total and permanent disability insurance may be canceled by the insured at any time, and thereafter the premium will be reduced by fifty cents per annum for each thousand dollars insured, not in excess of ten thousand.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I agree to submit without delay to a medical examination by an authorized medical examiner of the company. Inasmuch as only the officers at the home office of the company in the City of Los Angeles have authority to determine whether or not a policy shall be issued upon this application, and as they act on the written statements, answers and agreements contained in my application, it is hereby agreed that no statements, promises or information made or given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application, or by or to any other person, shall be binding upon the company, or in any manner affect its rights, unless [such statements, promises or information be reduced to writing and presented to the officers of the company at the home office in this application. I hereby declare and warrant that all my statements and answers herein contained, and those to be given by me in response to the questions asked me by the medical examiner in connection herewith, are full, complete and true. I agree on behalf of myself and of any other person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued under this application, as follows: (1) That any policy issued upon this application shall at all times and places be construed to be a contract made in and under the laws of the State of California. (2) That any policy issued upon this application shall be placed in the dividend class corresponding with the value as to longevity which the company may put on my life, and that in any distribution of the surplus or apportionment of profits, the principles and methods which may be adopted by the company for such apportionment and its determination of the amount equitably belonging to any policy which may be issued upon this application, shall be conclusive upon the insured under said policy, and upon all having or claiming any interest thereunder. (3) That the insurance during the first year succeeding the date of a policy which may be issued hereunder shall be term insurance, and thereafter as for a policy issued at the end of said term. (4) That if the first premium on the insurance herein applied for is not paid in cash at the time of making this application, the insurance shall not take effect unless the policy is delivered to me during my lifetime and good health, and that, unless otherwise agreed in writing, the policy shall then relate back to and take effect as of the date of this application. (5) That if the amount of the first premium is paid at the time of making this application, the receipt for advanced payment of premium given me, if on the form now attached hereto, shall determine the conditions and the time when the insurance applied for shall take effect. (6) That any physician may disclose any knowledge or information concerning any question arising under any of my statements or answers or under the contract of insurance, all provisions of law to the contrary being hereby expressly waived. I further agree that the only form of receipt which shall be recognized by the company for advanced payment of premium is that now attached below, bearing number corresponding to this application.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $25,000.

Ohio State Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE, PREMIUM ENDOWMENT— NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $348.60. AGE,

The Ohio State Life Insurance Company, Columbus, O., consideration of the representations made in the application herefor and of the payment of (1. PREMIUM) three hundred forty-eight and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, first annual premium in advance insures for the term of one year the life of (2. INSURED) John Doe, of Columbus, county of Columbus, State of Ohio, hereafter called the insured, in the amount of (3. AMOUNT) ten thousand dollars, payable at the home office of the company, Columbus, O., less any indebtedness to the company, on receipt of due proof of the death of the insured to (4. BENEFICIARY) Mary Doe, wife of the insured, hereinafter called the beneficiary, or, in event of the beneficiary's prior death, then to the executor, administrators or assigns of the insured. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, and a modified preliminary term reserve is credited hereon the first year according to law.

5. RENEWAL.—In further consideration of the first year's premium, this policy may be renewed at and after the expiration of the first year as a non-participating twenty payment life policy for the same amount by the payment of three hundred forty-eight and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars on the first day of March, 1911, and annually thereafter until twenty full annual premiums have been paid from the date of this policy.

6. CONTRACT.—This policy together with the application herefor, a copy of which is endorsed hereon, shall constitute the entire contract.

On the first day of March, 1930, provided that this policy be then in force and be no indebtedness to the company against this policy, the insured shall have the right to choose one of the following settlements: (1) To receive on the surrender of this policy the sum of $6972 in cash, being the total of annual premiums paid. (2) To receive on the surrender of this policy a life annuity of $570, the amount which the cash value of this policy will purchase. (3) To receive the sum of $1310.50 in cash, and to convert this policy as a paid-up non-participating life policy for its face value. (4) To receive on the surrender of this policy a new paid-up non-participating life policy for $12,000.

7. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time, if this policy is not in force, substitute another beneficiary for the one herein named, provided that duplicate copies of the deed of substitution shall be sent to the company at its home office, and a copy to be retained by the company and one to be attached to the policy with the endorsement of the company; however, the validity of any substitution is not warranted by the company.

8. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—Each premium is due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in the city of Columbus, Ohio, but premiums may be paid to an authorized agent of the company in exchange for the company's receipt therefor, signed by the president or the secretary, and countersigned by the agent. The unpaid portion of any full annual premium will be deducted in any settlement of this policy. The company will accept payment of premium in advance, at other times than as stated above, as follows: Semi-annually, $181.30; quarterly, $92.40. Failure to pay any of the first three years' premiums, or any note given for any part thereof, will void this policy and forfeit all premiums to the company.

9. GRACE.—After this policy has been in force one year, a grace of one month shall be allowed in payment of any subsequent premium, during which month the insured shall continue in force, and the unpaid premium shall remain an indebtedness due the company.

10. AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, if any premium hereon shall not be paid within one month after due, the company shall charge the annual premium against this policy as a loan at five per cent interest from the time when due, if the respective loan value be sufficient to cover such advance in addition to existing indebtedness including accrued interest thereon; if the respective loan value be insufficient to cover the entire premium when due, the company shall apply the same to pay the premium for a shorter period but not for less than one quarter of the year. Notice of such advance shall be mailed the insured, and at any time while the policy is thus sustained in force, the payment of premiums may be resumed.

11. CONDITIONS.—This policy shall be null and void, except for the amount of premium paid, if the insured shall die within one year by self-destruction, whether sane or insane; or if the insured shall at any time engage in military or naval service in the line of war (the militia not in actual service excepted), unless a special written permit therefor has been obtained from the company.

2. INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year this policy shall be incontestable, except non-payment of premiums, or for violation of the condition relating to military and all service in time of war; and except as otherwise provided in the application. All statements made by the insured in the application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

3. MISTAKE IN AGE.—If the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct

4. ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company if it be filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

5. VALUES.—After three full years' premiums have been paid in cash, the reserve on this policy at date of default, computed according to the American Experience Table Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, less a surrender charge in no case more than two and one-half per cent of the amount of the insurance, and less any indebtedness against this policy, may be used, at the option of the insured, in any one of the ways set forth in the following tables:

Figures for other years computed on the same basis will be furnished on request.

INDEBTEDNESS.—If there be any indebtedness against this policy, the cash value and the loan value shall be reduced thereby; the paid-up value shall be reduced proportionately; and the extended insurance shall be for the face value of the policy less indebtedness, and shall be such as said reduced cash value will provide, computed according to the method set forth in the first paragraph of article 15.

CASH.—On surrender of this policy before the expiration of the month of grace, the company will pay its cash value; provided, however, that such payment may be deferred for a period of three months. (Table 1.)

LOAN.—On the sole security of this policy and the proper assignment hereof the company will loan, at five per cent interest payable annually in advance on the anniversary of the policy, an amount equal to its loan value, less the unpaid balance of the current year's premium, if any. Failure to repay principal or interest shall not void this policy less the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed to the insured and the grace, if any. However, such loan may be deferred for a period of three months. (Table 2.)

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—On written request by the insured and surrender of this policy before the expiration of the month of grace, a non-participating policy for the amount paid-up insurance will be issued; the sum applicable to the purchase of paid-up insurance being more than sufficient to pay for the amount as specified, the excess shall be payable immediately in cash. (Table 3.)

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—On written request by the insured, this policy will be continued as non-participating term insurance, from the date to which premiums have been paid in cash, without further payment of premiums; the sum applicable to the purchase of extended insurance being more than sufficient to pay for the time as specified, the excess shall be payable immediately in cash. (Table 4.)

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time within five years from the date of lapse, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and payment of premium arrears with five per cent interest per annum compounded, and the payment of any other indebtedness due the company with accumulated interest.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—The insured, while this policy is in force and is not assigned, may elect by written notice to the company at its home office, that the proceeds of this policy shall be paid the beneficiary in annual instalments according to the tables of instalment options herein provided. If the insured elects that the proceeds of this policy be paid in instalments, the beneficiary will be denied the right to assign or discount said instalments, unless the consent of the insured, while living, is endorsed on this policy by the president or the secretary of the company. Whatever option may be chosen, the first instalment becomes due immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, this policy being then in force. In case of the death of the beneficiary before the payment of the total number of instalments due hereunder, the company will then present cash value of unpaid instalments to the executors, administrators of the beneficiary. The instalment privilege shall not be operative, if the amount on this policy is less than one thousand dollars. The tables given with the options are on the basis of equal annual instalments for each one thousand insurance.

FIRST OPTION.—After the death of the insured the proceeds will be paid in any number of instalments as shown in the table for the first option.

TABLE FOR THE FIRST OPTION.

Number of instalments.....	5	10	15	20	25
Amount of each.....	$212	$114	$81	$65	$56

SECOND OPTION.—The proceeds will be paid in instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined by the table for the first option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the death of the insured. In case of the death of the beneficiary before two instalments have been paid, the company will pay the then present cash value of the instalments of the twenty instalments to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

THIRD OPTION.—The proceeds will be paid in instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined by the table for the first option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the insured.

* Age of beneficiary at death of insured. † Twenty instalments certain. ‡ Continuous instalments during life of beneficiary. § Continuous instalment due of beneficiary.

FOURTH OPTION.—After the death of the insured the payment of the face of the policy in twenty equal annual instalments, and the payment of an additional amount to one-half of the face of the policy twenty years after the payment of the first instalment.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—This application, which I make to the Ohio State Life Insurance Co. of Columbus, O., is the basis and a part of the proposed contract of insurance. I declare and agree, on behalf of myself, and of any person having or claiming any interest in any policy issued under this application, as follows: (1) That the policy shall be binding upon the company, unless it has been delivered to me during my own life or its duly authorized agent. (2) That all provisions of law, preventing or restricting any physician or other person from disclosing any and all information which I have acquired in serving me, are hereby expressly waived. (3) That death within the term of the policy by my own hand or act, whether sane or insane, shall render the policy null and void. (4) That blank proofs of death may be furnished to me by the company or representative without incurring any liability or waiving any rights on my part. (5) That all statements and answers written in this application, as well as those to be made to the medical examiner in continuation hereof, are to be true and complete; that no material facts have been suppressed; and that the same are offered to the company as a consideration for the issuance of the policy.

PART II.—I hereby declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, I am a person of sound mind and a proper subject for life insurance.

Old Colony Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT ENDOWMENT AT 85—NON-PARTICIPATING.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $311.10. AGE, 35.

Old Colony Life Insurance Company, Chicago, agrees to pay a thousand dollars, which is the face amount hereof, immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, the insured, to Mary Doe (wife), beneficiary, subject to the provisions of this policy.

ENDOWMENT PROVISION.—If the insured is living and this policy in full force at the end of its endowment period, which is the end of the policy year falling nearest age eighty-five of the insured, the face amount hereof will become payable and be paid to the insured, instead of to the beneficiary.

LIFE INCOME FOR THE INSURED.—In lieu of the foregoing cash settlement at the end of the endowment period hereof, the company will grant the insured, as annuitant, a guaranteed cash income for life of $1836.20 payable annually; or of $155.50 payable monthly, the first payment of said income being due at the end of said period.

OPTIONAL SETTLEMENTS FOR THE BENEFICIARY AND THE INSURED.—The proceeds of this policy as a death claim (payable to the beneficiary) or as an endowment or cash surrender value (payable to the insured) may be left with the company for the purpose of providing for the person entitled thereto, as annuitant, an annual or monthly income, in accordance with the provisions of the trust fund and instalment privilege on the fourth page hereof.

DISABILITY BENEFIT.—The company will pay for the insured the premiums stated on the second page hereof for every policy year following the date of approval by the company of proof that the insured has become totally and permanently disabled as hereinafter defined, if such proof is received by the company before the insured has attained the age of sixty years and if premiums have been duly paid by the insured to the end of the policy year in which such proof is approved. The premiums so paid by the company will not be an indebtedness hereon, and this policy will continue in full force towards maturity, with the values in the table herein increasing and progressing year by year, in like manner as if the premiums were being duly and regularly paid by the insured. The total and permanent disability of the insured must be due to bodily injuries or disease occurring while this policy is in full force, and must be such as to prevent the insured then and at all times thereafter from performing any work or conducting any business for compensation or profit; provided that, notwithstanding any disability may have been approved by the company, the company shall at any time, on demand, be furnished satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability; if such proof is not furnished, or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is unable to perform any work, or to conduct any business for compensation or profit, subsequent premiums required hereon must be paid by the insured. In addition to the disability benefit, the company will pay to the insured, independently of all other causes of total and permanent disability, the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand or one entire foot, as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

This policy is absolutely free of conditions or restrictions as to residence, travel, occupation, or military or naval service.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application for which is hereby made a part of this contract, and of the payment of premiums as herein provided.

PREMIUMS WHEN DUE.—The annual premium of three hundred and ten and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars will be payable on delivery hereof and the first day of March in each year, until premiums for twenty policy years have been paid or until the prior death of the insured. In lieu of the annual premium the company will accept \$1.80 semi-annually in advance, or \$82.40 quarterly in advance. A reduction of \$3 per annum will be granted on any premiums coming due hereon after expiration or cancellation of the provision for the disability benefit herein, it being understood that said provision will be cancelled by the company at any time before its expiration, upon receipt at the home office of the insured's written request therefor, accompanied by this policy. The insurance covered by the foregoing premiums will be terminated insurance until the end of the first policy year, and endowment insurance thereafter, the company setting aside a reserve for said year in accordance with the reserve standard hereof.

GRACE FOR PAYING PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days from date when due will be allowed, without interest charge, for the payment of every premium after the first during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If a request for an extension of grace for the payment of any such premium, signed by the insured on the company's form, is received at the home office on or before the last day of the aforesaid period of grace, accompanied by the payment of a deposit, on account of the premium, of an amount as the company may require, such extension will be granted by the company for any period desired by the insured within the limit of 225 days for an annual, 125 days for a semi-annual and 25 days for a quarterly premium, subject to the provisions of the formal request and interest at the rate of five per cent per annum.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable on or before the date when due, at the home office of the company in Chicago, Ill., or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by said agent. If the insured shall die within the period of grace, or while the policy is maintained in force by the payment of a semi-annual or quarterly premium, the unpaid premium, or premiums, required to cover the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. The payment of a premium does not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next payment is due, except as herein otherwise provided.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—At the end of the second policy year, or at any time thereafter within thirty-one days from the date to which premiums have been paid, the insured shall have the following options: 1. To surrender this policy at the home office of the company for its cash surrender value; or, 2. To surrender this policy at the home office of the company for such paid-up endowment policy covering the remainder of the endowment period hereof, as its cash surrender value will purchase, or, 3. To let this policy continue in force for its face amount, less amount of any indebtedness known to the company, as paid-up term insurance for as long a term from said date, as its cash surrender value will purchase, not longer, however, than the remainder of the endowment period hereof, any balance of said value, after providing such insurance for said remainder being applicable to the purchase of a pure endowment payable in cash to the insured living at the end of said period.

After completion of its premium-paying period this policy may be surrendered by the insured to the company at the end of any policy year for its then cash surrender value.

If this policy is not, within the aforesaid thirty-one days, surrendered under either option 1 or 2, it will be automatically continued in force in accordance with option 3 without further loan privilege, but entitled to a cash surrender value, payable to the insured, equal to the full reserve thereon at the time of surrender, or exchangeable for such paid-up endowment policy covering the then remainder of the endowment period hereof, as such cash surrender value will purchase.

The foregoing purchases shall be made at net single premium rates for the then attained age of the insured by the three and one-half per cent American Experience Table of Mortality.

End of later years figures will be furnished on application to the home office. The reserve on this policy, by the standard herein named. The respective insurance equivalents of the reserve on this policy, by the standard herein named.

The cash surrender value of this policy under option 1 is its cash value as stated in the adjoining table, or as may be computed from the figures given in said table, less cost.

ness hereon to the company, it being understood that each semi-annual or premium paid after the second policy year in addition to payments for entire will increase the cash value for the policy year last completed by one-half and the, respectively, of the current year's increase in cash value. The tabular reserve is at no time more than one-half of one per cent of the face amount hereof on this policy by the standard hereinafter named, and equals said amount at the end of the tenth and subsequent policy years.

amount of paid-up policy under option 2, and the term of continued insurance endowment under option 3, will be as stated in the adjoined table, if premiums are paid for entire years and if this policy is free from any indebtedness to the STATEMENT.—The company will reinstate this policy, and any indebtedness in accordance with the loan provisions thereof, at any time after a default in payment required hereon, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company of all sums in arrears, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, giving the insured every advantage of the loan privilege hereunder in effecting payment.

CHANGE OF CONVERSION.—If no claim has been made for the disability benefit on this policy, while in full force, may be exchanged by the insured, without re-examination, for a new policy of the same amount, to be issued as of the date of this policy upon any form of endowment insurance now written by the company for persons of the insured at present age, requiring a higher rate of premium than said age and covering any hazard covered hereby. Such change shall take effect on payment of a sum equal to the difference between the premiums on the new policy and the premiums paid on this policy for the same hazards, with compound interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the due date of each payment to the date of exchange, and upon the surrender of this policy; provided, however, that the payment to secure such exchange shall in no case be less than the difference in the then amounts on the respective policies according to the company's legal standard therefor.

LOANS.—At any time after the first policy year and while this policy is in full force, the insured may borrow from the company on the sole security of this policy the amount of any part of its loan value, which is the cash value at the end of the current policy year, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and less any unpaid premiums on this policy. To obtain any such loan the insured will be required to deliver the policy to the company, together with a certificate of loan signed by the insured on the company's form, and to either leave the policy with the company until the loan is repaid, or the endorsement of the loan thereon by the company, in which case the policy shall be returned to the insured immediately after completion of the loan. Interest at the rate of five per cent per annum will be collected out of the amount of the loan to be repaid at the end of the current policy year and thereafter be payable annually in advance.

LOAN CHARGE ACCOUNT.—If a request therefor, signed by the insured on the company's form, is received at the home office while this policy is in full force, a premium loan account will be opened for this policy, and thereafter any premium becoming due on and not paid in cash, or otherwise settled, on the last day of grace, will be charged by the company as a loan on the policy, with interest in advance at the rate of five per cent per annum, provided that the loan value of the policy for such purpose will be sufficient to cover the charge. Such premium loans shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as cash loans, but no deposit or endorsement of the policy is required. The charging up of premiums will be discontinued by the company at the home office of the insured's written request therefor.

LOAN PROVISIONS.—Any interest not paid in cash when due will be paid added to the principal, with yearly interest in advance at the rate payable on the loan, so long as the total indebtedness to the company against this policy does not exceed its cash value. All or any part of any loan granted hereon by the company may be repaid by the insured at any time while the policy is in full force. Failure to repay any such loan, or to pay interest thereon, shall not avoid this policy, and total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed its cash value until thirty-one days after notice of such fact shall have been mailed by the insured to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any.

LOAN INSURANCE.—Any indebtedness to the company against this policy or part of such indebtedness, may be covered by loan insurance on the life of the insured, and such loan insurance shall be applied to the cancellation of the indebtedness thereby when this policy matures as a death claim. Any loan insurance, and therein, or revival thereof after any period of discontinuance, will be subject to the insurability satisfactory to the company, will be without disability benefit take effect upon receipt by the insured of the company's certificate thereof, before. It will be granted until the end of the current policy year and may be renewed from year to year, with allowance of grace as in the case of the principal insurance, at the rates stated in the adjoining table, from which each year's premium is computed on the basis of the insured's attained age at the time when the loan is granted or renewed; but no loan insurance will be granted or renewed after the insured shall have attained age sixty-five, nor shall it be valid for any portion thereof of any indebtedness hereon to the company, nor remain in force after a default in payment required on any insurance or benefit under this policy, the unearned portion in any such case being subject to refund by the company.

This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, if the premiums are duly paid, it being agreed that in case of misstatement of the age of the insured, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have produced at the correct age.

SELF-DESTRUCTION.—In event of self-destruction, whether the insured be sane or insane, within one year from the date of issue of this policy, the insurance hereunder shall be a sum equal to the premiums which have been paid to and received by the company, and no more.

RESERVE STANDARD.—The reserve on this policy shall be based upon the Standard Experience Table of Mortality and shall during the premium paying period be computed in accordance with the twenty payment life modification of the premium method of valuation; subject to such modification, the first year's insurance on this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time during the continuance of this policy, with the consent of the company and subject to any existing assignment of the policy, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries herein, by filing at the home office a written request on the company's form therefor, duly acknowledged, according to this policy, such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest in the policy shall vest in the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment of this policy, and shall not be held to have notice of any such assignment unless the original assignment, or a copy thereof, is received at its home office.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.—This policy is payable at the home office of the company in Chicago, Ill., and proof of interest of claimant will be required. The proceeds of this policy, or of cash loans, will be paid by the company within sixty days after the date of the application for such values or loans. Any indebtedness hereon to the company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or of any benefit hereunder. No agent is authorized to waive forfeitures or to make, modify or discharge a loan, or to extend the time for paying a premium.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor, a copy of which is attached to this policy when delivered, constitute the entire contract between the insured and the company. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed true, and no statements and no such statement shall avoid this policy, or be a defense of a claim hereunder, unless it is contained in said written application.

This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, at any time, with the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and every privilege conferred on the insured by this policy.

After its delivery to and receipt by the insured, this policy takes effect as of the first day of March, 1914.

In witness whereof, the Old Colony Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, executed this policy, this first day of March, 1914.

TRUST FUND AND INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGE.

The proceeds of this policy as a death claim (payable to the beneficiary) or as a surrender or cash surrender value (payable to the insured), or any part of such proceeds may be left with the company for the purpose of providing for the person entitled to the proceeds as annuitant, an annual or monthly income. In accordance with the insured's request, filed at the company's home office while this policy is in force, the company will, at the option of the insured, 1. Hold said proceeds, or any part thereof, in trust for the annuitant and pay to the annuitant one-half per cent interest thereon annually until the death of the annuitant or termination of the trust, when said proceeds, with any accrued interest thereon, shall be paid to the annuitant, his or her legal representatives or assigns; or, 2. Pay said proceeds, or any part thereof, to the annuitant in equal instalments of annual or monthly income for any period of years from five to twenty-five, in accordance with the following table of continuous income; or, 3. Pay said proceeds, or any part thereof, to the annuitant in equal instalments of annual or monthly income to continue for two or more years, and so long thereafter as the annuitant shall live, in accordance with the following table of continuous income; or, 4. Hold any part of the proceeds left with the company, in trust under option 1, and pay the balance as an income to the annuitant under options 2 or 3. The foregoing options, if not exercised by the insured, may ured's death, as to the proceeds of this policy payable as a death claim, be exercised by the beneficiary.

The first interest payment under option 1, will be made one year after the date of termination of this policy; the first income payment under options 2 and 3, will be made on or as of, the date of termination.

Unless otherwise specified by the insured or by the beneficiary in electing option 2, the company will at any time allow the withdrawal, in cash, of the commuted value of any payments of income yet to be made under option 2, and, in case of the annuitants' death within the twenty year income period under option 3, the withdrawal, in cash, of the commuted value of any remainder of said twenty year income, computing the commuted value in either case at three and one-half per cent per annum compound interest. The trust fund and instalment privilege is not available if this policy be assigned or the beneficiary be a corporation or a firm. If there be more than one beneficiary, the proceeds of this policy shall be considered as divided into equal parts, unless otherwise provided. The tables of income herein are based on a policy the proceeds of which are $1000 and will apply pro rata to the proceeds of this policy, or to any beneficiary's share of such proceeds, left with the company.

Oregon Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE ADVANCE DIVIDEND POLICY.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $298.50. AGE, 35

Oregon Life Insurance Company of Portland, Oregon, hereby insures the life of John Doe, of Portland, Ore., hereinafter called the insured, and on receipt of satisfactory proofs of the death of the said insured, provided this policy is then in force, agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at its office in the City of Portland in the State of Oregon, to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary, and subject to the privileges and conditions stated on the second and third pages hereof, which form a part of this contract as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

Portland, Oregon, February 13, 1914.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

I. INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from its date of issue, this policy shall be indisputable for the amount due, provided premiums have been duly paid.

II. OCCUPATION, RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—There are no restrictions under this policy on travel, residence, occupation, military or naval service, excepting for one year from date of issue, during which time travel or residence in Mexico or the Torrid Zone, or engagement, occupation or employment in blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic missions, the manufacture, handling or transportation of inflammable or explosive substances, service upon railroad trains, or in switching or coupling cars, or on any steamship or vessel, will render this policy void, and excepting military or naval service in war, which is at all times subject to and permitted only in accordance with the provisions of Article XIII on the third page hereof.

III. GRACE IN THE PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of one calendar month, during which the policy remains in full force, will be allowed in the payment of all premiums, except the first, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum.

IV. REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse by reason of the non-payment of any premium, it may be reinstated at any time upon the insured furnishing evidence of good health satisfactory to the company, and the payment of all arrears and any indebtedness the company under this contract existing at the date of lapse, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum.

V. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, from time to time during its continuance, change the beneficiary beneficiaries, by filing with the company a written request, accompanied by this policy, which change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company; provided this policy has not been assigned and notice of such assignment recorded on the books of the company, or if assigned, that all assignments shall have been duly canceled and released on the books of the company.

VI. ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall take effect unless made in writing duplicate, the original attached to this policy and the duplicate filed in the home office of the company. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

VII. MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be adjusted in accordance with the correct age of the insured.

VIII. SUICIDE.—Self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from date of the issue of this policy, is a risk not assumed by the company under this contract.

IX. LOANS AND SURRENDER VALUES.—After this policy has been in force three years the company will make loans thereon at five per cent. interest per annum, payable in advance, of the respective amounts stated in the following table, upon the due assignment of this policy to the company as collateral security for such loan. This policy shall lapse and together with all premiums paid thereon shall forfeit to the company on the non-payment of any premium when due, except that provided premiums shall have been paid for the periods respectively mentioned in the following table, there will be granted, without action on the part of the insured, paid up life insurance for the amount fixed in said table; or, in lieu thereof, at the option of the insured (1) the cash value fixed in said table upon the surrender of this policy to the company at its home office in Portland, Oregon, at any time after its termination; or (2) (provided this policy is surrendered within the days of grace, or with satisfactory evidence of good health, within one year hereafter) a paid-up term policy for the full amount insured under this policy for the term stated in said table. The paid-up insurance, cash value and paid-up term policy referred to herein are based on the number of full years' premiums that have been paid, and are granted without participation in profits, and are subject to reduction for any indebtedness to the company under this contract.

X. ALTERNATIVE METHOD OF SETTLEMENT AT MATURITY OF POLICY. INSURANCE SETTLEMENT.—The insured may at any time prior to the maturity of this policy, if no assignment is then outstanding on the records of the company, change the mode of its payment by a written notice, filed with the company, so that the equivalent amount insured shall be payable in any designated number of equal annual installments (which number may be subsequently changed if desired), with or without the use of commutation, according to the following table:

XI. APPLICATION AND PREMIUMS.—All insurance provided by this policy is based upon the written and printed application for, which is made a part of this contract, and the annual payment of two hundred ninety-eight and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars on the third day of February, 1914, as the premium for one year's insurance, and this insurance will be renewed and extended upon the payment of a like amount on or before the thirteenth day of February, and thereafter in every year until twenty full years' premiums have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

XII. FACILITY IN MAKING PAYMENTS.—All renewal premiums are due in Portland, Oregon, but at the pleasure of the company suitable persons may be authorized to receive said premiums at other places on or before the due dates, but only on the production of the company's receipt therefor, signed by the secretary, and countersigned by the insured person to whom payment is made. This contract is based upon the receipt of premiums annually in advance, but premiums may be made in semi-annual or quarterly instalments in advance, in which case any instalments necessary to complete the year's premium, as well as all other indebtedness, shall be deducted from the amount of the claim. This policy is issued upon the advance dividend plan, and in consideration of the low premium charged, shall have no further share in the profit earning of the company.

XIII. SERVICE IN WAR.—Military or naval service in war are not risks assumed by the company under this contract, unless the insured shall cause to be sent to the office of the company in the City of Portland, in the State of Oregon, in advance by registered mail, a written notice of his desire to be classed for one year as a member of the company's yearly war class, in which class no extra premium will be required in addition to the actual losses to the company by war will be annually apportioned among members of the said class on the basis of the amounts insured under their contracts. This apportionment (which it is guaranteed will not exceed 10 per cent of the amount insured in any one year) may then either be paid in cash, or charged by the company against the insured, with interest, against any moneys payable under each contract respectively. In the event of such apportionment, a sum equal to 10 per cent of its face will be withheld from the insured in the settlement of each maturing contract. Such mailing of notice is the sole and essential requisite for entrance into this war class and in acceptance of the conditions of membership, and shall act as a waiver of all restrictions against military or naval service in war. In the event of the death of the insured through service in war without membership in the yearly war class as thus defined, and without first obtaining a special permit for such service, the reserve under the policy only will be due.

IV. BENEFITS FOR PERMANENT DISABILITY.—1. After three full annual premiums have been paid and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if insured (before attaining the age of sixty years) shall furnish satisfactory proof that he has become wholly disabled for life, by bodily injuries, from pursuing any and all usual occupations, the company by an endorsement in writing upon this contract, will agree to pay for the insured the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In any such case the loan and surrender values shall increase in like manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured. However, the insured recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation for three or profit during the premium-paying period, the obligation on his part to make payment of premiums in accordance with this contract shall recommence, but only from the date of recovery, with the same force and effect as if this provision were not contained herein. 2. Immediately after the happening of the disability, full particulars thereof must be given to the company at its home office, together with the then address and whereabouts of the insured, and within one hundred and twenty days after the happening of the disability, there must be given the company at its home office, upon blanks furnished by the company, satisfactory proof of disability, and, after the payment of the first premium by the company similar proof must be made, if required by the company, of such continuing disability, at the time of each subsequent annual payment of premium. 3. Any medical adviser of the company shall be empowered to examine the person of the insured in respect to any alleged disability, and in any manner and at all times the medical adviser may require. 4. No suit on account of disability shall be maintainable, if commenced before the expiration of one year after the expiration of two years from the date of the happening of the disability. 5. Where there is a failure to comply with any one of the foregoing provisions, no claim on account of disability shall arise or be valid or enforceable.

IV. POLICY AND APPLICATION THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and application heretofore, taken together, constitute the entire contract, which cannot be varied except in writing by two of the following officers of the company at its home office, Portland, Oregon, viz.: the president and general manager, or one of the vice-presidents and general manager.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby make policy payable to my executors, administrators, or assigns—it being expressly understood and agreed that I reserve the right, provided the policy is not then assigned, to change any beneficiary or beneficiaries named by me, by filing with the company during the continuance of the policy a written request accompanied by the policy, which change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. I further reserve the right as my option, provided the policy is not then assigned, to surrender the policy, and to receive the surrender value thereof as therein provided. I hereby agree that this application, and the policy hereby applied for, taken together, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto; that all the statements and answers herein are warranted to be true; that this contract shall not take effect until the first premium has been paid during my good health. I have not been declined or postponed by any life company or received a policy different in form from the one originally applied for, nor have I been intemperate, or had any serious illness or disease, except diseases incident to childhood, and there is no history of consumption or insanity in my family, i. e., among parents, brothers or sisters, uncles or aunts. I further agree and consent to present myself to the medical examiner of the company for examination when called upon to do so to complete this contract.

Our Home Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT ENDOWMENT AT 75—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $359.30. AGE, 35.

Our Home Life Insurance Company in consideration of the representations made in the application for this policy, which is hereby made a part of this contract, and of the payment of the annual premium of three hundred fifty-nine and $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars, semi-annual or quarterly premiums of proportionate amounts determined by the company, on or before the twenty-first day of January in every year hereafter until premiums shall have been paid for twenty years, or until the death of the insured, Our Home Life Insurance Company hereby insures the estate of John Doe of Nonesuch, county of Duval, State of Florida, herein called the insured, for the amount of ten thousand dollars, for the period of forty years, and promises to pay at the option of the company in the city of Jacksonville, Fla., the said amount to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured, upon receipt of proof in writing, satisfactory to the company, of the death of the insured; or to the insured himself, or the legal heir, or claimants thereof, if he shall survive the said period of forty years. Any unpaid semi-annual or quarterly premium for the current policy year, as above determined, in which the death of the insured may occur, or any note, loan or lien upon this policy, as per the conditions of the following pages hereof, as the amount of any dividends or shares of surplus due and payable by the company, shall be deducted or considered in determining the amount of cash due from the company, in settlement of the claim, at the death of the insured, or the end of the above term of years.

This policy is issued by the company and accepted by the insured, upon the conditions and agreements expressed on the following pages thereof, and covers the benefits and privileges hereby granted, as fully as if the same were stated over the seal and signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the corporate seal of the said company is hereto affixed under the hands of the proper officers at the aforesaid city of Jacksonville, this twenty-first (21st) day of January, in the year 1911.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LIENS AND CASH LOANS.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LIENS.—This policy shall continue in full force automatically without further payments, as long as the amount of full annual premiums or equivalent semi-annual or quarterly premiums in arrear at the end of any year after the first, with interest, at the rate of six per cent per annum, together with any other indebtedness hereon, reduced by duly credited dividends or shares of surplus, shall not exceed the amount of the surrender value for the end of the same year, shown in the table below, together with the amount of any unpaid dividends or shares of surplus then due hereon; but otherwise, this policy shall become null and void, the same as if the full surrender value had been demanded by the insured and paid by the company. While this policy is thus kept in force the insured may, without furnishing evidence of good health, resume payment of premiums, or make payments of cash on account thereof, provided, that no such payment shall be received for an amount less than one quarterly premium.

CASH LOANS.—At any time while this policy is in force the company will loan up to the limit secured by the cash surrender value, including the amount of outstanding premium liens, if any, in the amount thereof, upon presentation of the policy for proper endorsement, and receipt of a certificate of loan satisfactory to the company. The rate of interest charged therefor shall not exceed five per cent per annum. The loan may be repaid off at any time while the policy is in force. If interest be not paid when due, it shall be added to the principal, provided the entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within the limit secured by the cash surrender value; otherwise non-payment of interest will render the policy null and void after one month's notice shall have been mailed to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any.

SURRENDER VALUES AND PAID-UP INSURANCE.

SURRENDER VALUES.—Upon application therefor at the end of the second or any succeeding year, and the full and legal surrender of this policy to the company, the company will pay the insured the amount of surrender value shown in the table herein, payable in cash, any excess thereof over all indebtedness of the insured to the company in cash.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—Upon written application therefor at the end of the second or any subsequent year, this policy shall be continued in force for the amount of paid-up insurance shown in the table herein, or such proportion thereof as the excess of the surrender value for the same year over all indebtedness of the insured to the company, may bear to the full amount of such surrender value.

PARTICIPATION IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF SURPLUS.

DIVIDENDS OR SHARES.—This policy is written upon the company's annual dividend plan, and shall be entitled, after payment of the second annual premium, and during its continuance in full force, or as paid-up insurance of not less than fifty dollars ($50) in amount, to an annual dividend or to a share of every dividend voted by the board of directors, which shall be an equitable share of the company's surplus thus voted to be distributed, according to its contribution thereto, and interest therein, as determined by the company. Shares shall be payable as above on each anniversary of the issue of this policy.

MODES OF PAYMENT.—At the option of the holder of this policy, dividends may be payable or used as follows: (1) in cash; or (2) in payment of any premium or premiums and other dues; or (3) in the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy; or (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at not less than three per cent per annum, and payable at the maturity of the policy, or on demand on any anniversary of its issue.

USUAL MODE.—When no choice has been expressed, it will be understood that the dividends will be applied to the payment of premiums, or other dues to the company, or if there are no such dues, accumulated in accordance with the fourth of the above options.

OTHER BENEFITS, PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

DAYS OF GRACE.—Thirty-one days of grace, without charge of interest, will be allowed for the payment of renewal premiums.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, on satisfactory proof thereof, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age; or at the option of the insured, the premiums and endorsed values will be adjusted and corrected for that age credit for past over payment being given to the insured, or to the company for past under payment, reckoning interest at five per cent in either case.

INTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue except for non-payment of premium, and is free from restrictions as to residence, travel or occupation. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace. During the first year after its date, this policy does not insure against suicide, but in such case the liability of the company, under the policy, shall be limited to the amount of reserve hereon.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries at any time during the continuance of this policy subject to statutory restrictions, if any, by filing with the company a written request, sufficiently executed, accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect only upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—Only the president, secretary, or other duly appointed executive officer has power on behalf of the company to make or modify the terms of the policy, or extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than as above. Premiums are due and payable at the head office unless otherwise agreed in writing, but may be paid to an agent producing receipts signed by one of the above named officers and countersigned by the agent.

* The loan values provided for at the end of policy years, in the above table, are obtained (less interest) during such policy years as set forth in the above clause entitled "cash loans."

AUTHORITY OF AGENTS.—No agent has authority to put this policy in force by the delivery thereof, without the payment of the premium and the delivery of the proper receipt therefor. If it goes into the possession of any interested party without such payment and receipt, it is only for examination and is not thereby put in force.

TAKING EFFECT.—This policy shall not take effect unless the annual or other authorized premium thereon is paid to the company, or an authorized agent of the company in lifetime and good health of the insured.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and both copies must be sent to the head office, one to be retained by the company and the other to be signed and returned. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

COPY OF APPLICATION.—The insured shall be entitled upon request and receipt therefor to a copy of the application and certificate of examination for this policy.

INSTALMENT PAYMENTS.—Any claim arising under this policy owing to the death of insured or its maturity, will be paid in annual instalments, when this form of settlement has been duly applied for by the insured in writing previous to the occurrence of claim. Payments will be made in accordance with the following table, subject to increase in any year by surplus interest earned on the company's reserve for future instalments. In instalment payments, which may be commuted to a single sum on any due date of an instalment, unless such commutation has been forbidden by written request of the insured, filed with the company.

LIFE ANNUITY PAYMENTS.—Any claim arising under this policy owing to the death of insured or its maturity, will, unless such disposition of its proceeds has been forbidden by written request of the insured, filed with the company, be accepted as premium for an annuity, duly applied for, at the regular rates of the company, on the life of the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in the policy, and entitled to its entire proceeds or the proceeds of the insured, or his nominees, upon his written application for such settlement.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare that all the statements and answers to the above questions are complete and true to the best of my knowledge and belief and I agree that the foregoing statements and answers to be made in Part II of this application together with this declaration, shall constitute the application and become a part of the contract of insurance hereby appointed for and it is further agreed that the policy herein applied for shall be accepted subject to the privileges and provisions therein contained, and said policy shall not take effect until the same shall be issued and delivered by the said company, and the first premium paid thereon in full, while my health is in the same condition as described in my application. I hereby reserve the right to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries at any time provided the policy or any interest therein be not assigned.

Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $373.

AGE, 35.

The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, of California, in consideration of the application for this policy, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and of the payment of three hundred and seventy-three dollars and no cents, constituting payment of the premium for the period terminating on the first day of September, 1913, and in further consideration of a like payment on said last mentioned date, and thereafter on the first day of September in each and every year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums in all shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured, promises to pay at the home office of the company, in the city of Los Angeles, upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death of John Doe, herein called the insured, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, beneficiary, with right of revocation.

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—Should the insured become permanently totally disabled as hereinafter defined, before attaining the age of sixty years and while this policy is in full force and effect, the company agrees to pay to the insured annual advances on account of the amount payable as a death claim hereunder, all as provided on the succeeding pages of this policy.

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, other than an assignment to the company may, while this policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company and not before. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

The contents of the succeeding pages of this policy and the benefits, conditions and values set forth therein are made a part hereof.

In witness whereof, the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California has, by its proper officers, signed this contract at the city of Los Angeles, as of the first day of September, 1912.

BENEFITS, CONDITIONS AND VALUES REFERRED TO ON THE PRECEDING PAGE OF THE POLICY.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy and the application therefor constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year, except for non-payment of premium or for violation of the conditions of the policy relating to military or naval service in time of war.

STATEMENTS.—All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy, unless it is contained in the written application, a copy of which was attached to this policy when issued.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

GRACE.—A grace of one month (not less than thirty days) shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which month the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the month of grace, the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums on this policy are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in the city of Los Angeles, but may be paid to the agents of the company producing receipts signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary or an assistant secretary, and countersigned by such agents. The mode of premium payment will be changed by the company, upon request, from annual to semi-annual or quarter annual or vice versa at the premium rates in use by the company at the date hereof, but such semi-annual or quarter-annual payment shall not have the effect to continue this policy in force longer than for the six months or three months covered by such payment, subject to the above provisions relating to grace. It is agreed, if this policy becomes a claim by death, that the company shall have the right to deduct any part or parts of the policy year's premiums unpaid.

PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the future surplus earnings of the participating business of the company. The proportion of divisible surplus accruing on this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually, and not otherwise. The distribution of the surplus at the end of the first year shall be conditioned on the payment of the premium then due, but the distribution at the end of the second and subsequent years shall not be so conditioned.

DIVIDENDS.—Dividends at the option of the insured shall each year, on the anniversary date of the policy, be either (1) paid in cash; or, (2) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or, (3) applied to the purchase of paid-up non-participating additions to the policy; or, (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at such a rate as may be determined from time to time by the company, and payable at the maturity of the policy, but withdrawable on demand. The company guarantees that the interest rate shall not be less than three per cent per annum. Unless the insured shall elect otherwise within three months after the mailing by the company of a written notice requiring the election of one of the four above options, the dividends will be applied to the purchase of paid-up additions (option 3), which may be surrendered for cash at any time, and the cash value thereof shall not be less than the original cash dividend.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid and while this policy is in full force, the company will advance, on proper assignment of the policy and on the sole security thereof, an amount which, with interest thereon to the end of the current policy year and with any unpaid portion of said year's premium, shall not exceed the cash value at the end of such policy year; interest on the loan will be at a rate not greater than six per cent per annum; if interest is not paid when due it shall be added to the principal and bear interest at the same rate. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal the cash value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice of such fact shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee of record, if any, at the home office of the company.

NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, the owner may elect within three months after any default in payment of premium, but not later, either (1) (paid-up insurance) to have this policy endorsed by the company for a reduced amount of non-participating paid-up life insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy; or, (2) (cash) to surrender this policy to the company at its home office for its cash value; or, (3) (continued term insurance) to have the insurance for the face amount of this policy, plus any outstanding dividend additions, continued in force from the date of default for such term as is hereinafter provided, but without future participation and without the right to loans. At the time of premium default, after this policy shall have been in force three full years or more, the entire reserve on the face amount of this policy and on any dividend additions thereto (computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table and interest at three per cent per annum), less any indebtedness hereon to the company and less a surrender charge of not more than one per cent of the amount insured by this policy, will be applied as the net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the aforesaid mortality table and interest rate, to purchase the paid-up or the continued term insurance provided above. The cash and the paid-up insurance values provided above shall not be less than the sum otherwise available for the purchase of continued term insurance.

AUTOMATIC VALUE.—If the insured shall not, within three months from default, surrender this policy to the company at the home office for its cash value, as provided in option 2, or for paid-up insurance, as provided in option 1, it is specifically contracted that the insurance will be automatically continued as provided in option 3.

TABLE OF LOAN AND NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.

The figures in the following table, computed according to the above provisions, are the minimum values; and are guaranteed upon the assumptions that premiums have been paid in full for the number of years stated below, and that there is no indebtedness on the policy. Any dividend additions or accumulations to the credit of the policy will increase the values in the following table:

Values for later years will be based upon the American Experience Mortality Table and interest at three per cent per annum and will be equal to the entire reserve on the policy according to that standard. Such values will be furnished upon request.

RESTORATION.—If default is made in payment of premium this policy, if not then surrendered, may be restored to full force and effect at any time within three years after such default, upon written application to the home office, and the payment of premiums to date of restoration with interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, provided the insured shall with such application then submit evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee or the irrevocable beneficiary, may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death benefit from payment in one sum as provided on the first page herein to payment by annual installments as provided on the third page herein.

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.

Should the insured, before attaining the age of sixty years, become permanently totally disabled, as hereinafter ascertained, while this policy is in full force and effect and prior to default in payment of any premium, the company agrees to pay monthly, up to and during the life of the insured, while living, one-tenth of the amount payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, provided however as follows:

1. That the benefit shall not be available under this policy as constituted in force by the application of one of the non-forfeiture provisions as set out on the second page herein.

2. That in no case shall there be more than ten advance payments made, and the total amount of the advance payments that may be made as provided in the permanent total disability shall be deducted from the total amount payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, but any unpaid portion of the premium for the first annual policy year shall be deducted from the amount of the first advance payment made.

3. That in case of any and every such advance payment, this policy shall be placed in the hands of the company to have the amount of payment or payments made subject to a reduction or extinguishment if the amount payable upon the death of the insured.

4. That no premium shall be required after the date of the commencement of the permanent total disability.

5. That immediately after the commencement of the permanent total disability, full particulars thereof must be given in writing to the company at its home office, together with the full names and whereabouts of the insured, and, within six months and twenty days after the commencement of the permanent total disability, there must be given the company at its home office satisfactory proof of permanent total disability; and, after the payment of the first advance, similar proof must be given, if required by the company, at the continuation of the permanent total disability, prior to each subsequent annual advance payment.

The first of such advance payments shall be made immediately upon acceptance by the company of satisfactory proof of such disability, and subsequent payments shall be made annually thereafter until ten payments in all shall have been made or until the prior death of the insured.

6. That any medical adviser of the company shall be allowed to examine the person of the insured in respect to any alleged permanent total disability, at the request and at all times that the medical adviser may require.

7. That in all on account of alleged permanent total disability shall be maintained a permanent record of the condition of the insured from the date of the commencement of the permanent total disability.

8. That no claim on account of permanent total disability or for any advance payment shall arise or be valid or enforceable if there is a failure to comply with any of the foregoing provisions.

9. That any valid claim for such advancement shall extinguish all other rights, claims, values and benefits under this policy, except in the case of an assumed payment upon death of insured not exhausted by such advance payment or payments actually received by the insured.

10. That the permanent total disability referred to above must be permanent and total, and such total disability must be such that the insured can never sufficiently recover to earn or derive wages, compensation or profit, and must not result directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from any form of injury or from disease communicated with insanity. That accidental injuries which result in the irreversibility of the entire limb or both limbs, or in the amputation of both entire limbs or of above the wrist, or in the amputation of both entire feet or of above the ankle, or in the amputation of one entire limb or of above the wrist and one entire foot or of above the ankle, shall also be deemed to constitute permanent total disability. Should the insured, before attaining the age of sixty (60) years, desire to cancel his permanent total disability insurance, the company will cancel such insurance, and guarantee to refund the premium thereafter fifty cents per annum for each thousand dollars insured.

GENERAL POLICY CONDITIONS.—(1) This the president, or a vice-president, together with the secretary or an assistant secretary, and they any in writing signed by them, have power in behalf of the company to issue permits, or make or modify any of any contract, or to extend the time or making any premium payment, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above-named officers, and by their any in writing signed and jointly or severally as aforesaid. (2) Any representations in his policy shall first be deducted from any money payable or in any settlement under this policy. (3) If this policy shall be assigned, the assignment must be in writing, and the company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of such assignment unless be assigned or a signature thereon is filed at the home office of the company and to receive any acknowledgment. The company will not assume any responsibility or be validly a in assignment. (4) In any appointment or distribution of future surplus earnings, the principle and methods which may be determined by the company or such appointment or distribution, and its determination as the amount belonging to this policy shall be conclusive upon the insured and upon every person claiming or claiming any rights under this policy. (5) This policy shall have if any premium is not paid a term provided, and to have hereunder not an amount of premium payment shall exist, except as herein expressly provided. (6) Nothing in these provisions shall be held to void or to take away the policy, and if the insured shall enter or be engaged in any military or naval service (except in time of peace), without a written permit therefor issued by the company, no claim shall exist under this policy except for the net reserve held against it calculated according to the American Experience Mortality Table and interest at the rate of three per cent per annum. (7) The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right, and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—At the time that this policy becomes payable as a claim the amount then payable under the conditions of this policy, or any portion thereof not less than one thousand dollars, may be left during the lifetime of the beneficiary in trust with the company, and the company guarantees to pay annually thereafter interest at the rate of three per cent per annum so long as the said amount or said portion thereof remains with the company. Such interest payments will be increased by profits arising from excess interest earnings as determined from time to time by the company, over the rate guaranteed herein. The said trust fund together with accrued interest shall be paid at the death of the beneficiary, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary, but may be withdrawn at any time with accrued interest. This trust fund privilege shall be inoperative if the amount payable under this policy be less than one thousand dollars, if the beneficiary be a corporation or firm, or if the insured directs that the proceeds of this policy shall be payable other than in one sum.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—The insured may, as prescribed on the second page hereof change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim from payment in one sum to payment by annual installments, as stated below, provided the amount of such proceeds is one thousand dollars, or more, and the beneficiary is neither a corporation or a firm. The following tables are based upon a policy, the proceeds of which are one thousand dollars, and will apply pro rata to the policy.

* ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary should be 30 years of age last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment will be $44.98 for each $1000 of insurance, payable during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, but if the beneficiary should die before the 20 instalments shall have been paid, the remainder of the 20 instalments shall be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

The insured may subsequently change any selection of instalment benefits; and may also revoke any selection, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. Each selection, change, or revocation of a selection, must be made by the insured in writing, must be consented to by the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, and shall not take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office. The payment of the first instalment shall be made immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter.

If the beneficiary should die before all instalments certain have been paid, the remainder of the instalments certain shall be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, unless such right is given to the beneficiary by the insured in writing, and is endorsed on the policy by the company at its home office during the lifetime of the insured. If, however, the proceeds of this policy, or any part thereof, are payable to executors, administrators or assigns, such proceeds shall be paid in one sum. If more than one beneficiary has a right under the limited instalment plan, whether special or otherwise, such right shall be joint and vest in the survivors, and shall not be severed without the consent of the company. When selection has been made by the insured for the payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim in accordance with any of the foregoing instalment benefits, this policy shall, if required by the company, be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplementary contract shall be issued providing for the instalment benefit selected.

"Limited instalments," "special plan limited instalments" and the first twenty of the "continuous instalments" will be increased by profits arising from excess interest earnings as determined from time to time by the company, over the rate assumed in computing the instalment benefits.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby aver and represent that all the foregoing statements and the answers that I make to the company's medical examiner in continuation of this application, are complete, true and correct, and it is hereby agreed that all of said statements and answers shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, otherwise ed statements and answers shall be deemed warranties. I hereby agree as follows: (First) That if, during the first year following the date of said policy, I commit suicide, or insane, or die in consequence of my own unlawful act, the only liability under said policy shall be for a fixed sum equivalent to five per cent of the principal sum of said policy. (Second) It is understood and agreed (1) that if the entire amount of the first annual, semi-annual or quarter-annual premium, as selected by me under the statement marginally numbered "7" on the insurance herein applied for is not paid in cash at the time of making this application, there shall be no liability on the part of the said company under this application unless nor until a policy shall be issued and delivered to me and the entire amount of such first premium thereon actually paid during my lifetime and while I am in good health; and (2) that if the entire amount of such first premium is paid in cash to the said company's agent at the time of making this application, the insurance (subject to the provisions of the said company's regular form of policy for the plan applied for) shall be effective from the date of my medical examination hereof and such a policy shall be issued and delivered to me or my legal representatives, provided the said company in its judgment shall be satisfied as to my insurability, on the plan applied for, on the date of such medical examination; and (3) that if said company shall not be so satisfied, the entire amount of the premium paid, without interest, shall be returned. (Third) That any physician may, at any time, disclose any information, heretofore or hereafter acquired, concerning any question arising under any of the statements or answers or such contract of insurance.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Pan-American Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $310.

AGE, 35.

Pan-American Life Insurance Company, New Orleans, La., by its policy of insurance promises to pay, at the home office of the company, in New Orleans, La., ten thousand dollars, upon receipt of proof of the death of John Doe (herein called the insured), of New Orleans, county of Orleans, State of Louisiana, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured (beneficiary).

This insurance is granted in consideration of the sum of three hundred and ten dollars, paid in advance, for one year's term insurance, and in further consideration of the payment of a like amount, on or before the third day of January, in every year until annual premiums for twenty years, including the first year, have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured; and in further consideration of all the conditions, benefits and privileges stated the second and third pages hereof.

This policy is free from conditions as to residence, travel and occupation, and shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums, after one year from its date of issue.

PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFIT.—If, after one full annual premium shall have been paid, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the insured before reaching age sixty shall furnish to the company satisfactory proof that he has become permanently disabled and shall, in consequence of bodily injury or disease, be permanently and wholly incapacitated for life, and thereby prevented from pursuing his usual and lawful occupation, the company by an endorsement hereon will agree to pay the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter fall due under this policy during the continuance of such disability. Should the company assume the payment of premiums as herein provided the insured shall furnish proof of continued disability if called for as each succeeding premium falls due, and failure to submit such proof shall render this clause null and void.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—A grace of one month (not less than thirty days) during which this contract shall remain in full force, will be allowed in the payment of premiums, except the first.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary named herein, at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided it has not been assigned, change the beneficiary, to take effect only when such change and the written consent of the company thereto are endorsed upon this policy, at the home office of the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, subject to ninety days' notice at the company's option, while the policy is in force, the company will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, at five per cent per annum, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than the cash value at the end of the current policy year. The company will deduct from the loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan at the end of the current policy year. Failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company is equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure. If interest is not paid when due, it shall be added to the principal as aforesaid and bear interest at the same rate.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, without action on the part of the insured, this insurance will continue from said date, during the term (including the period of grace) specified in the policy of guaranteed loan and surrender values; unless the insured shall surrender the policy within three months after default, for the option of cash value or paid-up insurance as provided herein.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time after any default, upon written application by the insured and upon presentation at the home office of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, this policy may be reinstated, together with any indebtedness in accordance with the loan provisions of the policy, upon payment of arrears of premiums with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three years, the owner, within three months after any default, and on proper surrender of this policy to the company at its home office may elect: (a) To accept the value of the policy in cash; or (b) to purchase paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy; or (c) to have the insurance continued in force for term insurance from date of default, for its face amount, less any indebtedness to the company hereon, without the right to loans.

* Loans will be granted at the beginning instead of at the end of the year, if so desired, provided the entire premium for the year has been paid.

INDEBTEDNESS.—The figures in the above table give the values available at the end of complete policy years, if there be no indebtedness against the policy, and provided premiums have been paid in full for the number of years stated. Any indebtedness on account of this policy, outstanding at the time of any settlement due under this policy, including any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year, will be deducted from the sum insured, and also from the amount of cash or loan value or from the reserve used in the calculations above specified, and will reduce the amount of extended or paid-up insurance by the proportion that such indebtedness bears to said reserve.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

(1) This policy and the application therefor, including the medical examination, copy of which is attached hereto as part hereof, constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. No agent can make, alter or discharge this contract or extend the time for payment of premiums, nor can this contract be varied or altered, or its conditions waived or extended in any respect, except by the written agreement of the company, signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents, secretary or actuary, whose authority will not be delegated. (2) If the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age. (3) Self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from the date of issuance of this policy, is a risk not assumed by the company under this contract. (4) No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company, unless in writing, and until it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment. (5) Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at the home office, or to any agent of the company upon delivery of the official receipt of the company signed by one or more of the following officers, viz.: President, vice-president, secretary or actuary, and countersigned by such agent. If any premium, or any note or other obligation given therefor shall not be paid when due, this policy shall thereupon cease except as herein provided. (6) The plan of premium payment can be changed so that premiums may be paid in quarterly or in semi-annual instalments according to the company's rates, or changed from such form to annual on any anniversary of this policy by application in writing to the home office of the company.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this third day of January, 1913.

OPTIONAL MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—The insured, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no contrary stipulation, may, by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the net sum, payable upon the death of the insured, paid as follows instead of in one sum:

1. FIXED INSTALMENTS.—In equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum; or

2. INSTALMENTS 20 YEARS FIXED, LIFE THEREAFTER.—In equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years, and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum; or

3. ANNUITY.—As an annuity during the life of the payee, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum, the last annuity payment to be the regular payment immediately preceding the death of the payee.

SUPPLEMENTARY CONTRACT.—When any option calling for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity, and a supplementary non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected, which shall specify to whom any unpaid instalments shall be paid in event of the death of the payee.

Unless otherwise specified by the owner or by the beneficiary in making such election, the payee under options (1) or (2) may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of instalments for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option (1) in the following table; provided that no such surrender and commutation will be made under option (2), except after the death of the payee occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS—DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $266.70. AGE, 35

Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, in consideration of the payment in advance to the company at its home office of the sum of two hundred, sixty-six and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars at the date hereof, and upon condition that the annual premium of two hundred, sixty-six and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars is paid at or before three o'clock P. M. on the first day of January in every year during the life of the insured, The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company insures the life of William Penn (the insured), of Philadelphia, county of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and promises to pay at its home office, in the city of Philadelphia, unto his executors, administrators or assigns, the said sum insured, upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, during the continuance in force of this policy.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The right to change the beneficiary is reserved by the insured.

SURPLUS.—This policy shall participate annually in surplus earnings in accordance with its provisions.

CONDITIONS.—All the benefits, privileges and provisions stated on the second and third pages hereof form a part of this policy as fully as though recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia has caused this policy to be signed by its president, secretary, and actuary, attested by its registrar, at its home office in Philadelphia, Pa., the first day of January, 1915.

FROM THE DATE OF ISSUE THIS POLICY SHALL BE WITHOUT ANY RESTRICTIONS AS TO TRAVEL, RESIDENCE AND OCCUPATION.

I. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in the city of Philadelphia, or they may be paid to agents on or before the dates when due in exchange for receipts signed by the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, or actuary and countersigned by agent. The insurance under this policy is based upon annual premiums payable in advance; but on any anniversary, upon written request, payments may be made semi-annually or quarterly in advance at the premium rates therefor now in use by the company.

II. GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which the policy shall remain in force, will be granted for the payment of premiums or regular instalments thereof, after the first. If the death of the insured occur during the days of grace, the sum necessary to complete payment of premium for the then current policy-year will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

III. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is attached hereto, constitute the entire contract between the parties. The contract shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premiums; but in case of suicide, whether sane or insane, within one year from the date of this policy, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of the premium paid hereon. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall avoid or be used in defense under the policy unless it is contained in the written and printed application and a copy of such application is attached to the policy when issued. Any error in stating the age of the insured shall be adjusted by the company paying at the maturity of the contract such amount as the premium actually paid would have purchased at the table rate at the correct age.

IV. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Whenever the right to change the beneficiary has been reserved in the last designation of beneficiary recorded at the home office of the company, the insured, or his duly appointed guardian if he be not of legal age (subject to any previous assignment of the policy filed with the company as herein provided), shall be entitled, without the consent of the beneficiary, to any cash dividends declared on this policy and to the loan or cash value herein provided for, and shall have full power while this policy is in force to designate a new beneficiary, with or without reserving the right of future designation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, and such change shall take place upon such filing and not before. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured unless otherwise provided in this policy or in the written designation of beneficiary filed as above.

V. DIVIDENDS OR SURPLUS.—This policy shall participate in surplus, and upon payment of the second year's premium and at the end of the second and of each subsequent policy-year, while the policy is in force by payment of premiums, the company will and account for the portion of the divisible surplus accruing thereto. These, at the option of the insured, will be applied in any year to reduce the premium, the amount of insurance, or to accumulate to the credit of the policy at three compound interest per annum, this interest rate to be increased annually by such amount as may be awarded by the board of trustees, which accumulation will be at the maturity of the policy, or may be withdrawn at any premium anniversary. If no other option is selected, dividends shall be paid in cash.

After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company, at any time the policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment and delivery of the policy on the sole security thereof, and in accordance with Sections VIII and IX of the policy, which, with interest thereon to the end of the current policy-year, shall be, or at the option of the owner less than, the cash value at the end of the said policy-year. The cash value shall be the full reserve on the policy and on any dividend addition according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent. The amount of such advance shall be reduced by any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the current policy-year's premium. Interest on the advance will be at the rate of six per cent per annum and shall be payable at the end of the policy year, and this interest, if not paid when due, shall be added to the indebtedness, provided the total indebtedness would not then exceed the cash value of the policy. The indebtedness thus created shall bear interest at the same rate. The whole or any part thereof may be repaid to the company at any time. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest thereon shall not void this policy unless the indebtedness hereon with interest shall equal or exceed the cash value at the end of the policy year, in which case there shall be no liability under the policy; provided that no such termination shall be effective until one month after notice shall be given in writing by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the owner, of record at the home office of the company. All indebtedness on this policy, with accrued interest, shall be deducted from any settlement here-

NON-FORFEITURE.—If this policy shall lapse through non-payment of premium for three full years' premiums have been paid, the company will secure to the owner thereof the net value of which shall be equal to the full reserve on the policy plus dividend additions thereto at the date of default, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three per cent, less any existing indebtedness on the policy. At the end of the third and succeeding years the cash value shall be the full reserve, and the paid-up and extension values are the equivalents thereof. The values of this policy shall be correspondingly increased for any fractional part of a year's premium which has been paid. This non-forfeiture value shall be the owner of the policy through one of the following provisions: (First) automatic extension without participation of the net amount insured by this policy for the number of years and days stated below, at the expiration of which time the insurance shall cease; or, (Second) the issue of paid-up participating insurance payable at the sum provided for below upon written application therefor by the owner of the policy and the legal surrender of all claims hereunder to the company at its home office one month after lapse; or, (Third) the payment, in accordance with Sections VIII and IX hereof, of the cash surrender value provided for below on surrender of the policy and all claims hereunder to the company within one month from the date of the company shall have the right to defer the payment of the surrender value, or the making of a loan hereon (unless for the purpose of paying premiums in this company) for a period of not exceeding sixty (60) days from the date of termination thereof.

The loan values in the above table are the maximum amounts available at the end of each policy-year indicated. Loans may also be obtained during the policy-year set forth in Sections VI and VIII hereof.

Should any indebtedness exist, it shall be deducted from the cash value of the policy; the paid-up value shall be reduced proportionately; or in case of lapse the extended insurance shall be for the face value of the policy less the indebtedness and for such a term as said reduced cash value will provide. The cash value of any paid-up or extension granted upon the lapse of this policy will be the full reserve at the time of surrender, less any indebtedness to the company under the policy, and will be paid to the owner thereof upon proper release.

X. REINSTATEMENT.—In the event of default in premium payments, unless the cash value has been duly paid, it is agreed that this policy may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all overdue premiums and the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness to the company upon said policy, with interest at the rate of not exceeding six per cent per annum.

XI. DEATH CLAIM.—When this policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured, settlement less any indebtedness on the policy, will be made upon receipt of due proof of death, and delivery of this policy to the company. When premiums are payable in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, any unpaid instalment of the premium for the policy-year during which death occurs will be deducted from the sum payable under this policy.

XII. INSTALLMENT TABLES.—The net proceeds of this policy at maturity may be made payable, at the option of the beneficiary, in such number of instalments two to thirty, as may be chosen in accordance with table A of instalment values printed below. Similarly, the net proceeds at maturity may be made payable in annual instalments for twenty years guaranteed and as much longer thereafter as the beneficiary may live in accordance with table B of instalment values printed below. These options can only be exercised in cases where the beneficiary is an individual. They are not available when an association, firm or corporation is named as beneficiary or assignee.

These tables are based upon a policy, the net proceeds of which are one thousand dollars, and apply pro rata to this policy.

The instalments under table A, or the instalments certain under table B, after the first year, will be increased annually by such surplus as may be awarded by the board of trustees.

commuted value of any unpaid instalments under table A, or the commuted value paid instalments certain under table B, will be calculated by the company at upon the same basis (three per cent compound interest) as the instalments were and will be paid to the owner of the policy upon proper release.

INTEREST PRIVILEGE.—The proceeds of this policy or any designated fraction may at maturity be allowed to remain with the company until the death of the insured, during which period the company will pay to the beneficiary yearly, three per cent of the amount so held, the first payment being made one year after the maturity of the policy and the last payment to be pro-rated to the date of the death of the beneficiary. The interest rate will be improved annually by such addition as may be awarded by the board of trustees. Unless otherwise directed by the insured in writing filed with the company, the balance remaining unpaid may be withdrawn at any interest

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy shall be furnished to the company in duplicate thereof attached hereto. No assignment shall impose any obligation upon the company until the original thereof has been filed at the home office of the company. The company guarantees the sufficiency or validity of any assignment. LOAN LIENS.—After the third year if any premium or premiums on this policy, semi-annual or quarterly, be not paid when due or within the period the company will upon request charge against the loan value of this policy the premium or premiums, with interest at the rate of not exceeding six per cent per annum provided that such loan value is sufficient. The balance of value, if any, not so applied shall be subject to the terms of Section VI hereof. This method of settlement will be applicable when request for such premium liens is filed with the company. The policy at the home office after the policy has acquired a loan value there is no default in the payment of any premium, and such request is revocable at any time.

ALTERATION OF THIS POLICY.—Any waiver of any of its conditions, shall be as endorsed hereon and signed by an officer of the company. No agent is authorized to modify, alter or enlarge this contract or to bind the company by any promise or agreement as to distribution of surplus or any future award of interest.

XVII. TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFITS.

WAIVER OF PREMIUM.—If after one full year's premium shall have been paid upon this policy and before default in payment of any subsequent premium, the insured shall, at any time and before attaining the age of sixty, furnish due proof to the company that he has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or disease so that he is and thereby permanently and continuously prevented from engaging in any occupation, either for remuneration or profit, and that such disability has existed continuously for more than sixty days, the company, by endorsement hereon, shall waive the payment of the premiums which may thereafter become due under this policy, during the continuance of the insured's said total disability. In making any settlement under this policy, the company shall not deduct any part of the premiums so waived, and the provisions for under the non-forfeiture provisions of this policy shall increase from year to year in the same manner as though the premiums so waived had been paid in cash. RECOVERY FROM DISABILITY.—Should the company accept under this policy proof of total disability it may nevertheless at any time thereafter, but not oftener than once a year, demand of the insured due proof of the continuance of such total disability upon failure to furnish such proof, or if it appears that the insured has become able to engage in any occupation whatever for remuneration or profit, the premiums shall be waived.

It shall be no prejudice to any other cause of total disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or of both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, shall be considered total and permanent disability.

Written request by the insured accompanied by the policy for endorsement of total disability benefit may be discontinued; if so discontinued, or if the insured attain age sixty thereafter will be reduced by thirty-two cents yearly, being the additional amount for such benefit. Non-payment of said additional premium will void this policy and the benefits secured thereby.

EARLY OPTIONAL TERM—CONVERTIBLE, NON-RENEWABLE.
 For $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $131.90. AGE, 35.

In consideration of the payment in advance to the company at the home office of the sum of one hundred, thirty-one and $\frac{90}{100}$ cents at the date hereof, and upon condition that the annual premium of one hundred, thirty-one and $\frac{90}{100}$ dollars is paid at or before three o'clock p. m., on the first day of January in every year for the period of ten years, the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company insures the life of William Penn, the insured, of Philadelphia, county of Philadelphia, state of Pennsylvania, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, for the period of ten years from January first, 1915, and promises to pay at its home office, in the city of Philadelphia, unto his executors, administrators or assigns, the said sum insured, upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, during the continuance in force of this policy.

The privilege is hereby given to the owner of this policy to surrender and exchange the same at any time, while it is in force by the payment of premiums thereon in cash, provided the insuring age does not then exceed 65, for a Life or Endowment Policy of not greater amount, the new policy to run from the date of surrender of this policy and at the rate of premium then chargeable on policies of such class for the age attained. When the change is made the company will allow the net value of this policy, computed in accordance with the American Table of Mortality, with 3 per cent. interest, together with all dividends then standing to its credit, toward payment of premium upon the new policy; or any part of this policy (in multiples of $1000) may be proportionately so changed according to this method. If such change be not made within seven years from the issue of this policy, evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company shall be furnished. Or, while this policy is in force by the payment of premiums in cash, it may be exchanged upon proper surrender and the payment of the back differences in premiums, with interest thereon, for a life or endowment policy of an equal amount of insurance on any plan now issued; and said new policy shall be of the same force and effect as though issued at the same premium date as this policy, and at the rates of premium now in use. If such change be not made within seven years from the issue of this policy, evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company shall be furnished. If it is desired to have the permanent total disability provision incorporated in the new life or endowment policy, evidence of eligibility satisfactory to the company must be furnished. The right to change the beneficiary is reserved by the insured. This policy shall participate annually in surplus earnings in accordance with its provisions. All the benefits, privileges and provisions stated on the second, third and fourth pages hereof form a part of this policy as fully as though recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia has caused this policy to be signed by its president, secretary, and actuary, attested by its registrar, at its home office in Philadelphia, Pa., the first day of January, 1915.

FROM THE DATE OF ISSUE THIS POLICY SHALL BE WITHOUT ANY RESTRICTIONS AS TO TRAVEL, RESIDENCE AND OCCUPATION

I. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in the city of Philadelphia, or they may be paid to agents on or before the dates when due in exchange for receipts signed by the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, or actuary and countersigned by agent. The insurance under this policy is based upon annual premiums payable in advance; but on any anniversary, upon written request, payments may be made semi-annually or quarterly in advance at the premium rates therefor now in use by the company.

II. GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which the policy shall remain in force, will be granted for the payment of premiums or regular instalments thereof, after the first. If the death of the insured occur during the days of grace, the sum necessary to complete payment of premium for the then current policy-year will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

III. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is attached hereto, constitute the entire contract between the parties. The contract shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premiums; but in case of suicide, whether sane or insane, within one year from the date of this policy, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of the premium paid hereon. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall avoid or be used in defense under the policy unless it is contained in the written and printed application and a copy of such application is attached to the policy when issued. Any error in stating the age of the insured shall be adjusted by the company paying at the maturity of this contract such amount as the premium actually paid would have purchased at the table rate at the correct age.

IV. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Whenever the right to change the beneficiary has been reserved in the last designation of beneficiary recorded at the home office of the company, the insured, or his duly appointed guardian if he be not of legal age (subject to any previous assignment of the policy filed with the company as herein provided), shall be entitled, without the consent of the beneficiary, to any cash dividends declared on this policy and to the cash value herein provided for, and shall have full power while this policy is in force to designate a new beneficiary, with or without reserving the right of future designation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company and such change shall take place upon such filing and not before. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured unless otherwise provided in this policy or in the written designation of beneficiary filed as above.

V. DIVIDENDS OF SURPLUS.—This policy shall participate in surplus, and upon payment of the second year's premium and at the end of the second and of each subsequent policy-year, while the policy is in force by payment of premiums, the company will determine and account for the portion of the divisible surplus accruing thereto. These dividends, at the option of the insured, will be applied in any year to reduce the premium, or to accumulate to the credit of the policy at 3 per cent. compound interest per annum, this interest rate to be increased annually by such addition as may be awarded by the of trustees, which accumulation will be payable at the maturity of the policy, or withdrawn at any premium anniversary. If no other option is selected, dividends are paid in cash.

NON-FORFEITURE.—If this policy shall lapse through non-payment of premium three years' premiums have been paid in cash, the company, subject to the other provisions of the policy, guarantees at the end of successive policy-years the following values of settlement:

1.—Paid-up non-participating term insurance, payable at death occurring within five years of the date of issue of this policy, upon written application therefor and the legal tender of all claims hereunder to the company at its home office within one month after the date of issue.

The amount of such paid-up term insurance is provided for in the table on page 302 hereof. No paid-up value will be allowed for an amount less than $50, but the cash value will be paid as provided in the third option; or,

2.—The automatic extension without participation of the net amount insured by the policy as non-participating term insurance for the number of years and days stated in the table on page four hereof, at the expiration of which time the insurance shall cease;

3.—The payment, in accordance with Sections VII and VIII hereof, of the cash value provided for in the table below, on surrender of the policy and all claims hereunder to the company within one month after the date of lapse.

The values provided for under this policy shall correspond to the age of the insured at the date of issue, the amount insured and the number of years which the policy shall be in force by payment of premiums, the tables being based on an insurance of $1000.

The company shall have the right to defer the payment of the surrender value of the policy, for a period of not exceeding sixty (60) days from the date of the application.

If this policy be surrendered for cash within seven years from its date, which cash is applied to the purchase of other insurance, the cash value named will be in twenty-five per cent.

If any indebtedness exist, it shall be deducted from the cash value of the policy; and if the paid-up insurance shall be reduced in the same proportion as the cash value is reduced; or in case of lapse the extended insurance shall be for the face value of the policy less the indebtedness and for such a term as said reduced cash value will provide.

REINSTATEMENT.—In the event of default in premium payments, unless the cash value has been duly paid, it is agreed that this policy may be reinstated at any time upon the condition of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all overdue premiums and the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness to the company upon the policy, with interest at the rate of not exceeding 6 per cent. per annum.

DEATH CLAIM.—When this policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured, and less any indebtedness on the policy, will be made upon receipt of due proof of death and delivery of this policy to the company. When premiums are payable in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, any unpaid instalment of the premium for the policy-year in which death occurs will be deducted from the sum payable under this policy.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy shall be furnished to the company upon the duplicate thereof attached hereto. No assignment shall impose any obligation on the company until the original thereof has been filed at the home office of the company, and the company guarantee the sufficiency or validity of any assignment.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the foregoing statements and answers to the questions printed above, and my statements and answers made and given to the company's medical examiner, are full, complete and true. I hereby base my application for insurance, and agree that they shall be regarded as the contract if and when issued. If the premium on the insurance herein applied for is not paid at the time of making this application, the contract of insurance shall not be in force until a policy shall be issued and delivered to me and the first premium actually paid during my lifetime and good health. If settlement is effected in accordance with the attached receipt at the time of making this application, the policy shall be in force as of the date of such settlement, provided the application is approved by the company at the home office. The policy if and when issued and delivered to me, shall be in the form now in use by the company. I understand that neither agents nor brokers have any authority to modify, alter or enlarge contracts. The foregoing agreement and declarations are made on behalf of myself and of any beneficiary under any policy issued by the company upon this application.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Peoples Life Insurance Company, Illinois.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $362.20. AGE, 35.

The Peoples Life Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill., hereby insures the life of Richard Roe, hereinafter called the insured, and on receipt of due proofs of the death of the said insured, provided this policy is then in force, agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at its office in Chicago, Ill., to Margaret Roe, his wife, if living, if not, then to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary, and subject to the privileges and conditions stated on the second and third pages hereof, which form a part of this contract as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application for this policy, a copy of which is attached hereto, and which is hereby made a part of this contract; and in further consideration of the payment of premiums as provided in the within policy; the insurance covered by the first year's premium being term insurance for the period terminating on the eighth day of December, 1909.

Chicago, Ill., December 8, 1908.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

I. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable, after one year from its date of issue, for the amount due, provided premiums have been duly paid, except, as herein provided, for military and naval service in time of war.

II. OCCUPATION, RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—There are no restrictions under this policy upon travel, residence, occupation, military or naval service, excepting for one year from its date of issue, during which time travel or residence in Mexico or the Torrid Zone, or engagement, occupation or employment in blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, the manufacture, handling or transportation of inflammable or explosive substances, service upon railroad trains, or in switching or coupling cars, or on any steamboat or vessel, will render this policy void, and excepting military or naval service in war, which is at all times subject to and permitted only in accordance with the provisions of Section VIII on this page.

III. GRACE IN THE PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—For the payment of any premiums due under this policy, excepting the first premium, a grace of one month or not less than thirty days will be allowed, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum during which time the policy will remain in force. If the insured shall die within the month of grace, then the unpaid premium for the current policy year will be deducted from the amount payable under this policy.

IV. REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse by reason of the non-payment of any premium, it may be reinstated at any time upon the insured's furnishing evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and the payment of all arrears of premiums and the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness to the company under this contract existing at the date of lapse, with interest thereon at five per cent per annum.

V. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY—ASSIGNMENT.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, from time to time during its continuance, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, by filing with the company a written request duly acknowledged, accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company, provided this policy is not then assigned. No assignment shall take effect until a duplicate thereof is filed at the home office, and its receipt duly acknowledged. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

VI. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment in advance of the sum of three hundred sixty-two and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars, being the premium for term insurance for the period terminating on the eighth day of December, 1909, and in further consideration of the payment in advance of a like amount on the eighth day of December, in each and every year during the continuance of this policy, until premiums for twenty full years from the date of this policy shall have been paid, after which no further payments of premiums will be required. In case of failure to pay, when due, any premium or any part thereof, or any indebtedness on account of this policy or the interest thereon, this policy shall cease and determine, except as herein otherwise provided.

VII. FACILITY IN MAKING PAYMENTS.—All renewal premiums are due and payable at the home office of the company in Chicago, Ill., or to an agent of the company, upon the delivery of the company's receipt, signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary, assistant secretary or treasurer of the company, and countersigned by the agent authorized to receive the same. This contract is based upon the receipt of premiums annually in advance, but premiums may be made payable in semi-annual or quarterly instalments in advance, in which case any instalments necessary to complete the full year's premium shall be deducted, in case of death, from the amount of the claim.

VIII. SERVICE IN WAR.—Military or naval service in war are not risks assumed by the company under this contract, unless the insured shall cause to be sent to the head office of the company at Chicago, Ill., in advance by registered mail, a written notice of his desire to be classed for one year as a member of the company yearly war class, in which class no extra premium will be required in advance, but the actual losses to the company by war will be annually apportioned among the members of the said class on the basis of the amounts insured under their contracts. This apportionment (which it is expected will not exceed ten per cent of the amount insured in any one year) may then either be paid in cash, or charged by the company as a lien, with interest, against any moneys payable under each contract, respectively. Pending such apportionment, a sum equal to ten per cent of its face will be withheld by the company in the settlement of each maturing contract. Such mailing of notice shall be the sole and essential requisite for entrance in to this war class and in acceptance of its conditions of membership, and shall act as a waiver of all restrictions against military or naval service in war. In the event of the death of the insured through service in war without membership in the yearly war class as thus defined, and without first obtaining a special permit for such service, the reserve under the policy only will be due.

IX. SUICIDE.—Self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from date of the issuance of this policy, is a risk not assumed by the company under this contract.

X. ADMISSION OF AGE.—The age of the insured will be admitted during lifetime by the company on due proof, but if not so admitted, if the age is shown to have been misstated, the amount of insurance due under the policy at its maturity shall be the amount which the premium charged would have purchased at the company's rates in use at the register date of the policy for the insured's true age.

XI. INSTALMENT PRIVILEGE.—The insured at any time during the continuance of this policy, or in the absence of action by the insured, the beneficiary or beneficiaries, if living at the time when the policy becomes a claim, may elect, by giving written notice to the company at its home office, that the mode of payment of the proceeds of the policy be changed from payment in one sum, as hereinbefore provided, to payment in equal annual instalments, as specified below; such change of payment to take effect upon the endorsement on the policy by the company at its home office; provided, however, that no such change shall be valid if the proceeds of the policy shall amount to less than $1000, or if the policy or any interest therein shall have been assigned. In case the proceeds of the policy be made payable in instalments, the first instalment shall be payable on the date of proof of claim, and the subsequent instalments on the anniversary of said date. The proceeds of the policy may be made payable in any specified number of annual instalments from five to twenty-five, the amount of each instalment being determined by the number to be paid, according to the following table:

XII. LOANS AND SURRENDER VALUES.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company, at any time while the policy is in force, will loan, on the execution of a proper note or loan agreement by the insured, and on proper assignment and delivery of this policy, and on the sole security thereof, with interest at five per cent per annum payable in advance to the end of the current policy year, and thereafter annually in advance, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the insured, less than the loan value hereon at the end of the current policy year, in the table of loan values, and all dividend additions thereto, if any, less any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. Failure to repay any such loan, or the interest thereon, shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. The amount of any such indebtedness shall be deducted, in case of death, from the amount payable under this policy.

The guaranteed values in the above table are equivalent to the reserves at the end of the respective policy years, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy. Cash or loan values for later years will be equal to the full reserve, according to the above standard. If this policy be continued in force, tables of values will be furnished on application to the home office. If the premiums on this policy be paid in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, the allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of a year's premium paid in addition to the full number of years' premiums. Any unpaid dividends will operate to increase the above values. Any indebtedness will reduce the benefits as provided in the respective paragraphs relating thereto.

L. NON-FORFEITING OPTIONS.—Upon default in the payment of any premium, premiums shall have been paid for three full years, upon surrender of this policy company, within the month of grace, by the insured and the legal holder hereof, company will grant one of the following options, viz.: (1), A cash sum equal to the value specified in the above table, such cash value being not less than the value of the following options; or (2), A non-participating paid-up whole life policy; amount specified in the above table; or, (3), A non-participating paid-up term for the face amount of this policy, but with no further premiums required, continued term specified in the above table under the heading "extended term insurance" term including the month of grace). If the policy be not surrendered for either foregoing options, it will be continued as paid-up life insurance for a reduced amount Option (2), above mentioned. In computing benefits under the foregoing options, allowance will be made for any portion of a year's premium paid in addition to the number of years premiums, as provided in the foot note to the above table. The above specified are upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on or due by this policy. Should there be any indebtedness, the available value for the exercise of these options shall be the cash value stated above, less the amount of such indebtedness, which available value will be paid in cash or will be applied to secure a proportionately reduced amount of paid-up life insurance under Option (2).

DIVIDEND.—If the insured be living, and this policy is in force on the eighth of December, 1918, the company will pay to the insured or assigns a cash dividend of this policy's full share of surplus legally distributable as determined by directors of the company, and subsequent payments of surplus will be made as follows: on the eighth of December in each and every year during the continuance in full force of this policy.

POLICY AND APPLICATION THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor, taken together, constitute the entire contract, which cannot be varied excepting by one of the following executive officers of the company, at its home office Chicago, Ill.—viz., the president, vice-president or secretary. All statements made by insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and statements not contained in the application and in the copy thereof hereto attached shall not avoid this policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree that this application, the medical examination and the policy applied for together, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, that the statements and answers herein are warranted to be true; that this contract shall be in effect until the first premium has been paid during my good health. I have not declined or postponed by any life company or received a policy different in form from the one originally applied for, nor have I been intemperate, or had any serious illness or disease, except diseases incident to childhood, and there is no history of consumption or insanity in my family, i.e., among parents, brothers or sisters, uncles or aunts, than stated below.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $5000.

Peoples Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $304. AGE, 35.

The Peoples Life Insurance Company, home office Frankfort, Ind., hereby insures the life of John Doe, of Frankfort, county of Clinton, State of Indiana, hereinafter called the insured, and agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars to Mary Doe, wife, if living, otherwise, to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, at the home office of said company within thirty days after the receipt of due proofs of death of the insured and of the interest of the claimant, this policy being then in force, subject to the privileges and conditions upon the second and third pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

This contract is made in consideration of the answers, statements and agreements made in the application therefor, which application is hereby made a part of this contract and a copy of which is hereto attached, and in consideration of the payment of three hundred and four dollars in advance, on the delivery of this policy, and of the annual payment of a like amount to the company at its home office on or before the first day of August of each and every year until twenty full years' premiums have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

Should the insured become permanently and totally disabled from any cause, and so long as this policy is yet in force, there shall be paid to him or her, upon satisfactory proofs of such disability, and upon the surrender of this policy duly received, the sum of one-half the face value hereof, which shall be in full of all liabilities of said company hereunder, or, if after the policy has been in force one year and the second premium paid thereon, the insured shall furnish satisfactory proof to the company that he or she, prior to attaining the age of sixty, has become permanently and totally disabled from pursuing any gainful occupation; the company agrees to pay all premiums for the insured hereafter, but should the insured so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, then the obligation on the part of the insured shall be resumed to pay all future premiums, but prior to this time the cash loans and cash surrender values shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured. Provided that no proof of disability shall be deemed satisfactory until four months after the disability has occurred.

In witness whereof, the said Peoples Life Insurance Company, at its office in the city of Frankfort, Ind., has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, and affixed its seal this first day of August, 1910.

PRIVILEGES, CONDITIONS AND BENEFITS.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized agent of the company on or before the date when due in exchange for the company's official receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such authorized agent of the company.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of any premium under this policy, after it has been in force one full year, a grace of thirty days will be allowed, during which time the policy will remain in force.

CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid the company will loan, within six months of date of written application therefor and while this policy is in force, upon the sole security hereof any sum not in excess of that stated in the table of options to be loaned at the end of the current policy year plus the reserve on any additions hereto; provided that there shall first be deducted from such loan value any existing indebtedness or secured by the policy and any unpaid balance of the current year's premium, and interest at the rate of five per cent per annum on the total amount of the loan be paid in advance to the end of the current policy year and that this policy be assigned to the company. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay the interest thereon shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness to the company hereunder shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and to the assignee, if any, if such assignee has notified the company of his address.

NON-FORFEITABLE EXTENDED INSURANCE.—In event of default in the payment of any premium when due, after premiums have been paid for three full years, the company will, without any action on the part of the insured, continue this policy in force as paid-up, non-participating term insurance, without the right to loans, for the term shown in the table of options for the end of the last year for which full annual premiums have been paid; provided that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy the amount of such extended insurance shall be reduced in the ratio of such indebtedness to the net value of such extended insurance.

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Or, in event of default as above stated this policy may be surrendered to the company within one month from date of such default, whereupon the company will pay therefor its cash value as shown in the table of options, which shall be at least equal to the sum available for the purchase of extended insurance as aforesaid, provided that such cash value shall be subject to any existing indebtedness on account of or secured by this policy.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—Or, in event of default as above stated, this policy may be surrendered to the company within one month from date of such default, whereupon the company will issue to the insured a paid-up, non-participating life policy for the amount stated in the table of options; provided that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy the amount of such paid-up insurance shall be reduced in the ratio of such indebtedness to the net value of such paid-up insurance.

INTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date if all premiums shall have been paid when due.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of any premium, it will be revived at any time upon written application and payment of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, provided, evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished.

ASSIGNMENT.—If this policy shall be assigned, the assignment must be in writing, and the company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of such assignment unless the original or a duplicate thereof is filed at the home office of the company and its receipt duly acknowledged. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time while this policy is in force, by written notice to the company at its office in the city of Frankfort, Ind., change the beneficiary or beneficiaries under this policy, such change to take effect only upon endorsement of the same upon the policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease; provided, however, that no such change of beneficiary shall be valid if the policy or any interest therein be assigned at the time of such change.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—At the time this policy becomes payable as a claim the amount insured, or any portion thereof not less than $1,000, may be left during the lifetime of the beneficiary in trust with the company, and the company will pay thereon so long as the said amount or said portion thereof remains with the company, interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The said trust fund shall be paid at the death of the beneficiary to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary, but may be withdrawn at any time with accrued interest. The trust fund privilege shall be inoperative if the amount payable under this policy be less than $1,000.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—This policy and the application therefor constitute the entire contract which cannot be changed or modified except by an endorsement hereon signed by the president or secretary. No agent has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this or any other contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying a premium, to waive any forfeiture or to bind the company by making any promise, or making or receiving any representation or information. All statements made by the insured in the application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. (2) If within one year from date hereof the insured shall die by suicide, whether sane or insane, or in consequence of his or her own criminal action the liability of the company shall not exceed the amount of the premiums paid on this policy. (3) If the age of the insured be understated, the amount payable under this policy shall be the amount of insurance which the premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured. (4) Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, including any of the current year's premium remaining unpaid, will be deducted in any settlement under this policy. (5) The benefits stated in the following table apply to the original sum insured only. If the sum insured be increased the benefits will be increased, but any indebtedness to the company on the policy will operate to reduce the benefits. If this policy be continued in force beyond the twentieth year, tables of cash loans and surrender values will be furnished upon application to the home office.

Peoria Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

NT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $364.50. AGE, 35.

Peoria Life Insurance Company promises to pay ten thousand dollars upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, the insured, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured and beneficiary, subject to the provisions of this policy.

The insured shares in the profits of the company as follows: Upon the payment of the first premium hereon for the second policy year, and at the end of the second and subsequent policy year, this policy while in full force will be credited with a dividend of the surplus then apportioned by the company to policies of the same age and kind. An annual dividend shall be payable in cash, but upon the insured's written request the same may be paid to the insured within one month from the date when credited, any dividend may be paid into a paid-up insurance addition to this policy, at net single premium rates standard herein named; provided that all dividends not drawn in cash nor converted into a paid-up insurance addition to this policy, at net single premium rates standard herein named, shall be accumulated at such rate of interest, in no event less than four per cent per annum, as the company shall from time to time determine and allow, and deposits may be applied by the insured to shorten the premium-paying term of the insurance or to mature this policy as an endowment, as follows: The insured may change this policy for a profit-sharing paid-up life policy for the face amount hereof plus accumulated dividend deposits, together with the reserve on this policy and on any paid-up insurance additions thereto, equal or exceed the net single premium then for such a paid-up life policy by the standard herein named; or the insured may change this policy for a cash value equal to its face amount when the accumulated dividend deposits, together with the reserve on this policy and on any paid-up insurance additions thereto, equal or exceed said face amount.

Insurance is granted in consideration of the application therefor, which is hereby made a part of this contract, and of the payment in advance of three hundred sixty-four and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars, the premium for term insurance for the first policy year, on the first day of July 1914. After the first policy year insurance will be continued as whole life insurance upon the payment of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-four and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars, on or before the first day of July in every year during the continuance of this policy, until premiums for twenty policy years, including the first, have been paid.

This policy is issued and accepted by all parties in interest with full understanding that the contents of all of its pages form a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures hereon affixed.

WITNESS WHEREOF. The Peoria Life Insurance Company has, by its president, or vice-president and secretary, executed this policy at Peoria, Illinois, this first day of July, 1913.

AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—The company will pay for the insured all premiums due hereon after the date of receipt by the company of satisfactory proof that the insured has become totally and permanently disabled as hereinafter defined, if all premiums have been duly paid by insured. The values in the tables herein will indicate the progress from year to year, and this policy will be credited with dividends from year to year, in like manner as if the premiums were being duly and regularly paid by the insured.

The premiums paid by the company in conformity with this provision will not be deducted from this policy if such proof is received by the company before the insured has attained the age of sixty years; if such proof is received after the insured has attained the aforesaid age, the premiums paid by the company will be charged as an advance on this policy without interest, and will be deducted in any settlement of the policy, or of any benefit hereunder. The total and permanent disability of the insured due to bodily injuries or disease occurring while this policy is in full force, and such as to prevent the insured then and at all times thereafter from performing any business for compensation or profit; provided that, notwithstanding such disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured, at any time, on demand, furnish the company satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability; and if such proof is not furnished, or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work, or to conduct any business for compensation or profit, the insured shall immediately resume the payment of premiums. The company will extend the privileges and benefits for total and permanent disability hereunder to cover the irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes, or the loss of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand or one entire foot.

ANNUAL, SEMI-ANNUAL OR QUARTERLY PREMIUMS.—Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly, in accordance with the company's rates endorsed on the back of this policy, and the company will allow a change from one to another of such modes of payment, upon the insured's written request therefor on the company's form; should the insured desire to complete premium payments for the then current policy year, the amount necessary for such completion shall be considered an indebtedness hereon to the company. All premiums are payable in advance, either at the home office of the company in Peoria, Ill., or to an agent of the company, upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by the authorized agent. If any premium is not paid on the date when due, this policy shall cease and determine, except as hereinafter provided.

THIS POLICY IS NON-FORFEITABLE FROM DATE OF ISSUE, as follows:

GRACE AND AUTOMATIC CONTINUED INSURANCE.—If any premium after the first is not paid on the date when due, this policy will continue in full force from said due date for the term of one month, which is the month of grace allowed hereunder, without interest charge, in the payment of any such premium. In case of death of the insured during the month of grace, the unpaid premium or premiums for the then current policy year shall be considered an indebtedness hereon to the company. After completion of premium payments for the first two policy years, if any subsequent premium is not paid on the date when due, and remains unpaid during the month of grace, the insurance will automatically continue as term insurance for the face amount hereof for a further term, the total term of continued insurance, including the period of grace, granted at completion of any policy year being specified in column 1 of the table below. In lieu of such automatic term insurance, upon the insured's written request and legal surrender of this policy within one month from said due date, either:

1.—PAID-UP POLICY. A paid-up policy will be issued, as specified in column 2 of the table below; or

2.—CASH VALUE. The cash value of this policy will be paid, as specified in column 3 of the table below.

The aforesaid automatic term insurance shall be without participation in profits, cash or loan values or further payment of premiums. The aforesaid paid-up life policy shall be without participation in profits.

The cash value of this policy at the completion of the second policy year and thereafter is the full reserve hereon and is at any time equal to or exceeding the net value of the corresponding non-forfeiture benefits hereunder. An extension of this table covering later policy years will be furnished on application to the home office.

All non-forfeiture values hereunder are in excess of any legal requirements.

SEMI-ANNUAL OR QUARTERLY PAYMENTS AND ADDITIONS INCREASE VALUES.—After the second policy year semi-annual or quarterly premiums paid in addition to payments for entire years will cause an increase in the tabular cash value and paid-up life policy proportionate to the increase therein effected by the payment of an annual premium. The tabular cash value will also be increased by the reserve; and the paid-up life policy by the amount, of any paid-up insurance additions. Any such increase will involve a change of the term of continued insurance, which will be such as the increased cash value will purchase at the single premium term rates of the company for the attained age of the insured, counting each completed quarter of a year in arriving at such age; the amount of continued insurance will not be increased by paid-up insurance additions. The foregoing table and provisions pertaining thereto are based upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness to the company on this policy. If there is such indebtedness, the cash value will be diminished thereby, the amount of paid-up life policy reduced in the ratio of the indebtedness to the cash value, and the term of continued insurance changed, without endorsement hereon, to that term for which the cash value less the indebtedness will carry the face amount hereof at the single premium term rates of the company for the attained age of the insured; but the insurance shall, in any event, continue in force for the period of grace herein above provided.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after the first policy year, and while this policy is in full force, the insured can borrow from the company on the sole security of this policy, properly assigned to and deposited with the company, any sum within the loan value specified in the sed table, from which loan value any indebtedness hereon to the company and any premiums for the current policy year will first be deducted. The company shall furnish the form for the assignment required hereunder and upon completion of the loan will issue its official certificate of deposit of the policy. First, at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, will be collected out of the amount of the loan to the end of the current policy year and thereafter be paid annually in advance. The tabular loan value will be increased by the net value of paid-up insurance additions hereto. Failure to repay any loan granted hereon by company, or to pay interest thereon, shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash value of this policy at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any.

loan values for subsequent policy years, being the full end year reserve hereon, will be added on application to the home office.

ROMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—If a written request from the insured on the company's has been received at the home office while this policy is in full force, each premium owing due hereon and not paid in cash or otherwise settled on the last day of the month of grace, will be paid by being charged as a loan on this policy, provided the cash value of this policy at the end of the period covered by such premium, less any outstanding indebtedness hereon to the company, shall be sufficient for such payment with interest advance to the end of the current policy year. Premium loans shall be subject to the terms and conditions as any loan granted hereon by the company under the cash privilege stated above. While this policy is carried in force by a premium loan, the payment of premiums in cash may be resumed by the insured without medical examina-

REINSTATEMENT.—If any premium is not paid on the date when due, or within the month of grace, and this policy has not been surrendered, the company will reinstate the policy as of said due date at any time thereafter upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest, together with the payment, or reinstatement of any indebtedness on this policy on said due date with interest.

This policy is unrestricted from date of issue as to travel, residence or occupation, in case of peace or war, and covers death from any cause, but in case of death by self-destruction or insane, within one year from date of issue, one-tenth of the face amount only, and no more, shall be paid. This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, if the premiums are duly paid.

E.—If the age of the insured is misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGE.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim from payment in one sum to payment by annual instalments, as provided on the fourth page hereof; such instalments will be increased by interest, as provided on said page.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—The insured may place the proceeds of this policy as a death benefit in trust with the company to secure a guaranteed annual cash income with dividends payable thereon, as provided on the fourth page hereof.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time during the continuance of this policy, with the consent of the company, provided the policy is not then assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries herein by filing at the home office a written request on the company's form therefor, duly acknowledged, accompanied by this policy, such request to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. Upon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment of this policy, and shall not be held to have notice of any such assignment until the actual assignment or a copy thereof is received at its home office.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor (a copy of which application is hereto attached) taken together constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the application herefor.

RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy shall be computed upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum. The forfeiture values hereunder are based on the reserve at date of default in the payment of premium, and the loan values are based on the reserve at the end of the current policy year. The deduction from such reserve in determining such values is in no case in excess of two and one-half per cent of the sum insured hereunder.

DIVIDEND DEPOSITS.—Dividend deposits may remain with the company at interest while this policy remains in force, becoming payable in cash in any event upon the discontinuance of this policy—to the beneficiary if this policy matures as a death claim, otherwise to the insured. Provided, that no premium shall be construed as paid either wholly or in part, nor any insurance hereunder extended or continued in force, by reason of any dividend deposits remaining with the company.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—This policy is payable at the home office of the company in Peoria, Ill., and proof of interest of claimant will be required; any indebtedness hereon to the company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or of any benefit hereunder. Only the president, vice-president or secretary has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter made, unless made in writing by one of said officers.

CONTROL OF POLICY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred on the insured by this policy.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim, if the policy is not assigned, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page, to payment by annual installments, as stated below.

The insured may subsequently change his selection under these installment benefits; he may also revoke all selections, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum.

No selection, change or revocation shall take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company. After endorsement this policy will be returned to the insured.

The payment of the first installment shall be made immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, and subsequent installments shall be paid annually thereafter.

The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid installments, unless such right is given by the insured to the beneficiary when payment in installments is directed.

The following tables are based upon a policy the net proceeds of which are $1,000, and will apply pro rata to the net proceeds of this policy.

LIMITED INSTALLMENTS.—Annual installments limited to the number stated below. Any number from two to twenty-five may be selected by the insured.

* ILLUSTRATION.—If payment is to be made by twenty installments, the amount of each installment will be $68 for each $1,000 of insurance.

Each installment, except the first, will be increased by such annual dividend from interest earnings as may be apportioned by the company.

CONTINUOUS INSTALLMENTS.—Twenty-five annual installments at least to be paid, but installments to continue during entire life-time of beneficiary. Payment by continuous installments cannot be selected if there is more than one beneficiary under this policy, or if the beneficiary is a corporation or a firm.

* ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary should be 30 years of t birthday, the amount of each annual instalment will be $47 for each $1,000 of face, payable during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, but if the beneficiary die before the 25 instalments shall have been paid, the remainder of the 25 instalments will continue to be paid annually to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

of the twenty-four instalments next following the first will be increased by such dividend from interest earnings as may be apportioned by the company.

TRUST FUND.—By written agreement between the insured and the company made while this policy is in force and not assigned, the proceeds of this policy as a death claim, less than $1000 or any part of such proceeds not less than said amount, may be placed in trust with the company for the purpose of paying the beneficiary, as annuitant, interest income thereon at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, or with such annual dividends from interest earnings as the company may apportion until the termination of the trust or until the death of the annuitant, whereupon the trust thus placed in trust may be withdrawn by the beneficiary, if living, or, if not by the beneficiary's executors, administrators or assigns. The first payment of interest shall be made one year after receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, and subsequent payments shall be made annually thereafter. The insured may subsequently terminate the trust, thereby making this policy again payable as provided on the first page.

The beneficiary cannot withdraw the amount placed in trust, unless such right is reserved by the insured to the beneficiary upon creation of the trust.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I, the undersigned, have answered the above questions and make them the basis of this application, and the warranties therein contained are made for the purpose of obtaining this policy.

I, the undersigned, hereby warrant and declare that I have read and understand all the above conditions put to me by the Medical Examiner and the answers thereto, and that that they are true and that there is not, and there has not been any concealment of facts concerning my past and present state of health and habits of life, or my personal or family history.

If any of my said answers are not full, true and complete, then the policy to be issued hereon shall be null and void. I expressly waive on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued hereunder, all provisions forbidding any physician or surgeon from disclosing any information acquired in attending me in a professional capacity.

Philadelphia Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, \$10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, \$355.80. AGE, 35. Philadelphia Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, Pa., in consideration of the application for this policy, and of the payment of three hundred fifty-five and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars in advance, hereby insures the life of John Doe, hereinafter called the insured, for one year.

Upon the payment of an annual premium of three hundred fifty-five and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, on or before the twenty-third day of August, 1912, this policy will become a limited payment life policy, and the insurance will be continued by the payment of like sum on or before the twenty-third day of August, in each year thereafter during the life of the insured for eighteen years or until prior death of the insured.

Upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured, provided this policy is in force, the company will pay ten thousand dollars, at its home office in the city of Philadelphia, to Jane Doe, wife of the insured if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

The insured may, while this policy is in force and unassigned, change the beneficiary. Written request must be made and the change will take effect when endorsement is made by the company upon the policy. The right is reserved to the insured, without the consent of the beneficiary, to receive every benefit, to exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

DIVIDENDS.—The surplus accruing upon this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually, and at the option of the insured may then be allowed to remain with the company with interest at a rate not less than three and one-half per centum; used to purchase paid-up additions; or withdrawn in cash, but if so withdrawn the value of the following provisions would thereby be reduced. If no other option is selected, dividends may be withdrawn in cash.

REDUCING PREMIUM-PAYING PERIOD.—Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the accumulations of surplus shall be sufficient to prepay future premiums hereon, no further premiums shall be required; but at the option of the insured the payment of premiums may be continued in order to increase accumulations.

MATURING THE POLICY AS AN ENDOWMENT.—Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the accumulated surplus and reserve together shall equal or exceed the amount insured hereunder, this policy shall mature as an endowment, and shall be payable at the time to the insured during his lifetime.

SURPLUS PAYABLE WITH SUM INSURED.—If this policy becomes a claim by death, the sum insured hereunder, together with any surplus withdrawable at the end of the previous policy year, shall be paid the beneficiary.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premiums, after one year from its date. From date of issue this policy shall be without restrictions as to travel, residence or occupation. If the age of the insured has been stated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such a sum as the premium actually paid would have purchased at the correct age. Self-destruction while sane or insane, within one year of the date hereof, is a risk not assumed by the company under this policy. Statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by an executive officer of the company—the president, a vice-president, secretary, treasurer, clerk or comptroller—and countersigned by said agent. A grace of one month shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occurs within the days of grace the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or installment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or installment thereof is payable, and failure to pay any premium or note when due will forfeit the policy and all payments made thereon. Any unpaid portion of the current year's premium and all indebtedness will be deducted from any settlement of this policy.

PREMIUM LOANS.—In lieu of automatic extended insurance and on satisfactory request from the insured prior to default in the payment of any premium hereon, the company shall first apply any withdrawable surplus to pay the same; and the remainder, if any, shall be charged against this policy as a loan at five per cent interest, if the respective loan value specified below be sufficient to cover such advance, to existing liens and accrued interest; provided that if the credits be not sufficient the entire premium then due, the company shall apply the same, if sufficient the premium for a shorter period, but not less than one month's premium time while the policy is thus sustained in force, the payment of premiums will be resumed. When advances can no longer be made, any balance then due shall be used to purchase term insurance, as stated below. No grace will be allowed under this provision.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid the company, while this policy is in force, will advance on proper assignment of this policy the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not greater than five per cent a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than, the reserve of the current policy year on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not more than one per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto. The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Failure to pay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless the indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—In event of default in payment of premiums after premiums have been paid for three years, the policy may be entitled, as provided in the table of surrender values, to any one of the following: (1) To automatic non-participating paid-up term insurance for the amount of the current policy year, for such time as the surrender value will purchase. The surrender value will be the entire reserve on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent, less a sum not more than one per cent of the amount insured by and of any dividend additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy. (2) To a non-participating paid-up life insurance policy for an amount not less than may be purchased by the surrender value aforesaid upon surrender within one month after default. (3) To a cash value not less than the surrender value aforesaid upon surrender within one month after default. The surrender value will be increased correspondingly for any fractional portion of a year's premium shall have been paid. Figures for later years will be furnished upon request.

THE CONTRACT.—A copy of the written and printed application for this policy is attached hereto. This policy and application therefor, taken together, constitute the entire contract. No person, except an executive officer of the company, has power to modify or in event of lapse to reinstate this policy, to extend the term of payment of a premium, or to accept any note in payment thereof.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this contract shall be attached hereto, and the policy shall be furnished to the company at its home office. Any claim against the company arising under any assignment of this contract shall be subject to proof. No assignment shall impose any obligation on this company until it has received the original or a duplicate thereof, nor does the company guarantee the legality of any assignment.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated on written application, with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of arrears of premium with interest thereon not exceeding five per centum per annum.

OPTIONS AT MATURITY.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest thereon at three and one-quarter per cent per annum payable annually, to the payee under this policy at the end of each year during the life of the payee and by the payment upon the death of the payee of the said net sum and accrued interest to the executors, administrators or assigns of the payee, unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum.

Instalments payable under options (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the payee, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the payee. If the insured shall not have directed otherwise the beneficiary may, after the death of the insured, by like written notice, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, select either of the above options. Unless otherwise specified by the insured the payee may on any interest date receive the amount yet due under option (1), and may at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made computed upon the same basis as option (2) in the above table, provided that no such commutation will be made under (3), except after the death of the payee occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree for myself and all parties who may have an interest herein that all the foregoing statements and answers and those made to the medical examiner are true and complete, and are offered to the company as a consideration for the contract which I hereby agree to accept; that no other information, statement or answer than is therein contained, whether known to, made by, or given to any person, shall be considered as a part of the contract; that should this policy become a claim during its first year nothing herein contained shall prevent the company from introducing any information as evidence of fraud; that the policy granted herefor shall not take effect until issued, delivered and the premium paid thereon to the company or to an agent holding the premium receipt from the company during my lifetime and while in good health.

Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company.

ANNUAL PREMIUM LIFE POLICY (MATURING AS ENDOWMENT AT AGE 85). ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $275.40. AGE, 35.

The Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., in consideration of the application herefor, which is hereby made a part of this policy, and of the payment of premiums to be made as described below, promises to pay the amount insured as defined herein at its home office in Hartford, Conn., to the original or substituted beneficiary as herein described and provided for, if living, (but subject to the provisions of the beneficiary clauses on the second page of this contract), on receipt of this policy duly discharged, together with due proofs of the death of the insured hereunder while this policy is in force.

Insured, John A. Phoenix; original beneficiary, Mary A. Phoenix, wife of insured.

The insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary as hereinafter provided.

Amount insured ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, including any portion of the current year's premium unpaid at the time of the death of the insured.

Premium, two hundred seventy-five and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars, payable on the fifth day of each January until the anniversary of this policy nearest the eighty-fifth anniversary of the birth of the insured, or until the death of the insured if prior thereto.

The benefits and provisions on the second, third and fourth pages hereof are a part of this policy.

No modification of this printed policy can be made except over the signature of an executive officer of the company, to wit: the president, a vice-president, the secretary or an assistant secretary.

In witness whereof, the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company has by its president and secretary signed, and by its registrar, or an executive officer, countersigned, this policy in the city of Hartford, Conn., this fifth day of January, 1915.

BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office, in Hartford, Conn., but will be accepted if paid to an agent of the company in exchange for a receipt, separate from the policy, and signed by an executive officer. Premiums paid one month or more prior to date when due will be discounted at a rate not less than three per cent per annum.

THIRTY-ONE DAYS' GRACE.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium is so paid, and if any subsequent premium be not paid when due, or within thirty-one days thereafter, during which time this policy shall remain in force, then this policy shall immediately cease and become void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as hereinafter provided.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse and shall not be surrendered to the company, the company will reinstate it at any time upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of insurability and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum on such premiums and on any indebtedness to the company existing against this policy at the time of lapse, which indebtedness and arrears of premiums with interest, at the option of the insured or assigns, if any, shall be repaid in cash or, to the extent allowed by the loan value, remain as an indebtedness against this policy.

ANNUAL APPORTIONMENT OF SURPLUS.—At the end of the first and each succeeding policy year, this policy, while in force, will be credited with its share of the divisible surplus which the company will annually determine and account for in a general distribution of surplus. Such apportionment of surplus will not be conditioned on the payment of any premium due during any succeeding policy year, and will be applied in any one of the following methods which may be requested in the application, and such method may be changed by the insured or assigns at the end of any policy year; if no choice is made the first method will be employed.

1. CASH.—To be paid in cash (without interest) to the insured or assigns.

2. REDUCE PREMIUMS.—To reduce the premiums due hereunder during the succeeding year.

3. PARTICIPATING PAID-UP ADDITIONS.—To purchase, at net rates by the American three per cent table, participating paid-up insurance additions, payable with this policy, which additions, on satisfactory release to the company, may be surrendered at any time for their cash value, computed as described in the cash value option, or used to accelerate described in the following paragraph.

Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company.

ANNUAL PREMIUM LIFE POLICY (MATURING AS ENDOWMENT AT AGE 85). ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $275.40. AGE, 35.

The Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., in consideration of the application hereof, which is hereby made a part of this policy, and of the payment of premiums to be made as described below, promises to pay the amount insured as defined herein at its home office in Hartford, Conn., to the original or substituted beneficiary as herein described and provided for, if living, (but subject to the provisions of the beneficiary clauses on the second page of this contract), on receipt of this policy duly discharged, together with due proofs of the death of the insured hereunder while this policy is in force.

Insured, John A. Phoenix; original beneficiary, Mary A. Phoenix, wife of insured.

The insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary as hereinafter provided.

Amount insured ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, including any portion of the current year's premium unpaid at the time of the death of the insured.

Premium, two hundred seventy-five and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars, payable on the fifth day of each January until the anniversary of this policy nearest the eighty-fifth anniversary of the birth of the insured, or until the death of the insured if prior thereto.

The benefits and provisions on the second, third and fourth pages hereof are a part of this policy.

No modification of this printed policy can be made except over the signature of an executive officer of the company, to wit: the president, a vice-president, the secretary or an assistant secretary.

In witness whereof, the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company has by its president and secretary signed, and by its registrar, or an executive officer, countersigned, this policy in the city of Hartford, Conn., this fifth day of January, 1915.

BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office, Hartford, Conn., but will be accepted if paid to an agent of the company in exchange for a receipt, separate from the policy, and signed by an executive officer. Premiums due one month or more prior to date when due will be discounted at a rate not less than five per cent per annum.

31 DAYS' GRACE.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium is so paid, and if any subsequent premium be not paid when due, or within thirty-one days thereafter, during which time this policy shall remain in force, then this policy shall immediately lapse and become void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as hereinafter provided.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse and shall not be surrendered to the company, the company will reinstate it at any time upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of insurability and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum on such premiums and on any indebtedness to the company existing against this policy at the time of lapse, which indebtedness and arrears of premiums due interest, at the option of the insured or assigns, if any, shall be repaid in cash or, to the extent allowed by the loan value, remain as an indebtedness against this policy.

ANNUAL APPORTIONMENT OF SURPLUS.—At the end of the first and each succeeding policy year, this policy, while in force, will be credited with its share of the divisible surplus which the company will annually determine and account for in a general distribution of surplus. Such apportionment of surplus will not be conditioned on the payment of any premium due during any succeeding policy year, and will be applied in any one of the following methods which may be requested in the application, and such method may be changed by the insured or assigns at the end of any policy year; if no choice is made the first method will be employed.

1. CASH.—To be paid in cash (without interest) to the insured or assigns.

2. REDUCE PREMIUMS.—To reduce the premiums due hereunder during the succeeding year.

3. PARTICIPATING PAID-UP ADDITIONS.—To purchase, at net rates by the American Insurance Company, participating paid-up insurance additions, payable with this policy, such additions, on satisfactory release to the company, may be surrendered at any time for their cash value, computed as described in the cash value option, or used to accelerate the first method in the following paragraph.

4. CASH DIVIDEND FUND FOR ACCELERATION OF PREMIUMS OR ENDOWMENT IS PAYABLE AT DEATH OR ON DEMAND.—To accumulate at compound interest as a dividend fund, the company annually crediting interest at such rate as may be assumed to have been earned by the company in the declaration of dividends for that year, which rate is guaranteed to be at least three per cent per annum. When such dividend fund, or the reserve under any insurance additions then credited to this policy, or both, together with the reserve under this policy, shall equal or exceed the reserve under a fully paid policy of the same kind and amount, the company will make this a fully paid participating policy; or when such dividend fund and reserves as described above, equal or exceed the amount insured as defined on the first page hereof, the company will mature and pay this policy as an endowment; provided, in either case, a satisfactory request is made and this policy is duly released. Any such dividend fund then credited to this policy will be paid with any death claim arising hereunder, or, on satisfactory release, the whole or any part of it will be paid in cash.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, with the application hereof, constitutes the entire contract between the parties hereto and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premium as stipulated, subject, however, in case of misstatement of age, to an adjustment of the insurance proportionate to the premium at the true age.

ASSIGNMENTS.—The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment, and shall not be held to have notice of any assignment of this policy until the original assignment, or a copy thereof, is received at the home office of the company while the policy, or any insurance guaranteed hereunder, is in force according to the company's records; all assignments shall be subject to any interest the company may have in the policy.

VALUE AT AGE EIGHTY-FIVE.—This policy provides for a cash value of the amount insured as defined on the first page hereof on its anniversary nearest the eighty-fifth anniversary of the birth of the insured, and if it is not then surrendered, so long as it remains in force the company will, at the end of each year thereafter, pay to the insured or assigns interest on such amount at the rate assumed to have been earned by the company in the declaration of dividends for that year (guaranteed to be at least three per cent per annum.)

BENEFICIARY CLAUSES.—Upon the death, during the lifetime of the insured, of any original or substituted beneficiary nominated in accordance with the provisions of the policy, any interest of such beneficiary and his or her assigns shall thereupon revert to the insured or assigns unless otherwise specifically provided herein.

If in the application for this policy the insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary, and such fact is indicated on the first page hereof, the insured, if of legal age, may, whenever and as often as he desires, but subject to the rights of any party under any outstanding assignment made in accordance with the provisions hereof, change any beneficiary then last named hereunder and designate a new beneficiary by filing at the home office of the company a written notice of such change, substantially in the form indorsed hereon. Such change shall not take effect until such written notice is duly executed by the insured, together with this policy shall be received at the home office of the company for record during the lifetime of the insured and while any insurance hereunder is in force according to the company's records, and a copy of such notice has been attached to or indorsed hereon. In the same manner the insured may at any time renounce the said right to change the beneficiary, and thereafter no change shall be made in the interest of any beneficiary hereunder except on satisfactory request and release by all parties in interest.

If the said right to change the beneficiary has been reserved to and has not been renounced by the insured, the insured may assign this policy or any interest therein without the consent of any beneficiary and the interest of all beneficiaries hereunder shall be subject to such assignment; provided, however, that when this policy becomes payable as a death claim any interest therein not covered by an assignment by the insured then in force shall be payable to the beneficiary or beneficiaries who shall then be the last designated.

If the said right to change the beneficiary has been reserved to and has not been renounced by the insured, the insured and his assigns, if any, may release or assign this policy or any dividend additions or dividend fund credited thereto, to this company for any cash, loan or other value, which may be granted in consideration thereof and all interest of any beneficiaries hereunder or assigns of the same shall be bound thereby.

LOANS AND CHANGES ON SIGNATURE OF INSURED AND ASSIGNS.—The insured and his assigns, if any, may change the payment of premium from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice versa, and may change the manner of applying the surplus, and may borrow, under the conditions described in the policy loans provision, for the sole purpose of paying the premium or interest on any indebtedness to the company under this policy, or both, and all interest of any beneficiary or assigns of the same shall be bound thereby.

CHANGE AGREEMENT.—At any time while it is in force, and provided the insured has not passed his sixtieth birthday, this policy may be changed without medical examination of the insured to one of equivalent amount on any plan of higher premium whole life or endowment insurance (except income insurance), then issued by the company, such new policy to bear the date and rated age of this contract, provided this policy shall be satisfactorily released therefor at the company's home office, and that the difference between the premiums that have been paid and those that would have been paid under the new policy, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum accumulated annually, shall be paid to the company. In calculating such difference in premiums, the dividends that would have been apportioned under the new plan will be applied in the same manner as they were applied under this policy, and the cash value of any insurance additions credited at the time of change, shall be used in settlement of the difference in premiums.

COPY OF APPLICATION.—All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall be used in defense to a claim under this policy, unless it is contained in the written application and a copy of the application is attached hereto when issued.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

The Reserves and Premiums on which these values are based are computed on the free per cent American Experience Table.

CASH VALUE.—At any time after the premiums for two years have been paid the company will purchase this policy for its cash value on satisfactory release and surrender at the home office while it is in force, or within the thirty-one days of grace hereinbefore provided. Such cash value at the end of a fully paid policy year is the then terminal reserve for each $1000 of insurance under this policy and under any additions credited to it, together with any cash dividends credited thereto, less any indebtedness to the company against this policy, and, if surrendered before the tenth policy year, less a surrender charge of one per cent of the amount of such insurance and additions; if surrendered subsequently no surrender charge will be made. At any time during a fully paid policy year such cash value is the terminal value at the end of such year discounted for the expired portion thereof at the rate of three per cent per annum.

PARTICIPATING PAID-UP POLICY WITH CASH AND LOAN VALUE. EXCHANGEABLE FOR EXTENDED INSURANCE.—Or, in lieu of such cash value, upon satisfactory request by the insured and his assigns, if any, the company will issue a participating paid-up policy, payable when this insurance is payable, for such amount as said cash value will purchase when used as a net single premium, and such paid-up policy will contain cash and loan values to the amount of its entire reserve. On receipt of satisfactory evidence of insurability and proper release of said paid-up policy the company will place in force any extended term insurance which would then be in force under the automatic extended insurance provision had this policy not been surrendered for said paid-up policy.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If this policy shall lapse and shall not have been surrendered to the company, the insurance without any action by the owner will be automatically extended from date of lapse, if such lapse occurs two years or more from date of issue, by applying the cash value at such time as a net single premium to purchase non-participating term insurance for the amount insured as defined on the first page hereof, increased by any dividends credited to it and decreased by any indebtedness to the company against it at date of lapse.

DIVIDEND USED TO PURCHASE EXTENDED INSURANCE END OF FIRST YEAR.—If such dividend occurs before the end of the second year from its date of issue, any cash dividend the cash value of any additions credited to this policy will be automatically applied to purchase term insurance in manner as above described, and such term insurance, on satisfactory release and surrender of this policy at the home office, may be surrendered at its full reserve at the time of such surrender.

CASH, LOAN AND PAID-UP VALUES UNDER EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If this policy is satisfactorily released and surrendered at the home office while insurance is in force under the automatic extended insurance provision, the company will purchase it for its cash value at the date of surrender as though no lapse had occurred, charging against cash value all the unpaid gross premiums, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum accumulated annually; but no value in excess of the reserve under the extended insurance at date of surrender will be paid. Or in lieu thereof the company, on receipt of satisfactory request, will apply such value to the purchase of participating paid-up insurance, computed as described in the participating paid-up policy provision. The company will loan on security of such extended insurance subject to the terms of the following policy loans provision.

POLICY LOANS.—At any time while this policy is in force, upon its proper assignment to its sole security, the company will loan, at the rate of six per cent per annum, an amount up to the limit secured by any cash value guaranteed hereunder. After assignment of the loan on the policy it will be returned to the party from whom it has been received. Any interest not paid in cash will be charged against this policy so long as the total indebtedness against it does not exceed the cash value hereunder. The loan may be repaid at any time while this policy is in force, but non-payment of loan interest will not void this policy until the indebtedness to the company against this policy, with interest, shall equal or exceed the cash value hereunder, when this policy will immediately cease and become void; but such termination shall not take effect until at least thirty-one days after the company has mailed notice of the same to the insured and assignee of record, if any, at their last known post office addresses.

PREMIUM LIENS.—In lieu of the automatic extended insurance, on receipt of a satisfactory request in the application hereof or from the insured and his assigns, if any, any time while this policy is in force, the company will charge up annually thereafter against this policy each premium and interest payment as it becomes due (if it be not paid in cash) until such accumulated indebtedness, with interest, equals or exceeds the cash value hereunder, when this policy shall immediately cease and become void, subject, however, to the notice of termination as described in the preceding provision. Such charging up of premiums will be discontinued at any time on receipt of a satisfactory request therefor from the insured and his assigns, if any. While this policy is thus terminated in force, all its non-forfeiture provisions remain operative and any party in interest, without furnishing evidence of the good health of the insured, resume payment of premiums and continue this policy in force.

INTERMEDIATE VALUES FOR PARTIALLY PAID YEARS.—The payment of a premium for a fraction of any policy year after the second will make a proportionate increase in the non-forfeiture values of that year.

MINIMUM NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.—Guaranteed under "non-forfeiture" provisions (after deduction of required surrender charge) provided all premiums due prior to the period designated are paid, and no indebtedness exists. Each of these values will be increased by the value of any dividends standing to the credit of this policy, and decreased, as herein provided, by the value of any indebtedness to the company existing against it. While the insured or any beneficiary (except when the right to change the beneficiary is reserved to the insured) or any assignee under this policy is a minor, no loan can be made by the company (except for purpose of paying current premium) and a cash value will require a release by a duly appointed legal guardian of such minor.

* Per $1000 of insurance. † The term of extended insurance begins from date when defaulted premium was due and includes the days of grace.

NOTE.—Loan values are available at any time. The second year loan may be secured towards payment of second year's premium.

OPTIONS AT SETTLEMENT.—Unless otherwise provided by special indorsement, the payee of any sum payable in accordance with the provisions of this policy, may elect to have the net sum payable applied in any method described in the following options, or divided among any two or more, provided each option selected shall equal or exceed $500 in value.

1. CASH.—The payment in cash.

2. GUARANTEED INCOME.—The payment of interest (guaranteed to be at least three and one-half per cent per annum) on the amount left with the company as a principal sum, at the end of each year during the lifetime of the payee, and the payment of said principal sum, with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon, on the death of the said payee, to his or her executors, administrators or assigns.

3. REGULAR INSTALLMENTS.—The payment of a specified number of equal annual instalments, whether the payee lives or dies, (the first instalment payable immediately,) the amount of each instalment to be in conformity with the accompanying table.

4. CONTINUOUS INSTALLMENT.—The payment of equal annual instalments, (the first instalment payable immediately,) for ten, twenty or thirty years, and as many years thereafter as the payee shall live, such selected ten, twenty or thirty instalments certain being paid whether the payee lives or dies, the amount of each instalment to be in conformity with the accompanying table.

5. LIFE ANNUITY.—The payment of an annuity during the lifetime of the annuitant, (the first payment payable immediately,) the amount of each payment to be in conformity with the accompanying table.

SEMI-ANNUAL, QUARTERLY OR MONTHLY.—At the option of the owner any yearly payments may be changed to semi-annual, quarterly or monthly payments. Multiply the annual payment by .5042 to find the semi-annual payment; by .2532 to find the quarterly payment; and by .0846 to find the monthly payment.

INCREASE OF INCOME AND INSTALLMENT.—In addition to the guaranteed income under Option No. 2, or to the instalments payable under Option No. 3, or to the certain instalments payable under Option No. 4, the company will apportion as a dividend, payable at the end of each year, such interest in excess of three and one-half per cent per annum on such principal sum or on the reserve under such certain instalments respectively as may be assumed to have been earned by the company in the declaration of dividends for that year.

At any time while this policy is in force, upon the written request of the insured, and his assigns if any, the company will by indorsement limit the payment of any claim by death to any one of the above described "options at settlement." Revocation of such limitation may be similarly secured. Unless otherwise provided by special indorsement, if this policy is settled under the second option the payees may secure the payment of the principal sum in cash at any time upon giving satisfactory release therefor; or if it is settled under the third or fourth options the payees may commute in one payment, discounting at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, any of the unpaid instalments under option 3 or any of the unpaid instalments certain under option 4, subsequent payments under such options being in no wise affected by any such commutation.

TWENTY-YEAR TERM POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDEND.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $162.10. AGE,

The Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford Conn., in consideration of the application herefor, which is hereby made a part of this policy, and of the payment of premiums thereon as described below, promises to pay the amount insured defined herein at its home office, in Hartford, Connecticut, to original or substituted beneficiary as herein described and provided for, if living, (but subject to the provisions of the benefit clauses on the second page of this contract), on receipt of policy duly discharged, together with due proofs of the death of the insured hereunder, provided such death occurs within twenty years from noon of the date hereof and while this policy is in force.

INSURED.—John A. Phoenix.

ORIGINAL BENEFICIARY.—Mary A. Phoenix, wife of insured. The insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary hereinafter provided.

AMOUNT INSURED.—Ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy including any portion of the current year's premium unpaid at the time of the death of the insured.

PREMIUM.—One hundred, sixty-two and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, payable the fifth day of each January until twenty full years' premiums have been paid, or until the death of the insured, if prior to the death of the insured.

The benefits and provisions on the second, third and fourth pages hereof are a part of this policy.

No modification of this printed policy can be made except over the signature of the executive officer of the company, to wit: the president, a vice president, the secretary or assistant secretary.

In witness whereof, the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company has by its president and secretary signed, and by its registrar or an executive officer, countersigned, this in the city of Hartford, Connecticut, this fifth day of January, 1915.

BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

For clauses relating to payment of premiums, 31 days' grace, incontestability, assignments, beneficiary clauses and copy of application see preceding policy.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse and shall not be surrendered to the company the company will reinstate it at any time upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of insurability and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of 6% per annum.

ANNUAL APPORTIONMENT OF SURPLUS.—At the end of the first and each subsequent policy year, this policy, while in force, will be credited with its share of the divisible surplus which the company will annually determine and account for in a general distribution of surplus. Such apportionment of surplus will not be conditioned on the payment of premium due during any succeeding policy year, and will be applied in any one of the following methods which may be requested in the application, and such method may be changed by the insured or assigns at the end of any policy year; if no choice is made the first method will be employed.

1. CASH.—To be paid in cash (without interest) to the insured or assigns.

2. REDUCE PREMIUMS.—To reduce the premiums due hereunder during the succeeding year.

3. CASH DIVIDEND FUND FOR ACCELERATION OF PREMIUMS IS PAYABLE AT 10% ON DEMAND.—To accumulate at compound interest as a dividend fund, the company annually crediting interest at such rate as may be assumed to have been earned by the company in the declaration of dividends for that year, which rate is guaranteed to be at least 3% per annum. When such dividend fund, together with the reserve under this policy, shall equal or exceed the reserve under a fully paid policy of the same kind and amount, the company will make this a fully paid participating policy; provided a written request is made and this policy is duly released. Any such dividend fund credited to this policy will be paid with any death claim arising hereunder, or, on policy release, the whole or any part of it will be paid in cash.

CHANGES ON SIGNATURE OF INSURED AND ASSIGNS.—The insured and his assigns may, may change the payment of premium from annual to semi-annual or quarterly vice versa, and may change the manner of applying the surplus and all interest of any beneficiary or assigns of the same shall be bound thereby.

CHANGE AGREEMENT.—At any time during the first fifteen years and while it is in force the insured has not passed his sixtieth birthday, this policy may be changed without medical examination of the insured to one of equivalent amount on any part of his whole life or endowment insurance (except income insurance) then issued by the company such new policy to bear the date and rated age of this contract, provided that the new policy shall be satisfactorily released therefor at the company's home office, and that the difference between the premiums that have been paid and those that would have been paid under the new policy, with interest at the rate of 6% per annum accumulated and shall be paid to the company. In calculating such difference in premiums the dividends that would have been apportioned under the new plan will be applied to the new policy as if it were applied under this policy.

NGE FOR NEW POLICY.—At any time during the first fifteen years of this policy it is in force the owner may exchange it, without medical examination, on its release and surrender at the home office, for another policy on the same life, for any amount, on any plan of whole life or endowment insurance then issued by the company, provided the insured has not passed his sixty-fifth birthday, the new policy to be of such exchange and to be written at the rated age of the insured at such time; if the insured has not passed his sixtieth birthday, such change may be to another term policy containing similar privileges of exchange. The owner has a similar privilege during the last five years of this policy provided satisfactory evidence of the insurability of the insured is furnished with the surrender of the policy. If this policy is exchanged at any time during its term, the company will apply its full reserve for exchange by the 3% American Experience Table, together with any surplus then be credited to it, in permanent uniform reduction of the premiums under the new policy.

FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—The reserves and premiums on which these values are computed on the "3 per cent. American Experience Table."

CASH VALUE.—At any time after the premiums for two years have been paid the company will purchase this policy for its cash value on satisfactory release and surrender at the home office while it is in force or within the thirty-one days of grace hereinafter provided. Such cash value at the end of a fully paid policy year is the then terminal reserve of $1,000 of insurance under this policy together with any cash dividends credited thereto; if surrendered before the tenth policy year, less a surrender charge of 1% of the amount of such insurance; if surrendered subsequently no surrender charge will be levied. At any time during a fully paid policy year such cash value is the terminal value of such year discounted for the unexpired portion thereof at the rate of 3% per ANNUAL EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If this policy shall lapse and shall not have been renewed, the insurance without any action by the owner will be automatically extended for a term of years, if such lapse occurs two years or more from date of issue, by applying the cash value at such time as a net single premium to purchase non-participating term insurance (but not extending beyond the term of this policy) for the amount insured as shown on the first page hereof increased by any dividends credited hereto. If such cash value is less than the amount required to purchase such term insurance, the excess value will be used to purchase a pure endowment payable at the expiration of the term of this insurance the insured is then living.

TERMINAL RESERVE USED TO PURCHASE EXTENDED INSURANCE END OF FIRST YEAR.—If such policy is surrendered before the end of the second year from date of issue, any cash dividend credited thereto will be automatically applied to purchase term insurance in manner as above provided, and such term insurance, on satisfactory release and surrender of this policy at the home office may be surrendered for its full reserve at time of such surrender.

VALUES UNDER EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If this policy is satisfactorily released and renewed at the home office while insurance is in force under the automatic extended insurance provision, the company will purchase it for its cash value at the date of surrender; if no lapse had occurred, charging against cash value all the unpaid gross premium interest at the rate of 6% per annum accumulated annually; but no value of the reserve under the extended insurance at date of surrender will be paid.

IMMEDIATE VALUES FOR PARTIALLY PAID YEARS.—The payment of a premium for any policy year after the second will make a proportionate increase in the terminal values for that year.

MINIMUM NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.—Guaranteed under "non-forfeiture" provisions (reduction of required surrender charge) provided all premiums due prior to the termination are paid and no indebtedness exists. Each of these values will be in the value of any dividends standing to the credit of this policy, and decreased, if provided, by the value of any indebtedness to the company existing against it. If the insured or any beneficiary (except when the right to change the beneficiary is reserved to the insured) or any assignee under this policy is a minor, a cash value will be released by a duly appointed legal guardian of such minor.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare and agree that the foregoing statements and those appearing in Part I are full, complete and true, and that the insurance hereby applied for shall effect until the issuance of a policy therefor, and the payment of the first premium thereon; and I furthermore agree that my death from suicide, while sane or within one year from date of any policy issued hereon, shall reduce the company's liability thereunder to the amount of the cash premiums paid thereon.

*No cash value until end of third year. The loan values in this table are available during policy year. Values for later years will be computed on the same basis and furnished upon request.

If the premiums on this policy be paid quarterly or semi-annually, a proportionate value will be allowed, under option 1 or 2 for that part of the years' premium over and above the full years paid.

If there be any indebtedness against this policy, the cash surrender value shall be reduced thereby, the paid-up insurance shall be reduced proportionately and the paid-up extended insurance shall be for the face value of the policy, less the indebtedness, and for such period as the reduced cash value will purchase.

If this policy is surrendered for cash any accumulation of dividends and the reserve on any dividend additions will be added, or if either of the other options is selected the accumulations, at the option of the insured, may be taken in cash, or be applied to increase (a) the paid-up life insurance or (b) the term of the extension. If the insured makes no election, any accumulation of dividends and the reserve on any dividend additions shall be paid in cash.

The loan or value of any non-forfeiture provision will be based on the reserve at the date of default on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at the rate of three per cent one-half per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto.

INCOME SETTLEMENTS. ON SURRENDER.—The insured may elect to receive the cash surrender value, as guaranteed on page two hereof, in equal annual or monthly payments for a limited period or for twenty years certain, and as long thereafter as the insured shall survive. The amount of each payment is to be based on the tables found on the fourth page and on the age of the insured at the time of such surrender.

AT DEATH.—If this policy is not assigned, the insured, upon written request, or the beneficiary, upon making claim, may elect either to have the net sum payable under this policy paid as an income in equal, annual or monthly payments for a specified number of years, or in equal, annual or monthly payments for a fixed period of twenty years or for so long thereafter as the beneficiary shall survive. If there is more than one beneficiary hereunder, or if the beneficiary is the estate of the insured, the principal sum insured hereunder will be paid in one sum. Any indebtedness to the company will be deducted from the principal sum and all payments will be proportionately diminished. Any payments hereunder which shall not have been made prior to the death of the beneficiary shall be commuted and paid to the executor, administrator or assigns of the beneficiary. Tables for life or limited income will be found on the fourth page hereof.

PRIVILEGE OF CONVERSION.—At the end of any policy year the insured may convert this policy to a life policy for the same amount and as of the same age and dates, applying the excess of the reserve required on this policy, over the reserve required on the life policy, equally, to reduce subsequent premiums thereon, and such reduced premium will be shown in the table below. The value of any dividend additions and accumulation of dividends may be withdrawn, or applied yet further to reduce the subsequent premium thereon equally, but if the insured makes no election the dividends will be transferred to the life policy.

miums will remain level after change is made. If there is any indebtedness on policy, it must be repaid before conversion will be granted.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days will be granted in payment of premiums after this policy shall have been in force three months, and interest be charged at the rate of five per cent per annum for the number of days during which the premium remains due and unpaid. During the period of grace, this policy is in force and the unpaid premium and interest remain an indebtedness to the insured, which shall be deducted from the amount payable under the policy, if the death of the insured shall occur during the said grace period.

RIGHT TO CHANGE BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time, and from time to time, by written request on blanks furnished by the company, provided the policy is not yet due, change the beneficiary. Such change shall take effect when endorsed on the policy by the company. The right is reserved to the insured, without the consent of the beneficiary, to receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege provided by this policy.

RIGHT TO ASSIGN POLICY.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate on blanks furnished by the company. Both copies must be sent to the home office, one to be filed and one to be returned to the assignee. The claim of any assignee shall be subject to proof of interest, and the company will assume no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

EDITION FOR ONE YEAR ONLY.—For one year after date of application for issue of this policy, self-destruction, whether sane or insane, is a risk not assumed by the company, but in such case the company will return the premium actually received.

UNTESTABLE.—After one year from its date of issue, this policy shall be incontestable, except for failure to pay premium. This policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto.

PREMIUMS WHEN AND WHERE PAYABLE.—All premiums are due and payable in cash, either at the home office of the company in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., or to the agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or vice-president and countersigned by the company's cashier or said agent. The unpaid portion of the policy year's premium, if any, will be deducted in any settlement of this policy. The insured is to pay any premium when due will render this policy void, except as herein provided. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

POWER TO THE HOLDER OF THIS POLICY.—No agent is authorized to alter this contract, give any forfeiture thereof or to extend the time for paying any premium.

Witness whereof, the Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president (or vice-president) and secretary and countersigned by its cashier at Pittsburgh, Pa., this fourth day of January in the year nineteen hundred and sixteen.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, I am at present in good health and free from any disease or disorder. The answers to the above questions are complete and true. I will accept and take up the policy hereby applied for. The actual payment of the first premium and the continuance of the same are conditions of the insurance taking effect. No agent shall vary this agreement without my written consent.

I agree that the principles and methods adopted by the company in the payment of dividends and the determination of the amount allotted to any policy shall be accepted by all parties. I hereby request that the policy provided premium is not paid when due, same shall be advanced by the company as such premiums, together with all other indebtedness, equal the sum of the value of the policy.

Postal Life Insurance Company.

WHOLE LIFE POLICY, GUARANTEED ANNUAL DIVIDENDS DISABILITY BENEFITS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $274.

AGE, 35.

The Postal Life Insurance Company by the issuance of this policy contract accepts Samuel Postman of Buffalo, New York, as a policyholder of the company insured under the laws of the state of New York, and in the event of the death of said policyholder, all due premiums having been deposited with the company, agrees to pay at the home office of the company to Mary Postman, wife, beneficiary of the policyholder, the sum of ten thousand dollars, less any amount due the company, upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the policyholder's death.

The consideration for this policy-contract is the monthly premium in advance and the deposit of additional premiums, in accordance with the premium-schedule herein set forth, until the death of the policyholder.

PREMIUM SCHEDULE.—Monthly, $25.10; semi-annually, $142.50; quarterly, $72.60; annually, $274.00.

OPTIONAL PREMIUM PRIVILEGE.—The policyholder may make deposits of premium covering three months, six months, or one year, in advance, and take advantage at any time of the reductions shown in the premium schedule. Premiums are payable at the home office of the company, on or before the first day of the month in which they fall due, which day shall be known as the premium due date of the policy, but a grace of thirty days, subject to an interest-charge at the rate of five per cent. per annum, shall be granted for the deposit of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the days of grace, the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

PARTICIPATION IN SURPLUS.—This policy participates in the profits of the company annually; its ascertained proportion, or dividends, shall at the option of the policyholder, be either (a) paid in cash; (b) applied toward the payment of a premium or premiums; (c) applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy; or (d) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy at not less than three per cent. per annum.

(The amounts of the guarantees for subsequent years will be computed upon the same basis and furnished upon request.)

THE COMPANY GUARANTEES.—(1) That in addition to the dividends to be ascertained and applied in the manner specified above, there shall be credited to this policy (a) the first year a Commission Dividend of $76.70 and (b) each year for fourteen years thereafter a Renewal Commission Dividend of 7½% of the annual premium, when the premium is paid; and that there shall be allotted as Preferred Dividends, out of the general profits of the company, (c) for the premium-paying years following the renewal-commission dividend period, a continuance of the amount of said dividend of 7½%, and (d) for every year after the first a minimum office-expense saving of 2% of the annual premium; said guaranteed dividends to be disposed of as set forth in the preceding paragraph (participation in surplus) for the disposal of dividends; (2) That in case the dividends are left in the custody company to accumulate: (a) when the dividends thus accumulated will prepay all premiums, this policy shall, at the option of the policyholder, become fully paid up $10,000 and (b) when the dividends thus accumulated, together with the legal reserve, the face of the policy, the policy shall mature as an endowment for $10,000 and then it to the policyholder in cash; (3) That this policy may be changed at any time to a 1-payment life, or endowment, for $10,000, full credit being given for the entire reserve of the policy, together with the accumulated dividends, and with the advance of the policyholder of the company's present schedule of premium rates; (4) That on anniversary of this policy the policyholder may withdraw in cash, the unused accumulated dividends; (5) that on any anniversary of this policy the policyholder may also withdraw as the policy's cash value, the amount of the loan value, less any indebtedness, upon the surrender of the policy.

TERMINATION.—During any insurance year, after the second, in the life of this policy, written request and with the policy returned for endorsement, the policyholder secure one of the three following benefits, subject to any indebtedness existing on the

1.—A CASH LOAN.—If the policyholder needs money for premiums or other purposes, column 1 (see above table) shows what the company will loan, provided premiums and interest at five per cent. per annum are paid to the next anniversary of the policy.

2.—PAID-UP INSURANCE.—If at any time the policyholder should find it necessary to continue premium-deposits, and would rather have paid-up insurance than to borrow money which this policy permits, the company will grant a paid-up policy, payable to the beneficiary, at the death of the policyholder, for the amounts shown in column 2. This insurance is that which does not require the deposit of any more premiums.

3.—EXTENDED INSURANCE.—(The kind of insurance that protects the beneficiary even if the policyholder stops depositing premiums.) To understand column 3, take, for example, the figures opposite the tenth year. The company will continue the insurance for a full amount, $10,000, for twelve years and 000 months more, upon the request of the policyholder.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

1.—LOAN.—The company, at any time while this policy is in force, will loan upon the sole security of the policy at five per cent. interest per annum, payable in advance to the end of the current policy-year, a sum greater than eighty per cent. of the entire reserve of the policy in force including dividend-additions, in the years specified in the table of loan herein set forth, deducting therefrom all other indebtedness hereon to the company, and any unpaid balance of the current year's annual premium. The company also to loan upon request of the owner of the policy a smaller sum or sums not aggregating more than the percentage specified.

2.—CASH LOAN NON-FORFEITURE.—If the policyholder shall fail to deposit any premium due, the company will charge the same as a cash-loan, if the cash-loan value, after paying any existing indebtedness, is sufficient, and this policy shall be thereby continued in full force. The policyholder may, while the policy is continued in force in this manner, resume the deposit of premiums. At the end of any month, if the premium is not deposited by the policyholder, and if the cash-loan value shall not be sufficient to the company to loan to the policyholder the amount of a full monthly premium, the loan shall then cease.

3.—REINSTATEMENT.—This policy, upon the production of evidence satisfactory to the company of insurability, may be reinstated within three years from date of default in the payment of any premium, by payment of premiums accrued since default and the reinstatement of whatever indebtedness hereon to the company exists, with interest at five per cent. per annum; this privilege is granted even though the extended insurance, paid-up insurance, or the cash-loan value has been fully availed of by the policyholder.

4.—SURRENDER OF BENEFICIARY AND ASSIGNMENT.—The policyholder may, without the consent of the beneficiary, effect a loan against this policy, surrender it to the company, receive the cash value, loan, surrender-value, or maturity-value, assign it as provided herein, or the beneficiary by written notice to the company, such change to take effect, howsoever upon the endorsement of the same upon the policy by the company. If the designated beneficiary shall not survive the policyholder, the sum insured shall be payable to the policyholder's executors, administrators, or assigns. No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless made in duplicate and both copies be filed with the policy to the offices of the company in New York for endorsement, one copy retained by the company and one to be returned, attached to the policy, and accompanied by an acknowledgment of notification. The company will assume no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

5.—CORRECTION OF AGE.—If the age of the policyholder has been misstated, the amount of insurance payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1.—CONTRACT TAKES EFFECT, ETC.—This contract takes effect at the time of the official acceptance of the applicant by the company, at the offices of the company, in the city of New York; it is made and is to be performed in the state of New York, and is to be governed by the laws there in force, with reference to which it is made.

No person whose name is authorized to represent or act for the company in any state or outside of the state of New York. The policy constitutes the entire contract between the parties. This policy is predicated upon the deposit of premiums annually in advance, but the same may be deposited in monthly, quarterly, or semi-annual installments.

No such instalments shall have the effect to continue the insurance beyond the next quarter, or half-year paid for. All unpaid instalments of an annual premium and any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted in any settlement hereunder.

2.—DIVIDENDS AND SURPLUS.—In the allotment of dividends and disposition of surplus, the principles and methods adopted in conformity with law by the board of trustees, from time to time, shall be binding, and its determination of the payments allotted to it policy shall be conclusive upon all parties.

CONDITIONS AND INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy is free of conditions as to residence, occupation, travel, habits of life, and manner, time or place of death, except as here recited: If within two years from the date of this policy, the policyholder engages in military or naval service in time of war, without a permit from the company covering such service, and dies while engaged in such service, or in consequence of having been so engaged, the sum payable will be one-third the principal sum named herein; in event of the death of the policyholder within two years by his own act, whether sane or insane, the sum payable shall be one-tenth of the principal sum. This policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premiums, after one year from date of issue.

INSTALMENT PAYMENTS.—The proceeds under this policy, including the accumulated profits, instead of being payable in one sum, shall, upon written notice from the policyholder, be made payable to the beneficiary, in the form of annual income for a specified number of years, as herein set forth in the following table on a basis of $1,000. The first instalment payable immediately upon due proof of the death of the policyholder.

WAIVER OF PREMIUMS IN CASE OF TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—If, after one full annual premium shall have been paid, and prior to default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the policyholder, before attaining age sixty, shall furnish proof satisfactory to this company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or disease and is and will be permanently, wholly and continuously prevented from following any and all gainful occupations, the company by endorsement hereon will waive payment of the premiums thereafter becoming due. In addition to all other causes of total disability and without prejudice thereunto, the following injuries will be considered permanent and total disability within the meaning of this provision: the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes; the severance of both hands above the wrists; the severance of both feet above the ankles; the severance of one entire hand and one entire foot. Notwithstanding proof of disability has been accepted by the company, the policyholder at the request of the company shall furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability. If the policyholder fails to furnish such proof, or if it appear to the company that he has recovered so far as to be able to follow any gainful occupation, all premiums thereafter becoming due must be paid in conformity with this contract. Premiums waived resulting from permanent disability shall not be deducted from the sum payable under this policy and the cash-loans and surrender-values shall be the same as if the premiums had been paid in cash.

POLICYHOLDER'S HEALTH BUREAU.—In addition to the educational benefits of the health bureau, conducted by the company's medical department, the policyholder under this policy is entitled to one free medical examination each policy year at such time and place as the company may designate, on written application to the home office within sixty days after the anniversary of the policy, provided the premium or instalment thereof for the current year shall have been paid, and further provided that the insured shall be entitled to not more than one examination each year if he has two or more policies. The purpose of such periodical examinations is to assist the policyholder in prolonging his life by detecting impairment or disease in its incipient or early stages, when he may take proper steps to check or cure it. This examination is not made obligatory by the company, but is optional with the policyholder.

In witness whereof the company has caused this policy to be executed this first day of February, 1915.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

The foregoing answers are full, complete and true; I am temperate and to the best of my knowledge and belief am in sound physical condition and a proper subject for life insurance.

It is understood that I may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred by the policy to be issued.

It is understood that my insurance is to take effect in the city of New York at the instant of my official acceptance there by the company.

In order that the company may decide whether I am an acceptable risk, I request that you recommend to me a physician in my vicinity who has been professionally approved by the company, and who will ask the usual questions about my health, and forward such a report as it requires, all of which is to be without cost to me.

grace for official receipts signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by the authorized agent of the company. If any premium be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and all premiums forfeited to the company, except as herein provided.

GRACE IN THE PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—A grace of one month without interest shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force.

DIVIDENDS.—At the end of five years from the date of this policy, and not prior thereto, this policy is then in full force, it will be credited with a dividend from the surplus apportioned by the company to policies of the same class, and thereafter annually.

LOANS.—The company at any time will advance upon the sole security of this policy, being in force under its terms, at a rate of interest not less than five nor greater than five per cent per annum, a sum not exceeding the amount specified in the table of loan values herein set forth plus the full legal reserve on all additions made, deducting therefrom all other indebtedness hereon to the company. Failure to repay any such advance of interest shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the aggregate of all unpaid dividends and accumulations and the loan value of the policy and all additions thereto, and thirty days' notice shall have been given by the company.

* Loans will be granted at the beginning instead of at the end of the year, if so desired, provided the entire premium for the year has been paid.

Values for later years will be computed on the same basis and be furnished upon request.

In addition to the above values the policyholder is entitled to the full legal reserve on all dividend accumulations upon surrender of this policy.

The reserve maintained on this policy and the loan and surrender values in the table are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum.

The "options" and "modes of settlement" endorsed hereon are hereby referred to and made a part of this policy.

No person except an executive officer of the company as aforesaid has power to modify in event of lapse, to reinstate this policy, or to extend the time of paying premium. In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this first day of March, 1910.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three years it may be surrendered by the owner at any time prior to any default or within three months after any default. Thereupon,

1. If there be no indebtedness hereon to the company, the owner may elect either (a) to continue the insurance in force for its face amount and any outstanding dividend additions, but without further participation, and without right to loans; or, (b) to purchase non-participating paid-up life insurance payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy. The periods for which the insurance will be continued and the amounts of paid-up life insurance which will be allowed, exclusive of the application of dividend additions, are shown in the table of surrender values herein set forth.

2. If there be an indebtedness hereon to the company, it shall be deducted from the amount which otherwise would be applicable as a surrender value to the purchase of temporary insurance for the period aforesaid, and the owner may elect either to have the remainder applied (a) to continue the insurance in force without participation and without the right to loans for the face amount of this policy and dividend additions, less the indebtedness, or (b) to purchase a proportionate amount of non-participating paid-up life insurance.

If in the event of any default in the payment of premium or otherwise, after the policy shall have been in force three full years, the owner shall not exercise either of said options within three months after such default, the insurance shall be continued as paid-up life insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as the original policy.

MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—The insured or the owner, or beneficiary after the insured's death, in case the insured shall have made no election, may by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the net sum payable under this policy upon the death of the insured paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of an annuity equal to three per cent of such net sum payable at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any accrued portion of the annuity for the year of current, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representative or assigns. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years, and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum.

Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns.

When any option calling for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplementary non-participating contract shall be issued in the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the owner or by the beneficiary making such election, the beneficiary may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of instalments, for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made computed upon the same basis as Option (2) in the following table; provided that such surrender and commutation will be made under Option (3) except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

Provident Life and Trust Company.

WENTY-PAYMENT FORTY-YEAR ENDOWMENT—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $338.50. AGE, 35.

The Provident Life and Trust Company of Philadelphia in consideration of the representations made in the application for this policy, which are hereby made a part of this contract, and the payment of three hundred and thirty-eight and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and payment of the yearly premium of three hundred and thirty-eight and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars on or before the twentieth day of first month in every year hereafter until twenty yearly premiums shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured, promises to pay at its office in the city of Philadelphia, the sum of ten thousand dollars to John Doe of Philadelphia, Philadelphia county, Pennsylvania, herein called the insured, or to his assigns, upon the twentieth day of first month, 1951, provided the insured be then living; or in the event of the death of the insured before that date, to pay at its office aforesaid the said sum, upon receipt of due written proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, to his wife Sarah Doe if living; otherwise to his executors, administrators or assigns, with right reserved to the insured to change the beneficiary. In either case, any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall first be deducted.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If the right to change the beneficiary has been reserved by the insured, he or she may, if of full age, at any time during the continuance of this policy, change and successively change the beneficiary hereunder, whether original or substituted, without the consent of the beneficiary, provided that the interest of any beneficiary shall be subject to the right of any assignee of said policy. The insured may, however, declare the designation of any beneficiary to be irrevocable. During the lifetime of any irrevocably designated beneficiary the insured shall not have the right to revoke or change the designation of that beneficiary without the written consent of said beneficiary filed with the company. If any beneficiary, revocable or irrevocable, dies before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured unless otherwise specifically provided. Every change of beneficiary or change from revocable to irrevocable designation must be made by written direction of the insured, filed with the company at its home office accompanied by this policy, and will take effect only when endorsed on this policy by the company. The beneficiary is the person named in or endorsed on this policy as the person to whom the policy is payable if it should become a claim by the death of the insured. An assignee is the person to whom the policy may have been lawfully transferred by an instrument other than a designation or change of beneficiary as aforesaid.

OCCUPATION, TRAVEL, SUICIDE, ETC.—If the insured shall within one year after the issue of this policy and without the written consent of the company previously obtained, be engaged in or reside South of the Tropic of Cancer or shall within that time be personally engaged in blasting, mining, submarine operations or in the production of highly inflammable or explosive substances, or as an engineer, fireman, brakeman, motorman or conductor upon any steam or electric railroad or railway, or shall be engaged in any capacity upon any steam or other vessel, this policy shall cease to be in force. If the insured shall within one year after the issue of this policy die by his or her own hand or unless proof of insanity shall have been furnished, this policy shall be valid only for the amount equal to the reserve hereon, and not for the amount insured.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, together with the application therefor, a copy whereof is attached to this policy and made a part thereof, constitutes the entire contract between the parties, and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premium. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased the same kind of insurance at the correct age. All statements made by the insured in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defence to a claim unless it is contained in the application and a copy of such application is attached to this policy when issued.

DIVIDENDS.—The proportion of the surplus accruing upon this policy shall be assumed and distributed annually and not otherwise. At the option of the insured, dividends will be (a) payable in cash; (b) or applicable to the payment of any premium premiums upon this policy; (c) or used to purchase paid-up additions to this policy; or left to accumulate to the credit of this policy with interest at three per cent per annum, payable when the policy becomes a claim, or withdrawable in cash at any anniversary of this policy on demand. The insured may make election of one of the aforesaid options not later than thirty-one days after any anniversary of this policy, and any option so elected shall remain in effect until superseded by another of the aforesaid options. If no election is in effect, the dividend apportioned will be applied to the purchase of a paid-up addition as provided in option (c). Such paid-up addition may be surrendered at any time for a cash value calculated on the basis for cash value in force at the time of surrender, provided the cash value in any case shall not be less than the original cash dividend.

ASSIGNMENTS.—No assignment of this policy shall be of any force or effect made in writing and recorded by the company on its books at its home office unless the assignee assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

CHANGES OF CONTRACT, ETC.—No receipt for renewal premium, nor for any alteration or discharge of the contract nor waiver of forfeiture under the same shall be valid unless signed by the president, vice-president, actuary, secretary, or assistant treasurer of the company.

PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days is hereby granted for the payment of premium after the first, subject to interest at six per cent per annum on the delinquent. The insurance shall continue in force during said period, and if the policy shall die during said period the overdue premium will be deducted in any case hereunder. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium shall not be necessary to keep the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium shall be due. All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company, or to any agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt therefor signed by the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer or assistant treasurer of the company and countersigned by the president.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated at any time within three years after the date of default in the payment of any premium, provided it has not been so reinstated by the company for its cash value, or its extension period expired, upon evidence satisfactory to the company and payment of arrears of premium will be required at six per cent per annum and also upon the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness to the company under this policy with interest at six per cent per annum.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, the company may advance a loan on the policy while this policy shall be in force and not assigned or pledged to any other party or continued as extended term insurance, will lend on the proper security and delivery of this policy and on the sole security hereof, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, a sum equal to or at the option of the insured less than the cash value at the end of the then current policy year as stated in the table of loan values incorporated in this policy, less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the then current policy year, and may advance such loan in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year; provided that such loan may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. Failure to pay said loan or interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, according to the table of loan values incorporated in this policy, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and any assignee of record at the office of the company. No loan will be made hereon if this policy is running as term insurance.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—After two full annual premiums shall have been paid hereon, upon default in the payment of any premium at the end of the thirty-one day grace allowed, this policy will, without any action on the part of the insured be continued in force for participating paid-up insurance for a reduced amount at the same time and on the same conditions as herein originally provided. By the time within thirty days from the date of such default the insured, by a writing in which the company at its home office in which writing the assignee and the beneficiary designated irrevocably shall join (but without requiring the joinder of any beneficiary designated irrevocably), may elect in lieu of such paid-up insurance for a reduced amount (a) to surrender this policy and receive in cash its value at time of default; (b) to extend the right to a loan, to have the insurance continued in force as non-participating extended term insurance from the due date of the premium in default for its full amount and any outstanding paid-up additions; and if the sum to be applied to the purchase of extended term insurance shall be more than sufficient to extend the term to the end of the endowment term, the excess shall be applied to the purchase of endowment insurance payable at the end of the term if the insured be then living. If this policy should automatically become paid-up insurance for a reduced amount, extended term insurance should be taken hereunder, such paid-up or extended term insurance will, upon legal surrender of the policy, be entitled to a cash value equal to the reserve thereon at time of said surrender, computed upon the basis hereinafter provided, less any indebtedness to the company. For the protection of the interests of the policyholders and to provide against any emergency, the company reserves to itself the right to require six months written notice for the withdrawal of the cash value of the policy or of the cash value of the paid-up or extended term insurance granted in lieu of the full reserve on this policy is computed upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum. The cash value at the end of the tenth year and each subsequent fifth year is the full reserve computed upon the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum; at other times, the full reserve at date of default, computed as aforesaid, less one per cent of the amount insured, less any indebtedness to the company hereon. The paid-up values are not less than the amount purchasable at net single premium rates according to attained age of the insured in the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum by the full reserve at date of default computed as aforesaid, less two per cent of the amount insured and less any indebtedness to the company. The period of the extended term insurance will be such as the reserve at date of default on this policy and on any outstanding paid-up additions, computed as aforesaid, less any indebtedness to the company insured and less any indebtedness to the company on the policy, or secured by this policy, will purchase at net single premium rates according to attained age of the insured by the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum; but no provision contained herein shall extend the term of this policy in force beyond the term for which it was originally issued.

owment, if any, shall be calculated on the same basis as the extended term in value for each year is not less than the reserve computed as aforesaid, less one-half per cent of the amount insured and less any indebtedness to the company or secured by this policy.

AL METHODS OF SETTLEMENT.—The provisions printed on the third page hereof "optional methods of settlement" are hereby made a part of this policy.

cash, extended term insurance, pure endowment and loan values for each year after the twenty-second, and for all paid-up additions (upon which the insured will be entitled to such values), will be calculated upon the same as this table. The loan values provided for in the columns headed "loan value" for the end of policy years can be obtained (less interest to the end of the policy year) during such policy years as provided in the above clause entitled "loans." as whereof, the said The Provident Life and Trust Company of Philadelphia its corporate seal, delivered this contract, signed by its president or vice-president and attested by its actuary, secretary, treasurer or assistant treasurer, this day of first month 1913.

OPTIONAL METHODS OF SETTLEMENT.

DEFINITION OF TERMS.

INSURED is the person upon whose life the policy is issued.

POLICY BENEFICIARY is the person named in or endorsed on the policy as the person to whom the policy is payable if it should become a claim by the death of the insured.

ASSIGNEE is a person to whom the policy may have been lawfully transferred by the insured other than a designation or change of Beneficiary as provided for in the policy.

SELECTED BENEFICIARY is the person designated by an election under Option C upon the death of the insured after the maturity of the endowment, such of the full number of yearly instalments of income chosen by said election as may be already paid during the lifetime of the insured, and, upon surviving the insured, to receive further after said full limited number of instalments of income shall be paid, the same yearly sum as a continuous income during the remaining lifetime of the insured person so designated.

YEE is (a) the person entitled to receive the full limited number of yearly instalments of income chosen by an election under the table entitled Option A; and (b) the person entitled to receive the full limited number of yearly instalments of income chosen by an election under the table entitled Option B, and further to receive yearly the same yearly sum as a continuous income during the remaining lifetime of the insured person.

MATURITY OF THE ENDOWMENT is the date named in the policy for payment of the proceeds thereof if the insured shall be then living.

SELECTED INSTALMENTS OF INCOME are the full number of yearly instalments of income chosen and limited in number by an election under any option.

ELECTION OF OPTIONS.

CHOICE BY THE INSURED.—At the maturity of the endowment in the policy time prior thereto, if no right shall inhere in any person or party other than a designated beneficiary, the insured may, without the necessity of a formal election, choose to receive the same revocably or irrevocably designated policy beneficiary, elect to require the proceeds of the policy to be paid when the same shall become payable, not in one cash sum as set out in the policy, but in equal yearly instalments of income, according to any of the following options respectively entitled Option A, Option B and Option C.

2. REVOCATION OF ELECTION BY THE INSURED.—At the maturity of the endowment or at any time prior thereto but not thereafter, if no right shall inhere in any person or party other than a revocably or irrevocably designated policy beneficiary, the insured may in like manner revoke said election and make a new election.

3. ELECTION AND REVOCATION BY POLICY BENEFICIARY OR ASSIGNEE.—(a) If the insured fails to make an election as aforesaid, the policy beneficiary or assignee may make such election at the time the proceeds of the policy may become payable to the policy beneficiary or assignee. (b) If the proceeds of the policy shall be lawfully payable absolutely to the policy beneficiary or assignee in any event whatsoever either at the maturity of the endowment or by reason of the death of the insured prior thereto, without right of any other person or party in or to the policy or the proceeds thereof either expressed or implied, then and in such case all rights of the insured to elect and revoke an election as aforesaid shall be exercisable at the maturity of the endowment or at any time prior thereto but not thereafter, by the policy beneficiary or assignee without the joinder of any other person or party. (c) If there shall be more than one policy beneficiary or assignee, all must unite in any act which the policy beneficiary or assignee may exercise.

4. INTERESTED PARTIES WHO MUST UNITE IN ELECTION.—(a) An election shall not be made or revoked by the insured while the policy may stand payable either wholly or partly to an assignee thereof or while a right therein may inhere in any other person or party not a revocably or irrevocably designated policy beneficiary, without the joinder of such assignee or such other person or party, nor (b) shall an election be made or revoked either by the policy beneficiary or assignee while any person or party other than the policy beneficiary or assignee may have any express or implied right in or to the policy or the proceeds thereof, without the joinder of such person or party, but (c) any election or revocation thereof which the insured may duly make, shall be valid without the assent of any revocably or irrevocably designated policy beneficiary.

5. ELECTION OF ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS.—If the insured shall elect Option C, the insured may also elect either Option A or Option B as an alternative option to the effect only in case the insured should die prior to the maturity of the endowment.

6. RIGHT OF COMMUTATION MAY BE WITHHELD.—Any person entitled to exercise an election may therein direct that the person entitled to receive all or any of the instalments of income which may become payable under said election shall not have the right to commute the same for cash.

7. HOW ELECTION AND REVOCATION MADE.—Every election or revocation of election must be made in writing and filed with the company at its home office, accompanied by the policy, and will take effect only when endorsed on the policy by the company.

OPTION A.

OPTION A. INCOME CERTAIN.—Yearly instalments of income guaranteed for limited number of years certain, two to thirty years, (called elected instalments), in lieu of $1,000 due under the policy when the proceeds thereof become payable.

1. APPLICABLE TO MATURED ENDOWMENT OR DEATH CLAIM.—If this option shall be elected, the proceeds of the policy, either at the maturity of the endowment or upon the death of the insured prior thereto, shall be paid in any limited number of equal yearly instalments of income chosen by said election, from two to thirty in number, according to the table entitled Option A.

2. COMMUTATION BY PAYEE.—At the time when any one of the elected instalments of income shall become payable, the payee may take in one cash sum the commuted value of the then unpaid elected instalments of income, ascertained according to the commutation table, unless the person entitled to designate such payee shall have deprived such payee of such right of commutation.

3. COMMUTATION BY PAYEE'S EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS OR ASSIGNS.—(a) If a payee who has not been deprived of the right of commutation aforesaid shall die without having exercised such right and before all the elected instalments of income shall have been paid to such payee, or (b) if a payee who has been deprived of such right of commutation shall die before all the elected instalments of income shall have been paid to such payee, then and in either such case the executors, administrators or assigns of such payee may take in one cash sum the commuted value of the remaining or unpaid elected instalments of income, ascertained according to the commutation table.

OPTION B.

OPTION B. CONTINUOUS INCOME.—Yearly instalments of income guaranteed for 10, 15, 20 or 25 years certain (called elected instalments) and yearly thereafter the lifetime of the payee, in lieu of each $1000 due under the policy when the proceeds become payable.

APPLICABLE TO MATURED ENDOWMENT OR DEATH CLAIM.—If this option shall be elected, the proceeds of the policy, either at the maturity of the endowment or upon death of the insured prior thereto, shall be paid in either ten or fifteen or twenty or fifty equal yearly instalments of income, as may be chosen by said election under the table entitled Option B.

AMOUNT OF YEARLY INSTALMENTS OF INCOME, HOW DETERMINED.—The amount of the elected instalments of income shall be determined (a) by the number of instalments of income and (b) by the age of the payee at the payee's birthday to the time when the proceeds of the policy may become payable, according to the table entitled Option B.

CONTINUOUS PAYMENT OF INCOME TO PAYEE FOR LIFE.—After all the elected instalments of income shall have been paid to the payee, the same yearly sum or income continue to be paid yearly to said payee during the remaining lifetime of said payee.

COMMUTATION BY PAYEE.—At the time when any one of the elected instalments come under the table entitled Option B shall become payable, the payee may take (a) cash sum the commuted value of the then unpaid elected instalments of income, as determined according to the commutation table, unless the person entitled to designate the payee shall have deprived such payee of such right of commutation.

5. COMMUTATION BY PAYEE'S EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS OR ASSIGNS.—(a) If payee who has not been deprived of the right of commutation aforesaid shall die without having exercised such right and before all the elected instalments of income under the table entitled Option B shall have been paid to such payee, or (b) if a payee who has been deprived of such right of commutation shall die before all the elected instalments of income under the table entitled Option B shall have been paid to such payee, then and in either such case the executors, administrators or assigns of such payee may in one cash sum the commuted value of the remaining or unpaid elected instalments of income, ascertained according to the commutation table.

6. COMMUTATION BY PAYEE NOT TO DEPRIVE PAYEE OF RIGHT TO CONTINUOUS INCOME FOR LIFE.—Exercise of the above right of commutation by the payee shall not deprive the payee of the right to receive the continuous yearly sum or income which the payee would have been entitled to receive during the lifetime of the payee according to the table entitled Option B if the payee had not exercised such right of commutation beginning upon the expiration of the term of years within which the full number of elected instalments of income would have been paid if the same had not been commuted.

OPTION C.

OPTION C. SURVIVORSHIP INCOME.—Yearly instalments of income, guaranteed either 10, 15, 20 or 25 years certain (called elected instalments) and yearly thereafter to the insured and elected beneficiary during their respective lives successively, in the amount of each $1000 payable in one sum at maturity of the endowment.

APPLICABLE ONLY AT THE MATURITY OF THE ENDOWMENT.—This option is applicable to disposition of the proceeds of the policy only if said proceeds shall become due at the maturity of the endowment. If this option shall be elected, the proceeds of the policy shall be paid in either ten or fifteen or twenty or twenty-five equal yearly instalments of income, as may be chosen by said election under the table entitled Option C. AMOUNT OF YEARLY INSTALMENTS OF INCOME, HOW DETERMINED.—The amount of a yearly instalment of income shall be determined (a) by the number of yearly instalments of income so chosen and (b) by the age of the insured at the insured's birthday to the maturity of the endowment and (c) by the age of the elected beneficiary or elected beneficiary's birthday nearest to the maturity of the endowment, according to the table entitled Option C.

CONTINUOUS PAYMENT OF INCOME TO INSURED FOR LIFE.—After all the elected instalments of income shall have been paid to the insured, the same yearly sum or income shall continue to be paid to the insured during the remaining lifetime of the insured. PAYMENTS TO ELECTED BENEFICIARY AFTER DEATH OF INSURED.—(a) If the insured shall die while the elected beneficiary may be living and before all the elected instalments of income shall have been paid to the insured, the remaining or unpaid elected instalments of income shall be paid to the elected beneficiary when and as they shall become due and payable, and, after all said remaining or unpaid elected instalments shall have been so paid to said elected beneficiary, the same yearly sum or income shall continue to be paid to said elected beneficiary during the remaining lifetime of said elected beneficiary, or (b) if the insured shall die while the elected beneficiary is living and after all the elected instalments of income shall have been paid to the insured, the same yearly sum or income shall continue to be paid to said elected beneficiary during the remaining lifetime of said elected beneficiary.

COMMUTATION BY THE INSURED.—If the insured shall have received one or more instalments than the full number of elected instalments of income under the table entitled Option C, the insured may take in one cash sum at the time when any one of the remaining unpaid elected instalments of income shall become due and payable, the commuted value of the then unpaid elected instalments of income, ascertained according to the commutation table.

COMMUTATION BY INSURED'S EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS OR ASSIGNS.—If the insured beneficiary shall die in the lifetime of the insured and if the insured shall die before all the elected instalments of income under the table entitled Option C shall have been paid to the insured, the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured may take in one cash sum the commuted value of the remaining unpaid elected instalments of income, ascertained according to the commutation table.

COMMUTATION BY ELECTED BENEFICIARY.—If the insured shall have received one or more instalments of the elected instalments of income under the table entitled Option C and if the elected beneficiary may be living, the elected beneficiary may take in one cash sum the commuted value of the remaining or unpaid elected instalments of income, ascertained according to the commutation table, unless the person entitled to designate the elected beneficiary shall have deprived the elected beneficiary of such right of commutation.

COMMUTATION BY ELECTED BENEFICIARY'S EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS OR ASSIGNS.—(a) If an elected beneficiary who has not been deprived of the right of commutation aforesaid shall die after the death of the insured without having exercised such right before all the elected instalments of income under the table entitled Option C have been paid, or (b) if an elected beneficiary who has been deprived of such right shall die after the death of the insured and before all the elected instalments of income under the table entitled Option C shall have been paid, then and in such case, the executors, administrators or assigns of the elected beneficiary may take in one cash sum the commuted value of the remaining or unpaid elected instalments of income, ascertained according to the commutation table.

COMMUTATION NOT TO DEPRIVE INSURED OR ELECTED BENEFICIARY OF RIGHT OF CONTINUOUS INCOME FOR LIFE.—Commutation of such remaining or unpaid elected instalments of income by any person entitled to such right of commutation, shall not deprive the insured or the elected beneficiary of the right to receive the yearly sum or income payable to the insured or to the elected beneficiary, as the case may be, according to the table entitled Option C, during the remaining lifetime of the survivor of the insured and the elected beneficiary, beginning upon the expiration of the term of years in which the full number of elected instalments of income would have been paid had same had not been commuted.

NULLIFICATION OF ELECTION.—If Option C shall be elected, such election shall be automatically nullified by the death of the insured prior to the maturity of the endowment, whereupon the policy beneficiary or assignee shall have the right to elect either Option A or Option B unless the insured shall have otherwise directed.

COMMUTATION TABLE.—To ascertain the commuted value of unpaid elected instalments of income under either Option A or Option B or Option C, multiply the amount of the unpaid yearly instalment in the table under the option which is in effect, by the factor given below, opposite the number of unpaid yearly instalments.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. DEDUCTION OF INDEBTEDNESS DUE TO COMPANY.—If there shall be any indebtedness due to the company on account of this policy when the proceeds thereof shall come payable under the terms thereof either at the maturity of the endowment or the decease of the insured prior thereto, such indebtedness shall be first deducted, the proceeds of the policy, and the balance remaining payable under the policy will be the sum which may be required to be paid in yearly instalments of income according to such of the applicable tables entitled Option A, Option B and Option C as may be elected.

2. INSTALMENTS, WHEN PAYABLE.—(a) The first of the elected instalments of income chosen by an election under either table entitled Option A or Option B, shall be due and payable at the maturity of the endowment if the insured shall be then living; if the insured shall die before the maturity of the endowment, then upon receipt of written proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of the policy. (b) The first of the elected instalments of income chosen by an election under the table entitled Option C, shall be due and payable at the maturity of the endowment if the insured shall be then living. (c) Such further yearly instalments of income as may be payable under any of said tables, shall be payable respectively at the expiration of successive periods of one year dating from the day when the first payment shall have become due and payable as aforesaid.

3. HALF-YEARLY, QUARTERLY OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS OF INCOME.—All instalments of income payable under the tables entitled Option A and Option B and Option C, shall be paid in proportionate equal half-yearly or quarterly or monthly parts of yearly instalments according to said respective tables, if the person entitled to receive such yearly instalments of income shall so request by writing filed with the company at its home office. The first fractional payment of income as aforesaid shall be due and payable at the time when the first yearly instalment of income would be due and payable. Subsequent fractional payments of income as aforesaid shall be due and payable at the expiration of the proper fractional parts of each year until all shall have been paid.

4. POLICY PAYABLE TO MORE THAN ONE NATURAL PERSON.—If the policy benefit or any assignee shall be more than one individual (otherwise called natural person) the time the proceeds of the policy shall become payable either at maturity of the endowment or upon the decease of the insured prior thereto, then and in such case neither Option B nor Option C may be elected and either of said options if previously elected shall be automatically nullified at the maturity of the endowment or upon the prior decease of the insured if the policy beneficiary or any assignee shall be then as above stated Option B and Option C shall be either inapplicable or nullified as aforesaid, then Option A may be elected.

5. SUBSTITUTION OF INSTALMENT INCOME AGREEMENT IN PLACE OF POLICY.—If the proceeds of the policy shall become payable under the terms thereof and either the aforesaid options shall be elected, the company reserves the right to require the policy to be surrendered and delivered for cancellation and to issue in place thereof a non-participating instalment income agreement which shall express the terms of the option elected.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is hereby declared and agreed by the undersigned, that the foregoing application and the several answers to the interrogatories therein propounded are true, and if a policy of insurance shall be issued by said company under this application, the terms and the questions and answers therein shall be deemed the basis of the contract expressed in said policy.

TEN-YEAR RENEWABLE TERM POLICY.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $131.

AGE

The Provident Life and Trust Company, of Philadelphia, in consideration of the representations made in the application for this policy, which are hereby made a part of this contract, of the payment of one hundred and thirty-one dollars, and of which is hereby acknowledged, and payment of the premium of one hundred and thirty-one dollars on or the twenty-ninth day of first month in every year hereafter until the yearly premiums shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured, does insure the life of John Doe, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia county, Pennsylvania, herein called the insured, in the amount of ten thousand dollars for the term of ten years, and upon receipt of due written proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy promises to pay at its office in the city of Philadelphia the amount of said insurance less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year, to his wife, Sarah Doe, living; otherwise to his executors, administrators or assigns, with right reserved to the insured to change the beneficiary.

For provisions as to change of beneficiary, occupation, travel, suicide, etc., incontestability, assignment, changes of contract and premium, see preceding policy.

DIVIDENDS.—The proportion of the surplus accruing upon this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually and not otherwise. At the option of the insured, dividends will be (a) payable in cash; (b) or applicable to the payment of any premium or premiums upon this policy; (c) or left to accumulate to the credit of this policy with interest at three per cent per annum, payable with the policy, or withdrawable in cash at any anniversary of this policy on demand. The insured may make election of one of the foregoing options not later than thirty-one days after any anniversary of this policy and any option so elected shall remain in effect until superseded by another of the aforesaid options. If no election is in effect, the dividend apportioned will be payable in cash as provided in option (a).

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse by non-payment of premium, the policy may be reinstated within three years from such default, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and payment of arrears of premiums with interest at six per cent per annum if the original policy shall not have been surrendered to the company and canceled.

CHANGE IN PLAN OF INSURANCE.—This policy while in force may be changed without medical examination at any time to a policy on the life or endowment plan to bear the rate of the change and the premium for the new plan to be at the attained age of the insured; or within five years, to a policy with the same date and age as the original policy, the payment of the difference in premium between the two plans for as many years as the policy had run with compound interest at six per cent per annum.

RENEWAL AT END OF TERM.—The privilege is given of continuing the insurance under this policy without medical examination for successive periods of ten years each, upon giving notice to the company on or before the expiration of each period. The premiums would be due and payable each year on the dates specified in this policy and would be increased at the beginning of each period in accordance with the advanced age of the insured as shown in the table of premium rates given below.

OPTIONAL METHODS OF SETTLEMENT.—Options A and B given under preceding contract are applicable to this form.

Prudential Insurance Company of America.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $297.60 AGE, 21

The Prudential Insurance Company of America, in consideration of the application for this policy, which is hereby made part of this contract, a copy of which application is attached hereto, and of the payment, in the manner specified, of the premium herein stated, hereby insures the life of the person hereby designated as the insured, for the amount named herein, payable as specified, subject to the privileges and provisions on the second and third pages hereof, which are hereby made part of this contract. The insured, John Doe. Amount of insurance, ten thousand dollars, payable immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of the policy, at the home office of the company, in Newark, N. J. Payable to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

PREMIUM.—Two hundred ninety-seven and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, payable on the delivery of this policy and thereafter annually at the home office of the company, or as provided under the heading "Provisions" on the second page hereof, in exchange for the company's receipt on or before the second day of January, in every year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the premature death of the insured.

In witness whereof, the said The Prudential Insurance Company of America, at its office in the city of Newark, N. J., has caused this policy to be signed by its president and vice-president, and to be duly attested, this first day of June, 1912.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

CASH LOAN OR PREMIUM LOAN.—If this policy be continued in force, the insured may borrow from the company, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable annually in advance, on the sole security of this policy, an amount up to the limit of the cash surrender value hereinafter specified after deducting therefrom all other indebtedness on account of this policy, by making written application for the loan and assigning the policy to the company as security. If the total indebtedness under this policy at any time shall become equal to the legal reserve on the said policy, the policy shall be forfeited or void, provided such indebtedness be not reduced to less than the said reserve within one month after notice to that effect shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, of the person to whom the loan was made, and of the assignee of record, at the home office of the company, if any. Failure to repay any such indebtedness or to pay interest shall not avoid the policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice to that effect shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, of the person to whom the loan was made, and of the assignee of record at the home office of the company, if any. If a loan be granted under this policy at any time other than on an anniversary of the policy, the interest then payable in advance, shall be for the period up to the next anniversary, beginning with which anniversary the interest shall be payable annually in advance.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—If any premium on this policy be not paid in cash on or before the date on which it is due or within the month of grace, the company will charge up such premium (and any subsequent premium or premiums not paid in cash) with five per cent per annum interest in advance, against the then loan value of the policy, as stated above, provided that any such loan value is sufficient and provided that written request to that effect has been made by the owner hereof at any time while there is no default in payment of any premium hereunder. Any premium or premiums so charged against the loan value of this policy, shall be considered as a loan upon the policy and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as any loan made under the terms of the special privilege, "cash loan or premium loan." Such request may be revoked at any time in writing by the said owner, provided, however, that such revocation shall not affect any loan that may have been previously made under this privilege.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of any premium under this policy except the first, a grace of one month (not less than thirty days) without interest, will be allowed, during which time the policy will remain in force.

REVIVAL OF POLICY.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of premium, it may be revived any time after the date of lapse upon written application and payment of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, together with the reinstatement of all indebtedness, provided such indebtedness be not greater in the loan value of this policy, at the time of application for such revival, and provide evidence of the insurability of the insured, satisfactory to the company, be furnished.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time while this policy is in force by written notice to the company at its home office, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries under this policy, such change to take effect only upon endorsement of the same by the company.

ty by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease; provided, however, that the insured shall have attained to majority, according to the laws of the state in which the insured resides, and that no such change of beneficiary shall be valid if the policy or any interest therein, be assigned at the time of such change.

INSTALMENT PRIVILEGE.—The amount insured under this policy is payable in one sum, if the amount payable be not less than $1,000, it may be made payable instead in equal annual instalments in any number from two to twenty-five, or may be made payable to the beneficiary, if such beneficiary be one natural person, in equal annual instalments to continue for twenty years and so long thereafter as the beneficiary shall live. The amount of such instalments shall be based upon the amount insured under this policy and shall be determined from the tables given below.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—At the time this policy becomes payable as a claim the amount insured, or any portion thereof not less than $1,000, may be left during the life of the beneficiary in trust with the company, and the company will pay thereon, during as the said amount or said portion thereof remains with the company, interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The said trust fund shall be paid on the death of the beneficiary to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary, may be withdrawn at any time with accrued interest. The trust fund privilege shall be operative if the amount payable under this policy be less than $1,000 or if the beneficiary be a corporation or a firm.

PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—This policy is based upon the payment of premiums annually in advance, but if premiums be made payable in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, future instalments of the premium for the current policy year remaining unpaid at maturity of the policy shall be considered an indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. Premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an agent of the company on or before the dates when due, in exchange for official receipts signed by the president or the secretary and countersigned by an authorized officer of the company. If any premium be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and all premiums forfeited to the company, except as herein provided.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be satisfied in any payment or payments or in any settlement under this policy.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No condition, provision or privilege of this policy can be waived or modified in any case except by an endorsement hereon signed by the president, one of second page hereof, in exchange for the company's receipt on or before the first day of July in every year during the continuance of this policy.

For special privileges, provisions as to payment of premiums, modifications, &c., suicide, incontestability, misstatement of age, entire contract contained in this policy and non-forfeiture privileges relative to policy non-forfeitable after first year's premium has been paid, and cash surrender value, see twenty payment life policy.

OPTION OF CONVERSION.—If this policy be legally surrendered to the company at any time within seven years from its date, provided it be then in force, the company will, on written application by the insured, issue a new policy on any of its other regular policy forms in use at the time of issue of this policy, exclusive of term and continuous payment policies, in the same amount (commuted value) and bearing the same date as this policy, provided the said insured shall pay the company, in consideration of such change, the difference between the premiums actually paid on this policy and those which would have been payable on the proposed new policy up to the time of such change, with compound interest on such difference at five per cent per annum, reckoned from the date at which the premiums on this policy severally became due to the date at which the above application is made, together with the annual premium (or the first instalment thereof) for the ensuing year. No medical examination shall be required for such new policy. The privilege of conversion as specified above shall not be available if the insured was more than forty-five years of age at the time of the issuance of this policy.

COMMUTED VALUE.—The commuted value of the instalments payable hereunder is seventeen hundred and fifty-four dollars ($1754). If there be no beneficiary, original or substituted, when the policy becomes a claim, the company will pay the commuted value to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, in one sum, in lieu of the instalments. If the beneficiary, original or substituted, shall survive the insured but die before receiving all the instalments payable under this policy, and if there be no contingent beneficiary at that time, the unpaid instalments will be commuted at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, compound interest, and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of such beneficiary.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted in any payment or payments or in any settlement under this policy. If this policy become a claim by death and there shall be any indebtedness to the company on account of the policy at the time of such claim, and if such indebtedness be in excess of the instalment then payable and be not immediately paid to the company, the amount of each monthly instalment payable during the period of twenty years, as specified, shall be reduced by the proportion that the total indebtedness bears to the commuted value of the instalments specified in the clause above, headed "commuted value," provided that if the amount of each of such instalments would be less than ten dollars, the insurance shall not be paid in instalments but the total indebtedness shall be deducted from the commuted value of the instalments specified in the clause headed "commuted value," and the balance, if any, shall be paid in one sum, except that the provision for commutation of the instalments, if each reduced instalment be less than ten dollars, shall not apply when the indebtedness under the policy is on account of any future instalments of the premium for the current policy year remaining unpaid at the maturity of the policy.

TRUST CLAUSE.—It is specially agreed that the company will not commute any of the instalments payable hereunder after the death of the insured without the previous written consent of the insured, or except as provided herein.

ASSIGNMENTS.—If this policy shall be assigned, the assignment must be in writing, and the company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of such assignment unless the original or a duplicate thereof is filed at the home office of the company. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment. Any instalment or instalments payable hereunder shall be unassignable after this policy shall become a claim.

PAID-UP LIFE POLICY.—If this policy, after being in force three full years, shall lapse or become forfeited for the non-payment of any premium on the date when due, as specified on the first page hereof, and if the policy be not surrendered for its cash value, the company will issue a non-participating paid-up life policy, payable in one sum, as specified in the following table, upon the legal surrender of this policy within three months after the date to which premiums have been duly paid provided, however, that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy the amount of such paid-up life policy will be reduced by the proportion that the total indebtedness bears to the cash surrender value of this policy.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If this policy, having lapsed or become forfeited as specified in the clause, "paid-up life policy," above, be not surrendered for its cash value or for a paid-up life policy, the company will write in lieu of this policy, without any action on the part of the insured, a non-participating paid-up term policy for the full series of monthly instalments insured by this policy, and payable in the same manner, such paid-up term policy to be dated on the day to which premiums have been duly paid, and to continue in force for the term indicated by the following table, provided, however, that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy the amount of each monthly instalment payable shall be reduced by the proportion that the total indebtedness bears to the commuted value of the instalments specified in the clause headed "commuted value," provided that if the amount of each of such instalments would be less than ten dollars, the insurance shall not be payable in instalments but the total indebtedness shall be deducted from the commuted value of the instalments specified in the clause headed "commuted value," and the balance, if any, shall be payable in one sum, and the term for which such paid-up term policy shall run shall be changed to that term for which the cash surrender value of this policy herein specified, after deducting such indebtedness, will carry the modified amount at single premium term rates according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest. The paid-up term policy will be delivered on the legal surrender of this policy.

CASH SURRENDER VALUES UNDER PAID-UP LIFE AND PAID-UP TERM POLICIES.—If this policy shall lapse, as above, and a paid-up life policy or a paid-up term policy be issued in lieu thereof, such paid-up life or such paid-up term policy may be surrendered at any time for its full reserve value at the time of such surrender, payable in one sum.

DISABILITY WAIVER OF PREMIUMS.—In connection with 20-Payment Life—Age 35, $10,000.

Cessation of premium payments in event of permanent disability before attaining sixty years of age.

In consideration of the fact that the premium payable in accordance with the terms of this policy includes an extra annual premium of one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) for disability insurance it is specially agreed that if the insured, while less than sixty years of age, and after the first premium has been paid to the company on account of this policy, shall furnish due proof to the company, while the policy is in full force and effect, that he, at any time after the date hereof, from any cause whatsoever shall have become permanently disabled or physically or mentally incapacitated to such an extent that he by reason of such disability or incapacity is rendered wholly and permanently unable to engage in any occupation or perform any work for any kind of compensation of financial value, the company upon receipt of such proof will by endorsement hereon waive the payment of any premium or premiums that may become payable thereafter under this policy. Provided however that if the insured at any time after such waiver shall recover his physical or mental ability or capacity for work as above defined, any premium or premiums falling due thereafter shall be paid by the insured in accordance with the terms of the policy.

If payment of premiums shall be waived, as above, the policy shall in all respects be considered as if payment of the premiums actually waived had been made to the company, and, accordingly, the loan and surrender values tabulated in the policy shall in no way be modified by such waiver and no deduction on account of such waiver shall be made in any payment under the policy.

The insured upon demand by the company at any time during the period of such waiver of premiums shall furnish due proof that he actually continues in a state of disability, as above defined, and in case of failure so to do the insured shall be deemed to have recovered from such state of disability.

It is specially agreed that permanent loss of the sight of both eyes, or loss by severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one hand and one foot, shall be considered disability or incapacity within the meaning of this provision.

This endorsement may be canceled upon any anniversary of the policy upon written request to the company made by the insured, whereupon the above specified extra premium shall be no longer payable and the entire premium payable under this policy shall be reduced to two hundred ninety seven dollars and sixty cents ($297.60), annually, but in no event shall payment of said extra premium be required after the insured shall have attained sixty years of age.

Public Savings Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $300. AGE, 35.

Public Savings Insurance Company of America hereby agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in Indianapolis, Ind., as follows: To (the beneficiary) Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured and of the interest of the claimant during the continuance of this contract. (The insured) John Doe, of Indianapolis, county of Marion, State of Indiana.

PREMIUMS ON THIS POLICY WILL BE PAID BY THE COMPANY IF THE INSURED IS PERMANENTLY DISABLED.—After one full annual payment shall have been made, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty, shall furnish satisfactory proof that he has been wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupation, the company, by an endorsement in writing upon this contract, will agree to pay for the insured the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In any such case, premiums so paid shall not be a lien on this contract, and the cash, loan and other values of this contract in the schedule as given hereinafter, shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured.

In the event of total and permanent disability, as above, the insured may elect, in lieu of the option above mentioned, to receive, one year from the receipt of satisfactory proofs of such total and permanent disability, one-twentieth of the face of this contract in cash, and the further payment of a like amount upon each succeeding anniversary, until twenty annual installments shall have been paid. Should the insured die during the period mentioned, the remainder of the installments shall be payable in like manner to the beneficiary named herein. If, however, the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligation to pay the premiums, or the remainder of the annual installments of the face of this contract, shall cease, and the insured shall resume the payment of premiums on the first premium due date following such recovery.

GUARANTEED BENEFITS OF THIS CONTRACT.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which this contract shall remain in force, will be allowed in the payment of all premiums except the first.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, which with the application therefor, constitutes the entire contract between the parties hereto, shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue for the amount due, provided premiums have been duly paid, and there has been no violation of provisions relating to military and naval service in time of war. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be that which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—Should the insured fail to pay the third or any subsequent premium hereon without having exercised any of the several options set forth below, the company will, without any action on the part of the insured, grant the third option (extended insurance) as set forth below.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated at any time upon application of the insured, accompanied by evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, the approval of the president, and the payment of all arrears due, with interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Provided this policy is not assigned, the insured may, at any time, and from time to time during its continuance, change the beneficiary, to take effect only when such change and the written consent of the company thereto are endorsed upon the policy at the Home Office of the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

LOANS.—After the payment of three full years' premiums, the company will, upon request, loan an amount which, with one year's interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent. (6%), will not exceed the surrender value, as shown in the table below; provided (1) that this policy be duly assigned to the company as collateral security for such loan; (2) that the amount of loan available shall include any previous loan or other unpaid indebtedness; (3) that the premiums must be fully paid to the end of the current policy year; (4) failure to repay such loan or interest thereon shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such default, nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignees, if any.

YEARLY SURRENDER OPTIONS.—All premiums hereon having been fully paid in cash, and this policy being free from indebtedness, the insured, upon surrender and cancellation thereof within thirty days after the third or any subsequent anniversary of its date of issue, will be entitled to one of the following options, the respective values and extensions thereof being shown in the table of values given below. An extended insurance value is available at the end of the second year, as shown in the table. The cash values shown herein are at least equal to the amount available for the purchase of extended insurance. Provided, that in any settlement hereunder any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall first be deducted from the net value of the option selected, and the balance paid in cash, or applied as a net single premium upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent. interest, to purchase paid-up or extended insurance. First option, cash. Second option, paid-up insurance. Third option, extended insurance.

Public Savings Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $300. AGE, 35.

Public Savings Insurance Company of America hereby agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in Indianapolis, Ind., as follows: To (the beneficiary) Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured and of the interest of the claimant during the continuance of this contract. (The insured) John Doe, of Indianapolis, county of Marion, State of Indiana.

PREMIUMS ON THIS POLICY WILL BE PAID BY THE COMPANY IF THE INSURED IS PERMANENTLY DISABLED.—After one full annual payment shall have been made, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty, shall furnish satisfactory proof that he has been wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupation, the company, by an endorsement in writing upon this contract, will agree to pay for the insured the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In any such case, premiums so paid shall not be a lien on this contract, and the cash, loan and other values of this contract in the schedule as given hereinafter, shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured.

In the event of total and permanent disability, as above, the insured may elect, in lieu of the option above mentioned, to receive, one year from the receipt of satisfactory proofs of such total and permanent disability, one-twentieth of the face of this contract in cash, and the further payment of a like amount upon each succeeding anniversary, until twenty annual installments shall have been paid. Should the insured die during the period mentioned, the remainder of the installments shall be payable in like manner to the beneficiary named herein. If, however, the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligation to pay the premiums, or the remainder of the annual installments of the face of this contract, shall cease, and the insured shall resume the payment of premiums on the first premium due date following such recovery.

GUARANTEED BENEFITS OF THIS CONTRACT.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which this contract shall remain in force, will be allowed in the payment of all premiums except the first.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, which with the application therefor, constitutes the entire contract between the parties hereto, shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue for the amount due, provided premiums have been duly paid, and there has been no violation of provisions relating to military and naval service in time of war. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be that which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—Should the insured fail to pay the third or any subsequent premium hereon without having exercised any of the several options set forth below, the company will, without any action on the part of the insured, grant the third option (extended insurance) as set forth below.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated at any time upon application of the insured, accompanied by evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, the approval of the president, and the payment of all arrears due, with interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Provided this policy is not assigned, the insured may, at any time, and from time to time during its continuance, change the beneficiary, to take effect only when such change and the written consent of the company thereto are endorsed upon the policy at the Home Office of the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

LOANS.—After the payment of three full years' premiums, the company will, upon request, loan an amount which, with one year's interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent. (6%), will not exceed the surrender value, as shown in the table below; provided (1) that this policy be duly assigned to the company as collateral security for such loan; (2) that the amount of loan available shall include any previous loan or other unpaid indebtedness; (3) that the premiums must be fully paid to the end of the current policy year; (4) failure to repay such loan or interest thereon shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such default, nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignees, if any.

YEARLY SURRENDER OPTIONS.—All premiums hereon having been fully paid in cash, and this policy being free from indebtedness, the insured, upon surrender and cancellation thereof within thirty days after the third or any subsequent anniversary of its date of issue, will be entitled to one of the following options, the respective values and extensions thereof being shown in the table of values given below. An extended insurance value is available at the end of the second year, as shown in the table. The cash values shown herein are at least equal to the amount available for the purchase of extended insurance. Provided, that in any settlement hereunder any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall first be deducted from the net value of the option selected, and the balance paid in cash, or applied as a net single premium upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent. interest, to purchase paid-up or extended insurance. First option, cash. Second option, paid-up insurance. Third option, extended insurance.

The election of the second or third option will be evidenced by the issuance of a new policy in lieu of this policy.

This policy is based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent. interest, and the reserve is computed upon that basis. Values for years subsequent to the twentieth shall be equal or equivalent to the full reserve. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance purchased by the whole or part premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—The insured, by written request on the company's form, may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim, provided the policy is in force and has not been assigned, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page hereof, to payment by annual installments, as provided in the following table: For each $1,000 payable in one sum, $1,069.95 will be paid in five installments of $211.99 each, or $1,138.20 will be paid in ten installments of $113.82 each, or $1,219.95 will be paid in fifteen installments of $81.33 each, or $1,305.20 will be paid in twenty installments of $65.26 each, or $1,394.00 will be paid in twenty-five installments of $55.76 each, or any of the above annual installments will be paid in monthly installments if desired.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. Premiums are due and payable annually in advance, but may be paid semi-annually quarterly, at the Home Office of the company, or may be paid to an agent of the company upon delivery of receipts signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agent. If any premium, cash loan or interest thereon be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and all premiums forfeited to the company except as herein provided.

2. Due proofs of the death of the insured, and of the interests of the claimant, must be furnished to the company at its Home Office not later than three years after the death of the insured, on the company's blanks furnished for that purpose, which proofs shall apprise satisfactory statements establishing the claim.

3. In case of death from service in war without permission from the company, the reserve for this policy at the time of such death only will be paid.

4. Any indebtedness to the company, including any balance of premium for the current year remaining unpaid, will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or benefit thereunder.

5. This policy may be assigned upon written approval of the president or secretary, and the company will not resume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

6. Only the president, vice-president, secretary or medical director has power, on behalf of the company, to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend time of paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any agent or person other than the above.

7. All statements made by the insured in the application hereof, shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

8. Suicide, while sane or insane, or death as the result of the violation of a law, within year from the date of this policy, are risks not assumed by the company, but in such case the company will pay the amount of the premium actually paid hereon.

This agreement is made in consideration of the written and attested application for this policy, a copy of which is heretofore attached and made a part of this contract, and the payment of one hundred dollars in advance, in exchange for the company's receipt on the delivery of this policy, constituting payment for the period terminating on the first day of April, 1914, and of the payment of a like sum, the annual premium, to the company at its home office, in the city of Indianapolis, on the first day of April in every year thereafter until twenty full annual premiums shall have been paid.

AGREEMENT ON APPLICATION.

I hereby declare that I am in good health and of sober and temperate habits, and that the statements and answers to the above questions are complete and true, and that foregoing, together with this declaration, shall constitute the application, and become a part of the contract for insurance hereby applied for. And it is agreed that the policy herein applied for shall be accepted subject to the privileges and provisions therein contained, and said policy shall not take effect until the same shall be issued and delivered by said company and the first premium paid thereon in full, while my health is in the same condition as described in this application.

ants are not authorized to modify this policy or to extend the time for paying a premium whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this ninth day of February, 1909.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree, for myself and for any person who may have or claim any interest in any contract which may be issued upon this application, as follows: 1. That no statements or information made or given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application or by any other person shall be binding upon the company or shall in any manner affect its liability unless reduced to writing and presented to and approved by the officers of the company at its home office. 2. That every statement and answer hereinabove contained shall be true and correct. 3. That no contract issued hereon shall take effect until the first premium shall have been fully paid while I am in good health.

semi-annually or quarterly in advance, at the option of the insured, at the company's rates as shown on the filing page of this policy. No renewal premium shall be considered paid except in exchange for the company's receipt, bearing the printed or original signature of the president, secretary or assistant secretary and countersigned by the one to whom payment is made.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, upon discovery of the true age the difference in premiums paid and the premiums for the correct age, with interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, shall be paid on demand to the company or to the insured, as the case may be, and if not so paid, shall be deducted from, or added to, any sum payable under the policy.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—Upon request of the insured, together with the assignee if any, made prior to default in premium payment, the premium or premiums thereafter falling due during the time any such request shall remain unrevoked, and not paid when or before due, will be charged as a premium loan with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, provided the then cash value (as stated in the table of values given in this policy) shall be sufficient to cover such loan. Any premium loan may be paid at any time.

GRACE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—A grace of thirty days (during which time the policy will remain in force) will be allowed for the payment of any premium after the first, but for any reckoning herein named, the time when a premium becomes due shall be the day herein stipulated for such payment, without grace. If death occurs during the said thirty days of grace, the unpaid premium shall be deducted from the amount of the claim.

REINSTATEMENT.—Within five years after default in payment of premium, if this policy has not been surrendered, it may be reinstated, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and by payment of arrears of premiums, with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, and by payment or reinstatement of whatever indebtedness to the company existed hereon at the date of default, with interest at the same rate from that date.

DIVIDENDS.—After one full annual premium has been paid, this policy, while in force (except as extended term insurance), shall share in such annual distribution of surplus as the company may make, according to the methods and rules adopted by the board of directors. Such dividends shall be due and payable only upon payment of the succeeding year's premium, and at the option of the insured may be used under one of the following methods: (First) May be used in the reduction of the succeeding year's premium. (Second) May be left with the company to purchase non-forfeitable paid-up participating additions to the face of the policy, payable with the policy, without examination; provided, however, that this method is selected when the first dividend is payable. These paid-up additions may be surrendered for their cash value (full reserve) at any time. (Third) May be left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy and withdrawable at any anniversary thereof, with interest at the rate of not less than three and one-half per cent per annum, for the purpose of reducing the total number of premiums required to mature the policy as a paid-up participating policy, payable at death.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—This policy shall have no surrender value until two full annual premiums have been paid, but in case of default in payment of any subsequent premium, the value of this policy, at the end of each policy year, in cash or paid-up insurance, shall be as shown in table "A" of values on the following page for the year and amount there designated in figures; except if any indebtedness exist at the time of such default, the values hereof will be reduced in the proportion which such indebtedness bears to the tabular values given herein. To secure either of these options, the insured must notify the company in writing and surrender this policy and all valid claims hereunder within ninety days from the date the last premium fell due. If the policy is not surrendered as above, and provided the insured has not selected the automatic premium loan privilege, the insurance will be automatically extended from the date of default in premium payment (unless the premium be paid within the thirty days of grace), without action on the part of the insured, and without participation in surplus, for the time stated in table "A" of values on this page; provided, that any existing indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, if not paid, will reduce the amount of extended insurance in the ratio of such indebtedness to the reserve on this policy. Such extended insurance shall have a cash surrender value equal to the reserve thereon at the time of surrender.

figures given in Table "A" show the minimum values guaranteed under this policy, for the years stated, upon the assumption that all premiums have been fully paid, and that there is no indebtedness on the policy. These values will be increased by existing dividend additions.

ANS.—After two full years' premiums have been paid hereon before default in the payment of premium, and before the policy becomes a claim, the company will loan upon the sole security of this policy, the whole, or, at the option of the borrower, any part of the loan value shown by Table "A" at the end of the current policy year, less all indebtedness to the company herein, and any unpaid portion of the premium and interest on the loan for the remainder of the current policy year, provided the policy is returned to the company together with a loan agreement bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable annually in advance. Said loan agreement to be on a blank furnished by the company and to be signed by the insured alone, provided the interest of the insured is not then assigned. Interest on any indebtedness not paid when due shall be charged annually in advance as an indebtedness on the policy. Failure to pay any indebtedness or interest due thereon will avoid the policy when the total indebtedness to the company equals or exceeds the loan value at the time of such failure, but not before that time, nor until thirty days after notice is given, if the same has been mailed by the company to the insured at his last known address.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until the original or a certified copy thereof be filed with the company at its home office. Any assignment made shall be subject to any indebtedness to the company hereon, and satisfactory proof of assignee's interest must be furnished on making claim. The company assumes no liability as to the validity of any assignment. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy or be used in defense to a claim under unless it is contained in the written application for this policy, a copy of which is attached hereto. For the purposes of policy valuations and calculations of loan, under, paid-up and extended values, the reserve on this policy shall be computed by the first year preliminary term method, on the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. All agreements made by the company shall be signed by one of its executive officers. No agent or other person not an executive officer can alter or waive any of the conditions of this policy or make any agreement binding upon the company. The insured is hereby notified, that by virtue of this policy a member of The Register Life Insurance Company of Iowa, and that the annual meeting of said company is holden at its home office in the city of Davenport, Ia., on the third Tuesday in January in each year at two o'clock p. m.

PRIVILEGE.—If this policy be not assigned, the insured, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, by written notice to the company at its home office, may elect to have the net sum payable under the policy paid as follows in lieu of in a single sum: (1) To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy at its maturity retained by the company until the death of the beneficiary, the company in the meantime to pay the beneficiary interest on the amount so retained at the rate of three per cent per annum, the interest payment to be made one year after the maturity of this policy, and the last interest payment to be made a pro rata one for the expired fraction of the year in which the beneficiary dies. At any interest date the beneficiary may withdraw the amount retained by the company, in which case the interest payments will cease. (2) To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy at its maturity in a specified number (not exceeding thirty) of equal annual instalments, as shown by the accompanying table, the first instalment being payable immediately. (3) To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy at its maturity in equal annual instalments continuing during the lifetime of the beneficiary, as shown by the accompanying table, the first instalment being payable immediately.

When any of the instalments payable under privilege No. 2, or of the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 3, shall fall due, the company if requested will pay the then present or commuted value of such instalments computed at three per cent interest compounded annually, as shown by the accompanying table. The commutation of a part or the whole of the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 3 will not affect the amounts payable thereunder after the term during which the instalments certain would have been payable. The right of withdrawal under privilege No. 1, or of commutation under privileges No. 2 and 3, will be withheld from the beneficiary if the insured shall so direct. If settlement of this policy be made in accordance with privilege No. 1, or No. 2, or No. 3, the stipulated payments under privilege No. 1 or No. 2, or the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 3, will be increased by such annual dividends as may be apportioned by the board of directors, but such dividends will be payable only in cash.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby apply to The Register Life Insurance Company of Iowa for a contract of insurance upon my life, and I do hereby declare that the statements and answers herein made, (including those made to the medical examiner) and signed by me, are complete and true to the best of my knowledge and belief; and I agree that this application, together with the medical examination and policy hereby applied for, shall constitute the entire contract between me and the company; I also agree that the contract shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Iowa.

Reliable Life Assurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $303.50. AGE

Reliable Life Assurance Company of Indianapolis, Ind., by agrees, while this policy is in force, to pay at its office, upon the receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, Indianapolis, County of Marion, State of Indiana, the sum of ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness on account of this policy to Mary Doe, his wife, if living, otherwise to the assurers, executors, administrators or assigns, or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the assured, subject to the conditions and privileges on the following pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

This assurance is granted for the term of one (1) year from the date hereof in consideration of the agreements and representations in the application hereof, a copy of which is heretofore attached and made a part hereof, and of the payment, in advance, of three hundred three and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars, and will be renewed for the lifetime of the assured, upon the payment of a like amount on or before the twelfth day of October, in each succeeding year until twenty full annual premiums have been paid, or until the prior death of the assured.

The value of this policy is secured by the deposit, in the office of the Auditor of the State of Indiana, of first mortgages on real estate, bonds or other statutory security as required by the compulsory legal reserve deposit law of the State of Indiana.

In witness whereof, The Reliable Life Assurance Company, by its proper officers, has issued, executed and signed this policy at Indianapolis, Ind., on the twelfth day of October, 1912.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

1. PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, Indianapolis, Ind. They may, however, be paid elsewhere to an authorized agent or collector, but only in exchange for a receipt duly signed by the president or secretary of the company and countersigned by the agent or collector to whom the payment is made. Semi-annual or quarterly premiums in advance are acceptable on this policy, but any amount necessary to complete the full year's premium will be deducted in case of any settlement.

2. GRACE.—A grace of thirty (30) days will be allowed in payment of all premiums hereon, after the first year, subject to an interest charge at the rate of six (6%) per annum for the time deferred, during which period said policy remains in full force and effect.

3. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The beneficiary or beneficiaries under this policy may be changed at any time, subject to assignment and with the consent of the company by filing with the company a written request accompanied by the policy, and such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company.

4. CHANGE OF POLICY.—This policy may, at any time while in force, be surrendered in exchange for any policy issued by the company at the time of said surrender, provided the same shall not be for a policy of lower premium rate, subject to the following conditions: (First) That written application, accompanied by this policy properly signed and surrendered, be made to the company. (Second) That all reserve accumulations to the credit of this policy at the time of said surrender shall be credited to the policy issued in exchange for this policy.

5. ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy will be void unless assented to in writing by the company, and when assented to subject to insurable interest and not by the interest.

6. INCONTTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one (1) year from date, provided the payment of premiums is duly made, except that military and naval service in time of war without the written consent of the company are risks not assumed by the company; but the cash value hereon will be due and payable in case of death while in such service. If the age of the assured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

7. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated, at any time within five (5) years succeeding default in the payment of any premium, or interest, upon written application therefor and evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the assured and the payment of all premium arrears, with interest at the rate of five (5) per cent per annum.

8. TOTAL DISABILITY.—After one (1) year, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium due under this policy, and prior to the attaining of the age of sixty (60), upon satisfactory proof that the assured has become wholly and permanently disabled, by bodily injuries or disease, and will thereby for life be prevented from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will agree to pay for the assured ams which shall thereafter become due and payable during the continuance of disability, and such agreement will be endorsed in writing upon this contract. The company shall have the right to examine the assured hereunder at least once each year, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the assured is at such time totally and permanently disabled; and if the assured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's liability to make further premium payments on behalf of the assured shall cease, and the assured shall resume the payment of premiums, in accordance with this contract, on and from the date on which the next premium falls due following such recovery. The payment of premiums by the company under this contract shall not be a lien on this contract, and shall in no manner affect the value of the contract in the table of guaranteed values on the second page thereof. If the assured hereunder shall have attained the age of sixty (60) years, and shall furnish satisfactory evidence of total and permanent disability, and this policy is then in force, the company will, by a written agreement, allow the subsequent premiums to accumulate at interest as an indebtedness on this contract; and in such case the values in the table of guaranteed values shall be increased in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the assured.

TRUST INCOME.—The assured under this policy, may have the proceeds as a death benefit paid in annual instalments, as specified in table below, (which table shall apply to each $1000 of the principal amount of this policy,) upon written application indicating the number of instalments elected: Provided, this policy is not then in force.

ILLUSTRATION.—If payment is to be made in fifteen instalments the amount of each instalment will be $81 for each $1000 of assurance.

LOANS.—Provided three (3) full years' premiums have been paid on this policy, the company will loan, on the execution of the proper assignment of this policy, and on the security thereof, a sum equal to, or at the option of the assured, less than the amount stated in the table of options to be loaned at the end of the current policy year, subject to the following conditions: (First) That the premiums on this policy be paid for the current policy year. (Second) That any loan made hereon shall bear 4% per cent interest paid in advance for the current policy year, and that any loan hereon, together with all the existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy, shall be deducted from said loan, shall not exceed the amount specified as the value in the table of values. (Third) That failure to repay any loan, or to pay it when due, shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value hereunder at the time of such failure, nor until thirty (30) days after notice shall have been mailed to the last known address of the insured, and to the assignee, if any, if such assignee has notified the company of said assignee's address. In the event of such failure, this policy, at the expiration of thirty days after said notice, shall become null and void. (Fourth) That in any settlement on this policy all loans made on its account must be paid.

TERMINATION AND SURRENDER.—After premiums have been paid for not less than three (3) years the owner of this policy will be entitled, on default of premium payment on this policy and the legal surrender of the same within one month, to one of the values in the table of values at the date of such default, which values shall be equal to the reserve on this policy less not to exceed two and one-half (2½%) per cent of the unearned premium. Should the owner hereof elect under the extended assurance, or paid-up provisions, the company will issue an extended assurance or paid-up policy as shown in the table of values. In case there be any indebtedness against this policy it shall be deducted from the cash value hereunder, and the remainder, at the option of the owner hereof, paid in cash or applied to purchase extended term assurance or paid-up assurance, as determined by the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half (3½%) per cent interest and said indebtedness shall reduce the amount of extended assurance in the ratio of such indebtedness to the net value of such extended assurance. Should no choice be made within one (1) month after the non-payment of Reliance Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $362.10. AGE, 35.

Reliance Life Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., promises to pay upon receipt at the home office of the company in Pittsburgh of due proof of the death of Richard H. Roe, of Pittsburgh, county of Allegheny, State of Pennsylvania, herein called the insured, if the death of the insured occurs within one year from the date hereof or subsequently if this contract be renewed and be in full force, to Mary C. Roe, wife, beneficiary with right of revocation, the sum of ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year.

All insurance provided by this policy is based upon the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part of this contract, and the payment of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-two dollars and ten cents on the sixth day of January, 1912, as the premium for one year's insurance, the payment of the first annual premium being hereby acknowledged; and this policy will be renewed as a limited payment life policy upon the further payment of a like amount on or before the sixth day of January in each and every year hereafter until twenty full years' premiums, including the first, shall have been paid, after which no further premiums will be required. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance. The privileges, conditions and provisions on the succeeding pages of this policy are made a part of this contract as fully as if stated over the signature hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this sixth day of January in the year 1912.

PRIVILEGES, CONDITIONS AND PROVISIONS.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured, subject to any existing assignment of this policy, may designate a new beneficiary by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured and the insured shall not have designated a new beneficiary, the interest of such beneficiary shall be payable to the insured, his executors, administrators or assigns.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at said home office, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary of the company and countersigned by said agent. A grace of one month, or thirty-one days, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be granted in the payment of every premium after the first, during which period the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the days of grace, the overdue premium will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder. Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or installment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or installment thereon is payable.

SELF DESTRUCTION.—Self destruction during the first policy year, whether the insured be sane or insane, is a risk not assumed by the company, but in such case the company will return, in full, all premiums actually received.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy contains no restrictions upon the insured in respect to occupation, residence or travel from date of issue. The policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premiums. All statements made by the insured in said application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application hereof, a copy of which is hereto attached. If the age of the insured has been mis-stated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the divisible surplus on the participating business, and beginning at the end of the first policy year, provided the second year's premium is paid in cash, dividends shall be declared annually during its continuance. The dividends shall be available to the insured or assigns under one of the following options: (1st) Drawn in cash; or, (2nd) left with the company, in which case compound interest at a rate of not less than three and one-half per cent per annum will be allowed thereon; or, (3rd) applied towards the payment of any premium or premiums; or, (4th) applied to purchase paid-up additions to the policy. Such paid-up additions may be surrendered for cash at any time, and the cash value thereof shall not be less than the original cash dividends. If no option has been made, the dividends shall be applied under the fourth option.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time, while this policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not greater than five per cent per annum, which interest if not paid annually shall be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than, the reserve at the end of the current policy year on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto. The company, however, will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company, on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure and until one month after notice has been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and the assignee, if any. No condition other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such advance.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three years, the owner, within one month after any default, may elect (a) to accept the cash value of this policy in cash, or (b) to have the insurance continued in force from date of default, without future participation and without the right to loans, for its face amount, including any outstanding dividend additions, less any indebtedness to the company thereon, or (c) to purchase non-participating paid-up insurance, payable at the same rate and on the same conditions as this policy. The cash value will be the reserve at date of default on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy. The term for which the insurance shall be continued or the amount of the paid-up policy will be such as the cash value shall purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. If the owner shall not, within one month from default, surrender this policy to the company at its home office for a cash surrender value or for paid-up insurance as provided in options (a) and (c), the insurance will be continued as provided in option (b).

The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the above provisions and upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy, and that there are no outstanding dividend additions:

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance. All values for years subsequent to the twentieth will be equal to or equivalent to the entire reserve of the policy. Figures for later years will be furnished upon request.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company, unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

REINSTATEMENT.—If default be made in premium payments and the policy has not been surrendered to the company and canceled, it may be reinstated at any time within three years, provided the insured shall furnish evidence of good health satisfactory to the company, and pay all over due premiums to date of reinstatement, with interest thereon at five per cent per annum.

OPTIONS AT MATURITY.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest thereon at three and one-half per cent per annum, payable annually, to the payee under this policy at the end of each year during the life of the payee, and by the payment upon the death of the payee of the said net sum and accrued interest to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee, unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum. Instalments payable under options (2) or (3) which shall have been paid prior to the death of the payee, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in paid notice, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the payee. If the insured shall not have directed otherwise the beneficiary may, after the death of the insured by like written notice, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, select one of the above options. Unless otherwise specified by the insured the payee may on any interest date receive the amount yet due under option (1), and may at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option (2) in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under (3) except after the death of the payee occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY—If the insured has not attained the age of 51 years after one full annual premium has been paid and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, this policy will become fully paid-up, requiring no further payment of premiums by the insured, provided evidence, satisfactory to the company, shall be furnished by the insured that he has become totally and permanently disabled for life by bodily injury or disease, and is thereby prevented from performing any every kind of duty pertaining to his occupation, or any other occupation or gainful pursuit. On receipt of such evidence the company will endorse the proper provision hereon. In such event the cash, loan, and surrender value shall increase from year to year, and this policy shall participate in any distribution of surplus in its class, in manner as if the premiums had been regularly and duly paid by the insured. During the period of total and permanent disability, and at any time one year after the premium anniversary date first following the date of such disability, the company will, at request of the insured and beneficiary or assignee, if any, pay a monthly income amounting to 1% of the face value of the policy, if there be no existing indebtedness, or if there be such indebtedness, 1% of the face value of the policy less such indebtedness; and payments to continue until the total amount of payments made shall equal the face value of the policy, less all indebtedness, if any, at which time the company's liability under contract shall cease. In the event of the death of the insured before the full amount of this policy has been paid to the insured, beneficiary or assignee, the company will pay the remaining amount due under this contract upon due proof of death. The cash, loan, and surrender values will bear the same proportion to the full cash, loan and surrender values stated in table, on page 2, as the remaining amount of insurance under this contract bears to the original amount of insurance. If however, the insured shall recover, so as to be able to engage in any occupation for wages or profit during the premium payment period or before the full amount of the policy is paid, he shall then be required to pay premiums becoming due under this contract after the date of recovery and the liability of the company will be limited to the face of the policy less all payments made to insured and less all indebtedness thereunder.

The annual premium for this clause is five dollars and is included in the whole premium charged for this policy, and this clause may be canceled at any time by the insured and thereafter the disability insurance shall cease and the premium on this policy shall be by the amount named herein, provided the policy be returned to the company for endorsement.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare and agree, that all statements and answers written in this application marked Part I, and all those that I make to the company's medical examiner, marked Part II, are true, full and complete, and are offered to the company as a consideration for the contract of insurance, which I hereby agree to accept, and which shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been actually paid, while I am in good health, and the policy shall have been signed by the duly authorized officers of the company and issued. I also agree that in any distribution of surplus, or apportionment of profits, the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for such distribution or apportionment and its determination of the amount equitable belonging to any policy which may be issued under this application, shall be and are hereby ratified and accepted by all parties having or claiming any interest thereunder.

ACCIDENT POLICY; ANNUAL PREMIUM, $15.

Reliance Life Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., in consideration of fifteen dollars ($15) premium, hereby insures under classification number one, Richard H. Roe of Pittsburgh, Pa., occupation manager, office duties and traveling only, herein called the insured, for twelve months, beginning at noon, standard time at the place where the insured resides, on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1914, and ending on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1915, subject to the provisions and conditions and limits herein, against loss resulting, independently of any and all other causes directly from bodily injury effected solely through external, violent and accidental means, herein called such injury, as follows.

SECTION I. LOSS OF LIFE INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall from the date of accident, render the insured continuously unable to transact each and every part of his business duties, and shall, during the period of such disability and within one hundred and four weeks (or within ninety days irrespective of such disability) result in loss of life, the company will pay to the beneficiary named herein the sum of five thousand dollars, ($5000). Indemnity for loss of life shall be payable to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns herein called the beneficiary. Payment of indemnity under this section shall be in lieu of all other indemnity and shall immediately terminate this policy.

SECTION II. TOTAL LOSS OF TIME INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall not result in loss of life, but shall, from the date of accident, render the insured continuously unable to transact each and every part of his business duties, the company will pay for the period of such disability and such total loss of time, not to exceed one hundred and four consecutive weeks, an indemnity per week of twenty-five dollars ($25).

PARTIAL LOSS OF TIME INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall not result in loss of life, but shall, from the date of accident, or immediately following a period of total loss of time, as above defined, partially disable the insured and prevent him from attending to one or more of the important daily duties pertaining to his occupation, the company will pay for the period of such disability and such partial loss of time, not to exceed twenty-six consecutive weeks, an indemnity per week of one-half of the weekly indemnity specified in this section for total loss of time. Payment shall not be made for more than one hundred and four weeks total disability and partial disability combined.

SECTION III. INDEMNITY FOR FREEZING, HYDROPHOBIA, ASPHYXIATION, BLOOD-POISONING.—Freezing, hydrophobia or asphyxiation suffered through accidental means, or blood-poisoning resulting directly from an accidental bodily injury, shall be deemed a bodily injury within the meaning of this policy.

SECTION IV. MEDICAL ATTENDANCE INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall not result in any one of the losses enumerated herein but shall require treatment by a physician, the company will reimburse the insured for the cost thereof, not to exceed an amount equal to the indemnity for total loss of time for one week as specified in Section II, provided the physician's receipt and affidavit on the company's form is furnished to the company at its home office in Pittsburgh within ninety days from the date of accident.

The privileges, conditions and provisions on the succeeding page of this policy are made a part of this policy as fully as if stated over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed by its president and secretary.

STANDARD PROVISIONS.

1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance except as it may be modified by the company's classification of risks and premium rates in the event that the insured is injured after having changed his occupation to one classified by the company as more hazardous than that stated in the policy, or while he is doing any act or thing pertaining to any occupation so classified, except ordinary duties about his residence or while engaged in recreation, in which event the company will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in the policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate but within the limits so fixed by the company for such more hazardous occupation.

If the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued requires that prior to its issue a statement of the premium rates and classification of risks pertaining to it shall be filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in such state, then the premium rates and classification of risks mentioned in this policy shall mean only such as have been last filed by the company in accordance with such law, but if such filing is not required by such law then they shall mean the company's premium rates and classification of risks last made effective by it in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the company is liable.

2. No statement made by the applicant for insurance not included herein shall avoid the policy or be used in any legal proceeding hereunder. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions. No change in this policy shall be valid unless approved by an executive officer of the company and such approval be endorsed hereon.

3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent acceptance of a premium by the company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the policy, but only to cover loss resulting from accidental injury thereafter sustained.

4. Written notice of injury on which claim may be based must be given to the company within twenty days after the date of the accident causing such injury.

5. Such notice given by or in behalf of the insured or beneficiary, as the case may be, to the company at its home office in Pittsburgh, or to any authorized agent of the company, with particulars sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed to be notice to the company. Failure to give notice within the time provided in this policy shall not invalidate any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to give such notice and that notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.

6. The company upon receipt of such notice, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not so furnished within fifteen days after the receipt of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence character and extent of the loss for which claim is made.

7. Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the company at its said office in case of claim for loss of time from disability within ninety days after the termination of the period for which the company is liable, and in case of claim for any other loss, within ninety days after the date of such loss.

8. The company shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim hereunder, and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

9. All indemnities provided in this policy for loss other than that of time on account of disability will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof.

10. Upon request of the insured and subject to due proof of loss, the accrued indemnity for loss of time on account of disability will be paid at the expiration of each sixty days during the continuance of the period for which the company is liable, and any balance remaining unpaid at the termination of such period will be paid immediately upon receipt of due proof.

11. Indemnity for loss of life of the insured is payable to the beneficiary if surviving the insured, and otherwise to the estate of the insured. All other indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured.

12. If the insured shall at any time change his occupation to one classified by the company as less hazardous than that stated in the policy, the company, upon written request of the insured and surrender of the policy, will cancel the same and will return to the insured the unearned premium.

13. Consent of the beneficiary shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy, or to change of beneficiary, or to any other changes in the policy.

14. No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after proof of loss has been filed in accordance with the requirements of this policy, nor shall such action be brought at all unless brought within two years from the expiration of the time within which proof of loss is required by the policy.

15. If any time limitation of this policy with respect to giving notice of claim or furnishing proof of loss is less than that permitted by the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued, such limitation is hereby extended to agree with the minimum period permitted by such law.

16. The company may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered to the insured or mailed to his last address, as shown by the records of the company, together with cash or the company's check for the unearned portion of the premiums actually paid by the insured, and such cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior thereto.

17. If the insured shall carry with another company, corporation, association or society other insurance covering the same loss without giving written notice to the company, then in that case the company shall be liable only for such portion of the indemnity promised as the said indemnity bears to the total amount of like indemnity in all policies covering such loss, and for the return of such part of the premium paid as shall exceed the pro rata for the indemnity thus determined.

20. The insurance under this policy shall not cover any person under the age of eighteen years nor over the age of sixty years. Any premium paid to the company for any period not covered by this policy will be returned upon request.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

A. No assignment of interest hereunder shall be valid unless consent thereto is endorsed hereon and is signed by an executive officer of the company.

B. This policy does not extend to nor cover any accidental bodily injury caused or contributed to, directly or indirectly, by sickness or disease, nor cover disappearance, nor war risk, nor loss due to hernia, however caused, nor loss resulting from any means or act which if used or done by the insured while in possession of all mental faculties would be deemed intentional or self-inflicted, nor loss suffered while or resulting from riding or being in or on any aerial device or conveyance.

HEALTH POLICY.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $27.50

Reliance Life Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, in consideration of twenty-seven and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars (\$27.50) premium, hereby insures under classification number one, Richard H. Roe of Pittsburgh, Pa., occupation manager, office duties and traveling only, herein called the insured, for twelve months, beginning at noon, standard time at the place where the insured resides, on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1914, and ending on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1915, subject to the provisions and conditions and limits herein, against loss resulting directly and independently of any and all other causes from sickness or disease contracted while this policy is in force, which sickness or disease wholly disables the insured and necessitates treatment by a legally qualified physician, in the sum of: \$25 per week during confinement to the house; \$12.50 per week during non-confinement not to exceed fifty-two consecutive weeks in the aggregate.

STANDARD PROVISIONS.

1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance. No reduction shall be made in any indemnity here provided by reason of change in the occupation of the insured or by reason of his doing any act or thing pertaining to any other occupation.

3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent acceptance of a premium by the company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the policy, but only to cover such sickness as may begin more than ten days after the date of such acceptance.

4. Written notice of sickness on which claim may be based must be given to the company within ten days after the commencement of the disability from such sickness.

7. Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the company at its said office within ninety days after the termination of the period of disability for which the company is liable.

11. All the indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured.

Standard provisions 2, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 20 of preceding form and also additional provision A also apply to this policy.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

B. This policy does not extend to nor cover any loss caused by any sickness or disease existing or contracted prior to the issue of this policy, nor loss caused by any sickness or disease unless disability resulting therefrom begins while this policy is in force.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed by its president and secretary.

*Adopted January 1, 1913.

Reserve Loan Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $309.40.

AGE, 35.

The Reserve Loan Life Insurance Company, Indianapolis, Ind., hereby promises and agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, at the same office of the company, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, within twenty-four hours after receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, hereinafter called the insured, of Indianapolis, county of Marion, State of Indiana.

This policy is issued in consideration of the payment in advance of three hundred nine and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars. It will be continued as a limited payment life policy upon the further payment of a like amount on or before 12 o'clock noon (Central Standard time), of the twenty-eighth day of January in each year thereafter until nineteen additional annual premiums have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy shall not take effect unless the insured is alive and in good health at the time of its delivery; nor then unless the first premium has been paid.

All the conditions stated on the back of this policy are hereby referred to and made part of this contract as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereto fixed.

In testimony whereof, the Reserve Loan Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, at Indianapolis, Ind., this twenty-eighth day of January, 1913.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

This contract is absolutely free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death, and no permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

The reserve on this policy and all surrender values contained therein are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, and in no case does the surrender charge amount to more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereby. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana.

In the event of no indebtedness hereon, the values in the above table will apply. Any indebtedness may be paid in cash and the values in the table will then apply, or if not paid, the cash and loan values will be reduced by the amount of the indebtedness; paid-up insurance will be reduced in the ratio of the indebtedness to the reserve on the policy; and the extended insurance shall be for as long a term as the balance, left after deducting the indebtedness from the net value of the extended insurance as shown in the table, will purchase a net single premium. Premium payments for fractional part of year, if any, will proportionately increase the values in the table. Values after twenty years shall be equivalent to the full reserve on this policy.

LOAN VALUE.—At any time after one year from the date hereof and while this policy is in force, the company will, within ninety days after receipt of written request by the insured, loan upon the sole security of this policy up to the amount indicated in the table of guaranteed values opposite the current policy year. The company will require a satisfactory assignment of the policy as security, and will deduct from the loan any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy, any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year and interest at the rate of six per cent per annum to the end of the current policy year. Failure to pay any loan or interest thereon shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed the legal reserve on this policy, nor until thirty-one days after legal notice have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and assignee, if any, if such assignee has notified the company of his address.

CASH VALUE.—At any time after two annual premiums have been paid hereon, and within one month from date of default in payment of any premium, the company will, within ninety days after receipt of written request by the insured, with a full and valid surrender of this policy and all claims hereunder, pay a cash surrender value as indicated in the table of guaranteed values opposite the number of years for which annual premiums have been paid. Cash values are at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of extended insurance.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—At any time after two annual premiums have been paid hereon, and within one month from date of default in payment of any premium, the company will, upon written request by the insured, convert this policy into paid-up non-participating insurance in the sum shown in the table of guaranteed values, opposite the number of years for which annual premiums have been paid.

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—At the expiration of one year from the date hereof, if any subsequent premium be not paid when due, the company will, without action on the part of the insured, extend this policy as non-participating term insurance, without loan values, for the term provided in the table of guaranteed values, opposite the number of years for which annual premiums have been paid.

INCONTESTABLE.—If the premiums are duly paid as required this policy shall be incontestable after it has been renewed beyond the first year.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days (without interest) during which time this policy will remain in force, will be allowed for the payment of an annual, semi-annual or quarterly renewal of premiums; provided that if the insured should die within such period of grace the unpaid premium for the current policy year will be deducted in any settlement under the policy.

PREMIUMS.—Premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, in the city of Indianapolis, Ind., or to a designated collector, but in any case only in exchange for the company's receipt therefor, signed by the secretary and countersigned by such collector. Upon default in payment of any premium, or any part of interest thereon, this policy shall be null and void and all premiums forfeited to the company, except as herein provided.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This contract is made with the person whose life is insured hereby, and the beneficiary shall have no interest in this policy until after the death of the insured. The insured during lifetime reserves the right, without the consent of the beneficiary, to surrender this policy to the company for cancellation, cash, paid-up or extended insurance. The insured may change the beneficiary named herein, provided this policy has not been assigned. Such change will take effect when endorsed hereon by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the amount which would have been payable to such deceased beneficiary, shall be payable to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse because of default in payment of premium, or any note of interest thereon, it may be reinstated at any time, upon payment of overdue premiums with interest compounded at five per cent per annum, subject to evidence of good health satisfactory to the company.

POLICY TO CONTAIN ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor (a copy of which application is attached hereto) shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement made by the insured shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in the written application therefor. No action at law or suit in equity shall be commenced or maintained hereon nor recovery had, unless such action or suit is commenced within five years after the cause of action shall accrue.

PROOFS OF DEATH.—Proofs of death of the insured and of the interest of the claimant must be furnished to the company at its home office in the city of Indianapolis, Ind. Any indebtedness, including any balance of the current year's premium remaining unpaid, will be deducted in the settlement thereof.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured was misstated in the application on which this policy was issued, the amount payable shall be the insurance which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its home office in the city of Indianapolis, upon blank furnished by the company. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

SUICIDE.—Self-destruction within one year from the date hereof, whether the insured be sane or insane, is not a risk assumed by the company, but in such cases the company will return the premiums actually paid hereon.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—Option 1. This policy is issued payable in one sum at the death of the insured, but the insured may at any time, while this policy is in force and unassigned, change the manner of such payment by one sum to payment by monthly or annual instalments. The first instalment to be paid at same time as cash settlement would otherwise have taken place, and each succeeding instalment to be paid on like date in each month or year thereafter until all instalments shall have been paid. On this plan the company will pay, in lieu of each one thousand dollars of insurance herein provided, the following amounts: $1,071.50 divided into fifty monthly instalments of $21.43 each; $48.00 divided into one hundred monthly instalments of $11.48 each; $1,181.70 divided into ten annual instalments of $116.17 each; $1,358.20 divided into five annual instalments of $271.64 each; $1,359.60 divided into twenty annual instalments of $67.98 each.

option 2. In lieu of a cash settlement under this policy the insured may, at any time, elect this policy remains in force and unassigned, have the option of securing from the company an annuity policy; the amount of the annuity to be determined by the age of the beneficiary at the death of the insured, and by the following table of annuities for each thousand dollars principal sum insured. Twenty instalments at least will be paid, instalments will continue during lifetime of the beneficiary. The first instalment is paid at the same time as cash settlement would otherwise have taken place, and each succeeding instalment on like date of each year thereafter during the lifetime of the beneficiary. If the beneficiary should die before the completion of the twenty instalment payments, the unpaid instalments will be paid thereafter to the executor, administrator or assigns of the beneficiary.

DOUBLE INDEMNITY AND TOTAL DISABILITY.—In consideration of the payment of twenty per thousand insurance, which is included in the premium named on the face of this policy. If fatal injuries are sustained by the insured while riding as a passenger and within any railway passenger car using steam or electricity as motive power, or in a passenger elevator, licensed for the regular transportation of passengers, or are caused by the burning of a building while the insured is therein, the amount payable to the beneficiary under this policy shall be double the principal sum insured hereby; provided, that a fatal injury sustained while getting on or off or being upon the step or steps or platform of a railway, or street railway car, shall be covered by this double indemnity clause; or, if the insured suffer an injury through external, violent and accidental means, resulting in the severance of both hands at or above the wrist; or the severance of both feet above the ankle; or the severance of one hand and one foot at or above the wrist; or the total loss of the sight of both eyes; or the total loss of the sight of one eye and the severance of one foot at or above the ankle; the insured shall be deemed totally disabled, and the full amount insured by this policy shall be payable to said beneficiary upon due proof of such disability and the surrender of this policy for cancellation. Insured may cancel this double indemnity and total disability insurance on any anniversary of this policy, and after such cancellation the premium named on the face hereof shall be reduced by the premium charged therefor; or it will be automatically cancelled and no premiums cease to be paid.

This is to certify that the Reserve Loan Life Insurance Company of Indianapolis, will pay to the beneficiary under policy No. issued by said company, the sum of hundred dollars immediately upon the receipt of this certificate, in the event of the death of said insured while said policy is in force for the full face amount thereof; provided this certificate is accompanied by an affidavit stating the fact of the death of the insured thereunder, and the time, place and cause thereof, duly executed by the said beneficiary and by the judge or clerk of any court of record of the county in which the insured resides at the time of his death, or by any reputable physician, clergyman in good standing or postmaster, residing in said county. The said payment shall apply on the amount of any amount due under said policy and being made in advance of the receipt of proof of death, is made and accepted without any admission by the company of its liability on said policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree that all provisions of law forbidding any physician who has attended me, who may attend me, from disclosing any and all information which he has or may receive by such attendance, are hereby expressly waived; that in any distribution of surplus principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for determination of the amount and its apportionment are hereby accepted; that the policy shall not take effect unless I am alive and in good health at the time of its delivery to me; nor then until the first premium is paid in cash or a note for extension of time for such payment accepted by the company at its home office in Indianapolis, Ind., and that the method of conducting the business of said company may at any time be changed to such extent as may be provided by any law of the State of Indiana relating to life insurance companies. I hereby agree that each statement made herein and in Part 2 of this application by whomsoever they be written, are full, true and complete, and that each statement is material to the risk.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Royal Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-YEAR ENDOWMENT POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $433.90. AGE, 35.

Royal Life Insurance Company, Chicago, Ill., by this contract insures, agrees to pay at its head office in Chicago, Ill., ten thousand dollars less any indebtedness on the policy, to John Doe of Chicago, county of Cook, State of Illinois, herein called the insured, on the thirtieth day of April, 1914, if insured be then living, or, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the prior death of the insured, to Mary Doe, the beneficiary, wife of the insured, or to such other beneficiary or beneficiaries as may have been duly designated, if living, or, if not living, then to the insured's executors, administrators, or assigns, subject to the provisions of this policy.

In the event of the death of the insured, all premiums having been duly paid, while the policy with the draft attached below, which is a part of this policy, is in the possession of the insured, the company will pay the amount stated in said draft subject to the conditions imposed thereon. As the exercise of this privilege does not involve the return of the policy to the head office of the company for cancellation, the possession by the insured or any of the draft, duly endorsed, together with the proofs of death of the insured, is evidence that the amount stated in said draft was paid as directed, releases the company from all obligations under this policy and renders this contract of no further force and effect.

This policy is absolutely free from conditions or restrictions as to occupation, residence, or place of death. Neither a permit nor an extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of peace or in time of war.

ANY BANK, BANKER OR TRUST COMPANY.—This is to certify that the Royal Life Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., will pay to the beneficiary stated in policy number 0001 by said company, on the life of John Doe, the insured, the sum of ten thousand dollars, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of death of the insured under said policy, together with this draft properly indorsed by said beneficiary, and the official receipts of the company indicating that all premiums have been duly paid, provided that death does not occur by suicide during the first policy year. It will not be required to send the draft to the head office. This draft will be paid immediately by the company as soon as the proofs of death are received.

PRIVILEGES.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—The policy, together with the application, a copy of which is heretofore made and made a part hereof, constitutes the entire contract between the parties. It cannot be varied except in writing by one of the following executive officers of the company, at its head office in Chicago, Ill., viz., the president, a vice-president or the secretary.

SUICIDE.—Suicide during the first policy year, whether the insured be sane or insane, is not assumed by the company; but, in such case, the company will return the premiums actually received.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable from date of issue except for non-payment of premium or because of suicide during the first policy year.

STATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age, or the premium may be adjusted and credit given to the insured or to the company, according to the company's published rate at date of issue.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the head office of the company, or may be paid to an agent of the company on or before the date when the premium is due upon tender of a receipt, signed by an executive officer of the company, namely, the president, a vice-president, or the secretary, and countersigned by said agent.

This contract is based upon the receipt of premiums annually in advance, but premiums may be made payable in semi-annual or quarterly instalments in advance as follows: hundred twenty-five and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars on the thirtieth day of April and October, or fifty and $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars on the thirtieth day of April, July, October and January. If as herein provided, the payment of a premium or any instalment thereof shall maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment of premium is due and payable.

GRACE.—A grace of one month (not less than thirty days) will be allowed for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall remain in force. If death occurs within the month of grace, no deduction will be made from the amount payable hereunder for the unpaid premium or any instalment or instalments thereof necessary to complete the premium for the current policy year.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary, or in case of the death of any beneficiary, whether the insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary or not, the insured, if there is no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary, with or without reserving the right to change the beneficiary by filing written notice thereof at the head office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect when indorsed on the policy by the company and not before. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse by reason of the non-payment of any premium, it may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability of the insured at the time of application for reinstatement, satisfactory to the company, and the payment of all arrears of premiums and the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness to the company under this contract existing at date of lapse, with interest thereon at five per cent per annum.

ASSIGNMENT.—If this policy shall be assigned, the assignment must be in writing, and no such assignment shall be binding on the company unless the original or a duplicate thereof be filed at the head office of the company together with the draft attached to the first page of the policy. The company does not assume responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

LOANS.—After premiums have been paid for three full years, the company, at any time while the policy is in force under the original premium paying condition, will loan, on the execution of a proper note or loan agreement by the insured, and on proper assignment and delivery of the policy and on the sole security thereof, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable in advance to the end of the current policy year and thereafter annually in advance, a sum equal to, or at the option of the insured, less than, the loan value hereon at the end of the current policy year, in the table of loan values, and less any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. Failure to repay any such loan, or the interest thereon, shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall be equal to or shall exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. The amount of any such indebtedness shall be deducted, in case of death, from the amount payable under the policy.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After premiums have been paid for three full years, this policy will become entitled to a cash surrender value, or paid-up endowment insurance or automatic extended term insurance and cash if living, as follows:

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Upon default in premium payment, upon surrender of this policy to the company by the insured and the legal holder hereof within the month of grace, the company will pay as a cash surrender value for this policy the amount specified in the table of guaranteed values on the third page under the heading "cash surrender and loan values," such cash surrender value being not less than the value of the insurance under "paid-up endowment insurance" or "automatic extended term insurance and cash if living" in the table, or

PAID-UP ENDOWMENT INSURANCE.—Upon default in premium payment, upon surrender of this policy to the company by the insured and legal holder hereof within the month of grace, the company will issue a non-participating paid-up policy, payable under the same conditions as this policy, namely, at the end of the period for which insurance under this policy was granted, or at prior death, for the amount specified in the table of guaranteed values on the third page under the heading "paid-up endowment insurance," or

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE AND CASH IF LIVING.—Upon default in premium payment, if the policy be not surrendered for its cash value or for paid-up endowment insurance, the company will, without action on the part of the insured, continue the insurance for the full face amount of the policy for the term specified in the table of guaranteed values on the third page under the heading "automatic extended term insurance" and cash if living, such term to extend from the date to which premiums have been duly paid and to include the month of grace. Also, if the insured be living at the end of the period for which this insurance is granted, the company will pay the amount stated in the table under the heading "cash if living."

The options above specified are based upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on or secured by this policy. Should there be any indebtedness, the available value for the purposes of these options shall be the cash value stated in the table, less the amount of such indebtedness. This available value will be paid in cash, or will be applied as a net single premium to purchase, at attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest per annum, (1) a paid-up endowment policy payable at the end of the period for which insurance is granted or at prior death, or (2) extended term insurance for the full term of the policy for part or all of the period between the date of default in prepayment and the end of the period for which this insurance is granted, the balance of the available value over the net premium necessary to purchase insurance for the above period, to be improved as a pure endowment and paid to the insured, or, at the end of this period.

The guaranteed values in the above table are equivalent to the reserves at the end of the respective policy years, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy.

The premiums on this policy be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, due at the end of each year, and will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of the premium paid in addition to the full number of annual premiums paid.

MODE OF SETTLEMENT.—The insured, or the owner, or the beneficiary after the insured's death, in case the insured shall have made no election, may, by written notice to the company at its head office, and return of the draft attached to this policy, elect to have the net sum payable under this policy upon the death of the insured paid as follows:

(1) By the payment of an annuity equal to three and one-half per cent of such net sum payable at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any portion of the annuity for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in notice, to the beneficiary's executors, administrators, or assigns. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of ten years and for as many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, according to the company's published rates then in use, but not less than the amount stated in the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. (3) By the payment of annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being made immediately according to the company's published rates then in use, but not less than the amount stated in the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid at the death of the beneficiary, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's executors, administrators, or assigns.

In any option calling for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered at its maturity and a supplementary non-participating contract shall be issued for the balance elected. Option (2) can be elected only when there is but one beneficiary. Otherwise specified by the owner or the beneficiary, in making such election, the beneficiary may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of instalments for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made, computed upon the basis as option (3) in the following table; provided, that no such surrender and extinction will be made, under option (2) except after the death of the beneficiary and within the aforesaid twenty years.

No person except an executive officer of the company as aforesaid has power to modify or in event of lapse, to reinstate this policy or to extend the time for paying the premium.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application for this policy, a copy of which is hereto attached and is hereby made a part of this contract, and in further consideration of the payment in advance of the sum of four hundred thirty-three dollars and ninety cents, (which may, however, be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments in advance, as elsewhere provided herein), being the premium for term insurance terminating on the twenty-ninth day of April, 1915, and the minimum reserve required under the laws of the State of Illinois, and of the payment, as renewal premiums, of a like sum (which may also be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments in advance) on the twenty-ninth day of April, in each and every year during the continuance of the contract, or until renewal premiums for nineteen complete years shall have been paid.

This policy takes effect as of the thirtieth day of April, 1914.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this thirtieth day of April, 1914.

Royal Union Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DEFERRED DIVIDEND.
 AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $368. AGE, 35.

The Royal Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, Des Moines, Ia., agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, at its home office, to Clara D. Moines (wife of insured), beneficiary, if living (with right of revocation), otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, within sixty days after the receipt of due proofs of the death of Graydon D. Moines, the insured, during the term of one year from the date hereof. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

The consideration for this insurance shall be the declarations, answers and agreements made in the application for this policy, a copy of which shall be endorsed hereon, or attached hereto, and made a part thereof, and the payment of three hundred sixty-eight dollars in advance on the first day of August, 1910.

In consideration of the said application, and the payment of like amounts on the same dates in the succeeding nineteen years or until the prior death of the insured, this insurance shall continue after the first year until the death of the insured.

OPTIONAL LIFE ANNUITY.—On the anniversary nearest the age of sixty-five of the insured, this policy may be surrendered, and the reserve will then purchase an annuity of eight hundred and twenty dollars, payable annually during the life of the insured, the first payment to be deferred one year.

The general conditions and benefits stated on the following pages hereof are hereby made a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures hereto affixed.

Signed, sealed and issued in the city of Des Moines, Ia., this first day of August, 1910.

CONDITIONS, BENEFITS AND PRIVILEGES.

THE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor, taken together, constitute the entire contract, which cannot be varied nor any of its terms waived, except in writing, endorsed hereon and signed at the home office by the president or secretary of the company, whose authority for this purpose shall not be delegated. And it is agreed that there are no erasures on this contract as issued and no part or parts of its printed or written context stricken out or altered. No agent can make, alter or discharge this contract or vary or extend its terms. All statements of the insured in his application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall void this policy unless it be contained in the written application therefor, and a copy of such application be attached to the policy when issued.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—Each premium is due and payable at noon on the dates specified, at the home office of the company; it may be paid elsewhere only to an authorized collector in exchange for the company's receipt signed by its president or secretary and countersigned by said collector. Failure to pay any premium or any note taken therefor, when due and payable, shall cause this policy to cease and determine, and unless reinstated all payments made thereon shall remain the property of the company, except as hereinafter provided. The mode of premium payment may be changed on any anniversary of the policy from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice versa, at rate now in use, but the payment of any premium shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date on which the next payment is due.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—After this policy shall have been in force one year, thirty-one days of grace shall be allowed in the payment of premiums, during which period the premium shall be subject to an interest charge at a yearly rate of six per cent. If death occurs during said period the amount of the unpaid premium, with interest shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. No agent or collector can extend the time for payment of premiums nor make any binding agreement in relation thereto.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time after default in payment of premium hereon, or after any non-forfeiture or surrender value option (except cash surrender value) herein given, shall have been taken, this policy may be reinstated to its original form and amount by payment to the company of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness existing against the policy at the time of the default, with interest at six per cent, provided that evidence of insurability, satisfactory to the company, be furnished, (without expense to the company).

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of the designated beneficiary, the insured may at any time while the policy is in force, and subject to any existing assignment of the policy, designate a new beneficiary (with or without the right of revocation) by filing written request therefor at its home office, together with this policy; such change to take effect on the endorsement thereon of the policy by the company.

ASSIGNMENT OF POLICY.—No assignment hereof shall be binding upon the company unless a duplicate original thereof shall have been filed at the home office. Assignment blanks will be furnished upon application. Proof of interest may be required when the policy becomes payable or when any settlement thereof or thereunder is demanded. The company does not guarantee the validity of any assignment.

STING INDEBTEDNESS DEDUCTED LOANS.—Any existing indebtedness to the company including any balance of the premium for the then current insurance year remaining unpaid, shall be deducted in any settlement of this policy, or of any benefit or option under.

NS.—At the end of the third or any subsequent policy year, there being no default of payment, the company will loan, on proper assignment and delivery to it of this and on the sole security thereof, a sum equal to, or at the option of the owner of policy, less than the cash surrender value at the end of such policy year, deduct therefrom interest in advance for one year and all other indebtedness to the company on said policy. Said loan shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, if not paid when due shall be added to the existing loan and bear interest at the rate. Failure to repay said loan or pay interest thereon shall not void the policy, the total indebtedness upon such loan and policy shall equal or exceed the cash hereunder, in which event and whereupon the policy shall cease and become void INTESTABILITY.—After one year from date hereof, this policy shall be incontestable for non-payment of premiums.

STATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the true age.

DESTRUCTION.—In case of self-destruction of the insured while sane or insane, one year from date of this policy, the company will pay to the beneficiary, on satisfactory proof of death of the insured, and the surrender of the policy, fully receipted, 50 per cent of the face hereof.

VALUATION FOR RESERVES.—The reserve on this policy shall be valued by the premium term method in accordance with the laws of Iowa, except valuations may be required to comply with the laws governing valuations for the states in which such policies are delivered; but the basis shall be the American Experience Table of Mortality and one-half per cent interest.

LIBERTY FROM RESTRICTION.—This policy is absolutely free from restrictions as to residence, travel or occupation, from the date of its issue, except engagement at any time in military or naval service during war. Such engagements shall require the written permission of the company and the payment of an extra premium, at the established rate while so engaged. In case of death during such engagement and without the company's written permission, the liability of the company hereunder shall be limited to the amount of the then legal reserve on this policy.

GUARANTEED SURRENDER VALUE AND NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.—At the end of the third or any subsequent policy year, premiums having been paid in full to the end of the year, and on default in payment of a subsequent premium or at any time within the period of grace thereafter, the owner of this policy shall be entitled to any one of the following guaranteed surrender value and non-forfeiture benefits, the amounts of which being stipulated in the table given below, for the number of full years for which premiums shall have been paid, the net value of which shall not be less than the legal reserve on the policy and any existing additions thereto at the end of such years, computed on the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest, sum of not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy and any existing additions thereto; (a) the cash values stipulated herein shall be at least equal to the sums which would otherwise be available for the purchase of paid-up insurance under options (b) and (c), and shall be paid on surrender of the policy to the owner, properly receipted; (b) the policy, on presentation thereof to the company for endorsement and on written request of the insured, will be continued in force for the amount of insurance hereunder and without further payment of premiums or medical examination and without the right to loans or dividends, for the period specified; (c) the policy, on presentation thereof to the company for endorsement, will be continued in force for the reduced amount of non-participating paid-up insurance stipulated herein, payable as originally provided. If no choice of other options has been made, option (c) shall become effective without action on the part of the insured; and when presented the policy shall be so endorsed. If quarterly or semi-annual premiums have been paid for one-quarter, one-half or three-quarters of a year beyond the end of the third year or of any year thereafter, the cash, paid-up, or extended insurance values herein will be proportionately adjusted as follows: one quarter, one-half or three-quarters of the difference between the value or extended insurance period for the end of the previous year and the value or period for the next year shall be added to the value or period for the previous year. The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the above provisions and under the assumption that there is no indebtedness on this policy, and that all dividends have been drawn in cash.

DIVIDENDS.—In accordance with the method adopted by the company for the calculation and distribution of all dividends and surplus, the company will determine and account for the portion of the divisible surplus to be allotted to this policy, beginning not later than the end of the twentieth policy year, and at the end of each year thereafter. The insured shall have the option, on any anniversary of the policy after the twentieth of having any dividends which may then be available paid or applied as follows: (a) paid in cash, or (b) applied to the reduction of any premiums, or (c) applied as a premium at the attained age at the company's rates then in force, without medical examination, to purchase additional participating insurance, or (d) left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, in which case the accumulation shall be payable at the death of the insured or may be withdrawn in cash on any anniversary of the policy. If the insured shall not have chosen options (b), (c) or (d), within thirty-one days from the time the dividends are declared, the same shall be paid in cash, or, if required by the laws of the state in which this policy is delivered, option (c) shall become effective.

OPTIONS AT THE DEATH OF THE INSURED.—The insured by written notice to the company, at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect that the net sum payable under this policy at the death of the insured shall be payable either in cash or as follows:

OPTION 1.—On demand of the beneficiary or at the death of the beneficiary, as may be directed by the insured in the said notice; interest on the said net sum, at the rate of three and one-half per cent to be paid by the company annually to the beneficiary until the said net sum is paid on the said demand or death.

OPTION 2.—By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years to the beneficiary or executors thereof, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of the said net sum. (See table, option 2 below.)*

OPTION 3.—By the payment of equal annual instalments, the first instalment being payable immediately, for a fixed period of twenty years, to the beneficiary or executors thereof, the said annual payments to continue during the life of the beneficiary after the said fixed period. (See table, options 3 below.†) Unless otherwise specified by the insured, the beneficiary may, on any interest date, receive the amount of the said net sum yet due, under Option 1, or may, at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as Option 2 in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under Option 3 except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is agreed that, the policy issued on this application, being in force and not assigned, the insured shall control all surrender value privileges. Also if not assigned, and if right of revocation has been retained, the insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, but such change shall not take effect until written request, properly attested, has been furnished with the policy to the company at the home office during the lifetime of the insured, for the endorsement of the new nominee or nominees. It is also agreed as follows: (First) That in the event of self-destruction, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of this policy the company's legal liability shall be but ten per cent of the amount otherwise agreed to be paid on this policy in event of death. (Second) That the company's method for distribution of surplus shall be accepted. (Third) That any note or obligation given for premiums shall be accounted only as an extension of time for payment, and if not paid at maturity, all liability under any policy issued hereon shall at that date without grace cease, except for the non-forfeiture provision of the policy; and the full amount of said note or obligation, with interest, or the reverential value thereof shall first be deducted in any settlement hereunder, and shall be deemed as earned. (Fourth) That the company shall be liable under the policy contract immediately after the application has been approved in writing by the company at its home office, provided the first premium has been paid in cash on the date of the application; otherwise the company shall not be liable until the policy is delivered and the first premium thereon paid while I am living and in good health.

I hereby certify that I have reviewed the above, and that the declarations, statements and representations made by me in this application, and all answers taken down in writing hereon and in the medical examination, are hereby made the basis for the issuance of the policy hereby applied for, and I declare the same to be true.

Dated at Davenport, Ia., September 1, 1910. Draydon D. McKinnon (signature of applicant in his or her own hand).

TOTAL DISABILITY RIDER.

In consideration of the annual payment of forty-five cents per thousand dollars for this disability rider hereby issued under and attached to policy No. 01234, issued to Graydon D. Moines of the Royal Union Mutual Life Insurance Company of Des Moines, Ia., (which sum is included in the annual premium stipulated in said original policy), the following clause and agreement when attached to said policy is hereby added to and incorporated in said policy as fully as though originally set forth therein:

A. WAIVER OF PREMIUMS.—After this policy shall have been in force for one full year before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the company will, upon receipt of due proofs that the insured has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or disease, and thereby prevented from engaging in any gainful occupation, waive each premium as it thereafter becomes due, during the insured's said disability. Should a disability occur before the insured attains the age of sixty years, the premiums so waived shall not be deducted in any settlement hereunder; but should disability occur after the insured has attained the age of sixty years, then in the case of any settlement under the amount of the premiums waived shall be deducted from the face of the policy, and the cash surrender values herein shall be proportionately reduced.

B. INSTALMENT PAYMENTS.—In addition to waiving payment of premiums as aforesaid, if such disability shall have occurred before the insured has attained the age of sixty years, the company, one year after said proof of such disability, shall pay to the insured one-tenth of the face amount of the policy and a like amount in each insurance year thereafter during the continuance of such disability prior to the maturity of the policy; the policy must be returned to the company for the endorsement thereon of each payment. At the insured's option any such payment or payments may be left with the company to accumulate until the maturity of the policy at such rate of interest as the company may declare on funds so held by it but at a rate not less than three and one-half per cent, compounded annually. Each instalment shall reduce to that extent the amount of insurance in force, and the loan and cash surrender values provided for under this contract shall be calculated for the reduced amount insured. If at the time when any such instalment becomes payable there shall be an indebtedness on the policy in excess of the cash surrender value of the reduced amount of insurance, the company shall apply such part of the instalment as may be necessary to reduce the indebtedness to the amount secured by such cash surrender value. Whenever the total amount of instalments, together with the amount of any remaining indebtedness to the company, shall equal the face amount of the policy, plus any paid-up dividend additions, unpaid dividends and dividends left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, then the company's obligations under the policy shall thereby be fully satisfied and discharged without further action.

C. RECOVERY FROM DISABILITY.—Should the company accept under this policy proofs of disability, it may nevertheless at any time thereafter, and from time to time, not oftener than once a year, demand of the insured proof of the continuance of such disability, and upon failure to furnish such proof, or, if it appears that the insured has become able to engage in any occupation whatsoever for remuneration or profit, no further premiums shall be waived and no further instalment payments will be made to the company. But if the amount of the insurance shall then have been reduced under any of the foregoing provisions such reduced amount of insurance shall thereafter bear the face amount of the policy, and the premiums thereafter falling due will be reduced in proportion to the reduced amount of insurance, and all benefits under the policy shall be reduced accordingly. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the total and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand, and one entire foot shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this rider. In witness whereof, this rider is signed, sealed and issued in the city of Des Moines, Ia., the first day of February, 1915.

San Antonio Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $308.80. AGE 35.

San Antonio Life Insurance Company, San Antonio, Tex., hereby grants an insurance of ten thousand dollars on the life of John Doe, of San Antonio, Tex., immediately payable upon receipt at the home office of the company in San Antonio, Tex., of the proofs of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, to his wife, Mary Doe.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The right is reserved to the insured, if no assignment of this policy has been duly filed with the company, to designate a new beneficiary from time to time, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, together with the policy for endorsement. Such change shall take effect only upon its endorsement on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise provided by this policy.

CONSIDERATION.—This policy is issued in consideration of the statements, agreements and representations made in the application therefor and a premium of three hundred, eight and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, to be paid to the company on or before the delivery of this policy, and of the payment of a like sum on or before the first day of January in every year during the lifetime of the insured, until twenty full years' premiums have been paid. The premium for the first year under this policy is for term insurance.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premiums.

POLICY ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor, copy of which hereto attached, together with the general provisions, which are hereby made a part of this policy as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed, constitute the entire contract between the parties.

In witness whereof, the San Antonio Life Insurance Company has by its president and secretary signed this policy this first day of January, 1913, at San Antonio, Texas.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE PREMIUM LOANS.—(a) After premiums for two full years have been paid, this policy shall not lapse or become forfeited by reason of the non-payment of any premium, provided the loan value of the policy, as shown by table, in excess of all indebtedness to the company then existing thereon, shall be sufficient to pay the premium together with the interest below mentioned. In such event the company, without further request, treat the premiums as paid as they become due, and the amount of such premiums, with interest in advance at the rate of six per cent per annum, shall become a first lien upon the policy in priority to the claims of any assignee or of any other person. If the net available loan value be less than the amount required to advance the premium due, the company will without further request continue this insurance in force for that proportion of a year which the value then available bears to the amount required to advance one full year's premium, and if prior to the expiration of such period no further payment is made to the company all liability of the company on this policy shall thereupon terminate, subject to the right of the insured to revive the policy any time by furnishing evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and upon payment of premiums overdue with interest thereon. The rate of interest chargeable on these automatic loans will be six per cent per annum in advance, and the interest less paid shall be included by the company in each loan.

* Loan values may be obtained at any time after the full premium for the current policy year is paid.

OTHER NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—(b) After premiums for three full years have been paid, in lieu of the above Automatic Premium Loan, the insured will be entitled to receive upon legal surrender of this policy, within the days of grace, one of the settlements provided in the following table, at the end of the last policy year for which full premium have been paid, which are—1, Non-participating continued term insurance for $10,000 for the specified term; or 2, A non-participating paid-up life policy; or 3, A cash surrender value. Any indebtedness to the company will be deducted from the cash value, or proportionately reduce the value of paid-up insurance, or the amount at risk under continued term insurance.

On failure to pay any premium or part thereof, or any premium note or interest thereon when due, this policy, except as otherwise provided herein, shall immediately lapse and shall be ipso facto null and void.

(c) The above table of values are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per centum per annum, and comply with the insurance laws of the State of Texas. Corresponding values will be extended for subsequent years on request.

LOANS.—After three full annual premiums have been paid, the company will loan at rate of interest not exceeding six per cent, payable annually in advance, on the sole authority of this policy while continued in force and upon the proper assignment of this policy up to the limit secured by the above specified cash or loan values at the end of the policy year within which the application for the loan is made, deducting therefrom all of the indebtedness to the company including any balance of premiums due or to become due for the current policy year. Failure to repay any such loan or interest thereon shall void this policy, but the interest will be added to the principal until the limit of said surrender value is reached, whereupon if the interest is not then paid the policy shall become null and void.

NOTE.—If the insured is a minor or cannot make a legal transfer, no loan will be made upon his signature. No loan will be made on continued term insurance.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—All premiums, both first and renewal, are payable in advance on or before the date due at the home office of the company, or to an agent of the company on delivery of a receipt, signed by either the president, vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary of the company and countersigned by said agent, or upon delivery of the policy. After one full annual premium has been paid, on request from the insured in accordance with the rules of the company, premiums may be made payable in annual or quarterly instalments in advance. The payment of a premium shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium is due, except as hereinafter provided. Notes for premiums will be accepted on the sole signature of the insured, provided this policy be not duly assigned, so long as the free loan value of the policy is sufficient security therefor, and such notes will be a lien on the policy as fully as if executed by all persons having an interest therein and accompanied by proper assignment thereof.

WAIVER OF PREMIUMS.—If, after one full annual premium shall have been paid, before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the insured prior to attaining the age of sixty years, shall furnish to the company satisfactory proof that he has become totally and permanently disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company by an endorsement in writing upon this policy, will pay for the insured the subsequent annual premiums, if any, as they shall become due. Such payments will not become a charge against the policy and the values in the tables in which the policy will increase and progress from year to year in like manner as if the premiums were being duly and regularly paid by the insured.

Upon written request of the insured, and of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, and due proof of total and permanent disability as aforesaid and in lieu of all other benefits, values and options herein provided the company will pay the face amount of this policy in twenty equal annual instalments, provided there is no indebtedness due the company on the policy. If there is indebtedness due the company on the policy the instalments shall be one twentieth of the difference between such indebtedness and the face amount of the policy. The first instalment will be paid immediately and the policy must be returned to the company for endorsement thereon of each instalment as it is paid. Each instalment shall reduce to that extent the amount of insurance in force and all other benefits will be reduced accordingly. In event of the death of the insured prior to the payment of last of said instalments, the amount payable hereunder will be the face amount of the policy less any indebtedness and all instalments paid.

Should the company accept under this policy proofs of disability, it may nevertheless at any time thereafter, and from time to time, but not oftener than once a year, demand of the insured proof of the continuance of such disability, and upon failure to furnish such proof or if it appears that the insured has become able to engage in any occupation whatsoever for remuneration or profit no further premiums shall be waived and no further instalment payments will be made by the company. If the amount of the insurance shall have been reduced under any of the foregoing provisions such reduced amount of insurance shall thereafter be the face amount of the policy and the premiums thereafter falling due will be reduced in proportion to the reduced amount of insurance and all benefits under the policy will be reduced accordingly.

Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot will be considered as total disability within the meaning of this provision.

The above benefits shall be null and void if said disability occurs after the period for the payment of premiums.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

LOAN INSURANCE.—Any indebtedness to the company against this policy may be covered by loan insurance, and, upon due proof of the death of the insured, such loan insurance shall be applied to the cancellation of any such indebtedness. Loan insurance will be granted only under the following conditions: (a) The insured shall furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company. The loan insurance shall not be effective until the insured shall have received from the company a certificate thereof.

b) Premiums must be paid in accordance with the rates in the following table, and shall be computed at the attained age of the insured at the time of making or renewing such loan insurance. For periods of less than one year, the premium for each month or fraction thereof, shall be at the rate of one-tenth of the premium for one year, but in no event to exceed the premium for one year. (c) Loan insurance will not be granted for a period extending beyond the due date of the next premium under this policy, but may be renewed from year to year subject to payment of the premium at the attained age of the insured. No loan insurance will be granted or renewed after the insured shall have attained age sixty. (d) Whenever the loan insurance exceeds the total indebtedness to the company under this policy, that portion of the loan insurance in excess of the indebtedness shall be void, and the company will refund the unearned premiums.

GRACE.—A grace of one month holding the insurance in full force will be granted for payment of every premium after the first policy year, without any interest charge thereon, but if death occurs during said period, the balance of the premium for the current policy year will be deducted in any settlement of this policy.

INSTALLMENT SETTLEMENTS.—The insured on written notice to the company and the return of this policy for such endorsement, provided it has not been assigned, may provide for the payment of its proceeds from payment in one sum to payment in installments as shown in the table on page four hereof.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of lapse of this policy, it may be reinstated at any time on written application therefor, provided it has not been surrendered to the company for a cash value, by the payment, with interest not exceeding six per cent per annum of all its premium arrears and reinstatement or payment of any indebtedness existing at the date of original default with interest thereon, provided satisfactory evidence of insurability is submitted. The full loan value of the policy at the date of reinstatement may remain as an indebtedness against the policy.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

ASSIGNMENTS.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until a certified copy thereof has been filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment. The claim of any assignee shall be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof.

SETTLEMENT.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted from any settlement hereunder.

REPRESENTATIONS.—All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

ALTERATIONS.—No person except the president, vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary of the company has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this policy, to extend the time for paying any premium, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by making any promise or by accepting any representation or information not contained in the application for this policy. These powers will not be delegated.

LIMITATION OF ACTION.—No action shall be commenced against the company on this policy later than four years from the date the cause of action shall accrue; provided, however, that no suit shall be brought until thirty days after due proofs of death have been filed at the home office of the company.

NON-PARTICIPATING.—This policy shall not participate in any profits of the company. The insured, at any time while this policy is in force may, by giving written notice to the company at its home office, provided the policy has not been assigned, change the mode of payment of the policy as within provided to payment in equal annual installments, or a life annuity, as specified below, such change to take effect upon its endorsement on the policy by the company.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby certify on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim an interest in contract issued hereunder, that all the statements and answers in this application are full, complete and true. That no material circumstance or information has been withheld or omitted touching my past or present state of health and habits of life, and that said statements and answers, together with this declaration, as well as facts made to the company's medical examiner, are true and shall be the basis of the policy hereby applied for. This application and the policy or policies issued in consequence thereof, shall constitute the entire contract of insurance, and the company shall not be bound in any way by any promise or statement made by or to any agent or other person, unless such promise, statement or information be reduced to writing and submitted to the company in this application. There shall be no contract of insurance until an application in writing shall have been made, a policy shall have been issued and delivered to me, and the premium thereon paid to the company or its authorized agent, during my life time while in good health; that all provisions of law prohibiting or exempting physicians and surgeons from testifying or disclosing information are waived in favor of the company. That if, within one year from the date of the policy, I shall die by suicide whether sane or insane, the liability of the company shall not exceed the amount of premium paid on the policy, or if, within that period I shall be personally engaged without the company's written consent, in blasting, underground mining, submarine labor, or the manufacture, handling or transportation of explosives or inflammable substances, or in service upon any railroad train, except as conductor, auditor, baggage master or mail or express agent on passenger trains, or as an ordinary seaman, or in the handling of live electric wires or dynamos, or in aeronautic ascensions, or in military or naval service in time of war, the liability of the company shall not exceed the amount of premium paid on the policy.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

San Francisco Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—TWENTY-YEAR ACCUMULATION.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $362.20. AGE, 35.

San Francisco Life Insurance Company agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in San Francisco, Cal., as follows:

THE BENEFICIARY.—To Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the prior death of the insured, during the continuance of this policy.

THE INSURED.—John Doe of San Francisco, county of San Francisco, State of California.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—The company will pay the premiums on this policy beginning with the next annual premium following the receipt of satisfactory proof of the total and permanent disability of the insured, provided such total and permanent disability is due solely and entirely to bodily injuries or disease occurring while this policy is in full force, and that such disability is such as to prevent the insured then and at all times thereafter from engaging in any gainful occupation, provided, however, if the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligations to pay further premiums hereon shall cease and the insured shall be required to pay all future premiums becoming due hereon after the date of such recovery, and any such premiums paid by the company shall not be a lien hereon and the guaranteed values shall continue to increase and progress from year to year in the same manner as if the insured had paid the premiums hereon. The loss of the entire sight of both eyes by removal or disease or the use of both hands or both feet or the use of one hand and one foot, will be deemed total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision. This benefit shall not be available if disability occurs after the insured has attained the age of sixty years.

This policy shall be absolutely incontestable for any cause after one year from the date hereof if premiums are duly paid.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT—STATE OF CALIFORNIA.—This policy is registered and the reserve thereon is deposited, as required by Section 634 of the political code of California.

This policy is unrestricted as to place of residence, travel or manner of occupation, either in time of peace or war.

PRIVILEGES, CONDITIONS AND VALUES.

PREMIUM.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the application hereof, which is hereby made a part of this contract, and of the payment in advance of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-two and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars, on or before the first day of January, in every year during the continuance of this policy until premiums for twenty full years, including the first, have been paid hereon.

FACILITY FOR PAYING PREMIUMS.—The premiums hereon may, at the option of the insured, be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly, after the first year. They are due and payable at the home office of the company in advance, and the company will allow a change from one to another of such modes of payment upon request of the insured in writing on the company's form. For convenience the premium may be paid to an agent of the company upon delivery of the company's premium receipt, signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such authorized agent. If any premium hereon is not paid when due, this policy shall cease, except as hereinafter provided.

RESERVE BASIS.—The reserve basis used in computing the premiums and values under this policy is the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent yearly, and any value which may be given under the policy, including those tabulated herein, shall be at least the equivalent of the entire net reserve of this policy, less a surrender charge of not more than the amount allowed by the law of the State in which this policy shall be delivered.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—At any time after two full years' premiums have been paid hereon, if this policy shall cease and become void by the non-payment of any premium when due, the company will without any action, on the part of the insured, extend the insurance provided herein for its face amount, as non-participating term insurance, for the period shown in column three of the table below, provided, however, that any indebtedness to the company under this policy shall be deducted from the cash value, and the remainder used as the basis of a new computation of extended insurance.

GUARANTEED LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.—After two full years, if all due premiums have been paid, the insured, upon written request, may select one of the following privileges, provided that if there be any indebtedness against this policy, the amount of such loan or cash value, or paid-up insurance value, will be only for such proportionate amounts as remain to the credit of this policy after deducting such indebtedness: (1) Surrender for extended insurance as shown in column three of the table below. (2) Cash loan as shown in column one of the table below, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable in advance. (3) Surrender for cash as shown in column one of the table below. (4) Surrender for paid-up non-participating insurance as shown in column two of the table below.

ANTECEDENT SURVIVORSHIP SETTLEMENT.—At the end of twenty years from the date if all premiums have been duly paid hereon, and the insured be then living, the y guarantees: (1) That this policy may be surrendered to the company for anted cash value, as stated in table on the second page hereof, together with viduals and accrued interest as have been credited to this policy; or (2) this ay be continued in force as a fully paid-up policy for its face amount, entitled al cash dividends thereafter, and in addition thereto the company will pay the in cash such dividends and accrued interest as have been credited to this policy; is policy may be continued in force as a fully paid-up policy for its face amount, to annual cash dividends thereafter and such dividends together with accrued as may have been credited to this policy may be applied to purchase a paid-up ating insurance addition hereto, provided that the insured shall furnish evidence health, satisfactory to the company, except that if two year's previous notice y the insured in writing and acknowledged by the company, such evidence ability will not be required.

ANTECEDENT OPTION—CHANGE OF PLAN.—This policy may, at the option of the int- any anniversary of its date of issue, and without medical re-examination, be d for any other form of policy issued by the company, provided the amount nce under such policy shall not be greater or the rate of premium less than under this policy, and provided application for such change be made in writing to the company, and the first premium on the new policy be paid while this policy is in force. Such change may be effected in one of the following methods, to-wit: (First) The company will issue a new policy, to date concurrently with the date of exchange, in which case the entire net reserve value of this policy will be applied toward the payment of premiums on the new contract; or, (Second) the company will issue a new policy, to date concurrently with the original issuance of this contract, upon payment by the insured of the difference between the annual premiums on the two policies, with interest thereon compounded at six per cent per annum from the beginning of the policy.

GUARANTEED ANNUITY OPTIONS.—If this policy shall have been maintained in full force and all premiums as they fall due hereunder paid in full, and there be no existing indebtedness under the policy, the company guarantees on surrender of this policy (1) At the end of twenty years from the date hereof, or (2) on attainment of age sixty-five, to issue to the insured, in lieu of all other benefits hereunder, an annuity bond guaranteeing for life the following annuities, first payments payable respectively on the date specified: (1) $479.60 annually or $234.80 semi-annually. First payment January 1, 1934 or (2) $795.10 annually or $398.40 semi-annually. First payment July 1, 1934. Above income is exclusive of dividends, which dividends may be applied to increase above income at the option of the insured.

GUARANTEED INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—The amount insured under this policy is payable in one sum, but if the amount payable be not less than $1000 it may, at the option of the insured, be made payable instead in equal annual instalments from two to twenty-five, or in a first large instalment, followed by subsequent annual instalments of similar equal amounts or may be made payable to the beneficiary, if such beneficiary be a natural person, in equal annual instalments, to continue for twenty years and so long thereafter as the beneficiary may live.

The amount of each instalment shall be based upon the amount insured under this policy, and shall be determined from the following tables:

The insured may subsequently change any selection of instalment benefits, and may revoke any selection, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. Each election, change or revocation must be made by the insured in writing, must be consented to by the assignee, if any, and shall not take effect until endorsed on the policy by the company at its home office. The payment of the first instalment shall be made immediately upon receipt and approval of due proof of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually (or monthly) thereafter. If the beneficiary should die before all instalments certain have been paid, the remainder of the instalments certain shall be commuted at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments unless a right is given to the beneficiary by the insured in writing and is endorsed on the policy by the company at its home office during the lifetime of the insured. If the proceeds of this policy, or any portion thereof, are payable to executors, administrators or assigns, such proceeds shall be paid in one sum. If more than one beneficiary has right under the limited instalment plan, whether special or otherwise, such right shall terminate and vest in the survivors, and shall not be severed without the consent of the company.

POLICY AND APPLICATION—THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—(1) The company will admit the age of the insured upon satisfactory proof; failing such proof, if the age shall have been understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be the amount of insurance which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured. (2) If indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall first be deducted in payment hereunder. (3) This policy and the application, a copy of which is herewith attached, shall constitute the entire contract. (4) No condition, privilege or provision in this policy can be waived or modified in any case, except by endorsement hereon, made by the president, vice-president, secretary or actuary of the company. No agent has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any other contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying premiums, to waive any forfeiture or to bind the company by making any promises or making or receiving any representation or information.

The insurance hereby granted is term insurance for the first policy year, and limited payment life insurance thereafter, and the premium for the first policy year is a premium for one year's term insurance.

In witness whereof the said San Francisco Life Insurance Company, at its home office in the city of San Francisco, State of California, has caused this policy to be signed by its proper officers this first day of January, 1913.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare that all the statements and answers to the above questions are complete and true, and I agree that the foregoing, together with this declaration, as well as the statements and answers made or to be made to the company's medical examiner, shall constitute the application and become a part of the contract of insurance hereby applied for, and it is further agreed that the policy herein applied for shall be accepted subject to the privileges and provisions therein contained, and said policy shall not take effect until the same shall be issued and delivered to me by the said company, and the first premium paid thereon in full, while my health is in the same condition as described in this application.

I agree that no statements, promises, representations, notice or information made or given by or to the person or persons soliciting or taking this application, or by or to any other person, shall be binding on said company or in any manner affect its rights except the same be reduced to writing, made a part of this application and approved in writing by an executive officer of said company.

I further agree, that any distribution of surplus or dividends on any policy issued hereunder shall be in accordance with the plan and method then in use by said company in such distribution, and its determination of any and all distributions under said policy shall be and is hereby ratified and accepted by me and by and for every person who shall have or claim any interest under said policy.

I hereby certify that before signing I have read each and all of the above questions, statements, answers and agreements.

San Jacinto Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $302.80. AGE, 35.

San Jacinto Life Insurance Company, Beaumont, Tex., promises to pay ten thousand dollars to Mrs. Mary Doe, wife, if living, or otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, upon receipt of due proofs of the death of Richard Doe the insured, during the continuance of this policy.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment in advance of the sum of three hundred two dollars and eighty cents, being the premium for one year's term insurance from the date hereof, and the payment of the same sum on or before the twenty-first day of April in every year thereafter for nineteen years, or until the prior death of the insured, as renewal premiums to complete the contract.

The privileges, provisions and conditions, loan and non-forfeiture values stated on the following pages form a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures hereto.

Executed, this twenty-first day of April, 1915, at the home office of the company in Beaumont, Texas.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue except for the non-payment of premiums.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days without interest charge shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which days of grace this insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the period of grace the premiums for the current policy year will be deducted from any amount payable hereunder.

OPTIONS IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—Renewal premiums shall be payable annually in advance, but the company will upon request make a written contract with the insured changing the payments to semi-annual or quarterly instalments. Premiums must be paid at the home office of the company or, at the pleasure of the company, to a designated collector, but in any case, only in exchange for the company's receipt therefor, signed by a president, vice-president or secretary and countersigned by such collector. If any premium, or obligation therefor, is not paid when due, this policy shall be ipso facto null and void, except as herein provided.

NON-FORFEITURE.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid hereon, if any premium shall not be paid when due, this policy shall become automatically non-forfeitable and the insured shall have the following options: (a) The insurance will, without action of the insured or payment of further premiums, be continued as paid-up term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in "Column 2" of the Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full, but any indebtedness to the company hereon will correspondingly decrease the term of the extension; (b) Or upon written request made by the insured within six (6) months from said due date, and the legal surrender of this policy the company will issue a paid-up life policy for the amount specified in "Column 3" of the Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon, for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full, but any indebtedness hereon shall correspondingly increase the amount of paid-up insurance; (c) Or upon written request of the insured within six (6) months from said due date, and the legal surrender of this policy, the company will pay in cash therefor the amount specified in "Column 1" of the Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full, less any unpaid indebtedness hereon.

CONVERSION PRIVILEGE.—At any time while it is in force under its original conditions, this policy may, without medical examination, be converted into any other form of policy issued by the company at this time, for an amount of insurance not greater than the amount of this policy, bearing the original date of this policy, and at a premium rate of the age of the insured at entry, upon payment to the company of the difference between the reserve value of this policy and the reserve value of the new policy at the date of conversion according to the standard named herein.

THE INSURED IS ENTITLED TO CASH LOANS ON THE SOLE SECURITY OF THIS POLICY AT ANY TIME AFTER THE PAYMENT OF THREE FULL YEARS' PREMIUMS.—The aggregate loans hereunder shall not exceed the sum stated in "Column 1" of the "Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full. Any unpaid balance of the current year's premium and all other indebtedness to the company on this policy will be deducted from such loan value. A loan agreement and assignment of the policy must be executed by the insured upon the company's form. Interest will be at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable in advance to the end of the current policy year and annually in advance thereafter. Failure to pay any loan or interest thereon shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value of this policy.

REINSTATEMENT.—Unless previously surrendered, this policy may be reinstated at any time within five years after default in the payment of any renewal premium, provided selection made by the insured shall have been paid, the remainder of the instalment be commuted on the basis of four per cent compound interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. If this policy be of the endowment plan, and the insured survive the endowment period, but die before receiving all the instalments called for hereunder, the remainder of the instalments may be commuted as above and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I have verified each of the foregoing answers made in the application for insurance to the Medical Examiner, and adopt them as my own, whether written by me or not, and represent that they are full, complete and true answers to the questions against which they are written. And I agree that their truth shall be a condition precedent to the binding contract issued upon the faith of the said answers.

I expressly waive, on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim an interest in any policy issued hereunder, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who has attended or examined me, or who may hereafter attend or examine me, from disclosing any knowledge or information which he thereby acquired.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Scandia Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $359.20. AGE, 25.

Scandia Life Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill., agrees to pay ten thousand dollars to Mary Smith, wife, of the insured, or to such beneficiary as may have been duly designated, if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, at the head office of the company in Chicago, Ill., provided this policy is in full force, upon due proofs of the death of John Smith, the insured.

This policy is incontestable as to residence and travel.

This agreement is made in consideration of the application, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part of this contract, and of the payment in advance of premiums as follows: Three hundred, fifty-nine dollars and twenty cents on the first day of January, 1908, being a term premium for insurance terminating on the first day of January, 1909, and the advance reserve hereon set apart to the credit of this policy, for which consideration also this policy will be renewed at the end of said period, as a limited payment life policy of insurance, from that date by the payment of three hundred, fifty-nine dollars and twenty cents, on the first day of January, 1909, and of a like sum on the first day of each January every year thereafter, until, but not including, the first day of January, 1928, after which no further payments of premiums will be required.

DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS.—The proportion of the surplus earnings accruing on this policy, shall be ascertained and distributed annually, beginning with the end of the second policy year, and the owner of this policy shall have the choice of the following:

OPTIONS.—(1) Receive the dividends in cash. (2) Apply the dividends to a reduction in premiums. (3) Apply the dividends to the purchase of addition to the policy. (4) Let the dividends accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest, at the rate of three and one half per cent per annum and payable at the maturity of the policy, but subject to withdrawal on any anniversary of its date of issue. Unless the owner of this policy shall elect otherwise, within three months after the mailing by the company of a notice to the last known address of the owner of this policy, requiring such election, the dividend shall be payable in cash. The distribution of surplus at the end of the second year shall be contingent upon payment of premium for next year.

ENDOWMENT OPTION.—If the dividends apportioned to this policy, are left to accumulate to the credit of the policy as provided in the fourth option above; then when, at the expiration of any policy year, such accumulated dividends, together with the cash value of this policy, shall equal or exceed the sum insured hereby, less any indebtedness to the company, then this policy shall be deemed to have matured as an endowment and the entire sum shall be paid to the insured upon the surrender of this policy.

STATE OF ILLINOIS.—INSURANT'S DEPARTMENT.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., January 1, 1908.

This policy is registered; and approved securities, equal in value to the legal reserve hereon, are held in trust by this department.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—This policy does not take effect until the first premium shall actually have been paid during the good health of the insured. All premiums hereon are payable in advance at the head office of the company in Chicago, Ill., or may be paid elsewhere to agents of the company on or before the date when due, in exchange for the company's receipt, signed by the president or secretary of the company and countersigned by the agent. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or instalment thereof, shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable, and from any sum payable under this policy, there shall be deducted the unpaid portion of the annual premium for the then current policy year, and also any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. Notice of every premium that may become due or payable hereunder is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this policy, and any further notice is expressly waived by the insured. A grace of one month, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which month the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the month of grace, the unpaid premium for the then current policy year will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company, at any time while this policy is in force, will loan on the execution of a proper loan agreement by the insured, and on proper assignment and delivery of the policy, and on the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not exceeding five per cent per annum, a sum equal to, or at the option of the insured less than the reserve at the end of the current policy year, on the policy, and on the dividend additions thereto, if any, computed on the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest, less an amount not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and of the dividend additions thereto, if any. The company, however, will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and will collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. No condition other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such loan.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—If any premium on this policy be not paid in cash on or before the date on which it is due or within the month of grace, the company will charge up such premium (and any subsequent premium or premiums not paid in cash), with five per cent per annum interest in advance against the then loan value of this policy as stated above, provided that any such loan value is sufficient and provided that written request to that effect has been made by the owner hereof at any time while there is no default in payment of any premium hereunder. Any premium or premiums so charged against the loan value of this policy shall be considered as a loan upon the policy and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as any loans made under the terms of the section for "loans." Such request may be revoked at any time in writing by said owner, provided, however, that such revocation shall not affect any loan that may have been previously made under this privilege.

OPTIONS IN CASE OF DEFAULT IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—In the event of default in premium payments, after premiums shall have been paid for three years, the insured shall, within one month after such default, be entitled to a selection of any one of the following options. (a) To accept the value of this policy in cash, or (b) to have the insurance continued in force from date of default, without future participation, and without the right to loans, for the face amount, including any outstanding dividend additions, less any indebtedness to the company hereon, or (c) to purchase non-participating paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and on the same condition as this policy. The cash value will be the reserve at the date of default on this policy, and on any dividend additions thereto, computed on the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest, less an amount not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy. The term for which the insurance will be continued or the amount of the paid-up policy will be such as the cash value will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest. If the owner shall not, within one month from default, surrender this policy to the company at its head office in Chicago, Ill., for a cash surrender value or for paid-up insurance as provided in options (a) and (c) then the insurance will be continued as provided in option (b). The figures in the following table are computed for the end of policy years in accordance with the above provisions and upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy, and that there are no outstanding dividend additions.

At the end of the premium paying period when this policy shall become fully paid-up, and continuously thereafter, the cash and loan values shall be equal to the reserve computed on the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest and dividend additions thereto, if any, and no other deductions therefrom shall be made than indebtedness to the company on this policy. Premiums paid for fractional parts of a year in addition thereto, will proportionally increase these values.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of continued temporary insurance under the above provision, this policy upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, may be reinstated within the first three years of the term for which the insurance is continued by payment of all arrears of premiums, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum.

BENEFITS AND PRIVILEGES.—The insured, at any time while this policy is in force, provided the policy is not then assigned, or the legal owner at the time the policy becomes a claim, if the insured has not filed for record at the head office of the company, a choice of benefits hereunder, may change the mode of payment of the proceeds, as set forth on the first page hereof, to a choice of settlements shown in benefits A. and B. as follows:

BENEFIT A. LIFE INCOME.—In lieu of each one thousand ($1000) dollars of cash value the company will pay an annual income at the end of each year for twenty (20) years, regardless of the survival of the beneficiary, and for the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, of the amount set opposite the age at last birthday of the beneficiary then making claim as shown in the following table: (Payment by continuous instalments cannot be selected if there is more than one beneficiary under this policy).

Age of beneficiary at death of insured...	49 to 51 $52	52 to 54 $53	55 to 58 $54	59 or over $55

BENEFIT B. LIMITED INCOME.—In lieu of each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of cash value the company will pay an annual income for a limited number of years depending on the age or survival of the beneficiary. The first payment to be made when the cash value becomes due, and to be upon the basis shown in the following table:

Number of payments guaranteed.....	5	10	15	20	25
Amount of annual income guaranteed.....	$211	$113	$81	$65	$54

POLICY AND APPLICATION CONSTITUTE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—The policy and its application therefor, a copy of which shall be attached to the policy, shall constitute the entire contract, and all statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in a written application, and a copy of such application is attached to the policy when issued.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from the date hereof, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums when due. During one year from the date hereof the liability of the company in case of death by the insured's own hand or act, whether sane or insane, shall be limited to the amount of premium paid hereon.

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured, at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided the policy is not then assigned, may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, by written notice to the company, at its head office, accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect upon the endorsement of same on the policy by the company. If there is no nominated beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the amount due under this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—(1) Only the president or secretary has power, in behalf of the company, to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore made by any person other than the above. Any modification or alteration, if made, shall be only to such a policy as may be issued in accordance with the law of the domicile of the insured. (2) If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be the insurance which the actual premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured. Age will be admitted on satisfactory proof. (3) Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and both sent to the head office, one to be retained by the company, and the other to be returned. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

AGREEMENTS IN APPLICATION.

I agree as follows: That all the foregoing statements and answers, as well as those made to the company's medical examiner, in continuation of this application, are true full and complete, and are offered to the company as a consideration of the contract to be issued hereon, and that the insurance hereby applied for shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been paid and the said policy shall have been delivered during my continuance in good health. I also agree, that death by my own hand or act whether sane or insane, during the period of one year from the date of any policy issue hereon, shall not be a risk covered thereby for a greater sum than the amounts actually paid to the company thereon.

Scranton Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ENDOWMENT AT 80.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $340.70. AGE

Scranton Life Insurance Company by this contract of insurance agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, at its office in the city of Scranton, Pa., upon receipt of due proof of the death during the continuance of this policy of John I. the insured, of Scranton, county of Lackawanna, State of Pennsylvania, to the beneficiary, Mary Doe, wife of the insured, if living, or in the event of her prior death, then to the executor, administrators or assigns of the insured; or the company agrees to pay, on the first day of January, 1959, the sum of ten thousand dollars, as an endowment, to the insured, if then living.

CONSIDERATION.—The foregoing agreement is made in consideration of the application for this insurance, a true and correct copy of which is hereto attached, and of the representations contained in said application which is the basis of part of this contract, and in further consideration of the payments in advance of three hundred forty dollars, seventy cents for year's insurance from the date hereof. This policy will be renewed at the end of the first year, and shall continue until death or maturity, as above described, subject to the payment in advance of three hundred forty dollars, seventy cents on the first day of January, 1913, and the payment of a like amount thereafter every anniversary date of this policy until twenty full years' premiums, including the first, shall have been paid hereon to the company, or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the conditions and provisions specified on the following pages hereof, which form part of this policy as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof the Scranton Life Insurance Company, of Scranton, has this day of January, 1912, by its duly authorized officers, executed this contract at its office in the city of Scranton, State of Pennsylvania, but the same shall not be binding until it is delivered to the insured during his lifetime and good health, nor until first payment herein required has been received and accepted by the company.

BENEFITS, PROFITS AND PRIVILEGES.

DISABILITY PROTECTION.—If, while this policy is in force and before a default in payment of any premium, the insured or his legal representative shall, on or before the first day of November in any year, furnish proof satisfactory to the company that the insured is disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be wholly, continuously and permanently prevented thereby from performing any work or service for compensation or profit, the company, by endorsement hereon and subject to the due payment by the insured of the premium for the then current policy year, will, from and after the succeeding anniversary date of this policy, continue this insurance in force without further premium payment; and the surrender and loan values in the tabulated schedule herein shall increase from year to year in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid in cash by the insured; provided that notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured, or his legal representative, shall at any time, on demand, furnish the company due evidence of the continuance of such disability; and failing to furnish such evidence, the insured shall, on the first premium due date following such failure, resume payment of such premium in cash, as required on page one of this contract. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severing of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot will be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

DIVIDENDS.—Five years from the date hereof, and at yearly intervals thereafter, the insured shall be paid in cash an equitable share of the accumulated surplus of the company provided there shall have been no default in payment of premiums, and that this contract is otherwise in full force.

CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time while the policy is in full force, will advance on proper assignment of the policy and on the sole security thereof, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than the reserve, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest, at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto, less a sum not more than one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy. Loans shall be made mature upon the anniversary of this policy next succeeding the date of loan. Loans shall be made at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum and all other indebtedness by pany will be deducted from any loan so made. Failure to repay any such advance shall not void the policy unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one (not less than thirty days) after notice shall have been mailed by the company insured and the assignee, if any, at their respective addresses last known to the company.

WITHOUT INTEREST.—After this policy has been in force for one year, a grace month (but not less than thirty days) will be allowed in the payment of premium, during the grace period, any such overdue premium shall be considered in default. If it occurs within the days of grace the unpaid portion of the premium for the then policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY AND ASSIGNMENT.—The policyholder may, without the consent of the beneficiary, effect a loan against this policy, surrender it to the company, any loan, surrender-value, or dividend-value, assign it as provided herein, or effect a revocation has not been waived, the insured by written notice to the company, the home office may at any time and from time to time while this policy is in force change the beneficiary hereunder, such change to take effect only upon endorsement made on the policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary cease. No change of beneficiary shall be valid, if at the time of such change, this or any interest therein be assigned. If any beneficiary shall die before the interest of such beneficiary shall immediately revert to and vest in the insured unless otherwise specifically provided herein. This company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any assignment of this contract or any interest therein, unless a true and certified copy of such assignment is filed at the home office of the company. The responsibility is assumed by the company as to the sufficiency or validity of any assignment.

INTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after fourteen months from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium, and provided that any misstatement of the age of the insured will be adjusted by the company insuring such amount premium actually paid would have purchased at the correct age. It is further provided that in the event of suicide, committed while sane or insane during the first year of this contract, the limit of recovery shall be the premium paid.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse for non-payment of premium, it may at any time during the life of the insured be reinstated subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of past due premiums and all other indebtedness outstanding at time of default, with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum.

GUARANTEED SURRENDER VALUES.—Upon legal surrender of this policy at the end of any year or any subsequent policy year, the insured may select in writing one of the following guaranteed options, according to the number of full years this policy shall have been in force at date of premium default. If no election be made within one month after premium default, the company, without action on the part of the insured, will use this policy in force as term insurance for the period specified in the table, in addition to then existing paid-up insurance, if any, previously purchased by the applicant.

FIRST OPTION. CASH VALUE.—The cash value will be the reserve on this policy at the date of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table with three and one-half per cent interest, less not more than one and one-half per cent of the face amount insured by this policy.

SECOND OPTION. PAID-UP INSURANCE.—A participating policy, requiring no further payment of premiums, to be issued for such amount as the cash value will purchase at the date of premium default, according to said table of mortality and said rate of interest; such policy shall mature as an endowment at age eighty if the insured be then living.

THIRD OPTION. EXTENDED INSURANCE AND PURE ENDOWMENT.—The cash value will be used, according to the said table of mortality and said rate of interest, to purchase a non-participating policy for the sum of ten thousand dollars, to continue in force without loan value or further premium payment, for the term specified in the table of extended insurance, said term including the days of grace; and the insured, if living at the end of such term, shall be paid in cash the pure endowment, if any, specified in the table. Within three months after premium default, the insured shall have the right to exchange this option for its equivalent of paid-up insurance as provided in the second option.

The figures in the table of guaranteed values, corresponding to the above options, computed on the assumption that this policy, at the date of premium default, be free of indebtedness; otherwise, it is provided that any indebtedness existing against this policy at the time of surrender shall operate to reduce the above options as follows: (First) To reduce the cash value in the sum of such indebtedness; (second) to diminish proportionately the amount of paid-up endowment insurance; (third) to diminish the face amount of extended insurance (and pure endowment, if any,) in the ratio of the indebtedness to the net value of the extended insurance (and pure endowment, if any,) given in the table.

If the premiums on this policy be paid in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, allowance will be made in computing benefits from the table for any such instalment paid in addition to the number of full years' premiums paid.

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the insured or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

PROVISIONS.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—(1) No agent is authorized to make, alter or discharge this contract, waive any forfeiture thereof, make any contract binding on the company to accept any note in the payment of any premium, extend the time for paying the premium or to assume its payment. (2) This policy and the application hereof constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured. (3) It is agreed that all statements made by the insured in the application for this insurance shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties; and that no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in a written application of which a copy has been endorsed upon or attached to this contract of insurance when issued.

PREMIUMS.—(1) All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company but will be accepted if paid to an agent authorized to receive the same in exchange for a receipt signed by the treasurer or secretary, and countersigned by such agent. Upon any anniversary of this policy, the mode of premium payment may, upon request to the home office, be changed from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or, conversely, at the premium rates in use by the company at the date hereof, but the payment of any premium or instalment thereof shall not continue this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. (3) If any premium or instalment thereof be not paid before the end of the period of grace, then this policy shall immediately cease and become void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided in this policy. (4) In the event of the death of the insured, any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy-year shall be paid to the estate of the insured, and the balance of the premium for the then current policy-year shall be paid to the company against this policy.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall be deducted in any payment or payments or in any settlement under this policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

All the statements made to the medical examiner, as well as those contained in part of this application, are the basis and form a part of the proposed contract for insurance subject to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania. I hereby warrant all the foregoing statements and answers and all those that I made in part one of this application to be full and complete, and I offer said statements and answers to the company as a condition of the contract which I hereby agree to accept, and which shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been paid to the company during my lifetime and continue in good health, and the policy shall have been signed by the president, treasurer or secretary of the company, and issued. I hereby declare and agree that without the consent of the company first obtained in writing, I will not during the first year of said contract, be in military or naval service in time of war unless drafted for such service, or travel reside in the Torrid Zone, or make aeronautic ascensions, and I further agree that no statement or declaration made to any agent, examiner, or any other person, shall be taken into consideration upon the company or in any manner affect or prejudice its rights, unless such statement or declarations are reduced to writing in this application. I expressly waive, on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued hereunder, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who examines me from disclosing any knowledge or information which he thereby acquires. I agree that in any distribution of surplus, the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for such distribution, and its determination of the amount apportioned to each policy, shall be and are hereby ratified and accepted by and for me and every person who shall have or claim any interest in said contract. I certify that I have read the foregoing questions and that my answers and statements are correctly and completely made.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $20,000.

FIRST OPTION. CASH VALUE.—The cash value will be the reserve on this at the date of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, less not more than one and one-half of the face amount insured by this policy.

SECOND OPTION. PAID-UP INSURANCE.—A participating policy, requiring no payment of premiums, to be issued for such amount as the cash value will pay at the date of premium default, according to said table of mortality and said rate of interest, such policy shall mature as an endowment at age eighty if the insured be then living.

THIRD OPTION. EXTENDED INSURANCE AND PURE ENDOWMENT.—The cash value to be used, according to the said table of mortality and said rate of interest, to pay a non-participating policy for the sum of ten thousand dollars, to continue in force without loan value or further premium payment, for the term specified in the table, extended insurance, said term including the days of grace; and the insured, if at the end of such term, shall be paid in cash the pure endowment, if any, specified in the table. Within three months after premium default, the insured shall be at right to exchange this option for its equivalent of paid-up insurance as provided in the second option.

The figures in the table of guaranteed values, corresponding to the above options, computed on the assumption that this policy, at the date of premium default, is not indebtedness; otherwise, it is provided that any indebtedness existing against this policy at the time of surrender shall operate to reduce the above options as follows: (First) To reduce the cash value in the sum of such indebtedness; (second) to reduce proportionately the amount of paid-up endowment insurance; (third) to diminish the face amount of extended insurance (and pure endowment, if any,) in the ratio of the indebtedness to the net value of the extended insurance (and pure endowment, if any,) given in the table.

If the premiums on this policy be paid in quarterly or semi-annual instalment allowance will be made in computing benefits from the table for any such instalment in addition to the number of full years' premiums paid.

The first year's premium under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the insured or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

PROVISIONS.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—(1) No agent is authorized to make, alter or discharge a contract, waive any forfeiture thereof, make any contract binding on the company or accept any note in the payment of any premium, extend the time for paying the premium or to assume its payment. (2) This policy and the application hereof constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured. (3) It is agreed that all statements made by the insured in the application for this insurance shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties; and that no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in a written application of which a copy has been endorsed upon or attached to this contract of insurance when issued.

PREMIUMS.—(1) All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company but will be accepted if paid to an agent authorized to receive the same in exchange for a receipt signed by the treasurer or secretary, and countersigned by such agent. Upon any anniversary of this policy, the mode of premium payment may, upon request to the home office, be changed from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice versa, at the premium rates in use by the company at the date hereof, but the payment of any premium or instalment thereof shall not continue this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. (3) If any premium or instalment thereof be not paid before the end of the period of grace, then this policy shall immediately cease and become void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided in this policy. (4) In the event of default of any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy-year shall be considered an indebtedness to the company against this policy.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall be deducted in any payment or payments or in any settlement under this policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

All the statements made to the medical examiner, as well as those contained in this application, are the basis and form a part of the proposed contract for insurance subject to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania. I hereby warrant all the foregoing statements and answers and all those that I made in part one of this application to be full and complete, and I offer said statements and answers to the company as a condition of the contract which I hereby agree to accept, and which shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been paid to the company during my lifetime and continue in good health, and the policy shall have been signed by the president, treasurer or secretary of the company, and issued. I hereby declare and agree that without the consent of the company first obtained in writing, I will not during the first year of said contract, in military or naval service in time of war unless drafted for such service, or to reside in the Torrid Zone, or make aeronautic ascensions, and I further agree that no statement or declaration made to any agent, examiner, or any other person, shall be taken into consideration in any manner affect or prejudice its rights, unless such statement or declarations are reduced to writing in this application. I expressly waive, on my part and on the part of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy hereunder, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who examines or discloses any knowledge or information which he thereby acquires. I agree in any distribution of surplus, the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for such distribution, and its determination of the amount apportioned to each policy, shall be and are hereby ratified and accepted by and for me and every person who shall have or claim any interest in said contract. I certify that I have read this policy and its conditions and that my answers and statements are correctly and completely in accordance with the facts.

force only for the time specified in said receipt. In case any premium should not be paid when due, according to the terms of this contract, then in every such case this policy shall cease and determine, except as otherwise herein especially provided. This contract is based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest, and the loan and other values given herein are derived from the reserve computed in accordance with said basis.

7. REINSTATEMENT.—In case of lapse or forfeiture of this policy for non-payment of premiums, it may be reinstated by the payment of defaulted premiums and by the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness, with five per cent compound interest, and upon receipt of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

8. AUTHORITY.—This policy, together with the application therefor, shall constitute the entire contract. Only the president, vice-president, secretary or actuary has power, in behalf of the company, to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for the payment of any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above.

9. PROOFS OF DEATH.—Any cause of action at law or in equity arising on this policy contract shall be deemed to accrue upon the death of the insured, and any suit at law or in equity shall be commenced within six years after such cause of action shall have accrued, provided that due proofs of death must be filed at the executive office of the company not less than sixty days before such suit shall be commenced.

10. AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

11. NOTICES.—The insured should give prompt notice to the company of any change of residence or postoffice address. Notice that each and every payment due or to become due hereon at the date named is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this policy and any further notice required by any statute is hereby expressly waived.

12. MISCELLANEOUS.—In the event of self-destruction, sane or insane, or of death in consequence of violation of law, within one year from the date of the policy, the amount payable as a death benefit under the policy shall be equal to one annual premium on the policy and no more.

Active service in the army or navy in time of war shall invalidate the insurance, except as to the cash surrender value of the policy, unless a permit for such service shall have been applied for and granted by the company, and the extra premium therefor paid to the company on notification; at any time within one year after the date of policy, travel or residence in the Torrid Zone or north of sixty degrees North Latitude or engagement in any of the following occupations or employments will render the policy, and any and all renewals thereof null and void, except as to the cash surrender value of the policy at the time: Handling electric wires or dynamos, blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, the manufacture, handling or transportation of inflammable or explosive substances, service upon any railroad train or track, or on any steamboat, switching or coupling cars.

13. INSTALLMENT METHODS.—The insured at any time, this policy being then in force may elect by written request on the company's form, that each thousand dollars of insurance due upon the maturity of this policy by death (after the deduction of any indebtedness thereon, if any) shall be paid to the beneficiary in accordance with either of the following installment methods. In each case the first installment shall be due upon the receipt of satisfactory proofs of the death of the insured, provided, that if there be more than one beneficiary this method shall not be available without the consent of the company.

METHOD.—(1) In ten annual installments of $116.17 each, amounting to $1,161.70 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or (2) in fifteen annual installments of $83.89 each, amounting to $1,258.35 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or (3) in twenty annual installments of $67.98 each, amounting to $1,359.60 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or (4) in annual installments for twenty years and as many years longer as the beneficiary may live; the amount of each installment to be determined by the following table, based on the age of the beneficiary at the birthday last preceding the death of the insured; or (5) in annual installments during the life of the beneficiary; the amount of each installment to be determined by the following table, based on the age of the beneficiary at the birthday last preceding the death of the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is hereby agreed that all the statements made herein, (part one), and in any amendments or supplements hereto, and also those I make to the company's medical examiner, (part two), which are hereby made a part of this application, are full, complete and true, and shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and are offered to the company as a consideration for the policy applied for, which policy I agree to accept, if issued as applied for, but the same shall not take effect until this application, which I agree to complete by submitting promptly to a medical examination, has been accepted by the company at the executive office in Chicago, Ill., and the policy to be issued thereon shall actually be delivered to and receipted for by me, and the first premium shall have been paid to and accepted by the company, or an authorized agent, all during the life and good health of the person herein proposed for insurance.

I hereby waive, both for myself and for all persons who may hereafter claim any interest in the policy herein applied for, all my rights under any and all statutes that prohibit or restrict any physician who has attended me or prescribed for me, or who may in the future attend me or prescribe for me, from testifying in any court regarding my health, habits or any communications I may have made to him regarding the same, and I agree that such physician or physicians may testify as to all such matters as fully as if no legal prohibition or restriction on such testimony had ever existed.

It is hereby agreed that the foregoing statements and answers made to the company's medical examiner, are full, complete and true, and shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and are offered to the company as a consideration of the contract and to complete the application for insurance heretofore made.

ed in the ratio of the indebtedness to the then cash value. The period of extension in the table for complete policy years up to and including the twentieth) shall be upon a value not less than the reserve, at the date of default, on this policy minus and one-half per cent of the amount of insurance granted by this policy; provided, said value be more than sufficient to purchase a period of extension for life, the said value shall be accumulated for a cash payment to the insured at the end of the twentieth from the date of this policy, if he shall then be living.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After this policy shall have been in force for two years, and if it has not been extended as term insurance, the company will, upon written application therefor and surrender of this policy, issue a non-participating paid-up policy for the amount stated in the table, provided there is no indebtedness hereon. Said paid-up insurance shall be based upon a value not less than the reserve, at the time of such surrender, on the policy minus two and one-half per cent of the amount of insurance granted by this policy, and if said paid-up insurance shall exceed the face amount of this policy, the insured shall furnish evidence of good health satisfactory to the company.

SURRENDER.—The insured may surrender this policy to the company within thirty-one days after the date of payment of any premium and receive in cash the full legal reserve value of the actual extended insurance automatically available under this policy. Cash values for complete policy years up to and including the twentieth year are given in the table and are subject to deductions of any indebtedness hereon.

LOANS.—A cash loan may be obtained upon the sole security of this policy at any time for three full years' premiums have been paid, this policy being then in force, and all loans, including the current year's premiums, having been duly paid; but the company reserves the right to defer the granting of said loan for six months (but not later than the next anniversary date of the policy) after the application therefor. Application for loans must be made in writing by the insured, and the loans will be subject to the terms of any loan agreement, with interest at five per cent per annum in advance. The amount of loan available shall include any previous loans unpaid. No loan value given in the table herein shall be less than the reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy minus two and one-half per cent of the amount of insurance granted by this policy.

Failure to repay such loan, or to pay interest thereon when due, shall not void the policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan hereunder, at the time of such failure, nor until thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee.

TABLE OF GUARANTEES.—The accumulations at any year of the guaranteed cash payment above are not forfeited upon discontinuance of this policy. Full particulars therefor is contained in the values of this table.

Values for later years shall be computed upon the same basis and be subject to the terms and conditions as specified in this policy for prior values given herein, except the full reserve shall be used therefor.

ASSIGNMENT.—This policy may be assigned upon written approval by the company executive office, but the company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of assignment.

BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time during the continuance of this policy, subject to the rules of the company regarding assignments and beneficiaries, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by written notice to the company at its executive office; such notice to take effect upon approval by the company.

PREMIUMS.—Upon thirty days' notice the insured shall have the option, at the time premium falls due, of paying an annual, semi-annual or quarterly premium at the office of the company or to agents when they produce an official receipt countersigned by them, at the company's rates for this policy, and the receipt for said premium in all cases be signed by the president or secretary and will continue this policy in force only for the time specified in said receipt. In case any premium should not be paid when due, according to the terms of this contract, then in every such case this policy shall cease and determine, except as otherwise herein especially provided. This contract is based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest, and the loan and other values given herein are derived from the same computed in accordance with said basis.

7. REINSTATEMENT.—In case of lapse or forfeiture of this policy for non-payment of premiums, it may be reinstated by the payment of defaulted premiums and by the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness, with five per cent compound interest, and upon receipt of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

8. AUTHORITY.—This policy, together with the application therefor, shall constitute the entire contract. Only the president, vice-president, secretary or actuary has power, in behalf of the company, to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for the payment of any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above.

9. PROOFS OF DEATH.—Any cause of action at law or in equity arising on this policy contract shall be deemed to accrue upon the death of the insured, and any suit at law or in equity shall be commenced within six years after such cause of action shall have accrued, provided that due proof of death must be filed at the executive office of the company not less than sixty days before such suit shall be commenced.

10. AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

11. NOTICES.—The insured should give prompt notice to the company of any change of residence or postoffice address. Notice that each and every payment due or to become due hereon at the date named is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this policy and any further notice required by any statute is hereby expressly waived.

12. MISCELLANEOUS.—In the event of self-destruction, sane or insane, or of death by consequence of violation of law, within one year from the date of the policy, the amount payable as a death benefit under the policy shall be equal to one annual premium on the policy and no more.

Active service in the army or navy in time of war shall invalidate the insurance, except as to the cash surrender value of the policy, unless a permit for such service shall have been applied for and granted by the company, and the extra premium therefor paid to the company on notification; at any time within one year after the date of policy, travel or residence in the Torrid Zone or north of sixty degrees North Latitude or engagement in any of the following occupations or employments will render the policy, and any renewal thereof null and void, except as to the cash surrender value of the policy at the time: Handling electric wires or dynamos, blasting, mining, submarine work, aeronautic ascensions, the manufacture, handling or transportation of inflammable or explosive substances, service upon any railroad train or track, or on any steamboat, switching or coupling cars.

13. INSTALLMENT METHODS.—The insured at any time, this policy being then in force may elect by written request on the company's form, that each thousand dollars of insurance due upon the maturity of this policy by death (after the deduction of any indebtedness thereon, if any) shall be paid to the beneficiary in accordance with either of the following installment methods. In each case the first installment shall be due upon the receipt of satisfactory proofs of the death of the insured, provided, that if there be more than one beneficiary this method shall not be available without the consent of the company.

METHOD.—(1) In ten annual instalments of $116.17 each, amounting to $1,161.70 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or (2) in fifteen annual instalments of $83.89 each, amounting to $1,258.35 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or (3) in twenty annual instalments of $67.98 each, amounting to $1,359.60 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or (4) in annual instalments for twenty years and as many years longer as the beneficiary may live; the amount of each instalment to be determined by the following table, based on the age of the beneficiary at the birthday last preceding the death of the insured; or (5) in annual instalments during the life of the beneficiary; the amount of each instalment to be determined by the following table, based on the age of the beneficiary at the birthday last preceding the death of the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is hereby agreed that all the statements made herein, (part one), and in any amendments or supplements hereto, and also those I make to the company's medical examiner, (part two), which are hereby made a part of this application, are full, complete and true, and shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and are offered to the company as a consideration for the policy applied for, which policy I agree to accept, if issued as applied for, but the same shall not take effect until this application, which I agree to complete by submitting promptly to a medical examination, has been accepted by the company at the executive office in Chicago, Ill., and the policy to be issued thereon shall actually be delivered to and receipted for by me, and the first premium shall have been paid to and accepted by the company, or an authorized agent, all during the life and good health of the person herein proposed for insurance.

I hereby waive, both for myself and for all persons who may hereafter claim any interest in the policy herein applied for, all my rights under any and all statutes that prohibit or restrict any physician who has attended me or prescribed for me, or who may in the future attend me or prescribe for me, from testifying in any court regarding my health, habits or any communications I may have made to him regarding the same, and I agree that such physician or physicians may testify as to all such matters as fully as if no legal prohibition or restriction on such testimony had ever existed.

It is hereby agreed that the foregoing statements and answers made to the company's medical examiner, are full, complete and true, and shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and are offered to the company as a consideration of the contract and to complete the application for insurance heretofore made.

Security Mutual Life Insurance Company (N. Y.).

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $362.20. AGE, 35.

Security Mutual Life Insurance Company by this policy of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, upon surrender of this policy properly receipted, at the home office of the company in Binghamton, N. Y., to Mary Doe, his wife, beneficiary, with the right of revocation, upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death, occurring during the continuance of this contract, of John Doe, the insured, less any indebtedness hereon to the company, and less any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-two and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars, and of the payment of a like sum upon each second day of August hereafter until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

FREEDOM FROM CONDITIONS.—This policy is free of conditions as to residence, travel and occupation.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by this policy for suitable endorsement hereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, together with the application therefor, a copy of which application is endorsed hereon or attached hereto and made a part hereof, constitutes the entire contract between the parties, and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue except for non-payment of premiums. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid or be used in defense of a claim under this policy unless it be contained in said application and a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to this policy when issued.

DIVIDENDS.—The proportion of the divisible surplus under this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually and not otherwise. Upon payment of the second year's premium, and at the end of the second and of each subsequent policy year, dividends, at the option of the owner of the second, and while the same is in force, shall be either: (1) Paid in cash; or (2) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or (3) applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy; or (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, and payable at the maturity of the policy or withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy.

Unless the owner of this policy shall elect otherwise within three months after the mailing by the company to such owner of a written notice requiring such election, the dividends shall be applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to this policy and the reserve value of such additions, at least equal to the dividends applied in purchase thereof, shall be withdrawable in cash on demand.

PREMIUMS.—Premiums are payable in advance at said home office, or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due, of a receipt signed by the president, a vice-president, comptroller or secretary of the company, and countersigned by said agent. The premium is always considered as payable annually in advance, but by an agreement in writing may be made at the company's published rates in semi-annual or quarterly payments. The payment of a premium or instalment thereof, shall not maintain this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is due, except as herein provided. Premiums are deemed payable as stated in the application unless a written agreement providing otherwise is filed at the home office. If any premium remains unpaid at the expiration of the period of grace, the company will, upon written request by the parties in interest, apply the accumulated dividends under this policy to the premium payment then due, if sufficient to pay not less than one-quarter of an annual premium.

AUTHORITY OF AGENTS.—No person, except one of the executive officers of the company aforesaid, has authority to make, alter, modify or discharge contracts or, in event of lapse, to reinstate this policy, or to extend the time for paying a premium. Any modified form hereof shall comply with the laws of the state in which the insured is domiciled.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, without interest, shall be granted for the payment of every premium except the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the days of grace, the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured was misstated in the application, and there has been no adjustment on account thereof during the lifetime of the insured, the amount payable hereunder will be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

SURRENDER.—In event of death of the insured within one year from the date hereof by him or her own hand, whether sane or insane, the liability of the company shall not exceed the amount of premiums paid hereon.

LOANS.—The company within sixty days after application therefor is made, will loan upon the sole security of this policy, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, a sum not exceeding the amount specified in the table of loan values herein set forth, together with the reserve on any existing dividend additions under this policy, deducting therefrom all other indebtedness hereon to the company. Failure to repay any loan of interest shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash surrender value of the policy and any existing dividend additions thereto, and thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any. The whole of any part of a loan may be repaid at any time while this policy is in full force.

PREMIUM LOAN.—After two full annual premiums have been paid hereon, and upon the written request of the insured and assignee, if any, on a form furnished by and filed at the home office of the company prior to the expiration of the period of grace named herein, and upon the endorsement at said home office of an agreement to that effect on this policy, the premium or premiums falling due during the time any such request shall remain unrevoked, and not paid when or before due, will be charged against this policy as a premium loan, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, provided the tabular cash surrender value of this policy shall equal or exceed the amount of such loan, together with any other indebtedness on account of or secured hereby, and interest thereon. Any dividends held by said company to the credit of this policy shall be applied first to the payment of the premium, and future dividends hereon shall be applied to the reduction of the premium loan. The request for such loan agreement may be revoked at any time by a writing signed by the insured and the assignee, if any, and filed with the company at its home office.

EXCHANGE.—Upon written request of all parties in interest, this policy, while in force, may be exchanged on any anniversary without medical examination and at age of entry for any other form of policy then written, and not involving any other life, provided the actual insurance liability of the company shall not be increased nor the rate of premium diminished thereby. The difference between the reserves upon the respective policies shall be paid at the time of such exchange.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated after default in the payment of any premium, provided the cash value has not been paid and the extension period has not expired, upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness to the company hereon, and the payment of overdue premiums with interest at six per cent per annum.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—After three full annual premiums shall have been paid this policy may be surrendered by the owner at any time prior to any default or within three months after any default. Thereupon, (1) if there be no indebtedness hereon to the company, the owner may elect either (a) to continue the insurance in force for its face amount and any outstanding dividend additions, but without future participation, and without the right to loans; or, (b) to purchase participating paid-up life insurance payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy. The periods for which the insurance will be continued and the amounts of cash value and paid-up life insurance which will be allowed, exclusive of the application of dividend additions, are shown in the table of surrender values herein set forth.

Security Mutual Life Insurance Company (Neb.)

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000, ANNUAL PREMIUM, $361.70. AGE, 35.

The Security Mutual Life Insurance Company of Lincoln, Neb., promises to pay ten thousand dollars in lawful money of United States of America, at its home office in the City of Lincoln, Neb., immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of James Wilson hereinafter called the insured, to May Wilson living, otherwise to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured, provided that this policy is then in force.

This policy is issued in consideration of the representations and agreements made by the insured in the application therefor, of the payment of three hundred sixty-one $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and of the further payment of the same amount on the first day of December in each year thereafter until twenty full annual premiums have been paid hereon, until the prior death of the insured.

This policy having been in force two years and subject to the payment of the annual premium shall, at the end of each year for which premiums have been paid, be entitled to a dividend from the divisible surplus as apportioned by the board of directors to policies of the same age and class. Such dividends may be at the option of the insured (1) applied to purchase additional insurance or, (2) applied in reduction of premium (3) paid in cash. Unless the insured shall elect otherwise, the dividends will be paid in cash. Paid up additions may be surrendered at any time and their cash value added in payment of premiums. When this policy becomes fully paid-up, the insured may continue it as a fully paid-up participating policy entitled to annual dividends. When the policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured, and shall be incontestable after two years from its date if the premiums, which shall never be increased, shall be paid as provided. The requirements, conditions and benefits printed or written by the company on the following pages are a part of this contract as fully as if they were recited on the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof The Security Mutual Life Insurance Company of Lincoln, Neb., caused this policy to be signed at its home office in the city of Lincoln, Neb., this first day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

REQUIREMENTS, CONDITIONS AND BENEFITS.

1. CONTRACT.—No change or modification of this contract can be made by any person except the president or secretary of the company at the home office in Lincoln, Neb., any change so made must be in writing.

2. STATEMENTS BY THE INSURED.—All statements made by the insured in the application hereof in the absence of fraud shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application hereof and a copy of such application is attached hereto.

3. RIGHTS OF THE INSURED.—The insured, subject to the rights of an assignee, at any time surrender, pledge or assign this policy to the company, or on written application the company may change his beneficiary, but such change shall not take effect until the company, by its president or secretary, has endorsed its consent thereon. In no case shall the consent of the beneficiary be required.

4. SUICIDE AND SERVICE IN WAR.—If within two years from the date hereof the insured shall commit suicide while sane or insane; or if the death of the insured shall be the result of any illegal act, or if death be the result of engaging in military or naval service in time of war, without the consent of the company in writing, the liability of the company shall be only the amount of premiums actually paid hereon.

5. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company without notice, but will be accepted elsewhere in exchange for the company's receipt signed by the president, secretary, or treasurer, and countersigned by the receiving agent. Except as hereinafter provided, a failure to pay, when due, any premium or indebtedness against this policy shall render it void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company.

6. GRACE.—A grace of one month, without interest, will be allowed for the payment of any premium on this policy after the first year. The policy will remain in force during the period of grace, but if the insured should die during the period of grace, all outstanding premiums will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

7. ASSIGNMENTS.—Any assignment of this policy, blanks for which purpose were furnished by the company, must be made in duplicate and both copies sent to the office for record, and until such assignments are actually received by the company shall not be held to have notice thereof. Any instalments payable according to either of the above tables, which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the legal representatives of the beneficiary. When an option is elected for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered, upon its maturity, and a supplementary, non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the insured, or by the beneficiary when making such election, the beneficiary cannot at any time surrender the instalment contract for the commutation value of the payments yet to be made.

18. WHEN PAID UP BY DIVIDENDS.—When the cash value of this policy and the cash value of the paid-up additions together equal the single premium on the face amount of this policy at the attained age, it will, upon the request of the insured, be endorsed as a fully paid-up participating policy.

19. AT THE END OF TWENTY YEARS from the date hereof, The Security Mutual Life Insurance Company promises that if all premiums required by the terms of this policy have been paid, the insured, if then living, shall be entitled, subject to any indebtedness on account of this policy, and to the right of any assignee thereof, to select one of the following:

MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—(First) To surrender this policy property and withdraw in cash the entire reserve as shown in the "Loan and Surrender Values" and in addition the value of any additions to the policy. (Second) To ie this policy and any paid up addition thereto as a fully paid up participating life policy entitled to annual dividends. (Third) To withdraw the cash value of any additions and continue the policy as a fully paid up participating life policy entitled to annual dividends. (Fourth) To apply the cash value of this policy and any additions thereto for the purchase of an annuity for the life of the insured. If none of these options are selected within three months settlement shall be made as provided in option "Second."

The reserve liability of the company under this policy, unless otherwise provided by statute, shall be the preliminary term reserve, computed on the American Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent. interest. All values stated in this policy are absolute guarantees.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART 1.—On behalf of myself and of every person who shall have or claim any interest in or under any policy that may be issued under this application by The Security Mutual Insurance Company, of Lincoln, Neb., I represent each of the above answers to be true and complete, and I agree: (1) That the foregoing application, together with answers to be made to the medical examiner in continuation and forming a part of the policy, shall be a consideration for, and the basis of, any such policy. (2) That in any distribution of surplus or dividends the principles and methods which may be adopted by the board of directors of the company, and their determination of the amount of dividends belonging to said policy, shall be and the same are ratified and accepted. (3) That any statement or information given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application, by or to any other person, shall be binding upon the company, or in any manner affect the rights, unless such statement, promise, or information is reduced to writing herein. (4) That the company shall incur no liability under this application until it has been received and approved, and a policy has been issued thereon; nor until the premium has actually been paid to and accepted by the company or its authorized agent during my lifetime and good health, notwithstanding any recital of such payment in the policy itself; provided, that when the premium has been paid in advance to an authorized agent of the company, and the company's binding receipt has been given by such agent, the liability of the company shall be as stated therein. (5) That if I commit suicide, while sane or insane, within two years from date hereof, the limit of liability of the company shall be the amount of premiums paid on the policy hereby applied for. (6) That if, within two years from the date hereof, I shall engage in the military or naval service in time of war without the consent of the company in writing, the limit of liability of the company shall be the amount of premiums paid on the policy hereby applied for. (7) That the contract evidenced by any such policy, and this application, shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Nebraska, the place where said contract is entered into, as well as the place where it is to be performed, being the home office of the company.

PART 2.—I represent on behalf of myself and of every person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued hereunder each of the above answers to be full, complete and true; that I am temperate in my habits, and that I am in sound physical condition and a proper subject for life insurance. And I expressly waive, on behalf of myself and of every such person, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who has attended or examined me, or who may hereafter attend or examine me, from disclosing any knowledge or information which he thereby acquired.

Values in above tables for other years furnished on application.

This policy shall be absolutely incontestable after one year except for non-payment of premiums. This contract is made in consideration of the application for this policy, copy of which is endorsed hereon and made a part hereof, and the payment of the premium of three hundred and ²⁰/₁₀₀ dollars on the first day of February in each year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, and subject to the privileges and provisions stated on the pages hereof which form a part of this contract as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the Southeastern Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its duly authorized officers, at its office in the city of Greenville, S. C., this twenty-ninth day of January, 1914.

PRIVILEGES AND PROVISIONS.

TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE.—From date of issue this policy shall be without restriction to travel and residence.

GRACE.—In payment of any premium, except the first, on this policy a grace of thirty days will be allowed, during which time the policy will remain in full force.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—While this policy is in full force and unassigned, the insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by written request. Such change shall take effect when endorsement thereof is made by the company upon this policy.

SURRENDER OPTIONS.—After three years from date hereof, provided all premiums have been fully paid, and within sixty days from default in the payment of any premium, but not otherwise, the company will grant the following surrender options: (First) A cash surrender value for the amount stated in Table A; or, (second) a paid-up policy for the amount stated in Table B; or, (third) the company will, upon written request of the insured, extend this policy as term insurance for the amount insured, less any indebtedness thereon, for the number of years and months stated in Table B. If there be any indebtedness due the company, the above options will be reduced in proportion such indebtedness bears to their present value, computed according to the company's present standard.

LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid in cash, and while this policy is in full force, the company will loan on the sole security of this policy, upon legal assignment of the same as collateral security, the amount stated in Table A, any indebtedness to the company, and interest on the amount loaned to the end of the current policy year, being first deducted. Interest on such loans shall be payable annually in advance, and if not paid when due, shall be added to the amount of the loan and bear an interest charge. It is especially provided that the company shall have the right to defer any loan under this policy (excepting premium loans), or the granting of any cash surrender value under this policy for a period not exceeding sixty days after application for such loan or cash surrender value shall have been made. Failure to repay any loan or interest thereon shall void this policy whenever the total indebtedness shall exceed the then loan value of this policy.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE CLAUSE.—After three full annual premiums shall have been paid on this policy, if any premium hereon, or other indebtedness, shall not be paid when due or within the period of grace specified in the policy, said premium and successive premiums or other indebtedness, as they become due, shall be charged as automatic policy loans with interest payable annually in advance, as long as the amount of the then loan value, in accordance with the loan privilege of the policy, and the table of loans set forth on the first page hereof, is sufficient to cover such loan and other indebtedness to the company. If at any time the amount of the then loan value, less any indebtedness to the company, be not sufficient to pay the entire premium then due, such value shall be used to pay the premium for a proportionate period. No grace will be allowed under this provision. At any time while the policy is thus continued in force, payment of premiums may be resumed without evidence of insurability being required by the company, and in the event of such reinstatement, if any indebtedness against this policy, incurred through the provisions of this clause, remains unpaid by the insured, such indebtedness shall be a first lien in the company's favor upon the value of this policy, or the loan, with accrued interest from date of reinstatement, may be allowed to stand as a lien against a final settlement under this contract.

AGE.—Any error made in stating age of the insured will be adjusted by the company, paying such amount as the premiums actually paid would purchase at the premium rates for the correct age according to the company's present standard.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and sent to the home office, one copy to be retained by the company and the other returned to the insured. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

SUICIDE.—In the event of self destruction, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of this contract, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premium paid hereon.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse by reason of the non-payment of any premium and is not continued in full under the provisions of the automatic non-forfeiture clause, it may be reinstated at any time, provided the insured shall furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and pay all overdue premiums, and if required, any other indebtedness to the company under this contract to date of reinstatement, with interest thereon.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been actually paid and this contract delivered and accepted during the lifetime and good health of the insured. All premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized agent in exchange for an official receipt therefor, signed by the proper official of the company and countersigned by the agent delivering the receipt. Failure to pay any premium or note given therefor, when due, shall void this policy, and all payments made thereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided in the non-forfeiture provisions. Any indebtedness to the company on account of this contract, as well as the balance of the current year's premium, if any, will be first deducted in any settlement of this policy, or any benefit thereunder. This policy is issued on the preliminary term plan, and for the first year is term insurance, and in consideration of the payment of subsequent premiums as herein provided, it shall be continued as a limited payment life policy.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—Only the president, vice-president, secretary, assistant secretary, actuary or treasurer has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this contract.

All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statements of the insured shall avoid or be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless contained in the written application herefor, copy of which is endorsed hereon or attached hereto.

The reserve to be held for the protection of this policy shall be the reserve according to the Actuaries' or Combined Experience Table of Mortality, assuming interest at the rate of four per cent per annum.

This contract shall be held and construed to be made in the city of Greenville, S. C.

* Adopted October, 1913.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $25,000.

been fully paid, and within sixty days from default in the payment of any premium not otherwise, the company will grant the following surrender options: (First) surrender value for the amount stated in Table A; or, (second) a paid-up policy amount stated in Table B; or, (third) the company will, upon written request of the insured, extend this policy as term insurance for the amount insured, less any indebtedness thereon, for the number of years and months stated in Table B. If the indebtedness due the company, the above options will be reduced in proportion to the indebtedness bears to their present value, computed according to the company's standard.

LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid in cash, this policy is in full force, the company will loan on the sole security of this policy the legal assignment of the same as collateral security, the amount stated in Table A, less any indebtedness to the company, and interest on the amount loaned to the end of the current policy year, being first deducted. Interest on such loans shall be payable annually in advance, and if not paid when due, shall be added to the amount loaned and bear an interest charge. It is especially provided that the company reserves the right to defer any loan under this policy (excepting premium loans), or to require the payment of any cash surrender value under this policy for a period not exceeding six months after application for such loan or cash surrender value shall have been made. No loan or interest thereon shall void this policy whenever the indebtedness shall exceed the then loan value of this policy.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE CLAUSE.—After three full annual premiums have been paid on this policy, if any premium hereon, or other indebtedness, shall be paid when due or within the period of grace specified in the policy, said premiums or other indebtedness, as they become due, shall be considered as automatic policy loans with interest payable annually in advance, as long as the total of the then loan value, in accordance with the loan privilege of the policy, and of loans set forth on the first page hereof, is sufficient to cover such loan and any indebtedness to the company. If at any time the amount of the then loan value is insufficient to cover such loan and any indebtedness to the company, the amount shall be used to pay the entire premium due, and the balance shall be used to pay the premium for a proportionate period. No loan shall be allowed under this provision. At any time while the policy is thus continued, payment of premiums may be resumed without evidence of insurability being required by the company, and in the event of such reinstatement, if any indebtedness to the company, incurred through the provisions of this clause, remains unpaid by the insured, such indebtedness shall be a first lien in the company's favor upon the value of the policy, or the loan, with accrued interest from date of reinstatement, may be allowed as a lien against a final settlement under this contract.

AGE.—Any error made in stating age of the insured will be adjusted by the company so that the amount of the premiums actually paid would purchase at the proper rate the correct age according to the company's present standard.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate at the home office, one copy to be retained by the company and the other returned to the insured. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment made elsewhere.

SUICIDE.—In the event of self destruction, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of this contract, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premium paid hereon.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse by reason of the non-payment of premium and is not continued in full under the provisions of the automatic non-forfeiture clause, it may be reinstated at any time, provided the insured shall furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and pay all overdue premiums, and any other indebtedness to the company under this contract to date of reinstatement, with interest thereon.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium has been actually paid and this contract delivered and accepted during the life and good health of the insured. All premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized agent in exchange for an official receipt therefrom. Failure to pay any premium or note given therefor, when due, shall void this policy, and all payments made thereon shall be forfeited to the company, provided in the non-forfeiture provisions. Any indebtedness to the company under this contract, as well as the balance of the current year's premium, if any, shall be deducted in any settlement of this policy, or any benefit thereunder. This policy is issued on the preliminary term plan, and for the first year is term insurance, and for subsequent years consideration of the payment of subsequent premiums as herein provided, it being continued as a limited payment life policy.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—Only the president, vice-president, secretary, assistant secretary, actuary or treasurer has power on behalf of the company to make any assignment of this contract.

All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed true and correct, and no such statements of the insured shall be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless contained in the written contract, or a copy of which is endorsed hereon or attached hereto.

The reserve to be held for the protection of this policy shall be the reserve to the Actuaries' or Combined Experience Table of Mortality, assuming interest rate of four per cent per annum.

This contract shall be held and construed to be made in the city of Greenville

Southern Life and Trust Company.

*Adopted October, 1913.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $25,000.

Southern Life and Trust Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS— DISABILITY.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $363.

AGE, 35.

Southern Life and Trust Company, Greensboro, N. C. This company hereby insures the life of the insured John Guilford of Greensboro, Guilford County, State of North Carolina, subject to the provisions within stated, for amount of insurance ten thousand dollars, payable immediately upon receipt and approval at its home office in Greensboro, N. C., of proofs of the death of the insured while this policy is in force, to the beneficiary Mary Jane Guilford, wife of the insured, if living, with right to the insured to change the beneficiary, or to such other beneficiary as may, according to the conditions stated herein, be finally designated and recognized by endorsement hereon, and if no such beneficiary be then living, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

Premium three hundred and sixty-three dollars. The stated premium shall be paid on or before the delivery of this policy, and annually thereafter on or before the tenth day of July in each year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums in all have been paid.

The privileges, options and provisions set forth on the second, third and fourth pages hereof form part of this contract and are binding on both parties hereto.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from the date hereof this policy shall be incontestable for the amount due, if all premiums shall have been duly paid. This policy and the application therefor constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid or be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless it is contained in said application.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been stated incorrectly, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

SUICIDE.—If the insured shall commit suicide, while sane or insane, within one year from the date hereof, this policy shall be null and void, except for an amount equal to the sum of the premiums paid hereon.

In witness whereof, The Southern Life and Trust Company, at its home office, in the City of Greensboro, N. C., has caused this contract to be signed by its president and secretary, and to be countersigned by its vice-president or actuary, and dated the fifteenth day of January, 1914.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

CASH OR PREMIUM LOANS.—After payment of premiums for three or more years while this policy is in full force the company will loan on the sole security thereof, properly assigned, an amount which with any existing loan thereon, and with interest to the end of the current policy year on the total loan, shall be equal to, or at the option of the owner less than the limit secured by the Cash Surrender Value (Column I of the Table below). The loan will bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable on the premium-paying anniversary of the policy, and may be paid off at any time while this policy is in full force. If interest be not paid when due it shall bear interest, provided that at all times the entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within the limit secured by the Cash Surrender Value; otherwise non-payment of interest shall render the policy null and void thirty-one days after notice of such non-payment shall have been mailed to the registered address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. Unless the loan is for the purpose of paying premiums due the company, the granting of the same may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding sixty days after application therefor has been filed at its home office.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS, WHEN THIS POLICY HAS BECOME ENTITLED TO LOAN VALUES.—Upon request of the insured and assignee, if any, filed at its home office prior to default in payment of any premium, the company, if any premium thereafter shall not be paid when due, shall first apply any withdrawable surplus to pay the same, and the remainder of the premium due, if any, shall be charged against this policy as a loan, if the loan value then available be sufficient to cover such advance; otherwise the company shall apply any withdrawable surplus, and any loan value then available, to pay the premium ratably for a shorter period, at the expiration of which this policy shall be null and void. Notice of such advance shall be mailed the insured and assignee, if any, and at any time while this policy is thus sustained in force, the payment of premiums may be resumed, without medical examination, but subject to payment of accumulated indebtedness or its settlement by regular loan secured by this policy. No grace shall be allowed under this provision.

GRACE.—In the payment of every premium after the first, thirty-one days of grace without interest are allowed, during which time the insurance shall continue in full force. In the event of death occurring within the days of grace the unpaid premium for the then current year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time after default in payment of premiums, unless this policy has been surrendered or its extension period has expired, it may be reinstated upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and the payment on reinstatement of all arrears of premiums and indebtedness, with interest thereon at six per cent per annum, from date of default.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Subject to the interest of any assignee, provided the right to change the beneficiary has not been waived, the insured may change and successively change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by notice to the company, at its home office, in writing, accompanied by this policy, such change to become effective only when endorsed hereon by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise expressly provided herein.

CHANGE OF PLAN.—Should the insured desire to change this policy to some other regular form of policy of the same amount, requiring the payment of a higher rate of premium yearly, he has, prior to default in payment of any premium, and subject to the interest of any assignee, the following options of conversion, without medical examination, before attaining the rated age of fifty: (First) To change to any such plan then issued by this company on the payment of the regular premium therefor, at the then age of the insured, less such yearly reduction of premium as may be allowed in consideration of the past payments on this policy; or (Second) To change to a new policy to be counted as from the same age and date as this policy and upon any of the higher rate plans of insurance now issued by the company, by paying the difference between the past payments under this policy and the corresponding payments that would have been required for such other policy, together with interest on such differences at the rate of six per centum per annum. Any loan value available by the terms of the new policy may be used in making settlement on conversion.

Should the insured furnish evidence of continued good health satisfactory to the company he can avail himself of either option at any time during the continuance of this policy.

DIVIDEND OPTIONS.

ANNUAL DIVIDEND METHODS.—At the end of the second policy year and annually thereafter, if the insured is living and premiums have been duly paid hereon, this policy, if further continued in force by payment of premiums, shall be entitled to dividends as then apportioned, for use at the insured's option in one of the following methods:

First Method: To reduce the premium for the next policy year; or Second Method: To purchase paid-up additional insurance, of the same kind as this policy; such paid-up additions may be surrendered at any time for their cash value, which shall be at least the amount originally applied to their purchase; or Third Method: Left with the company, accumulate at interest credited annually at the average net rate realized on its other funds. The accumulations thus created will be paid in addition to the amount provided for in this policy, in any final settlement, if not otherwise used, or may be withdrawn by the insured at any time.

AUTOMATIC PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS BY DIVIDENDS.—If thirty-one days after the due date of premium no selection has been filed at the home office of the company, dividends shall be applied according to the first method. The insured may, at any time, elect to change the method to be employed; provided, however, that if the first or the third method be employed at any time, the insured thereafter shall not be entitled to elect the second method without the consent of the company. When all premiums required by this policy shall have been fully paid, the dividends shall be paid in cash, unless the insured shall have selected either the second or the third method above provided.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO MAKE POLICY FULLY PAID-UP.—Whenever the reserve held on this policy, and its paid-up additions, if any, together with any accumulated dividends credited hereon, shall equal the reserve on a fully paid-up policy of this same kind and amount for the then age of the insured at nearest birthday, then upon due request filed at its home office and the release of such dividends and paid-up additions, the company will endorse this policy as fully paid-up.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO MATURE POLICY AS AN ENDOWMENT.—Whenever the cash surrender value of this policy and of any paid-up additions hereto, together with any accumulated dividends credited hereon, shall equal the full amount of this policy, then or thereafter, during the lifetime of the insured, upon surrender of this policy and release of such dividends and paid-up additions at its home office, the company will pay to the insured or his assigns the amount of this policy as a matured endowment, less any indebtedness to the company hereon.

NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.

After three years' premiums shall have been paid in full, if default shall be made in the payment of any subsequent premium, this policy will be entitled to the following privileges:

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—The insured on legal surrender of this policy to the company at its home office within thirty-one days after the due date of such premium may, receive the cash surrender value (Column 1 below); provided, that the company reserves the right to defer such payment of cash value for not exceeding sixty days from the date that written request therefor is filed with the company at its home office; or

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of such cash surrender value, provided there be no prior indebtedness hereon, the insured may elect, by written request filed at the home office, within the same period, and accompanied by this policy for proper endorsement, to have this policy continued from said date as paid-up insurance for a reduced amount, according to Column 2 of the table below, corresponding to the number of years' premiums paid, or

The first instalment will be payable upon receipt and approval of proofs of the insured, and subsequent instalments will be payable on the succeeding series of such payment thereafter; any existing indebtedness to the company of this policy to be deducted from the first instalment or instalments due. If the insured should die before the completion of the instalment payments, the unpaid instalments will be paid thereafter to the executor, administrator, or assigns of the insured. The insured may at any time subsequently change any selection of instalments desired, as above illustrated, and may also revoke any selection, thereby a policy payable in one sum. Each selection, change or revocation of selection requested by the insured in writing, and will not take effect until endorsed on by the company at its home office. The beneficiary can neither assign nor unpaid instalments, unless such right is given to the beneficiary by the insured and is endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office, during the insured. Provision may be made for payment in monthly, quarterly, or instead of annual instalments. The instalments as limited above, or the first instalments in the case of continuous instalments, will be increased by any which may be apportioned thereto.

DECLARATION IN APPLICATION.

I declare that I am temperate in my habits and that my health now and is good; and I agree that the above statements and the answers made, or to be made, to the medical examiner, in continuance of this application, are correct, true, and are offered to the company as the basis of the policy, should any of the methods which may be adopted by the company for any distribution and its determination of the amount apportioned to said policy are hereby for every person who shall have an interest in said policy; and that all provisions forbidding any physician who has, or shall have attended me, from disclosing all information which he acquired or may acquire by such attendance, are hereby waived, and such waiver is part of the consideration for any policy to be issued. I also agree to accept said policy when issued and pay the first premium thereon, and that said policy shall not take effect until the first premium has been paid during my life and good health. I agree that if full settlement be not made for the premium when due, or if any check, note or other obligation given in settlement be not fully paid when due, said policy shall thereupon become void except as provided for in the policy; and that should I die by my own hand or act, or involuntarily, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of execution of any of any policy based upon this application, the liability of the company shall be held to be waived and the policy null and void, except for an amount equal to the sum of the premiums paid thereon; that the premium or payment for the first year may be used by the company to pay current death claims and expenses and that in such cases all necessary reserves may be accumulated solely for subsequent premiums; and that the contract shall be held to have been made at the place in the State of North Carolina.

will waive the payment of premiums during such disability, and the loan values of the policy shall be the same as if the premiums had been paid in cash, but such loan shall cease: or, Option (b) Upon legal surrender of this policy no further loan will be required and the company will pay the face amount of this policy in equal annual installments, the first payment of such installments to be made only upon the approval by the company of the aforesaid proofs; provided that the loan advanced to the company on account of this policy shall reduce the amount of the face of the policy in the same proportion that said indebtedness bears to three-fourths of the face of this policy. Proofs must be filed promptly at the home office of the company at which place any installments hereunder shall be payable. Proofs of continuing disability satisfactory to the company shall be furnished as often as requested by the company in writing and the company shall be permitted to examine the insured from time to time. Should disability not prove both total and permanent during its prior acceptance of proof thereof, the company may require that the installments shall be resumed by the insured and installment payments, if any, shall be discontinued, and this policy shall thereupon be reinstated for the full term, any liens unpaid prior to disability together with any such installments and accrued interest thereon, constituting a lien on this policy with interest thereon.

CAUSES OF DISABILITY.—In addition to or independently of all other causes of permanent disability the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of sight of both eyes or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists or of both feet at or above the ankles or of one entire hand and one entire foot as total disability within the meaning of this provision.

Y OR NAVAL SERVICE.—If the insured shall engage in military or naval service of war this provision shall thereupon be null and void.

ATION.—On any anniversary of this policy this provision may be cancelled or reduced, in which event the subsequent premiums on this policy will be reduced by the amount of additional premium charged for this provision and such reduction shall be as provided herein.

mium which may fall due under this policy, after the insured has attained the age of sixty, shall be reduced by the amount of additional premium charged for this

ENT PRIVILEGES.—If this policy is not assigned, the insured, at any time in force, or the beneficiary, upon the death of the insured while it is in force, have the right to receive the proceeds of this policy in one sum, payment by annual instalments as stated below, or in any other manner provided for in the following provisions:

The first instalment will be payable upon receipt and approval of proofs of the insured, and subsequent instalments will be payable on the success of such payment thereafter; any existing indebtedness to the company of this policy to be deducted from the first instalment or instalments due. The beneficiary should die before the completion of the instalment payments, the instalments will be paid thereafter to the executor, administrator, or assigns of the insured. The insured may at any time subsequently change any selection of instalments desired, as above illustrated, and may also revoke any selection, thereby making the policy payable in one sum. Each selection, change or revocation of selection requested by the insured in writing, and will not take effect until endorsed by the company at its home office. The beneficiary can neither assign nor receive unpaid instalments, unless such right is given to the beneficiary by the insured and is endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office, during the life of the insured. Provision may be made for payment in monthly, quarterly, or instead of annual instalments. The instalments as limited above, or the instalments in the case of continuous instalments, will be increased by a percentage which may be apportioned thereto.

DECLARATION IN APPLICATION.

I declare that I am temperate in my habits and that my health now is good; and I agree that the above statements and the answers made, or to be made, to the medical examiner, in continuance of this application, are true, and are offered to the company as the basis of the policy, should any of the methods which may be adopted by the company for any distribution of the amount apportioned to said policy are hereafter determined by the company; and that all provisions forbidding any physician who has, or shall have attended me, from disclosing all information which he acquired or may acquire by such attendance, are hereby waived, and such waiver is part of the consideration for any policy to be issued upon this application. I also agree to accept said policy when issued and pay the premium thereon, and that said policy shall not take effect until the first premium is paid during my life and good health. I agree that if full settlement be not made when due, or if any check, note or other obligation given in settlement be not fully paid when due, said policy shall thereupon become void except as provided for in the policy; and that should I die by my own hand or act, involuntary, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of execution of any policy based upon this application, the liability of the company to be held to be waived and the policy null and void, except for an amount of the premiums paid thereon; that the premium or payment for the policy may be used by the company to pay current death claims and expenses and that in such cases all necessary reserves may be accumulated solely for subsequent premiums; and that the contract shall be held to have been made in the State of North Carolina.

Southern States Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $278.80. AGE, 30

The Southern States Life Insurance Company of Alabama will pay ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness to the company, to Jane Doe, wife of the insured, the beneficiary hereunder at its general office in the city of Atlanta, Ga., immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, of Atlanta in the county of Fulton, and State of Georgia, the insured hereunder, while the policy is in full force.

INCONTESTABILITY.—The policy, if kept in force by the payment of premiums, shall be incontestable from the date of issue except in the event of self-destruction, which sane or insane, within one year from such date in which case the company will pay the amount of the premium received on the policy.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—After two full annual premiums shall have been paid on the policy, if any premiums hereon or other indebtedness, shall not be paid when due or within the period of grace hereinafter mentioned, said premium and accrued premiums or other indebtedness, as they become due, shall be charged as an automatic policy loan at five per cent interest, payable annually in advance, as long as the amount of the then loan value, in accordance with the loan privilege of the policy and the list of cash loans hereinafter set forth, together with the cash value of the accumulated dividends to its credit, are sufficient to cover such loan and all other indebtedness to the company. If at any time the sum of the then loan value, less any indebtedness to the company, and the cash value of accumulated dividends, be not sufficient to pay the premium then due, such amounts shall be used to pay the premium for a proportionate period. No grace will be allowed under this provision. At any time while the policy is thus continued in force, payment of premiums may be resumed without any evidence of insurability being required by the company.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty days, without interest, in addition to intervening Sundays and legal holidays, will be allowed in the payment of premiums (except under the automatically non-forfeitable provision) after payment of the first year's premium on the policy, during which period the policy shall remain in full force and effect. If the policy becomes a claim by death during the grace period, the premium then due will be deemed in any settlement hereof.

DIVIDENDS.—The policy, if kept in force, shall at the end of the first year from the renewal date hereof and annually thereafter, share in the surplus as apportioned by the company, which apportionment shall be based upon the policy's contribution to the surplus funds of the company. Dividends may be applied either (1) towards payment of any premium due, or (2) upon satisfactory proof of good health, to increase the sum insured hereunder, or (3) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest compounded at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, and payable in the event of death, with the sum insured, or withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy.

POLICY PAID-UP BY APPLICATION OF DIVIDENDS.—Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the dividends left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, together with the accrued interest thereon, shall be sufficient to prepay all future premiums hereon, according to the standard then in use by the company, the insured shall be notified and may, at his option, so apply same.

POLICY MATURED AS AN ENDOWMENT BY DIVIDENDS.—Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the accumulated dividends to the credit of the policy, together with the accrued interest thereon and the reserve, shall be equal to or greater than the original sum insured, the insured may, at his option, elect to have the same matured as an endowment for the combined amount.

SURPLUS PAID WITH SUM INSURED.—In the event of the death of the insured, the accumulated dividends to the credit of the policy, together with the accrued interest thereon, will be paid with the sum insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—The policy, provided it has not been surrendered to the company, may be reinstated at any time on application therefor, upon evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company, and upon payment of all arrears of premium with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, and reinstatement of payment of all indebtedness thereon, outstanding at the time of lapse.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The beneficiary shall not, by virtue of the terms of the policy, have any vested interest hereunder; and the insured may, before the maturity of the policy, change the beneficiary named herein, if the policy is not then assigned, if there be no vested right to the proceeds of the policy arising otherwise than under the terms hereof, upon filing a written request with the company at its general office in the form as it may require; but no change shall take effect unless endorsement thereon shall have been made hereon by the president or secretary.

ASSIGNMENT OF POLICY.—Every assignment of the policy (blanks for which purpose are furnished by the company) must be made in duplicate and both copies sent to the general office of the company. One will be filed and one will be returned. The claim of any assignee shall be subject to proof of interest and to any indebtedness to the company, including advances of premiums under the automatically non-forfeitable provision, whether made before or after the assignment. The company will not be required for the validity of the assignment in any event.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the insured's age is mis-stated in the application, the company will adjust any settlement hereof by paying such amount as the premium actually paid will purchase at the correct age, in accordance with the rates published in the company's rate book at the time of issue.

PREMIUMS, WHEN AND WHERE PAYABLE.—The policy shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been actually paid while the insured is in good health, and the possession of the policy is not evidence that the premium has been paid. All premiums are due annually in advance and payable at the general office of the company in the City of Atlanta, Ga., but may be paid to an authorized agent of the company in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such agent. If any premium or other indebtedness or any obligation given for any premium be not paid when due, the policy shall thereupon be void, except as herein provided.

The premium for the first year shall be applied to the expense and mortality of the year.

INDEBTEDNESS.—The unpaid balance, if any, of the year's premium and all premiums for which notes have been given or credit extended, and interest and other obligations of the company remaining unpaid, shall be a first lien upon the policy and shall be deducted from any amount payable on account of the policy. All indebtedness to the company on the policy shall be subject to an interest charge of five per cent per annum, payable in advance.

AUTHORITY OF AGENTS.—No agent is authorized to make, alter or discharge this contract, to waive any forfeiture hereof, to make any agreement to bind the company or to extend the time for payment of any premium.

LOAN AND SURRENDER PRIVILEGES.

LOANS.—Provided all premiums shall have been paid up to the then next anniversary of the policy, the company, at any time on demand, after the policy has been in force one full year from the payment of the first annual premium, will advance against the sole security of the policy, up to the respective sums mentioned in the table of cash loans herein set forth, less any indebtedness to the company. The interest upon all such indebtedness shall be at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable in advance. Any such loan shall be subject to the regulations of the company then in force in regard to policy loans.

SURRENDER.—At any time after two full annual premiums shall have been paid hereon and while the policy is in full force, the insured shall be entitled, on written request and surrender of the policy, to a participating policy, (1) for a fractional amount of insurance for the whole life of the insured, as shown by the table of paid-up values herein set forth, or (2) for the original sum insured hereunder, but for a fractional period, as shown by the table of period of extension herein set forth. These values shall be claimable only in the event that there be no indebtedness on the policy. If there be any indebtedness from the insured to the company, and if the policy is surrendered within three months after default on the part of the insured to pay any premium hereunder, the amount of such paid-up insurance will be such as the loan value, less any indebtedness, will purchase, applied as a single net premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at three per cent; or the amount of such paid-up term policy shall be the sum insured hereunder less the amount of such indebtedness, and the period for which the insurance will be extended will be such as the loan value, less such indebtedness, will carry the reduced amount according to said three per cent American Experience Table.

MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—The insured, with power of revocation, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, may, by written notice to the company at its general office in Atlanta, Ga., elect to have the net sum payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of an annuity equal to three per cent of such net sum, payable at the end of each year from the date of the death of the insured during the lifetime of the beneficiary and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any accrued portion of the annuity for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. (2) By

The payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with option 2 in the table following paragraph (3) for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal instalments, payable at the beginning of each year from the date of the death of the insured, for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. Any instalments payable under options 2 and 3, which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. When any option calling for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplementary non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the insured or by the beneficiary in making such election, the beneficiary may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of the instalments for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option 2 on the following table; provided that no such surrender and commutation shall be made under option 3, except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.
